PRICE FIVE CENTS

STUDENT VOLUNTEERS.

Trinity Sends Representatives to Convention at Kansas City.

The Seventh International Convention of the Student Volunteer Movement will be held in the Convention Hall, Kansas City, Missouri, beginning Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 31, 1913, and closing on the evening of January 4, 1914.

For the first time Trinity College will be in a position to send delegates to this important meeting, and Howard Hill, '15, J. A. Mitchell, '15, E. P. Wroth, '14, are the men selected to make the trip. Part of the funds for this undertaking have been supplied by the concert given by the Glee Club last Monday night.

The first of these meetings was held in 1891 in Cleveland, Ohio, and since then there has been one every three or four years, each time with increasing attendance and support.

There have also been five other conventions of a similar character held in England, the most recent one meeting last year in Liverpool.

This convention at Kansas City will be composed of representative students (men and women) from no less than 800 universities, colleges, theological seminaries and other leading institutions of higher learning in the United States and Canada. Also there will be one member from the faculty of each of these institutions, and in addition, the secretaries employed by the Students', Young Men's and Young Women's Christian Associations. The basis of student representation is: two delegates from each institution and one additional delegate for each 200 students or fraction thereof above the first 200 students matriculated in the institution.

The purpose of this meeting is fourfold: (1) To bring together at Kansas City representative delegations of students and professors from all important institutions of higher learning in Canada and the United States, and leaders of the foreign missionary enterprise, for helpful association and conference; (2) to consider unitedly the problems of the evangelization of the non-Christian world; (3) to gain inspiration and a vision of the foreign missionary responsibilities of the Church; (4) to pray and earnestly resolve to enter with greater consecration upon the work of extending the Kingdom of Christ among the non-Christian nations."

Besides the daily discussions about questions concerning the development and promotion of the Student Volunteer Movement, there will be addresses every evening by some of the ablest missionary speakers of North America and other fields of enterprise. There will also be an exhibit of literature for the purpose of showing the students what is being done in Church activities at home and abroad.

A. A. MEETING.

S. H. Edsall Elected Football Manager on Stites' Resignation.

At a meeting of the Athletic Association held on Tuesday evening, S. H. Edsall was elected manager of the football team for next year. Owing to the necessity of F. B. Stites, the present assistant manager, leaving college, the election lay between Edsall, Brainerd and Bailey, and resulted in Edsall's election after some very close balloting. Edsall is a member of the Sophomore Dining Club, plays second man and is manager of the Tennis Team and is one of the best weight throwers in college.

The candidates for assistant manager were C. B. Spofford, R. B. O'Connor, Bond and Spencer. On ballot Spofford was elected. Spofford is a member of the Sophomore Dining Club and has one of the best voices in college, singing in the college quartet.

The question of voting by proxy was raised and a motion was passed that hereafter it would be abolished in all A. A. elections unless the men so voting could give a reasonable excuse.

MARYLAND ALUMNI MEET.

Annual Banquet in Baltimore. Dr. Luther Present.

The Maryland Alumni Association held their annual banquet at the University Club in Baltimore on the evening of Thursday, December 11th. The meeting was well attended. It was unusually enthusiastic even for this lively little association.

B. Howell Griswold, Esquire, '66, supported by two of his classmates, William F. Johnson and Felix R. Sullivan, presided. Addresses were made by the Rev. Herbert Parish, '91, by Mr. Steiner, representing Yale, and Edgar Allen Poe, representing Princeton, and by President Luther.

On the following day Dr. Luther visited the Tome School in Port Deposit, a young and rapidly growing institution. This school has an extraordinarily fine equipment, and is happy in the possession of a very large endowment, which should in time make it one of the strongest and best preparatory schools in the country.

This will be extremely practicable for all who intend to lead mission study classes, or who are desirous of becoming acquainted with the best information on foreign missions.

The Trinity men who intend to make the trip, expect to meet in Pittsburgh on December 29th and leave that evening for Kansas City.

DRAMATIC CLUB REHEARSALS.

Progress Steady. Mrs. Henry Perkins Coaching Cast.

The Dramatic Club held rehearsals on Monday, December 15th, and on Wednesday, December 17th, the first being at the home of Miss Frances Williams, and the latter at Parsons' Theater, Hartford. The cast for the production of "The Prince and the Pauper," selected a short time before the first rehearsal, will be comprised of the following: the Misses Mildred Corson, Frances Williams, and Esther Lyman, and Messrs. W. Spofford, Brainerd, Hill, Barthelmess, Ives, Nilsson, T. W. Little, A. Mitchell, in the principal parts, and with Mr. O. Craik as stage manager, playing a minor part. Professor Brenton, who started to direct the play, resigned from his position, much to the regret of all under his tutelage, but his place has been most capably filled by Mrs. Henry Perkins, wife of Professor Perkins of the physics department.

Mrs. Perkins' charming manner and knowledge of the stage at once won over "The Jesters", and under her strict and just direction the players are gaining strength in action and speaking.

At the rehearsal on December 17th, the first act was rehearsed only, the players being "letter perfect" in the two scenes of that act. The reason for holding the rehearsal at Parsons' Theater was to experience the larger stage and to test the volume of the voices over the footlights, on the stage where the play is to be given. The start of the rehearsals has been so broken and interrupted that the progress has consequently been much retarded. Also the break of the Christmas holidays will set the progress back a fortnight at least, so Mrs. Perkins has expressed a desire to rush the rehearsals as quickly as possible on the return to college after the recess. The rehearsals will continue to be held as often as is convenient to Mrs. Perkins, at the homes of various young ladies, at Parsons' Theater, and at Alumni Hall.

The "Jesters" are greatly indebted to Professor Brenton for his pains and good wishes before his resignation, and to Mrs. Perkins for her willingness to take up the work where Professor Brenton left off, and for her wonderful direction.

Dr. Luther Away.

Dr. and Mrs. Luther left Hartford yesterday morning for Atlantic City where they plan to spend about two weeks.

GLEE CLUB CONCERTS.

Marked Improvement Shown By Musical Organization.

On Monday evening, in Alumni Hall, the glee club gave an informal concert for the benefit of the delegates to the Student Volunteer Convention in Kansas City. The attendance was good, and the proceeds will be of great assistance to the delegates.

The club, which up until Monday night had given evidence of no great promise, showed a marked improvement over its work in former concerts. The men sang well and with a great deal of spirit, although one or two numbers were poorly rendered. Perhaps the most artistically executed number on the program, was "De Coppah Moon," a piece which requires some very fine and exact voice-shading. Mr. Weyhe's persistent efforts to make this a star number, were certainly amply rewarded. The quartet, composed of Fort, W. B. Spofford, Shelley, and B. Spofford, was received with great enthusiasm, and deserved its large share of applause.

In the line of soloists, the club is unusually fortunate in the possession of Fort, Shelley, and W. B. Spofford. Fort's work is always well done and never fails to move his audience. Shelley's baritone solo was accorded almost as much applause as was Fort's. Spofford sang a new song by Rosenbaum, ex-'14, and made the hit of the evening with this, and with two other songs of Rosenbaum's.

The program follows:

- 1 (a) There's a College on the Hill.
(b) Drinking Song.
- 2 Solo. Mr. Fort
- 3 Hawaiian Melodies.
- 4 Quartet.
- 5 Sapphire Seas.
- 6 De Coppah Moon.
- 7 Solo. Mr. Shelley
- 8 Luella Lee.
- 9 Solo. Mr. Spofford
- 10 Quartet.
- 11 College Songs.
- 12 'Neath the Elms.

The mandolin club accompanied the glee club in the Hawaiian Melodies, and though the two did not work together with much smoothness, this number should be one of the best if it is practiced sufficiently.

Tuesday night the club gave a concert in Newington. In spite of the fact that the number of the singers almost equalled the number of those in the audience, the affair was a success. The men sang as well as they did the night before, and proved conclusively that the club had "struck its stride."

"NOW THEN TRINITY"

Tipplers, Attention!

The Tripod has been honored with the receipt of a copious supply of literature disseminated by the Intercollegiate News Service of the National Prohibition Association. It is with regret that we announce that lack of space compels us to disappoint our readers by not publishing this mass of valuable data. As the "Coon Club" has been long defunct, owing to a chronic state of deadlock over offices, (vide old Ivies) the Tripod is considering the advisability of turning over the literature in question to the secretary of the Sophomore Dining Club.

The fact that the National Prohibition Association offers a number of prizes for the best speeches by college students, advocating the prohibition cause, should prove of interest to the less bibulous members of the Debating Association and of the English 8 class.

Senate Meeting.

Tripod Room,
Friday, Dec. 12, 1913.

A special meeting of the Senate was called to order by President Fitzpatrick at 12.50. Roll-call showed Messrs. Burgwin, Howell, Myers, de Ronge and Stites absent.

President Fitzpatrick spoke of the glee club concert to be given in Alumni Hall Monday evening, and requested all present to urge the men in the units they represent, to support it. He also spoke of the petition of the Tennis Association that it might be supported by the Athletic Association. After discussion, a motion was made by Mr. Roberts that the president appoint a committee to take up the matter with Mr. Hamilton. Seconded and carried. President Fitzpatrick appointed Mr. Burgwin to act with himself on this committee.

It was decided to hold a college smoker the third Friday in January.

On motion of Mr. Hudson, the meeting adjourned.

ROBERT E. CROSS,
Secretary pro tem.

Communication.

To the Editor of the Tripod:

We of Trinity have many things to be proud of in our life here; things for which we justly feel that other colleges should envy us, both in our athletics and in our ordinary student life. But there still exist among us things that do us no credit and of which we may well be ashamed. It is for the Trinity of the future to rid us of some of these, but of others we of this Trinity can dispose. There is an organization here which exists for no useful purpose and the functions of which consist only of unhealthiness. I refer to the Sophomore Dining Club. Supposedly an honorary society for the more prominent second-year men, it has degenerated into an organization for the possession of which political deals are hatched, by which tremendous jealousy among members of classes and fraternities is caused and absolutely no good thing is accomplished. The only thing the club does the whole year through beyond reproducing itself by means that often are crooked and underhanded, is to meet at a banquet downtown at which large quantities of liquor are consumed, and far too many putrid stories are put into circulation. It is a significant thing that recent S. D. C. banquets have been losing their old-time likeness to orgies of drunkenness and disgracefulness, but they still are a thing that do Trinity College no credit. To an outsider present at one of these it would seem that the most prominent members of the two middle classes were not a particularly attractive lot of men. And it is not true, and we all of us know it, that the ideals of the Sophomore Dining Club are the ideals of the most prominent men in the sophomore class. It may have once been so, but in these later days, when Trinity stands for high moral purpose, and effectiveness in the world's work, it is not so. Since, then, the Sophomore Dining Club stands for things that are foreign to Trinity, things which Trinity men as a whole are trying to combat, the Sophomore Dining Club must go. In its fifteen odd years of existence, it has accomplished nothing of good for the college, nor for the class which it represented.

I do not mean to throw discredit on the Sophomore Dining Club of the Class of 1916. The personnel of the club is just as good as that of any of its predecessors. But it is the things for which the S. D. C. stands, and what its elections bring forth in the way of bad feeling, to which I make my objection. And I think, from having discussed the matter with several men about college, both members of the club and non-members, that the opinion of the thinking men at Trinity is the same.

The means by which this organization may be driven from the college are several. It may be abolished by faculty rule, or the Senate may destroy it. But if the fraternities would take the matter into their hands, for fraternity men are the backbone of the club, and severally vote against having their members join the Sophomore Dining Club, it seems to me that that would be the best way. As it now stands, it is a disgrace to us all.

Junior Assembly.

The junior class will hold an assembly in Alumni Hall Thursday evening, January 15th, the proceeds of which are to be used in partially defraying the expenses of the junior promenade. No taxicabs or flowers will be allowed, but the dance is to be formal as regards evening dress. The committee in charge is composed of C. M. Ingersoll of Ridgefield, H. R. Hill of Brooklyn, N. Y., and E. L. Pollock of Chicago, Ill. Final arrangements as to the number of dances and the patronesses have yet to be made, but it is announced that Hatch's orchestra of Hartford will probably furnish the music, and that dancing will last from 8.30 until about 1 o'clock. No supper will be served.

Tickets for couples will be one dollar each and fifty cents for stags.

"Keeping in Front"

You fellows know what that means! We've been very successful in this regard with Fatima Cigarettes. By the way, these cigarettes were first sold in the college towns—and you agreed with us that they were good.

Then we put out for the big race, to make Fatimas of nation-wide reputation, and today more are sold than any other cigarette in this country.

No purer, or more carefully chosen tobacco grows than that in Fatimas. We purposely put them in a plain inexpensive wrapper—in this way we can afford quality tobacco, and twenty of the smokes for 15 cents.

Now your college crew is of utmost importance to you—so is a good cigarette, and it's your aim in life to keep Fatimas in the lead—right up to their good quality—right up to where you first found them, and will always find them.

Success fellows! You started this cigarette on its successful career—and you pull a strong oar all over this country.
