Maine Collegians Hold Blue and Gold to Scoreless Tie.

Costly fumbling by Trinity when on the very threshold of victory enabled Bowdoin to hold the wearers of the Blue and Gold to a scoreless tie, on Whittier Field at Brunswick, Me., last Saturday. Three times Trinity's smashing attack carried the ball to within easy striking distance of the Bowdoin goal-line—only to lose possession of the pigskin by fumbles.

In the first period, mainly through Ives' great work, Trinity got within Bowdoin's 15-yard line, but there lost the ball on a fumble. Lewis then punted and Ives ran the ball back to Bowdoin's 35-yard line. A series of gains by the Trinity backs had again carried the pigskin to the hostile 14-yard line when time was called for the quarter.

Gains by Captain Hudson and Coffee, in the second period, brought the ball down to Bowdoin's 6-yard line and a Trinity touchdown seemed imminent. But Hudson dropped the ball on a line plunge, Foster of Bowdoin recovering.

Again, in the last quarter, Trinity had a touchdown within arm's reach, and tossed her chance away. With the ball inside Bowdoin's 5-yard line, and with the Maine defence showing signs of crumbling, Hudson fumbled, and Trinity's last chance was gone.

Bowdoin also was guilty of fumbling, losing its one chance of a score through this fault. The Maine men, however, showed greater facility at recovering the ball after a fumble than their rivals did. Trinity's defence was far superior to that of the Maine eleven. The Blue and Gold line was almost impregnable, Bowdoin making but one first down during the whole game.

Captain Hudson, Coffee, Ives, Cole, Smith and Woolley all starred for Trinity. Hudson ripped up the Bowdoin line for big gains, and was a huge factor in Trinity's defence. Coffee was a consistent ground-gainer. Ives, at quarterback, played a brilliant game, running his team with excellent judgment, and making some big gains himself. Cole and Smith, at the two ends, both played scintillating games. Woolley's work at tackle was also a feature.

Kinney, Trinity's big center, was kicked in the head in the last period, and had to be taken from the field.

For Bowdoin, the individual stars were Lewis, Weatherill, Leadbetter and Foster. The punting of Lewis was one of the features of the game.

SCRUBS LOSE TO POMFRET.

Fast School Eleven Defeats Second Team 21 to 0.

The second football team journeyed to Putnam Saturday and opened its schedule with the strong eleven of Pomfret school which came off victorious by a score of 21 to 0. The prep school team is known to be one of the best in New England, as was shown by the sound beating it administered last week to the Wesleyan freshmen. Pomfret played a quick snappy game and worked such a maze of trick plays that the seconds were bewildered. The school boys scored three touchdowns and were never in danger of being scored upon. In the first quarter a 5-yard gain by Iverson through tackle, was followed by more long gains, principally around the ends, by Robinson and Cordon. Five minutes after the whistle had blown a pretty forward pass from Robinson to Blake scored Pomfret's first touchdown. Blake kicked the goal.

In the second quarter a 30-yard run by Robinson resulted in another touchdown and he kicked the goal. The most spectacular play of the game came in the third quarter. Leland kicked off and Robinson, catching the ball on Pomfret's 15-yard line, dodged back through the Trinity team for an 85-yard run and a touchdown. Robinson then kicked the goal.

Robinson was half the team for Pomfret and played a sterling game. For the seconds no player stood out, but all fought hard and did the best they could. The scrubs were seriously hampered by the absence of the 'varsity substitutes who play on the second team in daily practice. Only five men in the line-up that faced Pomfret have been playing regularly on the second team.

The summary:

Pomfret		Trinity Second

SUNDAY SERVICE.

The Reverend Cranston Brenton Preaches in Chapel.

At the 10.30 p. m., service in the chapel Sunday morning the Reverend Cranston Brenton preached from the twentieth verse of the fifth chapter of the Book of Isaiah: "Woe unto them that call evil good and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter." In the time that this was written, Professor Brenton went on to say, there was great prosperity among the Jews and they were suffering from it. The poorer classes were oppressed, the rich were depraved and dishonest, and the government was weak and corrupt. The Church was strong, but it was led by mercenary false prophets, who preached to the people that which the people wanted to hear and not that which it was good for them to hear. These conditions have existed since then, the preacher went on to say. To cite a specific instance, in the case of Macbeth, who was a loyal, honest general, till too great prosperity came upon him and he became a murderer and fiend. Likewise today, our public men seem corrupt and our business men dishonest. In the case of all these they fail to keep their high standards of right and wrong. They call evil good, and good evil. In college it often happens that a man's moral standards change in this same way. Older men tell the younger that certain things he has previously known to be wrong are not wrong and he does things he would not do if he had not allowed his standards to change. He hears things called not by their right names but by others less disagreeable and less suggestive of wickedness. Truth is perverted and he is led astray. We should therefore, call all evil things by their correct names. In modern plays the tendency is to suggest evil things by glossing them over and making them as attractive as possible. Therefore these plays are degrading.

Then Professor Brenton went on to state that conscience was our God-given guide in such matters, and that if we listened to it we could not be led astray. We should all, particularly here at college, listen to it for if we go out into the world with our morals perverted and our souls spotted with sin, we bring a stain, not only on ourselves but on the college as well.

"NOW THEN TRINITY"

It is a strange fact, but true, that some men in college work harder to get their degrees without working than those who start out originally with the idea that nothing worth while can be obtained without work. Think this over and you will see what we mean.

Notice.

There will be a meeting of the athletic association in the history room Friday evening directly following the college singing. The purpose of the meeting is to elect a manager of the baseball team to fill the vacancy made by the resignation of Hodge, '15.

Freshman-Sophomore Football.

The annual football game between the freshmen and the sophomores is scheduled for next Monday afternoon, October 20. From present indications the sophomore team appears to be the stronger of the two, with a backfield composed of Perkins, Jennings, Aldrich, and Lyon, as well as an excellent line, but the 1917 team will undoubtedly put up a good fight with such men as Bradley, Jepson, Armstrong, and Rainsbury in the line-up.

Freshman-Junior Banquet Rules.

The committee appointed by President Fitzpatrick of the Senate to draw up rules for the annual Freshman-Junior Banquet, has prepared the following, which, with one or two exceptions, are the same as last year's.

1—The banquet must be held within forty miles, by steam railroad, of Hartford and may not be held in Hartford.

2—It must not be held earlier than December 1, nor later than December 20.

3—It may not take place on the night of the football smoker, nor on the night of the sophomore hop, nor on the nights following either of these events. The date of the hop must be announced before November 24.

4—Captures may be made, by either class, but no detention from chapel or classes is permitted. Paroles are not to be given or accepted.

5—Destruction of private property is contrary to the sentiment of the student body, as is likewise any interference with the rights or customs of any persons not strictly interested in the banquet.

Sophomore Hop Committee.

As yet the date for the sophomore hop has not been decided upon. Landon Cole, chairman of the committee, says it will probably be on or about the first Friday in December. The following men will compose the committee: Lyon, Morris, Ferris, Thorne, Schmitt, Peck, Hale, Meyer, Woolley, Dowling, and Rask.

Meeting of the 1915 Ivy Board.

The 1915 Ivy board held its first meeting of the fall at 70 Vernon Street, last Friday night. The meeting was called primarily to get under way the preparations for work on the coming Ivy, and to learn what had already been accomplished or planned by members of the board during the summer. The entire board, with one exception, was present, and a number of suggestions were heard and discussed. In the death of A. E. Barns, during the past summer, the board lost one of its members. His successor has not yet been appointed. J. A. Mitchell, secretary of the board, was instructed to draw up resolutions for the bereaved family on behalf of the board.

First College Sing.

The first sing of this college year was held in Alumni Hall last night at 6.50 in the evening. As originally planned, the meeting was to have been held out on the campus, but the inclemency of the weather precluded any possibility of such an arrangement. One of our prominent alumni, Walter S. Schutz, '94, was present and enthusiastically endorsed the idea. He said that the days had passed when Trinity had been admittedly outclassed by other colleges in singing. He also urged that as many men as could find it possible should attend the services held on Sunday evenings by Reverend C. E. Thomas, '03, at St. James Church. The men practiced various Trinity songs, led by Horace Fort, '14, and W. B. Spofford, '14. The glee club occupied the first two rows of seats to the left of the aisle, and aided the efforts of Mr. Fort. It was noticed with regret that the words of many of the songs were unfamiliar to the majority. Before the meeting adjourned, Fort urged all the men to learn these songs before the next sing. The meeting was then concluded with "Neath the Elms."

Y. M. C. A. VESPERS.

Talk by Dr. Honline on Symmetrical Development of College Men.

At the Y. M. C. A. vesper service last Sunday afternoon, the officers were fortunate enough to procure Dr. M. A. Honline, one of the traveling secretaries of the Educational Department of the Y. M. C. A.'s national board. Dr. Honline had been attending a conference at the Hartford board of the organization and was just able to make connections for a short address in chapel before leaving the city.

W. F. Borchert, the vice-president of the college Y. M. C. A., conducted the service. Dr. Honline in his address emphasized the need of the college man to grow symmetrically along firm lines, viz.: intellectually, physically, socially, and spiritually, and it was this thought that he developed, taking as his text the verse from St. Luke: "The child Jesus grew in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and man."

"Keeping in Front"

You fellows know what that means! We've been very successful in this regard with Fatima Cigarettes. By the way, these cigarettes were first sold in the college towns—and you agreed with us that they were good.

Then we put out for the big race, to make Fatimas of nation-wide reputation, and today more are sold than any other cigarette in this country.

No purer, or more carefully chosen tobacco grows than that in Fatimas. We purposely put them in a plain inexpensive wrapper—in this way we can afford quality tobacco, and twenty of the smokes for 15 cents.

Now your college crew is of utmost importance to you—so is a good cigarette, and it's your aim in life to keep Fatimas in the lead—right up to their good quality—right up to where you first found them, and will always find them.

Success fellows! You started this cigarette on its successful career—and you pull a strong oar all over this country.
