WILLIAMS LOSES.

First Game with Massachusetts Nine Goes to Trinity.

The Trinity baseball team journeyed to Williamstown on Saturday and defeated the strong Williams nine 6 to 4 in an exciting contest, thus shaking off the jinx that has traveled with it on all of the former out-of-town games. The game was exciting throughout. Trinity held a fierce batting campaign in the fifth inning, pounding out five safeties and sending in three runs, thus clinching the contest. After the swat-fest, Cutler retired from the mound in favor of Young who held the visitors to a couple of hits in the remainder of the game. Williams rallied in the last of the ninth, filling the bases and sending one in, but Swift, who pitched a stellar brand of ball for Trinity, pulled out of the hole and saved the day for his team. A home run hit by Captain Murray of Trinity was a feature of the afternoon.

Williams started the scoring in the first inning. With one out, Swain, Gillette, and Ainslie singled in a row. Swain scored on Ainslie's hit. The Carpenter-Shelley-McKay combination came across with a double play that put an end to the inning.

Both teams scored two points in the fourth. In the first of the inning, Carpenter received his base on Swain's error. Gillooly walked. Smith hit safely, scoring both runners. Ives hit to Ainslie who threw Smith out at the plate.

The home team got back the lead in the last of the inning. Swift walked Ainslee. Michler hit. Both scored on Higenbotham's sacrifice.

The fifth was Trinity's big inning. Murray singled. McKay sacrificed. Carpenter, Gillooly, Smith and Ives singled in a row. Murray, Carpenter, and Gillooly scored. Young was sent in to repel the onslaught. Brand flied out, Swift was struck by pitched ball, and Shelley fanned, ending the melee.

Trinity landed another in the final inning, Murray's home run hit doing the trick.

Williams came back with a strong rally in their last time at bat. Clark hit safely. Brumbaugh fanned, Young singled, Murray's error put Toolan on, Swift walked Swain, forcing Clark in. With the bases full and two out, Williams' star batsman, Ainslie, was presented with the historical two strikes and three balls. Then Swift fanned him, ending the game.

Good Game Expected with Fast Team from Springfield.

Trinity meets perhaps its hardest opponent on Wednesday in the Springfield Training School, which has played ball of a first-class calibre all season, having won consistently. The Springfield men have a wonderful pitcher in Eddie, who has made an enviable reputation this spring, only recently playing in a no-hit game with Wesleyan. Another of Springfield recent victories was that with Williams. However, in spite of Eddie's record, Coach Burns thinks his men will find the Massachusetts prodigy. With one or two exceptions the team has played splendid ball, and the coach feels confident that the Springfield game will end in a Blue and Gold victory.

TENNIS TEAM TIES.

Breaks Even with Amherst. Burgwin Defeats Champion Cady.

In the tennis match with Amherst Saturday, the Trinity team broke even, each college securing three matches. The greatest victory for Trinity was the defeat of Cady, the recent champion in singles in the New England Intercollegiate tennis tournament, Captain Burgwin winning straight sets, 6-3, 6-3. The Trinity player perhaps did the best he has done this season, outplaying Cady in every respect. Cady, however, usually so strong in his serves, was much hampered by a very stiff wind.

Shumway of Amherst, had great difficulty in downing Edsall. The games and sets were very close, but Shumway was just a little the better player, 10-8, 7-5.

McGloughlin easily defeated Peck in the first set, 6-2, but in the next set he found Peck a revengeful opponent, 7-5.

Mitchell, who defeated Snyder last year, fell this time before the Massachusetts collegian, 6-3, 8-6.

In the doubles, Burgwin and Edsall, upheld their recent record of championship in doubles, by defeating Shumway and Cady, 7-5, 4-6, 6-3. It was a fast match, the Amherst men fighting hard for every point, and anxious to get revenge for their defeat at the Longwood Courts.

Barnett and Peck easily defeated McGloughlin and Snyder, 6-2, 6-2.

In the singles:

Burgwin defeated Cady, Amherst, 6-3, 6-3.

Shumway, Amherst, defeated Edsall, 10-8, 7-5.

McGloughlin, Amherst, defeated Peck, 6-2, 7-5.

Snyder, Amherst, defeated Mitchell, 6-3, 8-6.

In the doubles:

Burgwin and Edsall, defeated Cady and Shumway, 7-5, 4-6, 6-3.

Barnett and Peck, defeated McGloughlin and Snyder, 6-2, 6-2.

1911 Triennial Re-Union.

The class of 1911 will hold its triennial re-union in June, and efforts are being made to bring back a large number of the class to Hartford for Commencement week. No elaborate schedule of events is planned as the graduates find more pleasure in wandering about the campus and the city, renewing old friendships and associations than in following out a tiresome program. There will, of course, be a class dinner and probably a ball game with the 1909 men who are to be here for their quinquennial. All members of 1911 are urged to arrange their business affairs so they can spend at least a day or two at Trinity at this time.

N. E. I. A. A. MEET.

Hudson Brings Honor to Trinity in Games at Cambridge.

Dartmouth won the annual New England intercollegiate meet held at the Harvard Stadium in Cambridge on Friday and Saturday last. Over a score of the wearers of the Green qualified in the first afternoon's preliminaries, making the real interest center around the race between Maine and Massachusetts Tech for second honors. The final score of the meet was: Dartmouth 57½; Maine 28; M. I. T., 26 5-6; Colby 15; Brown 9 1-3; Bowdoin 6; Williams 5; Trinity 4; Holy Cross 2; Amherst 1-3.

While Dartmouth presented the best balanced team, Maine furnished the two star performers of the contest. Bailey of Maine made a new association record in the hammer throw, heaving the 16-lb. weight 164 feet, 8¼ inches, nearly 30 feet ahead of his nearest competitor. Rice, the auburn-haired freshman phenom of the same university, tied the association record for the 220-yard dash, running it in 22 seconds flat, and did the 100-yard dash in 10 seconds flat, being one of three men who have run this race in that time in the New England meets within the last twenty-eight years.

Of the four Trinity men sent to Cambridge, three qualified in the trial events and one scored in two of the finals. Young failed to qualify in the dashes, but Wessels came through in the half-mile and Furnivall in the quarter. Hudson won his heat in both the high and low hurdles, scoring second in the final heat of the latter, and also landed fourth place in the hammer throw.

Hudson's work was quite a feature of the meet, as he was the largest man who has been seen in the hurdle events for some time. In Friday's trials he won his heat in the high hurdles in 16 2-5 seconds and his low hurdles in 26 seconds flat, the fastest time of the day, which was also equalled by Huff of M. I. T., and establishing a new college record for Trinity. He was eliminated in the high hurdles in a close semi-final heat, but finished second to Royal of Colby in the low hurdle finals, being but a foot behind the winner. Royal's time was 26 seconds, equalling that made by Hudson and Huff on the day previous. Hudson did not do as well as was expected in the hammer throw, as he made fourth place with a throw of 136 feet, 2 inches. Had he been in usual form, he should have been good for second.

"NOW THEN TRINITY"

Dr. Hart Speaks in Vesper Service.

Rev. Samuel Hart, D. D., dean of the Berkley Divinity School was the speaker at last Sunday's vesper service in the chapel. He chose as the text for his talk a portion of John 16: 13, "When he, the Spirit of truth is come, he will guide you into all truth." Doctor Hart explained that the Revised Version gave a slightly different meaning to the last verb and also admitted of two different translations of the final phrase: "he will lead you a long way to the truth," or "he will lead you a long way in the truth." The latter rendering he accepted as preferable, for while one meant that after a long period, we would be shown all truth in its completeness, the other meant that progressing from part of the truth to still more of the truth, we should continually approach nearer to a complete knowledge of the whole. The attitude of waiting, of passive expectancy, in traveling the long way to the truth does not compare in nobility, he declared, to the active, working, striving mood of traveling in the truth.

The speaker proceeded to show his hearers how the way should be trod in the truth, how day by day we are confronted with a new part of the truth, and how day by day we are called upon to reject what we formerly thought to be part of the truth. He admonished them to face the questions squarely, to discard the old belief, no matter how hard it was to do it, when they became convinced that it was not true, and to receive the new fact, no matter how difficult that was, when its truth was undeniably established.

He pointed out as a warning example the many who, as soon as they were forced to lose faith in one part of the truth, felt it necessary to lose faith in all. This, he maintained, was wrong, for, while an honest doubt is commendable, one should try to coördinate the new fact with what remains unshaken of the old knowledge. Thus one comes to learn that all truth is one and that all is of God.

SUNDAY CHAPEL.

Professor Barret Preaches on "The Penitent Thief."

Sunday morning Professor Barret preached the sermon. His subject was "The Penitent Thief." First, reading from the revised version, Professor Barret read the Bible passage relating the story of the two thieves crucified with Christ. Then he spoke of the character of the two men, showing that the term malefactor as used in the Revised Version was a better indication of their characters than the word thief. He said that the men were probably daring brigands, maybe of the band of Barabbas, men, who with Barabbas, had revolted against Rome and had been driven to the hills where they had become brigands. He showed that they had courage and probably were not the scum of humanity or sneaking men as the word thief might suggest.

Then he went on to say how truly repentant the thief was, and how difficult a thing true repentance is. The thief did not blame his downfall on society or on his fellow man, but took the blame upon himself. Professor Barret also showed how the thief, even when in great pain himself, had sympathy for Jesus.

Professor Barret then pointed out the facts and principles of the story which are worthy of great attention, and from which we should draw a lesson. He spoke of true repentance, sympathy, and of courage to do the right thing on difficult occasions. Lastly he spoke and emphasized the fact that when we do wrong, we are very apt to put the blame on our fellow man. He said that this is a disastrous principle and that we ought to be men enough to shoulder the blame and take our punishment.

N. E. I. A. A. MEET.

This meet is the last intercollegiate athletic contest in which Hudson represents Trinity. For four years he has been the mainstay of the track team and at present holds the college hammer, discus, and low hurdle records. He has also been a consistent winner in the high hurdles, broad jump, and shot put. His loss by graduation will be a severe blow to Trinity's track prospects for the immediate future.

Captain Wessels also wore the Blue and Gold colors for the last time in his college career. Wessels has been prominent in track work during his whole four years, and by his enthusiastic and conscientious leadership during the past two years has brought Trinity track activity to a respectable position among that of New England colleges.
