SOPHOMORE HOP.

Very Delightful Dance Given by Class of 1917.

The Annual Sophomore Hop, held in Alumni Hall Thursday evening, was a great success. Dancing started at twenty minutes of nine, and lasted until two. The music, by Wittstein, was exceptionally good. A number of dinner parties were held before the dance.

The patronesses were: Mrs. Flavel Sweeten Luther, Mrs. I. K. Hamilton, Jr., Mrs. Archibald G. McIlwaine, Mrs. E. B. Hatch, Mrs. C. L. F. Robinson, Mrs. Benjamin Knower, Mrs. L. P. W. Marvin, and Mrs. Thomas B. Chapman.

The Hop Committee was composed of James Watson Hatch of Hartford, chairman; William Wade Macrum of Oakmont, Pennsylvania; Courtney Kelso Page, of New York; Kent Shirley Kirkby, of Essex Falls, New Jersey; Philip Van R. Schuyler, of Utica, New York; Frank E. Haines, of Portland, Maine; Edward G. McKay, of Norwich, Conn.; Stanley S. Dennis, of Arlington, New Jersey; Donald J. Tree, of Hartford; Arthur P. R. Wadlund, of Hartford; and James L. Cooley, of Madisonville, Ohio.

Among those present were: Dallas Summerfield Squire of Montclair, N. J., with Miss Helen St. John; J. Archibald Mitchell of Centerville, Mo., with Miss Julia Allen; John Jay Whitehead, Jr., of Hartford, with Miss Claire Eames of New York; James Landon Cole with Miss Gertrude Bishop; Harold B. Thorne, Jr., of New York, with Miss Dorothy Sanderson of New Haven; J. G. Neafie Mitchell of Williamsport, Pa., with Miss Leila Church; E. J. B. Hyland of Utica, N. Y., with Miss Margaret Robinson of New Haven; Theron B. Clement of Sunbury, Pa., with Miss Priscilla Chapman; Albert William Duy, Jr., of Bloomsburg, Pa., with Miss Ruth Parker; Ralph Halm Bent of New York, with Miss Elizabeth Dwight; Robert Seymour Morris with Miss Leah Markle; Ernest T. Somerville of Toledo, Ohio, with Miss Iva-Anne Appleyard, of Poughkeepsie, N. Y.; Charles Booth Plummer of Lake City, Minn., with Miss Helen Brown of Bloomington, Ill.; George Mallette Ferris, of Newton, with Miss Cecil Dwight; Herbert Spencer with Miss Dorothy Mills; Stanley Dennis of Arlington, N. J., with Miss Margaret Brinkman; John Francis Lang of New York, with Miss Elizabeth Noord; Paul M. Swift of Yarmouthport, Mass., with Miss Katherine Cook; Ellery Alexander

DR. CHURCH DEAD.

Graduate of Trinity in the Class of 1841.

Samuel Porter Church, M. D., of the class of 1841, who was Trinity's oldest living graduate, died in Ithaca, N. Y., December 10, 1914.

Dr. Church was born in Salisbury, Conn., November 14, 1821. His father was the Hon. Samuel Church, LL.D., graduate of Yale in the class of 1803, who received his honorary degree of LL.D. from Trinity in 1847. He was afterwards Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Litchfield County, Conn.

Dr. Church was a physician and surgeon. He prepared for college at the Chapman School at Pittsfield, Mass. After graduating from Trinity, he went to the Medical School at New Haven, and finally graduated from the College of Physicians and Surgeons, of New York City, in 1845. Dr. Church practiced at Derby, Conn., and later at Newburgh-on-the-Hudson. In 1890 he moved to Ithaca, New York, where he spent the remainder of his life with his only living son.

Dr. Church's death gives the honor of being Trinity's oldest living graduate to the Rev. Gemont Graves, '49, of New York.

COMMUNICATION.

To the Editor of the Tripod:

There was so much that was both true and good in Mr. Roberts' letter, that it seems ungracious to criticise. However, I cannot resist taking exception to this specious and somewhat unsound slogan that human rights are above property rights. Of course, no one denies that man is greater than his work, and flesh and blood of more value than mere things; but the case is far from being so simple. Unfortunately, property rights are also human rights. You destroy property and somebody suffers. Even sordid stocks and bonds cannot be considered apart from those who hold them; and their owners are not exclusively the rich and prosperous, but, (if we count savings bank depositors, whose savings are invested for them) they number millions of relatively poor people.

In the magnificent work that is being done toward bettering the condition and prospects of the laborer, it is easy to forget that he is the first to suffer if the "rights of property" are too recklessly disregarded. It has grown too common to speak as if the

BASKETBALL LEAGUE.

Captains Elected and Teams Chosen Saturday.

About 60 men met last Saturday, December 12th, and formed themselves into teams that will comprise the new basketball league. Great enthusiasm was shown at the meeting. The league gives every promise of a success that will do much toward giving Trinity a 'varsity team again and toward putting the game on a paying basis.

The league schedule has not yet been drafted, but work has been commenced upon it, and it will soon be announced. It is probable that the first games will be played Thursday night, January 7th.

Six teams were chosen, captains of each elected, and the name of a big league baseball club adopted for each team. The following are the teams:

Braves—Wooley, captain; Brainerd, Pelton, Craig, Harris, Jones, Dorwart, J. G. N. Mitchell, Wessels, Fenton.

Senators—Morgan, captain; Castator, Poto, T. A. Peck, Ferris, Spencer, Kaplan, Achatz, Cooley, N. J. George.

Cubs—Carpenter, captain; B. L. B. Smith, Moran, Gillooley, Perkins, Kyle, Linton, Stratton, Parker, Johnson.

Pirates—Bradley, captain; K. E. Johnson, A. M. Wright, Ladd, Bjorn, R. F. Hatch, Holmes, Brandt, Budd, Simonson.

Giants—C. Wright, captain; Jackson, Shulthiess, Brand, Reiner, Astlett, Easland, J. B. Barnwell, Cahill, Schlier.

Athletics—Tiger, captain; Sage, L'Heureux, Moran, Cowles, Kates, Dennis, Mullen, McEvitt, Pinney.

lot of all working men was wretchedness, and that of all property owners bliss; and generalizations, based upon such a sweeping premise, are apt to be misleading. Some writers, indeed, seem to hold that toil is an evil that it is man's chief business to escape. Now, personally I am a great believer in work, and hard work. A man who works almost to the limit of his powers is saner and happier than he who has too much leisure.

In the letter from our friend "1911" in today's Tripod, the writer implies that leisure and education are the two assets of wealth, which the people ought to enjoy as well. Education, yes, but about leisure I am not so sure. Happy

"TOM MOORE."

Everything Ready for Jesters' Production.

"Tom Moore," the Jesters' play, has been rewritten several times. It was originally written so as to bring out a number of Andrew Mack's songs, but these songs were soon dropped. As given by the Jesters, "Tom Moore" is a very well written and very well constructed play.

The time of the play is the beginning of the Nineteenth Century, at the time when simpler clothing had been ushered in by the abandonment of powder, wigs, buckles, and many other accessories of the quaint old garments of the latter part of the Eighteenth Century. That the costumes for the Jesters will accurately reflect this spirit of the time is assured by their coming from Van Horn, of New York.

Beach, who was to have taken the part of Buster, Moore's servant, was operated on for appendicitis Thursday night, but Ripley seems to be a very good understudy, and too much credit cannot be given him for the way he has taken up the part, almost at the last minute. With very little time to learn the part, he has shown great ability, and is prepared to act his part competently.

In the rehearsals so far, it has been apparent that the parts have been carefully taught and well learned. The voices are all clear and distinct. A dress rehearsal, held Tuesday, went off smoothly. All those who were in "The Prince and the Pauper" may be expected to do well in "Tom Moore," and, as the new members of the cast have been carefully chosen, a good production is assured.

is the man who has only a little leisure! We, professors, have far too much, unless we use it in some form of productive work in our various specialties. Active business men rarely have more leisure than the laborer, and their work is more exhausting of nerve and brain tissue. Professional men often work many more hours a day than a millhand. The only true leisure class, fortunately a small minority in America, are not at all enviable. Their leisure is harmful to themselves, and it harms humanity by holding up to admiration a thoroughly false goal of ambition.

As to education, so much has been done in America during the past half-

"NOW THEN TRINITY"

Through the courtesy of Mr. Waterman we are enabled to print a few alumni notes in this issue. This will doubtless be an agreeable surprise to our readers. Last week we published an account of the meeting of the New York Alumni Association which J. S. Moses, '14, very thoughtfully sent us. It would be unreasonable, doubtless, to expect many alumni to emulate Messrs. Waterman and Moses, in this respect. If only a few of them, however, were to follow this good example, we think our alumni readers would find the Tripod a more interesting paper.

century toward putting the best educational opportunities within the reach of everyone, that it seems a little unfair to write as if it were an especial privilege of the property owner.

We all want to see the workman's condition bettered where it needs bettering, and there are many and urgent needs. We all want to see the door toward advancement opened wide before him. It is in our views on how best to achieve this, that we may differ; and I, for one, doubt if our attack upon the so-called "rights of property" is the best way.

Yours sincerely,

HENRY A. PERKINS.

JUNIORS DISCUSS BANQUET.

At a meeting held on Wednesday the junior class discussed the proposal of not having any Freshman-Junior Banquet this year on account of the unusual financial stringency reported by the freshmen. After considerable argument as to the value of the banquet as a college tradition, the class passed the motion that it express its sentiment in favor of having the banquet held at some later date when the freshmen will be able to finance it, instead of within the immediate period prescribed by the Senate.

DR. LAIDLER COMING.

Well-known Lecturer to Speak in College Union Friday Night.

Harry W. Laidler, Ph.D., will deliver a lecture on "War and Socialism" in the College Union Friday night at 7 o'clock.

Dr. Laidler is the author of "Boycotts and the Labor Struggle," and is well equipped as a lecturer on social and economic problems. Dr. Laidler is a graduate of Wesleyan University (1907) and of Brooklyn Law School, and has spent several years in graduate work in the Department of Political Economy, Columbia University. He is a member of the New York Bar and was engaged, for some time, in newspaper work in New York City. In his university days he represented his Alma Mater on the intercollegiate debating teams and was elected a member of the Phi Beta Kappa Society.

During the summer of 1914, Dr. Laidler was present at the great anti-war demonstrations of the Socialist years past he has addressed with marked success scores of college and other audiences in different parts of the country. His book on 'Boycotts and been called "undoubtedly the best, the most systematic and the most readable story of the whole subject," and in a very real sense gives a cross section of the entire labor struggle during the last decade.
