DROP KICK IN THIRD QUARTER PROVES FATAL TO BLUE AND GOLD. TRINITY MISSES TOUCHDOWN BY INCHES.

In the annual clash between Trinity and Wesleyan, which was held before an immense throng at Andrus Field on Saturday, the Middletown eleven upset all predictions by gaining the victory, the score being 3 to 0. After being completely outrushed throughout the first half of the game, Wesleyan reached Trinity's 35-yard line near the end of the third quarter and Eustis made good on Wesleyan's only opportunity to score, when he drop kicked the ball cleanly between the goal posts. Trinity lost no less than five chances to score, twice finding herself within striking distance of the goal line and thrice failing in the effort to tally by the kick from placement method.

Trinity got the jump on her opponents at the opening of the game when Lambert took the ball on the second formation and sped thirty yards down the field on a tackle around end play. He dropped the ball when tackled, however, Wesleyan gaining possession of it. Wesleyan was soon forced to kick, and in a few moments Trinity had worked the ball down to Wesleyan's 10-yard line only to lose the ball on downs when Wesleyan held.

Lambert opened the second half with the same spectacular play, this time galloping down the field for forty yards. It looked like a sure touchdown and the Trinity stands went wild, but Slocum, the Wesleyan's speedy quarter-back overtook the Trinity runner and threw him eight yards from goal line. Slocum's tackle saved the day for his team, as another Trinity fumble, coming on the third formation, again gave the ball to Wesleyan.

Two of Trinity's tries at field goal came in the third period and one in the last. After a fair catch by Smith on his 40-yard line, Kinney was given a free try at goal but his kick went low and was blocked by Wesleyan. The second try nearly registered. The kick sailed high and deep from the 35-yard line, but passed the goal post a foot too wide. The last try, from the 30-yard line, aimed straight for the goal post but fell short.

The work of Slocum, Wesleyan's little quarter-back, earned for him the title of the fastest man on the field. His long end runs and running back of punts was the spectacular feature of the game. Captain Kenan helped his team by intercepting two of Trinity's forward passes and making substantial gains on the run back. With the exception of a short period in the last part of the game, however, his plunging failed to make an impression on the Blue and Gold line. Eustis was the man of the minute on the Middletown eleven, and by his coolness and accuracy he gained Wesleyan the victory. Trinity fans had been taught to expect Kenan back for the drop kicking, but Eustis was called upon and proved equal to the occasion.

The Trinity team man for man put up a strong fight and the impenetrability of the line made Kenan's famous plunging ability go for naught. Captain Howell, Kinney and Smith played their last game for the Blue and Gold. The two linemen put up a stubborn resistance on the defence and Kinney's longest place kick, regardless of its failure, was a beautiful try. Howell's punting was of a high order and his average of distance covered superior to that of Eustis; Smith played a strong game at quarter, and on the defence was particularly good.

Castator repeatedly ripped holes in the Wesleyan line and was a bulwark of strength when backing up the line. Cole shone particularly in his secondary defence work, but also made long gains through the line and once cut loose for a 30-yard end run that struck terror into the Wesleyan stands. Connors put up a clean, hard game at end and when called back ate his way for substantial gains through the line. Lambert did brilliant work on the defence. His two long runs followed a delayed pass that completely fooled the opponents. Craig did the punting for Trinity throughout the short period in which he played. During that time he produced the longest kicks of the day.

At 2.30 o'clock Gordon kicked off and the game was on. Smith caught the ball on Trinity's 30-yard line, and was downed almost at once. Trinity made four yards in two rushes, and then on a tackle around play, Lambert got clear for a 30-yard run, but on Wesleyan's 5-yard line, Nurse recovered a fumble, and Trinity lost its first golden opportunity to score a touchdown. Eustis dropped back and punted 46

CASTATOR FOOTBALL CAPTAIN. Big Fullback to Lead Trinity Team Next Year.

COMMUNICATION.

To the Editor of the Tripod:

Dear Sir:

In your last number, no doubt without intention to do so, you used an expression about the referee which must have been offensive to him. Your account of the Haverford game says, "..... the referee claimed that Morris stepped outside." A "claim" is never made except in behalf of one of the contending elevens, and if the word had been used about myself, I should have felt hurt.

I do not ask you to print this letter, for you might decide that to do so, either with or without comment, would call unnecessary attention to the matter and benefit nobody. If so, I gladly acquiesce, only hoping that your excellent athletic reporter will not even by inference reflect on an official again. Of course, he may have been badly mistaken in his decision.

Respectfully,

P. J. McCook, '95.

(Mr. McCook is, of course, quite right. The Tripod was at fault in applying the term "claim" to a referee's decision—The Editor.)

yards. Ives caught the ball. Two line plays gained but little, and Trinity tried a forward pass. Gordon intercepted it, but Wesleyan fumbled and Kinney recovered the ball for Trinity. Castator hit center for five yards, and Connors made it first down. Cole made four yards through tackle, but failed to gain on a delayed pass. Cole was used again on the same play, and made first down. Kinney ripped off 10 yards, and the ball was on Wesleyan's 12-yard line. Wesleyan held on the next play, and then Trinity fumbled, once more losing a fine chance for a touchdown. Eustis kicked, and Castator caught the ball on his own 40-yard line. Wesleyan held for downs on its own 30-yard line. Wesleyan failed to gain on two plunges, and

SECOND TEAM TRIP.

"Scrubs" Leave for Concord to Play St. Paul's Eleven.

The members of the second team left at 2.40 this afternoon for Concord, N. H., where they will play the strong St. Paul's eleven Wednesday afternoon. This will be the only game of the season for the second team. It has had the advantage of excellent coaching under Hinman, a former Dartmouth star, and will undoubtedly prove a difficult proposition for the St. Paul's team. The line-up will be as follows:

- W. Peck, le.
- Talbot, lt
- Gray, lg
- Jones, c
- Churchill, rg.
- Baldwin, rt.
- Maxon, (capt.) re.
- Ladd, qb.
- Barber, rhb.
- Beach, lhb.
- Meyer, fb.

COLLEGE MEETING.

Enthusiasm Aroused on Eve of Wesleyan Game.

A meeting of the College body was held Friday evening in Alumni Hall at seven o'clock. In the absence of President Howell, Mr. Howard Hill, '15, took charge of the meeting.

He announced Dr. Luther as the first speaker. Dr. Luther made an inspiring talk with reference to the Wesleyan game.

Mr. H. C. Pond, '08, was the next to speak. His address consisted of interesting reminiscences of the days of '08 and forceful advice to the College body to back up the team at the Wesleyan game.

Hinman, the assistant coach, gave a splendid talk and reminded the College body of the important part it had to perform at the game at Middletown.

F. P. Wooley, '16, made a short but earnest appeal.

Mr. Hill then turned the meeting over to the cheer and song leaders. After practicing several cheers and songs, the meeting was closed with "'Neath the Elms."

again Eustis punted to Castator on Trinity's 40-yard line. Cole made 10 yards around end. Howell punted to Newhall on Wesleyan's 35-yard line.

"NOW THEN TRINITY"

After the Williams game, a few weeks ago, we printed in this column an editorial ending with the words: "they fought like very gallant warriors and they lost like very thorough gentlemen." These words, originally applied to Trinity's team defeated by Williams, apply now in equally full measure to Trinity's team defeated by Wesleyan. It was the same team, it fought with the same spirit, and it lost with the same high courage.

We feel that any editorial mention of Saturday's game would be inadequate without reference to a wonderful display of pluck on the part of three Trinity men who entered the game under heavy physical handicaps. Captain Howell played while suffering from an injured knee that would have kept on the side-lines one lacking his indomitable grit. Cole went on the field, a very sick man, but his magnificent work at half-back, was the brightest feature of the day, from a Trinity viewpoint. The third man was Bradley who gave his usual exhibition of pluck until his old injury forced his retirement. We do not mention the physical condition of these players with the intent of attempting to establish an "alibi" for Trinity's defeat. The Wesleyan team won solely on its merits, and deserved its hard-earned victory. We simply feel that at least some slight tribute is due those Trinity men whose gallant spirit overcame physical suffering and enabled them, in spite of all handicaps, to give the best that was in them to their Alma Mater.

SUNDAY CHAPEL.

In his sermon in chapel last Sunday morning, Doctor Luther spoke on the subject of "knowing God."

He illustrated just what knowing God is by referring to two men who may meet on the street. One asks the other if he knows Mr. So-and-So, and the other replies by giving him the man's business, politics, clubs, his rating in Bradstreet, and several other facts. The first man later in the day meets a small child, and asks him the same question. Instead of being greeted with a long list of accomplishments, he is surprised to have the child look up into his face, and say simply, "Why, he's my father." Which of the two knows the man better, the first man or the child?

With us the case is exactly parallel. We may know God's attributes so that we can say them without thought or effort, and yet not know God himself.

The President went on to draw another comparison. Isn't it natural for every child who loves his father to want to grow up to be a "big man like Daddy?" If the child does not want to be like his father, something is radically wrong; either the son has found out that his father is bad and quite naturally and rightly doesn't want to follow in his footsteps; or, worse than that, the child himself is bad.

If we do not want to be like our Heavenly Father, then surely something is wrong, and it can only be the latter case, that we ourselves are bad.

"Let us strive," Dr. Luther concluded, "that we may better know God, and that we may live more nearly as He lived."

WESLEYAN 3; TRINITY 0.

Slocum made 30-yards around Trinity's right side. Connors smeared a Wesleyan forward pass. An exchange of punts followed, and the quarter ended.

Slocum started the second quarter by circling Trinity's right side for a first down, and placing the ball on Trinity's 40-yard line. On a delayed pass Johnson made two yards. A forward pass, Slocum to Bovard, netted 30 yards and put the ball on Trinity's 8-yard line. Slocum could get only three yards on an end run. Kenan made a forward pass. It was grounded over the goal line, and the ball was given to Trinity on its own 20-yard line. Trinity lost eight yards on a delayed pass, and Howell was forced to punt, Kenan making the catch on his own 40-yard line. Wesleyan lost four yards on two end runs. Eustis punted to Trinity's 5-yard line. Howell returned the kick to Kenan on the 45-yard line. Wesleyan was penalized 15 yards for holding, and Eustis punted to Castator on Trinity's 40-yard line. Trinity made first down on an end run. In three rushes Castator and Howell made another first down. Ives skinned tackle for five yards. Cole fumbled, and Nourse recovered the ball for Wesleyan. Kenan hit the line for seven yards. Newhall made first down. The Trinity line stopped the next play, and Eustis kicked out of bounds on the 45-yard line as time was called.

Trinity again almost scored as the second half started. Gordon kicked off and catching the ball on Trinity's 30-yard line, Connors ran it back 15 yards. Lambert got around Wesleyan's left side and broke loose for a long run. Slocum finally nailed him from the rear on Wesleyan's 8-yard line. Here was the third chance of the game for Trinity to make a touchdown. Four times Trinity made herculean efforts to sweep aside the Cardinal and Black defence. Four terrific, desperate plunges into the line were made, but in vain. They netted a total of only six yards, and with three more to go for a touchdown, the ball went to Wesleyan on downs. Wesleyan punted at once, and Trinity made a fair catch on Wesleyan's 35-yard line. It was a long shot, but Kinney essayed a goal from placement. The kick was blocked, but Trinity recovered the loose ball. The Trinity backs continued to hammer at the Wesleyan line, but, as usual could not gain when the goal line was near, and Kinney made another try for a placement goal. The ball sailed wide of the uprights, and was put into play on Wesleyan's 20-yard line. Kenan intercepted a forward pass soon after and ran 25 yards. Nourse failed to gain. A forward pass, Markthaler to Kenan put the ball on Trinity's 20-yard line. Wesleyan could gain a grand total of four yards on three plunges, and then Eustis dropped back to the 20-yard line, and drop-kicked the goal that won the game. Kinney kicked off to Kenan on Wesleyan's 5-yard line, and Kenan ran back 30 yards. Kenan made seven yards in two line plunges. Eustis punted out of bounds on Trinity's 42-yard line. Cole made 20 yards around end, and Trinity added three more on two line smashes as time was called.

Trinity had another chance to score a placement goal in the last quarter. With the ball on the 32-yard line, Kinney's attempt again missed. The kick was too short, and Wesleyan got the ball on its own 2-yard line. Eustis punted to Craig on Wesleyan's 40-yard line. Cole tried an end run, and lost seven yards. Craig punted to Slocum on the 30-yard line. Newhall sifted through the line for 18 yards. Three more rushes made nine yards, and then Slocum made first down through center. On a fake kick play, Cole threw Slocum for a loss. Castator intercepted a forward pass, and it was Trinity's ball on the 25-yard line. A forward pass failed for Trinity, and Craig punted to Kenan on Wesleyan's 35-yard line. Three rushes failed to gain, and Eustis punted out of bounds on Trinity's 40-yard line. Cole lost eight yards on a delayed pass. A forward pass failed. Craig had to punt. Slocum caught the ball on the 25-yard line, and ran it back 15 yards. Eustis punted to Craig on Trinity's 25-yard line. Line plunges gained little, and Craig again punted.
