TRINITY WINS AGAIN.

Team Defeats Heavy Bowdoin
Eleven 21 to 7.

In her second game of the season, Trinity defeated Bowdoin's heavy eleven on Saturday afternoon at Trinity Field by the score of 21 to 7. The local eleven showed much improvement in speed and smoothness of play over its game of the previous week and throughout most of the contest kept the ball in the visitors' territory.

Trinity's first touchdown came in the second quarter. The period started with the ball on Bowdoin's 15-yard line. Smith gained 10 yards in the first play, and then 2 more yards were added by line bucks. Smith was then sent through guard for a touchdown, from which Kinney kicked goal.

In the fourth quarter, Castator intercepted a forward pass on Bowdoin's 40-yard line, and ran the intervening distance for a touchdown, carrying the ball across the line near the corner of the field. Craig made the kick out, and from the 20-yard line Kinney sent the ball between the goal posts.

Kinney then kicked off and sent the ball back between Bowdoin's goal posts for a touchback. The ball was then placed on the visiting team's 20-yard line for play. Gaining nothing by two line plunges and a forward pass, Bowdoin was forced to kick. Here Lambert caused the sensation of the game when he broke through the opposing line, blocked the kick, and, after a long chase, fell on the ball behind Bowdoin's goal line, making Trinity's final touchdown.

Bowdoin's lone score came in the third quarter when Foster intercepted Smith's forward pass on Bowdoin's 10-yard line and ran the whole length of the field for a touchdown, after which Leadbetter kicked a goal.

All through the game Trinity displayed a solid and unbreakable line through which Bowdoin could gain little ground. After the first few plays it was evident that Stewart, the opposing quarterback, realized this, for he sent his backs around the ends and employed the forward pass extensively. Shift formations were also used on nearly every play.

Castator's work at tackle in opening up holes in the Bowdoin line through which the backs plunged for consistent gains was a feature of the game; while Kinney at guard and later at tackle several times broke through the Maine college's offensive line, and brought the stands to their feet as he threw back the runner for several yards.

Morris, also several times surprised the Bowdoin backfield by slipping around the ends and throwing back runners for considerable losses.

In the backfield, Smith starred in his line plunges, and Cole in his end

COLLEGE MEETING.

Donnelly, '08, Gives Talk That Inspires Enthusiasm.

A meeting of the college body was held in Alumni Hall, Friday evening at seven o'clock.

The meeting was opened by President Howell. Mr. Brown, secretary of the Senate, read a proposed amendment to the constitution, as must be done a week before it is voted on. It was:

Article II, Section 1:

It shall consist of the following members: (Here follows the list of the Senate as now constituted).

A representative of minor sports, elected by the players, managers and other officers of said sports, unless there be already on the Senate three members from the above category.

Mr. Howell then introduced Donnelly, '08. Mr. Donnelly addressed the college meeting in an effort to stir up a great spirit for the football season. He reminisced of his college days and of the starting of real football at Trinity, and then spoke to the college body who were not players in regard to their duty at a game, and next he addressed the team and in a soul-inspiring manner, urged them on to victory. Finally he addressed the college body as a whole and paid a glowing tribute to his alma mater.

After the practicing of several songs and cheers, the meeting was closed.

runs. Both men were forced to retire from the game because of injuries. Connors at right half was also effective as a ground-gainer. At quarter, Ives ran the team well, and when catching punts, several times ran the ball back for 25 yards before he was finally downed.

Foster, Leadbetter, and Colbath shone for the visitors.

The game opened at 2.35 with Trinity defending the south goal. Colbath kicked to Cole, who fumbled the ball, but recovered. Howell punted to Bowdoin territory and on Bowdoin's fumble Cole got possession of the ball. Smith's try at forward pass failed. Howell gained a few yards on a tackle through tackle play, and Ives made the distance on an end run. With the ball on Bowdoin's 30-yard line, Kinney made an unsuccessful attempt for a goal from placement. The ball was given to Bowdoin on her 20-yard line, but after failing to penetrate the Trinity defence was forced to punt. Ives received Leadbetter's kick on his own 40-yard line. By two beautiful tackle

Prospects Bright.

A meeting of those interested in basketball was held last week and Theodore A. Peck, '15, was chosen manager. Dr. McCook, chairman of the committee on athletics has been interviewed and he has informally given his assent to the establishment of basketball as a minor sport under the jurisdiction of the Senate. Those interested now await the committee's formal decision.

It looks as though good material were available, and prospects are bright for a successful season.

The following schedule is being arranged:

GLEE CLUB.

Large Number of Men at First Rehearsal.

The first regular rehearsal of the Glee Club was held last Friday evening at 81 Vernon Street. There were about forty-five men present and the room was well filled. The members of last year's club sang alone first, and then the whole number sang "Oh, that we Two were Maying," one of Ethelbert Nevin's compositions.

Mr. Davis, the new trainer from Middletown seemed to make a great impression upon the men, and every one has confidence in his ability to turn out a fine club.

Arrangements are under way to have rehearsals held hereafter in one of the rooms of Seabury Hall.

Strong efforts are being made for concerts, and the prospects are brighter every day.

All who tried out for the club have made it temporarily at least, for the men who will sing in the concert are being chosen by a gradual weeding out process this year.

At present, the following compose the Glee Club: Morris, '16, Plummer, '16, Pierce, '16, Fenton, '17, Edsall, '15, Squire, '15, Hatch, '17, Scofield, '15, Mitchell, '16, Myers, '16, Olafson, '15, Green, '18, Creamer, '17, De Nezzo, '16, Wright, '18, Cowles, '15, Withington, '18, Brandt, '18, Craik, '16, Dowling, '16, Nilsson, '15, Stark, '17, Barthelmess, '17, Schmitt, '16, Hays, '18, Harding, '16, Miller, '16, Stewart, '18, Smythe, '18, Easland, '18, Kramer, '17, Tree, '17, Wilson, '17, Pressey, '15, Spencer, '16, Furnival, '15, Parsons, '18, Johnson, '18, Perkins, '16, Niles, '16, Ferris, '16, Beach, '18, Bennett, '15, Sage, '15, McIvor, '17, Shelley, '15, and Spofford, '16.

AMHERST NEXT.

Trinity's Chances of Another Victory Seem Bright.

Another game of great interest, and the first one of the season that Trinity will play away from home, will be that with Amherst at Amherst next Saturday, October 16th. Last year at Trinity Field, Trinity easily beat Amherst 14 to 0, after the Massachusetts men had won by the same score from the Gold and Blue at Amherst in 1912. While comparisons between the two teams indicate that this year's game should be a victory for Trinity, it appears just as plainly that the contest will not be an easy one. The two teams have so far met but one opponent in common, Bowdoin. Trinity easily beat Bowdoin 21 to 7 last Saturday, and Bowdoin defeated Amherst 7 to 0. But the Bowdoin touchdown came in the last minutes of play, and did not indicate much superiority on the part of the Maine team. Moreover, the Bowdoin-Amherst game was played over two weeks ago, and since then Amherst has improved wonderfully, as was plainly shown last Saturday, when Brown was held to a 0 to 0 tie at Providence. On paper and on comparative scores, Brown had a stronger team than Amherst, and the showing of the latter college came as a surprise.

Amherst has a number of veterans in this year's line-up, but feels the loss of McKay, the head line plunging and star kicking captain of last year's team. While there are no particularly bright stars on the eleven, the team is a well balanced one, plays well together, and is well coached. Washburn at quarterback is perhaps the best man on the team at individual work, being a strong all-around player. Warren and Rider, the halfbacks, are both veterans, and with Washburn have done the best ground gaining of the season. In the line McTiernan at left end, Kimball at left tackle, Cross at left guard, Shumway at right guard and Knowlton at right tackle are all veterans of one or more seasons. Although none of them have done really brilliant work, they have played steady consistent football, and with the new men at the other positions, form a line that has held its own in all three of the games Amherst has so far played.

Amherst's play this season indicates that the team relies more on straight football than on open play. This was especially evident last Saturday against Brown, when Amherst did its gaining almost entirely on straight rushes, once getting the ball on Brown's 15-yard line. At the same time Brown was never able to get inside its opponent's 28-yard line. This indicates strength on the part of Amherst, and the team will surely have some new plays to use against Trinity, as the desire to make a

"NOW THEN TRINITY"

The football team carries the old "punch." There can be no doubt of this since the thrilling finish to Saturday's game. Getting two touchdowns in the last five minutes of play is a fine old Trinity custom, as those who saw that immortal 1911 Wesleyan game know right well. The fact that this year's team remembers how to turn the same trick brightens the prospects for the remainder of the season.

The cheering Saturday was of real Trinity calibre. This too augurs well for the games to come.

The rehabilitation of basketball as a minor sport at Trinity seems assured. This is as it should be. It was most unfortunate that adverse circumstances combined with the ill-advised conduct of the undergraduates who controlled basketball at Trinity a few years ago caused the abandonment of the game here. With basketball established as a legitimate minor sport under the jurisdiction of the Senate, as tennis and hockey now are, there is every reason to hope for a bright future for the great indoor game at Trinity.

Sunday Chapel.

Dr. Luther's sermon on Sunday was based on Christ's words, "Father, glorify thy name." Then came a voice from Heaven, saying, "I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again." The people, therefore, that stood by, and heard it, said that it thundered, others said, "An angel spake to Him."

Dr. Luther divided mankind into two classes: those that think of such things as material; and those that regard them spiritually. He gave as an example, the different interests shown by those on board an ocean liner. Some are taken up by the the workings of the engine and the navigating of the ship. Others are interested more in their fellow-companions and in the character of the people in places where they expect to go.

He went on to say that there are those who try to explain the strange phenomenon, thunder, but have really failed. He said that those who regard it as the voice of God are undoubtedly the more correct in their views. The younger generation will live in a world full of natural phenomena, which he said should be thought of as spiritual. God speaks to us in many ways which we often do not recognize.

This led up to the real subject of his sermon, Faith. He said that men chain their faith by reciting the Creed. But those who really believe in God and in His ways of manifesting Himself to us, are those who really have the greater faith.

A great deal was added to the beauty of the service by the playing of R. Pierce, '16. His rendering on the 'cello, of Handel's Largo, Thomé, Simple Aven, and Schubert's Serenade, was very artistic.

COMMUNICATION.

To the Editor of the Tripod:

How you do put words into the mouths of correspondents by omitting words! You make it appear that for such a petty thing as putting an ugly head in place of a graceful one, I would refuse to purchase certain stock. If you will read my P. S., you will find that the real reason is that I am a Divinity student, and therefore poverty-stricken, as Divinity students should be.

Trinity men will be interested to know that in an election just held, Jack Moses, '14, was chosen president of the entering class of the General Theological Seminary.

We are glad that the team is so full of promise.

through tackle plays, one netting 15 yards and the other 16, Howell brought the ball well back into Bowdoin territory. Rushes by the Trinity backs continued the onward progress of the ball, and the end of the quarter found it in Trinity's possession on Bowdoin's 13-yard line. Score: Trinity 0, Bowdoin 0.

Trinity's first score came at the beginning of the second quarter. Ives called on Smith repeatedly in the attempt to make up the remaining distance to the visitors' goal line and on the fourth try Smith dove through for a touchdown. Kinney kicked the goal. Score: Trinity 7, Bowdoin 0.

Bowdoin's first chance to score came in this period. Smith grounded the ball for a touchback on Colbath's kick-off, Howell punted and a successful forward pass brought the ball back to Trinity territory. Colbath attempted a field goal from the 35-yard line, but failed to score. The half ended with Trinity leading 7 to 0.

Trinity lost a chance to score at the beginning of the second half. Kinney kicked off to Leadbetter who ran the ball back to the 10-yard line. Two poor passes in succession prevented Colbath from getting a punt away and Trinity got possession of the ball on Bowdoin's 5-yard line. Bowdoin held for downs, however, and Colbath punted out of danger. Ives received the kick at midfield and ran back 20 yards. Foster intercepted Smith's forward pass and tore down the side line eighty yards for a touchdown, furnishing the most spectacular play of the game. Leadbetter followed up with a goal. Score: Trinity 7, Bowdoin 7. Craig was sent in at tackle to take the place of Castator who was shifted to fullback, Smith going out, due to trouble from his injured ankle. The quarter ended with the ball at midfield in Trinity's possession. Craig lifted a spiral for 60 yards. Stewart ran it back 25 yards, Cole was taken out due to an injury, Craig being shifted to half and Evans going in at guard. An attempted forward pass was smeared by Castator, who caught the ball, and galloped down the sideline 40 yards for a touchdown, repeating Foster's trick of the second quarter. Kinney lifted the ball over for a goal. Score: Trinity 14, Bowdoin 7.

Kinney made a second attempt at a field goal, but a poor pass spoiled his chances. Bowdoin gained possession of the ball and tried to punt, but Lambert blocked the kick and pursued the ball over the goal line, securing it after several heartrending muffs and scoring Trinity's last touchdown. Kinney kicked the goal. Score Trinity 21, Bowdoin 7. The timekeeper's whistle announced the end of the game a few seconds later.

A meeting of the Debating Association was held in the Economics Room at 12.45 p. m., Monday, October 5th.
There was a very good turnout and things look as though there will be good material in the freshman class. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mr. Ward E. Duffy. The minutes of the last meeting were read by O'Connor, the Secretary.

Mr. Duffy discussed the plans for the year, and other men offered suggestions.
The plan for the work is to have an underclass debate this term and two intercollegiate debates next term. These are being arranged with Rutgers and N. Y. U., the former to take place at Rutgers and the latter at Hartford.
The subjects are to be determined later.
Tryouts for the class teams will take place in the near future.
