UNDERCLASS MEET A TIE.

Freshman Team and That of Sophomores Each Score 54 Points.

The annual freshman-sophomore track meet was held last Monday, October 13, and resulted in a tie at 54 to 54. In both the competing classes the number of men in each event was considerable, and indications are that Captain Furnivall of the college track team will have a good sized squad with which to work this year. The meet further showed that there will be several men, both sophomores and freshmen, who will be valuable members of the team. These were Rock, '17; MacCrum, '17; Jepson, '17; Little, '17; Bjorn, '18; Easland, '18; and Shultheiss, '18. The four sophomores were the stars of their team. Bjorn easily won the broad jump, and also won the discus throw. He got second in the shot-put. Easland won the 100-yard dash and shot-put, and was second in the discus throw, and third in the 220-yard dash. Shultheiss won the 120-yard hurdles, and tied with Bjorn for first place in the high jump. The majority of first places were taken by the freshmen, while the sophomores were in evidence with more second and third places than were the freshmen.

The track was slow, but it is questionable if it had great effect on the figures registered in the events. Nearly the whole of the sophomore and freshman classes witnessed the meet from the bleachers, and there was much cheering. Many upper classmen were also present.

The final heat of the 100-yard dash was especially interesting. Easland, '18, Rock, '17, and Beach, '18, finished in the order named after a fine race. The freshmen were outclassed in the mile, MacCrum, '17, Little, '17, and Wadlund, '17, easily leaving all freshmen behind and finishing as mentioned.

The sophomores also made a clean-up in the half-mile, Little winning, and MacCrum and Storrs getting second and third respectively. The 440 was another splendid race. Mitchell, '18, set the pace at the start, closely pushed by Murray, '18. At the half-way mark, McKay, '17, sprinted, passed Mitchell, and beat Murray out in the stretch. The summary:

100-yard dash: 1st heat—Rock, '17, Beach, '18, R. Storrs, '17, time 11.0. 2nd heat—Kirkby, '17, Clark, '17, Johnson, '18, time, 11.3. 3rd heat—Easland, '18, Jepson, '18, time 11.0. 1 mile run—MacCrum, '17, Little, '17, Wadlund, '17, time 5.21. High jump—Shultheiss, '18, Bjorn, '18, Wilson, '17, height 5 ft. 100-yard final—Easland, '18, Rock, '17, Beach, '18, time 10.1. 120-yard hurdles—Shultheiss, '18, Little, '17, Pratt, '17, time 21.1. 440-yard dash—McKay, '17, Murray, '18, Fenton, '17, time 57. 220-yard dash—Rock, '17, Toll, '18, Shultheiss, '18, time 32.2. 880-yard run—Little, '17, MacCrum, '17, Storrs, '17, time 2.21.

SPECIAL TRAIN FOR AMHERST.

Trinity Rooters Expected to Turn Out in Full Force.

The plans for having a special train to take the delegation of rooters to Amherst next Saturday have materialized in fine style and the train has been ordered. The railroad officials are not able to state the precise time for the starting of the train as yet, but say that in all probability it will leave the Union Depot about half past twelve. The fare for the round trip will be $2.04. A large delegation of men will go from the college and, with the addition of a number of alumni who expect to attend, the team will be supported with plenty of enthusiasm in the shape of noise. The plan was tried two years ago and met with such success that it could not fail to gain the approval of all present at the time. The plans have been mentioned at the University Club of Hartford and it is expected that a number of Amherst rooters will accompany the Trinity delegation. The exact time for the start of the train will be posted on the bulletin board before Saturday.

FOOTBALL PLAYER BREAKS LEG.

Pollock Injured at Practice on Wednesday.

Edward L. Pollock, Jr., '15, center on the football team, had the misfortune to break his leg during practice Wednesday afternoon. The accident occurred in a scrimmage just before the end of practice. The tibia, or shin bone, was fractured a little below the knee. Dr. Swan immediately applied rough splints to the injury, after which Pollock was rushed to the Hartford Hospital where the bone was set. As the operation was entirely successful, no serious results will follow, although the injured man will not be able to return to the game this season. At present he is at the Hartford Hospital and is getting along well.

The loss of Pollock to the team necessitates a new shift in the line-up. The Amherst game will probably find the veteran Kinney back at his old position at center with Howell and Castator at the tackle positions. Jackson looks like a fixture at left guard, with Craig, Churchill and Evans putting in a bid for a place on the other side of the center.

FRESHMEN WIN SERIES.

1918 Wins Second Baseball Game by Score of 4 to 2.

The freshmen won the second game from the sophomores in the annual fall underclass baseball clash last Friday by a score of 4 to 2. It was the second victory for the freshmen, and gave them the series.

In the past there has usually been but one freshman-sophomore game, but this year it was decided to have a series for the best two out of three contests as was done two years ago.

The contending teams took the field with about the same line-up as in the first game a week earlier. As in the first contest, McKay, the 'varsity second baseman, pitched for the sophomores, and Burnham, formerly pitcher for the Kent School team, for the freshmen. The contest was without features, although it was close throughout. The freshmen did a shade the better batting and fielding, and deserved to capture the game which decided the series in their favor. Captain Gillooly of the 'varsity again umpired.

The score:

1917.....	0	0	1	0	1	0	0—2
1918.....	1	0	2	0	0	0	1—4

Batteries, McKay and Berkeley. Burnham and Phillips; umpire, Gillooly.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

To the Alumni:

I have reason to fear that a number of empty envelopes have been sent out from the College office. These were intended to enclose the following communication:

"Trinity College.

Williams Memorial, the new Library and Administration Building, has been completed and will be dedicated on Saturday, October 31st. The exercises are to begin in Alumni Hall at 11.30 a. m. Addresses will be made by Dr. Arthur A. Hamerschlag of Pittsburgh, and William N. C. Carlton of Chicago, a former Librarian. You are cordially invited to be present."

Very sincerely yours,

F. S. LUTHER.

SOPHOMORE DINING CLUB.

First Six Members of Underclass Honorary Society from 1918 Chosen.

The following six sophomores have been elected to the Sophomore Dining Club: Harold T. Bradley, Allen N. Jones, Drummond W. Little, Carlisle C. McIvor, Edward G. McKay, and Albert N. Rock. These six men will elect six more, and then the twelve will choose three more, making a total of fifteen members.

BISHOP'S TEA PARTY.

Annual Entertainment Held Tuesday. Officious Juniors "Butt In."

On Tuesday afternoon, October 13th, the sophomores gave the traditional Bishop's Tea Party for the freshmen. The affair included all the time honored stunts on the part of the freshmen, and also some features which were unlooked for.

Following custom, the sophomores had, some days previous to the party, advised the freshmen as to the date on which it would take place, and the freshmen were ordered to report at the bishop's statue on the campus at four o'clock, which they did. The sophomores massed themselves about one side of the foot of the statue, and found the freshmen in two long parallel lines facing them. President E. G. McKay of the sophomore class acted as master of ceremonies, and was ably and vociferously assisted by each and every member of the second year class. Practically all the upperclassmen, as well as others connected with the college, and many outsiders, gathered to watch the fun.

Mindful of the freshman class which a few years ago gave the sophomores the slip by running away and scattering, the sophomores commanded each freshman to remove one shoe to prevent "French leave" being taken. Then various freshmen were called one at a time, from the line and made to perform various vocal feats, and to go through such fearful and wonderful physical gyrations as to "scramble like an egg," etc. Next the sophomores paid special attention to such freshmen who were in need of disciplining. Each of the culprits was called forth and put through an ordeal of storm and stress that was as amusing to the onlookers as it was trying to the unlucky freshmen. After the freshmen had obeyed the sophomores' command to throw their shoes and freshman caps into a pile in the possession of the sophomores, the first year men were formed in two lines and marched to the long, steep grass embankment near the gymnasium. Here they were made to sit down in line with their backs to the bank and to "row." As the "rowing" of each freshman in the line brought him to the edge of the bank he went over and rolled head over heels to the bottom as so many other freshmen have done in bygone years. When they reached the bottom of the bank the freshmen were commanded to run, and, scattering, they finally made their way back to the campus to recover their discarded shoes and caps.

The unpleasant features of the tea party occurred during the ceremonies at the bishop. Certain freshmen showed reprehensible "freshness." This was incited by several officious Juniors.

"NOW THEN TRINITY"

In another column we print an account of the most serious accident that has occurred on Trinity Field in some years. In Pollock the football team loses a game, fighting player. It seems a curious irony of Fate that after three years of grim, hard work a man should meet with disaster in this fashion almost immediately after his 'varsity debut. The entire college wishes Pollock a speedy recovery attended by a minimum of suffering.

It is the sentiment of the Tripod, that it is eminently fitting that the Athletic Association should, at the close of the season, award Pollock his "T."

The "Bishop's Tea Party" has long been considered a function existent for the purpose of giving the Freshmen an opportunity of making as arrant fools as possible of themselves. This year certain members of the Junior class, evidently jealous of this Freshman prerogative, sought to avail themselves of the same opportunity. They succeeded in a fashion that would have wrung envious brays from the most accomplished jackass.

Now the "Bishop's Tea Party" is traditionally a more or less delightful little entertainment tendered the freshmen by the sophomores. We are sure, however, that the college body is not so beastly reactionary as to hold a mere Trinity tradition as important enough to keep some of the most charming harlequins in the class of 1916 out of the limelight. We think, moreover, that the sophomores are vigorously to be censured for paying any attention to mere freshmen when guests of such vastly greater importance were present.

If the antics of these individuals may be taken as expressing the attitude of the entire class of 1916 toward college traditions—which heavens forbid!—one may suppose, doubtless, that '16 would flout the tradition of the Lemon Squeezer. May the Juniors be expected to refuse that heirloom if they should prove so very, very fortunate as to have it offered to them by the present holders?

WILLIAM B. DAVIS.

Brief Sketch of Career of New Club Coach.

The following brief sketch of the musical career of William B. Davis, the new Glee Club coach, and the author of several of the Trinity songs, may prove of interest to Tripod readers:

From early childhood, Mr. Davis has shown a liking and a proficiency for music. He first came into public note as organist in a church at Meriden, Conn., where he played during his college course. Later he played at the Church of the Holy Trinity, in Middletown.

In 1894 Mr. Davis graduated from Wesleyan, where he was a member of a Alpha Delta Phi Fraternity. During his four years at Middletown, Mr. Davis sang on the Wesleyan Glee Club.

Immediately after his graduation, Mr. Davis took up the position of coach of the Wesleyan Glee Club, of which he had lately been a member. This position has been retained by him since that time.

At the Wesleyan commencement last June, Mr. Davis was presented with a handsome silver loving cup from the alumni members of the Glee Club there, as a token of their esteem and in appreciation of the work he had done for that organization.

At present, Mr. Davis is a member of the faculty of Berkeley Divinity School, where he is Professor of Ecclesiastical Music.

Several years ago, he was called to the Harvard Summer Divinity School to give instruction in this subject. This offer shows that Mr. Davis is regarded as one of the greatest authorities on the subject of Ecclesiastical Music in the country.

Mr. Davis composed the music of the "Trinity Marching Song," and "Hail, Hail to Thee," the words of both these songs being written by Dr. E. T. Merrill, formerly professor of Latin at Trinity.

"TOM MOORE."

Rehearsals on Jesters' Play are Progressing.

The play to be given by the Jesters this year, "Tom Moore," was written by Theodore Burt Sayre. The scene is first laid in an Irish village, and then transferred to London. Mrs. Perkins, who as Trinity men know, has done most remarkable work in the way of making actors out of practically raw material, says that she will try to make this play an accurate portrayal of the times rather than a study of characters. The date of the action is about 1805, and a number of historical characters appear. Tom Moore, the Irish poet is of course the leading one. The other well known people of the time who appear are the Prince of Wales, afterwards George IV of England, Sheridan, the famous playwright, Beau Brummel, the proverbial dandy, Lord Moira, Dyke, a minor Irish poet, Bessie Dyke, an Irish schoolmistress, afterwards a famous actress of the Drury Lane Theater. The characters which probably had their origin in the brain of the author are Sir Percival Lovelace, Terence Farrell, a young Irish gentleman, Buster, Tom Moore's servant, Winnie Farrell, an heiress, Lady Fitzherbert, Mrs. Malone, Moore's landlady, a servant, and four or five schoolchildren. The cast has not been fully decided upon as yet. It is quite certain that Miss Frances Williams will take the part of Bessie Dyke, the heroine; Miss Esther Lyman will take the part of Winnie Farrell, while Miss Mildred Corsen will appear as Mrs. Malone. Mrs. Malone is, in theatrical parlance, a comedy-character part. There will be in all twenty-two speaking members of the cast.

The play is gradually taking shape under the expert guidance of Mrs. Perkins. The afternoon of December 16th has been decided upon to give the play in Hartford. It is also hoped that a brief tour may be arranged.

GLEE CLUB NOTES.

At a meeting of the Glee Club, held at 12.45 on Wednesday, President
Shelley, '15, announced that a deposit of three dollars would be required of all those trying out for the Club. This is to insure attendance and promptness at the rehearsals. Fines of twenty-five cents for absence and fifteen for lateness have been imposed.

Manager Harding, '16, then spoke of the prospects for out-of-town concerts.
He said that joint concerts were pending with Williams, Amherst and Massachusetts Institute of Technology. There is also a prospect for a trip in New York State, covering Albany, Troy, Schenectady, Utica and Auburn.

Mr. Davis is so favorably impressed with the material in the Club, that he instructed Mr. Harding to arrange for a concert with Wesleyan. As Wesleyan's Glee Club ranks very high, Mr.
Davis evidently expects to turn out a first class Club here.
