OBITUARY.

Deaths of Four Trinity Alumni.

The Rev. Densmore David Chapin, who was for some time a member of the Class of 1856, died at his home in Brandon, Vermont, January 27, 1915. Mr. Chapin was born at Enfield, Conn., January 19, 1833, the son of Daniel Chapin and Sarah (Powell) Chapin. He prepared for college at the Academy in West Hartford and entered the Sophomore Class in 1853. Mr. Chapin was a member of the I. K. A. Fraternity. Owing to serious illness he was obliged to withdraw from college in December of his senior year. On recovery of his health, Mr. Chapin entered the Nashotah Theological Seminary from which he graduated in 1862. In 1879 Trinity College conferred upon him the honorary degree of Master of Arts. Upon his ordination as deacon at Nashotah, Wisconsin, June 15, 1862, by Bishop Kemper of Wisconsin, Mr. Chapin went to California in October, 1862, where he became rector of St. James' Church, Senora, where he remained until 1864, when he became rector of Trinity Church at San Jose. In 1866 he assumed charge of Immanuel Church, Grass Valley, and in 1869 became rector of St. Peter's Church, San Francisco, where he remained until 1874. May 10, 1863, Mr. Chapin was ordained priest in San Francisco by Bishop Kip of that diocese. From 1878 to 1881 Mr. Chapin was the rector of the Church of the Ascension at Stillwater, Minnesota, and from 1881 to 1887 he was rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd at Allegan, Michigan. He then filled various rectorships for short periods of time and among his other duties was editor of the Pacific Churchman from 1870 to 1874, and was on the staff of the Churchman as an editorial writer for a period of twelve or fifteen years from 1877. His last parish was at Maysville, Kentucky, which he occupied from 1887 to 1900. Mr. Chapin was a Trustee of the University of the South from 1896 to 1900. September 11, 1862, Mr. Chapin married Miss Elizabeth Sheldon Fitch, daughter of the Reverend John Ashley Fitch, at Minneapolis, Minn. They had five children, one of whom, the Rev. John Ashley Chapin graduated from the University of the South and is now a clergyman of the Church.

Richard Hartley Nott for some time a member of the Class of 1870 died at Biddeford, Maine, January 22, 1915, in his sixty-sixth year. Mr. Nott was a resident of Saco, Maine, and practiced law in that city. His death was sudden and due to a complication of several causes.

Rev. William Mason Cook, a graduate in the class of 1873, died in the City of New York, January 15, 1915. He was born March 15, 1851, at Schenectady, New York, the son of Rev. William Henry Cook, who was for some time a member of the class of 1836 in Washington (now Trinity) College, and Mary

SENATE MINUTES.

Seminar Room,
Feb. 8, 1915.

The sixth regular meeting of the College Senate for the current year was called to order by President Howell at 7.10 P. M. Mr. Ives was absent.

Mr. Cole, for the College Union Committee, read a report showing balance on hand of $400.12.

Mr. Robinson, for the Press committee, reported that the committee had begun work according to the plan submitted to the Senate at its last meeting.

President Howell requested the members of the Senate to collect money for the Press committee.

Mr. Cole proposed that a lunch room be run in connection with the Union. The Senate discussed this suggestion, but no action was taken.

President Howell stated that the Political Science Club would be able to bring several eminent lecturers to Trinity, under the auspices of the Municipal League and the Carnegie Foundation.

Mr. Brown moved and Mr. Edsall seconded that the Senate endorse the action of the Political Science Club in securing such lecturers. Carried.

Mr. Cowles stated that several teams in the intramural basketball league were handicapped by players having left college.

Chairman Morris of the basketball committee said that the matter had been brought to his attention.

President Howell made the following appointments to committees: Mr. Cole to be chairman of the College Union committee; Mr. Ives to be an associate member of said committee; Mr. Smith to the basketball committee; Mr. Bierck to be the non-Senate member of the Press committee.

On motion the meeting was adjourned at 7.52 P. M.

THOMAS COOK BROWN,
Secretary.

Ann (Palmer) Cook. Mr. Cook prepared for college at the Episcopal Academy of Connecticut at Cheshire, Connecticut, and entered the college in the fall of 1869. He graduated in 1877 with the degree of Bachelor of Arts. In 1876 he received from the college the degree of Master of Arts. Upon graduation, he taught for one year at Ury House School, Philadelphia, and then entered the General Theological Seminary in New York City, from which he graduated in 1877. Mr. Cook was ordained to the priesthood by Bishop Doane in St. Paul's Church, Keeseville, New York, August 28, 1877, while rector at Brushtoa, New York. August 1879, he removed to Hudson, New York, where he remained until 1881, when called to a parish in Erie, Pennsylvania. From 1885 to 1888 he was

TRINITY RELAY TEAM.

One Mile Team to Compete in Naval Games.

Trinity is to enter a one mile relay team in the Naval Militia meet to be held at the State Armory on the evening of Friday, February 19th. Worcester Tech. and Amherst Agricultural College are to compete with Trinity. On the following day the team is to run against Bowdoin at the Providence Armory meet in Providence.

Practice has been going on steadily for several weeks on the armory floor and in the Hartford Y. M. C. A., during the automobile show now being held at the armory.

Captain Furnivall, '15, Young, '15, Crehore, '15, and Rock, '17, look good for sure places on the team. McKay, '17, has shown the most speed of all of the new candidates. Bissell, '15, Dennis, '17, and Bjorn, '18, are candidates.

Last year at the Naval games the Trinity two mile team won a handsome trophy in competition with Worcester Tech.

The experience of Furnivall, Young, and Rock, and the speed shown by McKay augur well for an excellent showing this year. Crehore and Bissell have good records behind them, but most of their past performances have been confined to the longer distances. Crehore holds the college record in both the mile and two mile events, while Bissell was a member of last year's two-mile relay team.

The final tryouts for the team will be held on Saturday.

assistant chaplain and master at De Veaux College, Niagara Falls, New York. His last parish was St. Augustine's Church, Ilion, New York, where he was in charge from May 20, 1888, to November 20, 1907, when he resigned on account of ill health and withdrew from active work. October 11, 1888, Mr. Cook was married in Christ Church, New York City, to Grace Moore of Hudson, New York. They had three children, Lucius Moore Cook, born July 23, 1891, Palmer Henry Cook, born June 10, 1894, and Augustine Cook, born August 1, 1897, who died October 17, 1898.

Nicholas William McIvor, a graduate of the Class of 1882, died at St. Luke's Hospital, Tokyo, Japan, February 9, 1915. He was born at Cheraw, South Carolina, April 30, 1860, the son of Francis Marion McIvor and Henrietta Kelsall (Robbins) McIvor. His father was a graduate of St. John's College, Maryland. Mr. McIvor prepared for college at Burlington College, Burlington, N. J., and was graduated from Trinity with the degree of Bachelor of

HARTFORD ALUMNI BANQUET.

Annual Affair Held at Hartford Club Tuesday Evening.

The annual banquet of the Hartford Alumni Association was held Tuesday evening, February 9th, at the Hartford Club. Over one hundred alumni turned out for the occasion. The dinner was held in the big ball room that was so recently the scene of another Trinity festivity. As before, but little change had been made in the room—a Trinity banner was hung at each end and greens had been added.

During the dinner music was furnished by the Tuxedo Orchestra, a pair of professional singers, one of whom at least created a profound impression, and a quintet from the Glee Club: Alfred Harding, Jr., '16, O. W. Craik, '16, I. B. Shelley, '15, S. H. Edsall, '15, and C. B. Spofford, Jr., '16.

At the head table were Dr. F. S. Luther, President of the College, J. H. K. Davis, President of the Alumni Association and toastmaster; Dr. John B. Price and E. Kent Hubbard, Jr., the speakers of the evening; Dr. Francis Goodwin, W. E. Conklin, C. C. Hyde, Professor Robert B. Riggs, and Dr. John T. Huntington, the one of two oldest living alumni of the College.

Dr. Luther spoke of the conditions in the college and complimented the faculty, the trustees, and the undergraduate body. He spoke of the genuine gratification that was his, because of the increasing importance of Trinity and its alumni in Hartford, and he added that the alumni should boost, aid and encourage, in every way whatever progress was on foot. Among the things that the alumni could and should foster was the new and revised edition of the Trinity Song Book, which it is hoped can be issued some time during the spring. Further, Dr. Luther spoke of his dream of a greater and better Trinity and his faith in its achievement.

E. Kent Hubbard, Jr., and Dr. John B. Price divided honors as the second speaker, for but two were provided for. Which was the "better half" would be difficult indeed to determine, but there can be no question as to which was the bigger half. Mr. Hubbard told some stories of the "time when", and spoke briefly of the work of the Cheshire reformatory in which he is interested.

Dr. Price thanked the alumni for the support that had been his during the fall and told of his dream, in which certainly the fourth dimension, Kant's Critique and Plato's "platitudes" held no very important position, but where bodily and mental gymnastics were coördinated and given their proper ratio of importance. And he trusted that the next season would find not Wesleyan but Trinity riding high on the wave of victory.

It was an unusually pleasant dinner, and emphasized the fact that the Alumni Banquet is steadily gaining in popularity.

OBITUARY.

Arts in 1882. Mr. McIvor was a member of the Beta Beta Chapter of Psi Upsilon. Following in the footsteps of his father who was a lawyer, he entered the Harvard Law School from which he graduated in 1885, whereupon he settled in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, where he practiced law until 1893. From 1893 to 1897 Mr. McIvor was Consul-General of the United States in Japan and Judge of the United States Court in Japan. He received his appointment from President Cleveland. He then returned to the United States where he spent one year, and was then recalled to Japan to try an important case involving the foreign control of one of the universities there. He settled in Japan and had in charge the legal interest of various English, American, and Japanese corporations. During the Chinese-Japanese War he held the protectorate over the Chinese of Japan.

During 1891 and 1892 Judge McIvor was Adjutant General of Iowa. For many years prior to his death Judge McIvor was a member of the Board of Governors of the Yokohama United Club, and was President of that Club, being the first and only President elected to that office in the history of the club. He was also Vice-President of the Harvard Club of Japan. Mr. McIvor and Miss Elizabeth Greene of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, were married in that city September 6, 1890. She was the daughter of the Honorable George Greene, Chief Justice of Iowa. They had two daughters and a son, Carlisle Chandler McIvor, who is at the present time a member of the Class of 1917 in Trinity College.

COMMUNICATION.

To the Editor of the Tripod:

In the past few months I have noticed much in the Tripod regarding the lack of Alumni news. It does not seem quite fair to hold the Alumni entirely responsible for not supplying this news under the existing conditions. It is not the natural thing for a man to volunteer to write about himself and his accomplishments without being especially asked to do so. I notice that Richardson Wright is the exception that proves the rule, and if we would all follow his example it would solve the problem. However, this is more than we can expect from some of our more bashful friends.

As a remedy I would suggest that the Alumni editor adopt in a modified measure the tactics used by persistent society editors. Have some form letters printed wherein there is inquiry of the items of interest, leaving blank spaces to be filled in by the recipient. Use the Tripod mailing list and send off fifteen or twenty of these each week to members of the different classes. The expense would be small and the results, I feel sure, would be great. Also, I believe it would have the effect of getting many new subscriptions from the Alumni.

With best wishes for your future success, I remain,

Yours very truly,
WM. R. RIPLEY, ex-'10.

COMMUNICATION.

To the Editor of the Tripod:

My spirit has been aroused for dear old Trinity. Modesty also prevents me from telling many things about myself but I will venture to fill the alumni column with a few facts. I have written a book—in Greek—which I expect to have published before the next edition of "Who's Who" is out. This book will be dedicated to Barnett and Collett, which should be enough to get them in "Who's Who" also I believe. I mention Barnett first merely because he is first alphabetically, not because I believe him better qualified for the honor. The name of Horace Fort will also doubtless be found there among the advertisements in the back of the book.

I sincerely hope that other young alumni who have made their mark in the world will not be backward about sending news to our Alumni Department.

That's all this week, thanks.

Sincerely yours,
BILL SPOFFORD, '14.

William Faversham

Tuxedo Keeps You Physically Fit

clean-cut vigor of William Faversham, both as an actor and as a man. No matter what part he is play-keen wits. His voice is especially engaging, clear, carrying and sonorous.

For Tuxedo tobacco to gain a testimonial from such a man, stating that it helps to keep him "physically fit and in good spirits" and keeps his voice "in good tone" goes far toward convincing you of Tuxedo's wholesome, all-round value to you.
