CARNEGIE PEACE ENDOWMENT.

Trustees Issue Statement Concerning the European War.

The Tripod has received the following statement from the Trustees of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace:

February 16, 1915.

The undersigned have been associated for some years in the execution of a trust to promote international peace and our duties have involved a continual survey of the efforts to that end throughout the world.

We wish to say to all friends of peace that the dreadful war now raging affords no just cause for discouragement, no discredit to past efforts, and no reason to doubt that still greater efforts in the future may be effective and useful.

The war itself is teaching the gospel of peace through a lesson so shocking and so terrible that the most indifferent cannot fail to attend and understand it.

Not only have the destruction of life, the devastation and the suffering in the warring countries passed all experience, but the cessation of production, the closing of markets, the blocking of trade routes, the interruption of exchanges, have affected industry and caused ruin and poverty in all the peaceful countries of the world.

The universal interdependence of nations has been demonstrated and the truth forced upon every mind that the peace of all nations is the vital concern of every nation.

To cast our weak protest now among the tremendous forces that are urging on the great conflict would be futile; but the end of this war will come before long and then the great question will stand for answer:

Shall the lesson be forgotten; the sacrifice lost?

That question the belligerent nations only will have the power to answer: but every one in the world will be entitled to be heard upon it, for it will be a question of civilization, the most momentous of our era.

It seems incredible that after this the stricken people will set their feet in the same old paths of policy and suspicion which must lead them again to the same result.

Finding expression through a great multitude of voices everywhere the general public opinion of mankind should influence the minds of the negotiators who settle the terms of peace and inspire them to a new departure in the establishment of justice as the rule of international relations.

While we must not be overconfident of our individual qualifications to point out the detailed methods through which the result may be accomplished, we may still advocate measures which seem practicable and appropriate to the purpose.

We can see that definite rules of national conduct should be agreed upon; that a court of competent jurisdiction

HAMILTON HOLT COMING THURSDAY.

Will Lecture Here on "Permanent Peace."

Hamilton Holt will lecture on "The Way to Secure Permanent Peace" in the Public Speaking Room at 8 o'clock, Thursday evening. The lecture will be followed by an informal smoker in the College Union.

Mr. Holt graduated from Yale in 1894, afterwards taking post-graduate studies in sociology and economics at Columbia. He has been managing editor of The Independent since 1897, is president of the New York State Initiative and Referendum League, trustee of the American College for Girls, Constantinople, a member of the New York Peace Society, the International Conciliation Society, the American Association for Labor Legislation, the National Civic Federation, and many other organizations.

The Emperor of Japan decorated him with the Order of the Sacred Treasure, third class.

Mr. Holt has studied the questions of war and peace in Europe and Japan, as well as in America, and has come to definite conclusions. He has a plan to offer for the securing of permanent peace, which he thinks would produce effective results. He has written and lectured extensively on the subject of peace, with special reference to the securing of permanent peace.

COMMUNICATION.

Big 1912 Reunion Held in Louisville, Ky.

To the Editor of the Tripod:

The other day I unsuspectingly answered my telephone and in reply to my businesslike "Well?" a vaguely familiar voice called cheerily:

"Hello, Jim, is that you? This is Pete. Pete who? Why there's only one Pete—Pete Pettigrew, of course."

Say, Mister Editor, I crawled right into that telephone and down the wire to the Seelbach Hotel to grip the hand of the first Trinity man that I've seen since I left college in 1912, I, who've been exiled to the wilds of Kentucky blue grass for the past two years.

We clasped hands. You know at college Peter wore green and white, while my colors were garnet and gold, so the result of that hybrid grip was a compromise effect of blue, red and yellow; but we didn't care if the grip was off color—we were just two Trinity men met together unexpectedly out in the far world, and as happy as two boys back in college.

Pete is a traveling salesman for a New York concern which manufactures gas and compressed air. Every member of 1912 will know that this is just in Pete's line. As a hot air artist he can't be beaten. He's burning up the track wherever he goes and is making a splendid record for a young man on

BOWDOIN'S RELAY TEAM.

Trinity Team to Meet Worthy Opponents at Providence.

Trinity is to meet no mean opponent when she competes with Bowdoin in a special one-mile relay race to be run at the Coast Artillery Meet at Providence, on Saturday. The men from Maine have two victories to their credit thus far this season, having defeated Brown at Boston on January 23rd, and having won the championship of Maine at the Boston Athletic Association Meet on the sixth of this month.

Crosby, Balfe, Wyman, and Hall comprised the team that won the championship, while Pierce had Hall's position in the race against Brown. Seven men will make the trip and those not on the relay team will be entered in the open and intercollegiate events. Ireland, Stetson, and Sayward are among those who will probably run independently of the relay event.

Crosby, Balfe, Wyman, and Sayward have previously competed against Trinity. Balfe took second place in the 100 and 200-yard dashes in the dual meet last spring. Wyman took third in the 100 two years ago, but did not run last season. Sayward took second in the half.

John J. Magee, last season's coach, is still with the Bowdoin team.

Trinity supporters will have an opportunity to see the Bowdoin men in action previous to the race, as the Bowdoin team is entered at the Naval Militia Games in the State Armory on Friday in a race against the Massachusetts Aggies.

the road. He visited the big plant of Henry Vogt Co., in this city and had hardly left the place when part of the factory was wiped out by a $90,000 fire. The fire department chief said it was caused by spontaneous combustion, but Mr. Vogt said it started with "the hot selling talk of that young salesman from New York."

For three days Pete and I painted the town red—that is, we painted it just as red as two total abstainers can paint anything red. But I won't tell you those little details. We just had a real, good 1912 Trinity reunion, Pete and I, way out here in the blue grass wilds of Kentucky; and I thought that I'd write and tell the other fellows about it, and send the news on to you in hopes that you might publish it as of interest to some of the alumni.

Here's an invitation to each man of 1912 to stop over in Louisville this winter on his way south to spend a few weeks vacation at his Florida villa. Come on boys, the weather's fine, and there's lots of it.

Hopefully,

MUSICAL CLUBS' CONCERT.

Seventh Concert of Season Given Last Friday.

On Friday evening, February 12th, the Musical Clubs presented their seventh concert of the season in the Washington Street Memorial Baptist Church. The mandolin club, slower in catching its stride, has, however, reached the top of its form sooner than the Glee Club. The latter is apparently hampered by the absence of members from rehearsals, and lacks the smoothness of tone and the command of light and shade in the interpretation, that might be expected. There is, however, an abundance of good material, and with a little more interest in rehearsals the Glee Club should surpass any known to the present college generation.

Bent and Holden in their ragtime selections continued to gain in popularity. It was regrettable that the medley of college songs that comprised the piano duet, so well received in Junior Week, was omitted. It is full of real harmony and in addition is a distinctly novel feature.

The quartet was enthusiastically received, and taking into consideration the absence of Shelley, did extremely well. In fact the concert worked to a climax as it should, and ended while the people were still interested and desirous of more. The program:

"NOW THEN TRINITY"

The Tripod is in receipt of an anonymous letter condemning our action in publishing a certain communication recently given space in our columns. It is an iron-clad Tripod rule that, before printing any communication, we must know the real name of the writer. This measure is necessary as an earnest of good faith. If our unknown correspondent will submit his name, in confidence, to the editor-in-chief, we will be exceedingly happy to print his missive over any nom de plume behind which this modest letter-writer may wish coyly to conceal himself.

SUNDAY VESPERS.

The Vesper Service last Sunday was unusually well attended. B. L. Smith, '15, conducted the services, J. S. Moses, '14, being here for a short visit, was asked to deliver the address.

The subject of Mr. Moses' discourse was the attitude of the average college man toward his work. He said that, as a freshman, one comes to college with high ideals and with great ambition for good scholastic standing and prominence in the activities. As time goes on he falls further and further from these ideals. He goes through college getting a smattering of everything, but little that will do him any practical good. His original plans for business or professional career have been disregarded. He is unfit to start in on a college graduate's career.

Mr. Moses said that there are great questions before this country, such as our position in regard to the present state of affairs in Europe, the question of woman suffrage, etc. These will have to be settled by men in our generation. College bred men will eventually be looked to as leaders for such settlements.

Before closing, Mr. Moses spoke of the importance of the Y. M. C. A. in the college.

NOTICE.

The Tripod has received the following notice from the College Office:

Below is the relative scholastic rank of the several units in the college body as determined by the mid-year examinations. The first table is based upon the percentage of E's received. That is to say, the larger the number of E's the lower the rank:

Phi Gamma Delta,
Sigma Psi
Psi Upsilon
The Neutral Body,
St. Anthony Hall,
Alpha Delta Phi,

The second table is based upon the percentage of A's and B's received. That is to say, the larger the number of A's and B's received the higher the rank:

The Hartford Club,

Alpha Chi Rho,
St. Anthony Hall,

SUNDAY CHAPEL.

Dr. Luther being away, Professor Barret preached last Sunday. He began his sermon by reading a chapter from the Old Testament, which was an account by Amos of God's wrath against the Israelites. Professor Barret then described the evil conditions existing at that time among those people. They cared little for religion and entirely disregarded God's commandments. About eight centuries later, St. John preached to the same effect by reciting the corrupt manner of living of the people in his time. Professor Barret said he could not add to the teachings of these two men, but proceeded to emphasize their importance and to apply them to the present day.

OBITUARY.

Rev. John Huske, rector of St. George's Church, Newburgh, N. Y., a graduate of Trinity College in the class of 1877, died at his home Thursday February 11th, at the age of 61 years. He was born in Fayetteville, N. C., son of Rev. Joseph C. Huske, an honored clergyman of that state. After graduation from Trinity, he studied theology at the Berkeley Divinity School, and was ordained June 6, 1880, by Bishop Lyman of North Carolina. He began his ministry in Statesville and Durham, N. C., and after a few years became assistant minister in one of the parishes in Buffalo, N. Y. In 1889 he became rector of St. Paul's Church, Erie, Pa.; five years later he accepted the position of curate in St. Thomas's Church, New York; and in 1902 he entered upon the rectorship in Newburgh to the work of which he devoted the rest of his life. He was a faithful man, of attractive personality, and did good service in whatever position he was placed.

Mr. Huske's brother, Rev. Kirkland Huske, rector of All Saints' Church, Great Neck, L. I., is a graduate of the University of South Carolina and the Berkeley Divinity School, where he was in the class of 1894. The brothers were cousins of Rt. Rev. Robert Strange, bishop of East Carolina, who died in August last.
