HOLY CROSS 2, TRINITY 0.
Pitchers' Battle Ends with Defeat.
Holy Cross defeated Trinity on Fitton Field, Worcester, last Wednesday, by the score of 2 to 0. Wallace, the Holy Cross pitcher, one of the best in the eastern colleges, and Baker, Trinity's stellar right-hander, indulged in a little battle for the honors of the field. If Baker had had the support of his teammates as he has had on other occasions, there is no telling how the game would have ended. But four errors by Trinity to one by Holy Cross accounts for the difference in the final scores. The pitchers each allowed only three hits to the other team, and while Baker struck out only eight men to Wallace's sixteen, Baker did not give a single base on balls while Wallace was worked for three.

It seemed very much as though the Trinity team was afraid to let men on the bases, or at least to have them stay there, for in both instances when there was a score it was the result of the Blue and Gold's too evident desire to hurry their opponents along. The first score came in the second. Devlin of Holy Cross singled. Comiskey, who followed him, hit toward McKay, who let the ball pass between his pedal extremities into right field. Schmitt, out there in the gardens, picked the ball up cleanly and then uncured his whip and heaved that ball across the field into the third base bleachers to catch Devlin. It was a good throw, for distance, but hardly for direction. Mr. Devlin calmly scored.

In the sixth there was another calamity. O'Neil, who cavorts around second base for Sanctus Cruz, hit safely a ball pitched by Baker, of Sanctissima Trinitas. Graney sacrificed him to second. Aforesaid Baker now uncorked a wild pitch, and sulphurous flames were seen to arise from the region of the catching box. O'Neil rested on third, but not for long, for Gillooly fumbled McCarthy's bingle, and O'Neil registered.

The tale is told. The day was cold, and very few were there. Holy Cross won, which they wouldn't have done, if we hadn't gone up in the air. The score:

TRINITY LOSES AT TENNIS.
Amherst Wins 4-2.
The Trinity tennis team was defeated Saturday afternoon at Amherst by losing four out of six matches. Niles starred in a hard three-set match with Snider of Amherst. It was the team's last contest of the season which has seen only one victory in four starts, although Captain Edsall was runner-up at the recent Intercollegiates.

On the same day J. G. N. Mitchell, '16 of Williamsport, Pa., was elected captain of the team for the ensuing year. Mitchell has played on the 'varsity for three years. As a nucleus for next year Captain Mitchell will have Niles, '16, and Harding, '17, upon which to build his team.

Summary of matches at Amherst: Singles—Cady, Amherst defeated Edsall, Trinity, 6-2, 3-6, 6-0; Niles, Trinity, defeated Snider, Amherst, 2-6, 6-3, 6-1; McCloy, Amherst, defeated Mitchell, Trinity, 6-3, 6-2; Peck, Trinity, defeated Langsprecht, Amherst, 2-6, 8-6, 7-5; doubles—Cady and McCloy, defeated Edsall and Niles, 7-9, 6-4, 6-2; Langsprecht and Snider defeated Peck and Harding, 6-3, 6-3.

SENIOR DRAMATICS.
Three Plays to Be Given. Arrangements Almost Completed.
Final arrangements are being completed and last rehearsals held, for the Senior Dramatics, to be presented as the opening event of Senior Week at 8.30 o'clock on the evening of June, the nineteenth. For the first time they are to be given at the Hartford Club, and it is hoped that its advantages as a ball-room and as a place for theatrical entertainments will do much to make the evening particularly enjoyable.

Three short plays, to be presented under the efficient coaching of Mrs. H. A. Perkins, are approaching completion. The curtain-raiser is to be "The Maker of Dreams," a modern fantasy by Oliphant Down. The show was produced in England for the first time last year with great success and has been repeated many times since with most favorable press comments. Recently it was presented in New York as part of a benefit performance for the American Ambulance Hospital in Paris and was exceptionally well received.

This play is to be the longest and most serious attempt of the evening's performance. The three characters in it are to be played by Mr. R. S. Barthelmess, Miss Frances Williams and Mr. J. A. Mitchell, all of whom have taken leading parts in previous Jester performances.

The other two plays are short comic skits from Maurice Baring's "Diminutive Dramas". "Iphigenia at Aulis" is to be the second play of the evening and "A Rehearsal of Macbeth" will wind up the performance. The leading parts in these plays are to be taken by Mr. H. R. Hill, Mr. O. W. Craik, Mr. H. L. Brainerd and Mr. J. A. Racioppi.

A. A. MEETING.
Officers and Managers Elected for the Ensuing Year.
On Friday evening, at seven o'clock, an Athletic Association meeting was held in the Public Speaking Room. After the calling of the roll, and reading of the minutes, J. N. Ives, '16, of Detroit, Mich., was unanimously elected President for the year 1915-16. A. N. Jones, '17, of Perth Amboy, N. J., was then elected Secretary-Treasurer for the ensuing year.

Mr. Ives then announced that the term of office of the Alumni Advisory Committee had expired. It was moved and carried that the Committee be re-elected for a period of two years.

Upon motion of Mr. Plummer, S. R. Hungerford, '17, of New Britain, Conn., was unanimously elected Baseball Manager for next year. In the election for Assistant Manager, C. F. Ives, '18, of Detroit, Mich., was victorious.

Mr. Townsend then moved that the Secretary be empowered to cast a unanimous ballot in favor of C. C. McIvor, '17, of Yokohoma, Japan, for Track Manager. The motion was carried. Mc. McIvor's resignation was then read and accepted with regret. In the ensuing election for Track Manager, J. B. Barnwell, '17, of Selma, Ala., was elected. S. D. Pinney, '18, of Hartford, was chosen Assistant Manager.

During the meeting a motion was made by J. N. G. Mitchell, '16, that the phrase "shall have shared in" be substituted for "shall have won" in the rules of the Athletic Association regulating the winning of tennis insignia in the New England Intercollegiates. The motion was seconded, and after some discussion, passed.

Mr. J. W. Williams, Yale, '08, now a graduate student at Trinity, made a short address during the meeting regarding the Northfield Student Conference, urging that men be sent there to represent Trinity.

COLLEGE NOTES.
The New York Alumni and the Hartford Alumni have engaged Hatch's Band for the Trinity-Wesleyan Baseball Game, June 22nd, and arrangements have been made for all the alumni to meet on the campus immediately after the Alumni Luncheon and march in a body from the campus to Trinity Field before the game. The band will play inspiring Trinity airs and the alumni will back up the team in the true Trinity spirit. It is planned to make the ball game on Alumni Day one of the features of Commencement Week each year, similar to the annual Yale-Harvard game at New Haven.

Invitations have been received about college to the wedding of Miss Louise Van Ness Day and Ward Everett Duffy, '15, of West Hartford, to take place on June 24th.

TUFTS 4, TRINITY 1.
Eastern Champions Win in Well-Played Game.
Tufts, as good a college team as there is to be found in the East today, defeated Trinity on Saturday by the score of 4-1. The game was cleanly played by both teams, Trinity having only one error and Tufts none. Trinity got six hits to Tufts' seven, but of these seven, two were home runs and one a three-base hit. Baker, who pitched the Holy Cross game so well the Wednesday before, was sent in again and distinguished himself again. The extra base clouts by the Tufts' men were largely due to the mountains and valleys in their outfield, to which the Trinity gardeners were not accustomed.

The changed batting order and line-up that was used for the first time in the Holy Cross game was used again in the Tufts' game. It looks about as strong in the hitting line as Trinity can produce, but the fielding department seems much weaker by the change.

Krepps, the Tufts' left-hander, held the Trinity men safely all through the game, save in the eighth, when a base on balls to McKay, a steal and a single by Gillooly sent home a run for Trinity. The rest of the time, though members of the team were frequently on base, the only result was a death. The score:

TENNIS ELECTION.

The tennis team recently elected J. G. N. Mitchell, '16, captain for next year. He was manager of the team this year.

'90 REUNION.

Many of the men of '90 have signified their intention to be present at the twenty-fifth anniversary of the class. Col. W. E. A. Bulkeley, the class president, will entertain the '90 men at his home on Monday evening, June 21, at 8 o'clock, and it is expected that all the live, if not all the living, members will be on hand.

ALUMNI NOTES.

'85—The Rev. S. S. Mitchell, rector of Trinity Church, Watertown, S. D., has been elected editor of the South Dakota Churchman.

'98—The Rev. E. S. Travers, rector of Trinity Church, Pittsburg, and formerly chaplain at West Point Military Academy, preached the sermon on Memorial Day before the assembled veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic. Mr. Travers will also speak at the Alumni Luncheon on Alumni Day, June 22nd.

'09—The Rev. Paul Roberts, of Brookings, S. D., has been elected secretary of the missionary district of South Dakota. He has also been elected delegate to the Provincial Synod of the Northwest, which will be held in Omaha next fall.

SENIORS' OCCUPATIONS.

Final List of Vocations for Near-Alumni.

Frederic Griffin Dorwart, of Newport, Pa., after a year as clerk in the maintenance division of the Pennsylvania State Highway Commission, will take the medical course at Johns Hopkins.

Ernest F. Brown, of Manchester, will probably teach. He has specialized in Latin and Anglo-Saxon.

Edward L. Ludwig, of Hartford, has negotiations pending with The Standard Oil Company for work in the Orient after three months' training at the Company's New York school.

Harold C. Mills, of Troy, N. Y., enters the Berkeley Divinity School next fall.

Dallas S. Squire, of Morristown, N. J., will eventually take up the oil business but for the present will go into some form of business in Hartford.

Smart Brand, of Hartford, will take graduate courses in physics at Sheffield Scientific School.

Nicholas Zipkin, of Ellington, is undecided whether to enter Johns Hopkins or the Harvard Medical School.

Maurice L. Furnivall, of Hartford, has received an appointment to the Connecticut State Highway Department as civil engineer.

The various forms of business claim nine of this year's seniors. Next in preference is the teaching profession, which will take away seven, four of whom will first take graduate courses for higher degrees at other colleges. Six of the men enter theological seminaries, and another becomes an ordained missionary for Turkey, while still another will be a lay missionary teacher also in the Far East. For the medical profession four have enlisted and four will pursue graduate studies for higher degrees; one each in biology, physics, political science, and English. The law takes two and the advertising profession two. There remains one man for each of the following: School of Journalism, insurance engineering, library work, and civil engineering. It is to be regretted that more of the seniors could not be represented in these statistics; but owing to uncontrollable circumstances, such as the uncertainty of the examinations, many of the class of 1915 and others graduating this June declined to make public their probable vocations.

All three plays are costume ones, being respectively French, Greek and Elizabethan in period. Buckholz of Springfield will probably furnish costumes. Music for dancing is to be by Hatch's Orchestra.

The Committee has sent out a letter to many of the alumni and friends of the college telling them of the performance. The requests for tickets has been a very general one. It is hoped that the undergraduates will reserve tickets before the evening of the performance. They may be obtained from J. A. Mitchell at 10 Jarvis.

The patronesses for the performance are Mrs. F. S. Luther, Mrs. I. K. Hamilton, Mrs. B. T. Williams and Mrs. C. L. F. Robinson.

BEN GREET PLAYERS.

Here a Week From Today for Red Cross.

Trinity men will be interested to know that the Ben Greet Players are to be in Hartford during the coming week. Two performances are to be given, a matinee on Wednesday, June the 16th, when "As You Like It" will be presented, and an evening performance of "A Midsummer Night's Dream" the same day. The performances are under the auspices of the Hartford Chapter of the Red Cross, which is of particular interest to Trinity, as it was for the benefit of the Red Cross that the Jesters presented "Tom Moore" last December. As is his usual custom, Ben Greet will present the shows outdoors, and they are to be staged on the grounds of the Hartford Golf Club. In case of rain they will be transferred to Foot Guard Hall. Tickets are on sale at Sedgwick and Caseys'.

NEW SCHOLARSHIPS.

The college is the recipient of $5,000 by a bequest of the late Richard F. Goodman, of Newton, N. J., for the purpose of founding a scholarship in memory of his brother, the late George F. Goodman, '70. The scholarship is to be awarded annually to some deserving student preparing for the Episcopal ministry.

the best of everything in life.

In the cigarettes they make for themselves, to their individual liking, from "Bull" Durham tobacco, these men find the delicious freshness, incomparable mild-ness and unique fragrance, that afford supreme enjoyment and satisfaction. At all times and occasions it is correct, fashionable, epicurean to "Roll Your Own."

GENUINE "BULL" DURHAM SMOKING TOBACCO

Made from the finest, mellow-ripe leaf grown in the famous "bright" tobacco district of Virginia-North Carolina, that supplies the world with cigarette tobacco. Much of the delicate flavor and fragrance of this leaf escapes from the ready-made cigarette. These rare qualities can only be retained in the bulk of tobacco in the "Bull" Durham sack, and enjoyed in the fresh-rolled "Bull" Durham cigarette.

FREE An Illustrated Booklet, showing correct
way to "Roll Your Own" Cigarettes, and a package of cigarette papers, will both be mailed, free, to any address in United States on postal request.
Address "Bull" Durham, Durham, N. C. Room 1400.
