PRICE FIVE CENTS

AGAIN, NO BASEBALL.

Rain Prevents Game with Springfield Y. M. C. A. College.

Jupiter Pluvius, the old scapegoat who has to bear the blame for the combination of atmospheric conditions and geographical positions which produce rain, once more interfered with the game of baseball as played by the Trinity College team. He did it Wednesday, when there was a game scheduled with the Springfield Y.M.C.A. College. It was the third game in a row that he has thus prevented. What a brute that guy is!

However, Manager Plummer tried to arrange a game for today with that same college. They have beaten the Army team, which up to date, has about as good a claim as any college to the eastern championship. They have a remarkable pitcher in Eddy, a man with a no-hit, no-run record. But Trinity last year landed on Eddy for eleven hits and five runs, while Springfield was getting three runs. The team thought that, if there is a game, they would repeat last year's performance, but it could not be arranged.

INTRA-MURAL LEAGUE.

A. D.'s Defeat Sigma Psi, 19-1.

Running the bases as wild as the Redskins used to ride the prairies, Alpha Delta Phi defeated Sigma Psi by the score of 19-1 in the Intra-Mural League Tuesday afternoon. Only five innings were played, but these five were sufficient for Alpha Delta Phi to lose seven balls in the long grass that thrives on the rock in Zion Hill Park. Runs by threes, fours, fives, and sixes per inning were in order for the winners until the scorekeepers gave up their task in disgust after the nineteenth tally had been made.

Long before the game was over, Alpha Delta Phi men wearied of running around the bases and invited the Sigma Psi men to tag them out. Sigma Psi was weak in the pitching department and this, coupled with the hitting ability of the winners, was the cause of the slaughter.

A large audience witnessed the first two or three innings, but the teams battled (?) on in loneliness after that as the many spectators were forced to leave the scene of slaughter in time to get to classes the following morning.

Young, Barber, and Berkeley were on the points for Alpha Delta Phi, and Seymour, Johnston, and Burnap formed the battery of Sigma Psi.

It now remains for Alpha Delta Phi to play the Neutral Body for the intramural cup as these two teams are the winners of their respective divisions in the league.

SOPHOMORE ELECTION.

On Thursday noon the Sophomore class held a meeting for the purpose of electing a representative to the college Senate for the year 1915-1916. Rock and McKay were the candidates. Rock was elected. He has been Senator during the past year. He is a member of St. Anthony Hall.

THE FUTURE OF 1915.

What Some of Them Will Do.

Ward Everett Duffy, of West Hartford, will take up journalism as a profession. He will attend the Cornell Summer School this summer and in the fall will enter the Columbia School of Journalism in New York.

James F. English, of East Windsor, will enter the missionary field in Turkey, in which his father spent five years. English will take a full course of three years in the Hartford Theological Seminary and will be ordained before leaving this country for his life's work.

Fred Carpenter, of Bristol, has registered in the Columbia Medical School for the four years' course. This summer he continues in the role in which he has become so widely known as a college man, playing ball in the Twin State League with Bellows Falls, Vermont.

John A. Barns, of Westmoreland, N. Y., will enter the Columbia Medical School next fall along with Carpenter.

Louis French Jefferson, of Darien, intends to teach or perhaps go into some form of business later.

Donald C. McCarthy, of Hartford, will return to college next year to work for the degree of M. A. McCarthy will ultimately take up the profession of teaching. He will tutor this summer in Elementary Biology, English, and Latin.

J. Archibald Mitchell, of Centerville, Md., has received his appointment from the National Board of Foreign Missions as teacher to Shanghai, China.

Harold S. Olafson, of Jamaica, N. Y., will enter the General Theological Seminary in New York, where he will also take graduate courses in English and Philosophy at Columbia. His ultimate field will be teaching.

William B. Pressey, of Ashton, R. I., plans to spend next year at Harvard where he will work for an M. A. degree in preparation for the teaching profession.

Ernest T. Somerville, of Toledo, O., has had his experience with the Hartford Courant and will continue his journalistic work with some paper which offers day work.

Raymond L. Scofield, of New Haven, enters Berkeley Divinity School next autumn and will also take graduate courses in English at Wesleyan. This summer he will work in New Haven and as lay reader at Grace Church, Newington. His address in New Haven will be, 325 Greenwich Avenue.

Clifton Wright, of Danbury, will take the law course at Columbia.

Bertram L. B. Smith, of Oak Park, Ill., will enter the Western Theological Seminary in Chicago next fall.

Henry L. Brainerd, of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., hopes to enter the employ of the Standard Oil.

Edward L. Pollock, jr., of Chicago, Ill., will pound iron next year for the American Car and Foundry Co.

Newell R. Sage, of Middletown, is going into business in Hartford.

CREHORE CAPTAIN.

Holder of Mile and Two-Mile Records Elected Yesterday.

Morton S. Crehore, jr., '16, of Cohasset, Mass., was elected captain of the track team for the year 1915-1916 at a meeting of the team held yesterday. Crehore is the holder of the college record in the mile, four minutes and thirty-two seconds, and in the two-mile, ten minutes and ten seconds. He is a member of the Beta Beta of Psi Upsilon.

SENIOR DRAMATICS.

A change in the plans of the senior dramatics has resulted in a necessary change in the character parts. The play, "The Maker of Dreams" will be the curtain raiser. Richard Barthelmess will play the part of the manufacturer with Miss Frances Williams of this city as Pierette and J. Archibald Mitchell as Pierre.

Joseph Racioppi will play the role of Iphigenia in "Iphigenia at Aulis". Agamemnon will be acted by Howard R. Hill, with Einer Sather as Clytaemnestra. Calchas will be taken by Henry L. Brainard, and Oscar W. Craik will be Odysseus.

The closing playlet will be "A Rehearsal of Macbeth in 1595." Students will impersonate the actors who took the various parts in Shakespeare's play. Oscar W. Craik will appear in his second role of the evening as stage manager, Howard R. Hill as the producer, while the part of Macbeth will be taken by Henry L. Brainard. Richard Barthelmess will play Lady Macduff, L. D. Simonson the part of Macduff, Edgar T. Morgan the part of Banquo, and J. G. N. Mitchell the doctor. Bradford Ripley will be the forest witch and Theron B. Clement will represent Shakespeare.

COLLEGE NOTES.

Manager J. G. N. Mitchell of the tennis team announced Tuesday that another match had been secured for the tennis team. Bowdoin will play on the college courts on Tuesday, June 1. Bowdoin is represented by the strongest team in the state of Maine, as two of its members were recently the winners of the Maine Intercollegiate while her captain captured the singles.

The third and last of the series of senior-junior assemblies is to be held in Alumni Hall on Tuesday evening, June 1. It is expected that this will be the most largely attended of the series as many of the members of the undergraduate body who did not attend either of the earlier assemblies are planning to be present on Tuesday evening.

NOTICE.

There will be but one issue of the Tripod next week; it will try to appear on Wednesday. The reason is the presence of Memorial Day, when not even editors work, in the week. There will be another issue of the Tripod in the first half of the first week of exams, however.

MEDUSA ELECTIONS.

Senior Honorary Society Picks Six Men from 1916.

The Medusa held its annual tap day last night and reverted to the custom of former years by having the junior class assemble at the college fence and making the tapping public. This custom was not kept by the 1914 Medusa.

The following men were tapped:

Frederick Barwick Castator, Alpha Delta Phi, captain of the football team for next year, and member of the track team.

James Landon Cole, St. Anthony Hall, three years a member of the football team, former president of his class, chairman of the sophomore hop committee, and a member of the Senate.

Frank Lambert, Alpha Delta Phi, three years a member of the football team, former president of his class, president of the Y. M. C. A., two years ago a member of the baseball team, and last year and this year on the squad.

John Norton Ives, St. Anthony Hall, secretary-treasurer of the Athletic Association, for two years on the football squad and last year on the team, last year on the baseball team and this year on the squad, a former president of his class.

Robert Seymour Morris, Alpha Chi Rho, a former president of his class, and last year a member of the football team, and a member of the track team, and the college choir.

Charles Byron Spofford, Jr., Psi Upsilon, leader of the glee club, manager of the football team, member of the track team, member of the college choir and quartet.

"NOW THEN TRINITY"

That second Wesleyan game is coming next Monday and Trinity is going to win again. No one who saw that magnificent rally in the last contest could entertain any doubts as to the result. Yes—Trinity will win—but let's show the team that we appreciate the splendid battle they are going to put up for us. Every Trinity man who can beg, borrow, or steal forty cents ought to be on the bleachers at Middletown pulling with his whole soul for the wearers of the Blue and Gold. We've heard all about that psychology stuff, and the effect of friendly cheering on a baseball team. Just put that knowledge into practice on Memorial Day, and the ominous Wesleyan chapel bell will never toll again.

THE FUTURE OF 1915.

R. H. Bent is going into the advertising business.

R. C. Stratton will teach next year and will take an M. S. at Wesleyan.

C. D. Thompson is trying to get work in commercial chemistry. He would prefer photograph work.

Thomas H. Robinson will act as principal of a High School in New York State next year. Later he will go to Harvard for a further degree, specializing in History and Political Science.

T. A. Peck will go into the advertising department of Vogue.

F. J. McEvitt will go into engineering work.

L. D. Simonson has taken some of the actuarial examinations in preparation for his entry into the actuary department of insurance work.

G. D. Howell will act as traveling secretary for Alpha Delta Phi beginning July 1st. Later he will specialize in Political Science at Columbia.

H. R. Hill will act as assistant librarian at Trinity College next year and will stay in library work permanently.

E. U. Cowles will have charge of a playground in Hartford this summer and next fall will enter the Hartford Theological Seminary. He will take his M. A. here at the same time.

T. C. Kyle will go into business.

P. J. Young is going into business for a while, in order to earn money for a course at Harvard later in business administration.

P. M. Swift will be at Harvard Law School next year. This summer he will play baseball at Hyannis, Cape Cod. Eventually he will practice with his father at Yarmouthport, Mass.

O. D. Budd is on the lookout for lambs. He will be in Wall Street next year.

S. H. Edsall will enter a Divinity School, probably Seabury.

Isaac Battin Shelley is looking for a job as teacher in a prep. school. He would make a good baseball coach.

(Editor's Note—The future occupations of all the seniors are not here given, but the remainder will have their lives to come revealed very soon.)

INTERCOLLEGIATE NOTES.

"You are incompetent to run your own paper. Let us appoint a trained journalist to censor your news; decide what the students shall read and what they shall not read; and it is recommended that you pay this man $300 a year." So says the faculty at the University of Wisconsin. The Daily Cardinal objects very strongly, believing that it will eventually result in complete faculty control through one man and that free expression of student opinion would no longer be possible.

Posters advertising a musical comedy to be given by the male students at Northwestern University have been condemned by faculty members because they "depicted several young men behind the scenes in scanty attire of chorus girls preparing for the next act." We have always thought that the amount of time spent by chorus girls in preparing for the next act was practically negligible.

Donald Lippincott, one of the fastest of eastern sprinters, thinks the limit has been reached in the 100-yard dash. He does not believe that any man will ever be able to run the century under nine and three-fifths seconds.

Yale, Harvard, and Princeton have been playing baseball together since 1868. In this time they have met in 334 games. Yale stands highest in the percentage of victories.

Fancy dressing for the commencement exercises at Radcliffe will not be allowed this year. The waists will be supplied by the faculty at a cost of

BOOST FOR CARPENTER.

A spectator at the recent Trinity-Wesleyan baseball game was so impressed by the beautiful type of friendship manifested by the Blue and Gold's peppery catcher and the Wesleyan third-sacker that he has immortalized the occasion in a splendid article in this week's Hartford Bugle entitled "Modern Damon and Pythias." He wrote in part: "Carpenter slid into third headforemost so that Beeman might not feel the points of his gleaming spikes. The wearer of the Cardinal and Black helped the Trinity man to his feet with a solicitous inquiry concerning the state of his health. Carpenter responded with a winning smile."

(Editor's Note—The Tripod is certainly delighted that Carp's peaceable nature is at last receiving the publicity that such an admirable characteristic well warrants. No one who has ever listened to an amicable conversation between "Dinny" Gillooly and the stocky backstop can fail to rejoice that the latter has at last come into his own.)

ALUMNI NOTE.

Stone-wall fielding (but thirty errors were made in the whole ten innings) marked the play of the Pennsylvanian and Punch Bowl in a hard-fought game last week. The humorists were defeated by the editors of the daily by the close score of 21-20. Five men on the victorious side starred in the field. They were the only players to exhibit air-tight ball; between the five of them, two chances were accepted without a single slip-up.

At Rhode Island State University, so we gather from a head in the daily instead of calisthenics.

Ex-president Roosevelt is stopping in Syracuse during the trial which is now on. The students at the University found this out when they were having the first college sing of the year. The sing promptly assumed the form of a serenade to Mr. Roosevelt.
He answered with an impromptu speech of greeting, and expressed a wish that every student present could be on the jury.
