TRINITY vs. BOSTON.

Saturday the baseball team makes the trip to Boston to play the Boston College team. Boston is reported as having a very strong team, but Wesleyan found no trouble in beating them last Saturday, 10 to 6. With this score as a basis it is safe to predict a victory for Trinity, as our victory over them in track is still fresh in our minds.

Kennedy, who heads the list for Trinity, is hitting well and Schmitt may be relied upon for a hit when one is needed. While Murray and Vizner have not got going yet this year, they are both good hitters once they get started. Lambert and Leeke have been hitting exceptionally well lately, and it is safe to say that both of them will come across with a hit or two Saturday. Ferris will pitch and if he is in form we ought to have another victory to add to our list.

Boston has two heavy hitters in Regan and Mitchell whom our men will have to watch closely. Either Gill or McCorry will pitch for Boston.

The teams will probably line up as follows:

Trinity	Boston
Kennedy, cf	Mauley, ss
McKay, 2b	Gildea, lf
Murray, ss	Regan, 2b
Schmitt, c	Mitchell, 3b
Vizner, lf	Flynn, cf
Lambert, rf	Wholly, rf
Leeke, 3b	Fitzgerald, 1b
Berkeley, 1b	Donnelly, c
Ferris, p	Gill, p
	McCorry, p

1918 "IVY" ELECTIONS.

Wednesday the Sophomore Class held a meeting at which Newell Brown Holmes was elected editor-in-chief and Henry C. Redfield business manager of the 1918 Ivy. Holmes will appoint the members of the Ivy board in the near future.

HOSPITAL CORPS FIELD WORK.

A limited number of men—not more than six in all—who desire practical field work with the Hospital Corps of the National Guard at this year's manoeuvres, July 10 to 15 inclusive, may join the sanitary detachment of the First Connecticut Infantry. For further information, please see Dr. Paul Waterman at 44 High Street, or Dr. H. B. Haylett at 150 High Street, Hartford.

NEW ENGLAND INTERCOLLEGIATES.

Thirteen of Trinity's track men left this morning on the 9.40 train to compete in the New England Intercollegiates to be held in Springfield this afternoon and Saturday. It looks very likely that Trinity will score a number of places in the meet.

Captain Crehore may be counted on to place in the mile run, although Potter of Wesleyan is a very fast man. Certainly if Crehore runs as he ran last Saturday in the two-mile race, he will win this event. Goldstein, who has won four first places in the two meets Trinity has entered in this season, will reach the finals of the 100 and 220-yard dashes, while Easland, who has also scored four firsts—two in the shot put, and two in the discus, will be hard to beat. In Bjorn, Coach Harmon has a good man for the jumps. The two Georges are running in good form this year. Jarvis, the only pole-vaulter, who is making the trip, has won his event in the last two meets. Perkins and Shulthies are two men hard to beat in the hurdles, while Hahn, C. P. Johnson, Williams, and Beers will certainly give an excellent account of themselves in the events in which they will enter.

Thus, although many stars from various colleges are competing, yet Trinity may feel certain that the men picked out by Coach Harmon will make a good showing.

NOTICE.

In accordance with the recent action of the Board of Trustees, it will be necessary for all students who wish to have their scholarships renewed for next year to make application before the first of July. New application blanks may be secured at the office.

NORTHFIELD CONFERENCE.

The Annual Northfield Student Conference will be held at East Northfield, Mass., from June 23 to July 2. It is probable that Trinity will be represented here among the undergraduates from all New England and the Eastern Canadian colleges.

The conference is becoming more popular every year as the growing interest at Trinity shows. At West Point, to be one of the fourteen delegates is considered quite an honor, which goes to show that such a ten days, spent among the nation's big men, and undergraduates from many colleges, in a session divided between study and recreation, is a vacation well spent.

GLEE CLUB CONCERT.

This evening at eight o'clock the Glee Club will give a concert at Bloomfield in the Town Hall. There is to be dancing afterwards, and it is hoped that the concert will be supported by the college body as well as by the citizens of Bloomfield.

The program will be practically the same as usual, although, owing to Perkins' inability to be present the xylophone solo will be omitted.

- 1 'Neath the Elms.
- 2 Live Wire March.
- 3 Carry Me Back to Old Virginia.
- 4 Vocal Solo.
- 5 Mandolin Quintette.
- 6 Waltz—Love Chat.

Recitation.

- 1 College Songs.
- 2 Selections—Quartette.
- 3 White Wings.
- 4 There's a College on the Hill.

The mandolin quintette has been preparing some new pieces and promises much at this concert. Despite the seeming lack of enthusiasm in rehearsals the Glee Club also has been hard at work making ready for the Senior Concert, which it is hoped will be by far the best this year. The men who compose the clubs are: Glee Club—Morris, Schmitt, Harding, Perkins, Beers, Kramer, Redfield, Wadlund, Sturman, Johnson, Nordstrom, Forbes, Grime, Linton, Brill, Kenney, Tree, Plummer, Parsons, and Fenton; Mandolin Club—Craig, Randall, Holden, Mitchell, Plummer, Wooster, Fenton, Parsons, and Perkins.

"NOW THEN TRINITY"

STRAW VOTE.

The Tripod straw vote is coming along very well, a number of ballots having already come in both from graduates and undergraduates. Hurry up and express your own opinions and be sure and get your ballot in on time. The Tripod hopes to make this vote really representative of Trinity opinion. It seems that this hope will be realized.

TRIPOD MEETINGS.

On Wednesday of this week, the 1915-16 Tripod Board held a meeting at which Kent S. Kirkby was elected Editor-in-Chief.

A meeting of the 1916-17 Tripod Board was held yesterday. Melville Shulthiess and Joseph Buffington, Jr., were elected Managing Editors, while Paul H. Alling was elected Alumni Editor and Secretary of the Board. It was decided not to elect an Athletic Editor for the time being.

WARNING!

Don't miss the opportunity to get the best "Ivy" ever, full of mighty interesting drawings, photographs, and writing. You undergraduates will never again get such a chance to own a living, pulsating record of the Trinity that you all know, the Trinity that you will look back to. Think how it will supplement your memory when in years to come you tell some future batch of undergraduates all about "the good old days." You graduates should take this wonderful opportunity to get into closer contact with the present day Trinity, which is really the same Trinity that you all knew and remember, although it differs in some details.

If you want to get the best portrayal of Trinity as it now is, get the 1917 "Ivy", and order now.

Remember, the edition is limited.

COMMUNICATION.

To the Editor of the Tripod:

In spite of the fact that the Senior Class has dismissed the insurance project as too expensive to be considered, I am inclined to hope that something may yet come of it. An approximate cost of $7 a man per year is not much for most of you, but there are undoubtedly some men who would find it a hardship to pay this amount at the present time. After you have started work you will have no difficulty in meeting the premiums as they fall due. It is the first $7 that looks so large.

If some alumnus or alumni will offer to pay the first premiums for those who feel that they cannot afford to pay them this year, why shouldn't the plan succeed? You would, of course, regard the payment as a loan to be paid as soon as possible.

Let us assume that the class of 1916 approves the plan, but that twenty men cannot pay the initial $7. (Let us hope there are not that many.) Alumni might be prevailed upon to lend $140 and every man in the class could then take part in raising $10,000 or more for the college. The success or failure of the scheme depends largely on your enthusiasm—or lack of it. You know that Trinity needs money. Here, with very little sacrifice, you have an opportunity to give her something. Will you do it? It is being done by other colleges all over the country.

Yours very truly,

LOUIS O. DE RONGÉ, '14.

JUNIOR SMOKER.

A Junior Smoker will be held this evening at the Alpha Delta Phi house. Acting President Perkins will speak, and a large attendance is expected.

NOTICE.

The Charles Elliot Company will put out the College Calendar for 1917. It will be remembered that it was this Company which furnished the programs for the Junior Prom. this year and which is also furnishing the programs for Class Day and the Senior Prom. The same excellent work will be manifest in the Calendar. The cover will be embossed leather, and the insert will contain cuts of the college and campus life. The Calendars will cost one dollar and will be delivered for cash by the first of next December. Orders will be taken in the near future by T. B. Clement, 10 Jarvis Hall. The Calendar will make an ideal Christmas gift and an indispensable asset to every college room. Order early, and remember that you will not have to pay until next December.

WAR BOOKS IN LIBRARY.

The Library has recently received from Sir Gilbert Parker a copy of the report of the Government Committee on the Treatment of British Prisoners of War at Wittenberg Camp. The article is of great interest and value because of the great typhus epidemic which was prevalent at the camp in 1915.

A comparison of the treatment of the prisoners at this place with the German prisoners in the British camps is far from favorable to the Germans. This is very surprising in view of the great efficiency of the German Medical Corps.

The assistants at the desk will be very pleased to show students the War material which has been received recently from Sir Gilbert Parker, much of which is very interesting and well worth reading.

LONGWOOD TENNIS.

On May 16, E. A. Niles, who won his match in the early part of the week at the New England Intercollegiate Tennis Tournament at Longwood, Boston, was defeated by Woodbridge of Massachusetts Institute of Technology. The scores of the sets were 6-4, 6-4.

INTERCOLLEGIATE NOTES.

A novel American aid to the warfare problems of Europe will be instigated by the sending of a veterinary expert to the European war front by the University of Pennsylvania.

Non-fraternity men at Lafayette show much better scholarship than fraternity members, according to the recent compilation of the scholarship rankings of the past semester recently issued by the college authorities. Non-fraternity men have an average of ten per cent. better marks than Greek letter affiliates. Delta Tau Delta, Sigma Chi, and Kappa Sigma are in order the leading fraternities in scholarship.

Startling facts of the self-support of students at Southern colleges are being brought out by investigations and reports being made by Southern college officials. At the University of Virginia 250 men are entirely self-supporting. The average earnings of the men who are partially paying their way through this institution is $352 during the college year.

Two hundred out of the five hundred Stanford co-eds have signed up for spring athletics. Basket-ball, rowing, tennis, fencing, and dancing are the most popular sports.

The Harvard University business school offers the degree of Doctor of Philosophy for work in social and business economics according to the recent announcements from the administrative office of the university.

An organization of alumni engineers of the University of Utah has been formed. The object is to cooperate with engineering students. It is believed that they who have had practical engineering experience should be able to assist graduates in securing positions as well as aid in the conducting of collegiate work.

Mud, paint, and glass featured the annual sophomore-freshman rush which took place recently at Cornell.

A recent issue of the Ohio State Lantern, the college daily, was gotten out exclusively by the co-eds.

At Purdue the Essanay movie people are making films of the campus, including all university activities and class work. The school is cooperating in order to get the pictures for educational purposes.

The proposition of joint buying by fraternities and boarding-house clubs is being considered at Ohio. This plan has worked well at Cornell, having saved $20,000.00 for twenty-eight organizations.

INTERCOLLEGIATE NOTES.

Nearly a third of the students at the University of Washington claim to be entirely self-supporting. Of 3,174 enrolled, 754 men and 250 women have testified that they are making their own way. The figures are taken from blanks filled out by the students when registering.

As might be expected, even more students are doing something to maintain themselves. Men who are partially self-supporting number 802 and women 247. Two hundred men and 792 women acknowledge a full debt to others for their education, while 64 men and 62 women gave no information as to the source of their income.

A bound volume of the Princetonian for the years 1878-1879, during which Woodrow Wilson was managing editor, has been sent to the President.

At Princeton a committee of six men has been appointed to recruit students for the summer training camps.

A professor at Wisconsin, keeping count of the mis-spelled words in themes submitted by students, reports that only one word in 5,562 was mis-spelled.

Of the sixty-seven men at present at Cornell University who are wearers of the "C", thirty-four are from New York State. Pennsylvania is second with ten men and Illinois third with six. The figures from the states which have at least one man are as follows: New York 34, Pennsylvania 10, Illinois 6, Oregon 3, Connecticut 2, Ohio 2, California 1, District of Columbia 1, Maryland 1, New Hampshire 1, Nevada 1, Utah 1. In addition two "C" men come from Canada, and one from Hawaii and Norway, respectively.

The senior class of Columbia University has voted to choose its commencement officers by competition instead of by vote. Proposed orations, speeches, poems, histories, and the like, will be submitted to the president of the class and two faculty members, who will select the best three manuscripts for each office. The names of the authors of these will be submitted to the class, which will then elect one of the qualified candidates.

One thousand students of the University of Texas recently took part in a three-day celebration of the Shakespearian Tercentenary.
