FRENCH WAR CROSS FOR E. W. LOVE.

The French War Cross for meritorious service on the battlefield has been given to Ethelbert W. Love, of Cambridge, Mass., who was a member of the freshman class at Trinity College last year. He is a private in the United States Army Ambulance Service. He is a member of the Alpha Delta Phi Fraternity.

DOCTOR VAN TYNE ON DEMOCRACY vs. AUTOCRACY REPRESENTATIVE OF NATIONAL SECURITY LEAGUE— PROFESSOR AT UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN COMING.

Dr. Claude H. Van Tyne, head of the department of history at the University of Michigan, historian of high rank, and representative of the National Security League, will speak on "Democracy versus Autocracy" at a meeting open to the public, which is to be held under auspices of the Political Science Club in the Public Speaking Room Thursday night at eight o'clock. The speaker is the author of "The American Revolution", and "A History of the United States", and is a contributor to "The Nation", the "American Historical Review", and the "New International Encyclopedia."

He was a lecturer at French universities in 1913-1914, and has written the following characterization of the French people: "During my sojourn in the French provinces during the year before the War, I wrote repeatedly to friends that the French were the most earnest, serious people I had ever lived among. Whence had sprung the idea of a frivolous people, given to levity, idle wit and persiflage? Partly it was due, perhaps, to the character of mere passing epochs in French history, partly to travelers' impressions of Parisian boulevards, and, in part, to impressions drawn from badly-selected literature, which pictured the worst and not the best, or even the characteristic in French life. But whatever the prejudice in the past, the world now sees, when France stands at the highest level of her moral attainment, how baseless was the charge of decadence."

At a benefit for the Hartford Chapter of the Red Cross, held in Center Church House last Friday night, Dr. Odell Shepard, James J. Goodwin Professor of English Literature, gave readings of "Soldier Verse."

UNIT OF RESERVE OFFICERS' CORPS FORMED COLONEL COWLES SUCCEEDS CAPTAIN DAVIS.

Trinity has been officially recognized by the War Department as a Reserves Officers' Training Corps. An announcement to this effect posted on the bulletin board by Dr. Luther greeted the students on their return from the Easter recess. Needless to say the excitement created by this anxiously anticipated piece of news was intense.

Colonel Calvin D. Cowles, the Commandant appointed by the War Department, is an officer of wide experience. He is a graduate of West Point, class of 1873, and has seen service in several campaigns. As a second lieutenant in 1878 he fought in a campaign against Dull Knife in Western Kansas and two years later he served in an expedition against the Uncomphagre Utes at the time of the White River massacre in Colorado. In the Spanish-American War he was with the Seventh Army Corps at Havana, Cuba. He again saw action in the campaign against the Philippine insurrectionists and from the year 1906 to 1909 he commanded the First Infantry in the army of the pacification of Cuba. He has three sons at present engaged in the military forces of the United States.

When the college opened last September the work in military science was made compulsory. Dr. Luther recognizing the fact that the country might have to call on the men in colleges before the war had ended, allowed no one to be excused from service unless for physical unfitness. Captain J. H. Kelso Davis, '99, who was in command of Troop B during the Mexican trouble, was placed in charge. He was assisted by Captain Fred W. Prince, Lieutenant Harold G. Hart, and Sergeant Raymond Dexter, of the Connecticut Home Guard.

Although Trinity faculty members have aided in the training of the embryo officers, Trinity professors had not had the work exclusively to themselves. One of the most interesting and instructive of the courses was that given by Major T. B. Merriman of Harvard University, who had seen service in France and who is associated with Colonel Paul Azan of the French army, now training the Harvard men. Among the Trinity professors who have assisted are: Professor Charles E. Rogers of the engineering department, who instructed the men in military map reading and map making; Dr. Horace Cheney Swan who gave a course in military hygiene and camp sanitation and Professor Edward E. Humphrey, professor of history and political science, who explained the field service regulations.

FOOTBALL STAR JOINS MARINE CORPS.

Nelson A. Shepard, '21, who played at right tackle on Trinity's informal eleven, has entered the United States Marine Corps. He proved to be one of the strongest members of the football team last fall and it was expected that he would be the mainstay in the pitching box for Trinity's baseball nine this spring. He came from Kent School. He is a member of the Psi Upsilon fraternity.

The Secretary of the Faculty announces that by vote of the Faculty the H. E. Russell Fellowship has been awarded to T. K. James, '18, while C. J. Muller, '18, has been awarded the Mary A. Terry Fellowship.

The first fellowship was endowed by a legacy of $10,000 from Henry E. Russell, of New York, and yields an income annually of $500. It is awarded biennially by vote of the Faculty to a member of the graduating class who gives evidence of superior ability and who agrees to pursue an approved course of non-professional graduate work either at Trinity College or at some other university approved by the Faculty. The incumbent holds the fellowship for two years.

The second fellowship, which yields an annual income of $600, was endowed by a legacy from Miss Mary A. Terry of Hartford. The President, upon the recommendation of the Faculty awards it yearly to a member of the graduating class who has indicated superior ability and who agrees to pursue an approved course of graduate study either in this college or some other university, approved by the Faculty. The incumbent holds the scholarship for one year and is known as the Mary A. Terry Fellow.

ATHLETIC RELATIONS WITH WESLEYAN RESUMED

ANNOUNCEMENT MADE AT UNDERGRADUATE MEETING. BASEBALL TEAM TO BE FORMED. SPRING DAY PLAN APPROVED.

Trinity has resumed athletic relations with Wesleyan. The expose of the latest development of Trinity propaganda was made at a college meeting held Thursday evening in the College Union by Captain Davis, '99. It was received with great applause, as the sentiment of the student body has generally been more or less pacifistic toward Wesleyan. Steps were taken immediately to increase the size of the baseball squad in anticipation of a coming contest with Trinity's old rival.

The college meeting, in charge of President Walter G. Smyth of the College Senate, was one of the most enthusiastic held this year. It started off with "There's a College on the Hill", followed by a short address by Dr. Luther, who stressed the importance of athletics under existing conditions. Captain Davis then spoke of the present conditions of the Athletic Association and suggested a committee of five to undertake its reorganization. On his recommendation the following men were elected to serve on the committee to collect dues and to act as a nominating board for several offices now vacant: E. M. Hyland, as secretary-treasurer of the A. A.; W. G. Smyth as president of the College Senate; H. T. Barber, as Manager of Track; I. E. Partridge, as Manager of Baseball; and H. W. Nordstrom, as representing the Football Team.

Captain Davis then broached the news of the resumption of athletic relations with Wesleyan. The agreement reached by representatives of the two colleges was three-fold. Trinity is to accept Wesleyan's eligibility rules as they stand at present; Wesleyan is to accept Trinity's present eligibility rules; and each college is to appoint an alumnus of the other institution to act as referee in case of any point of disagreement.

Wesleyan has selected E. Kent Hubbard, Trinity, '92, as their referee and Trinity has appointed Col. W. H. Hall of Willington as their representative. Captain Davis closed his talk with a few notes on the R. O. T. C., and spoke of the next Officers' Training Camp to begin in May which he hoped would be open to several undergraduates at Trinity.

Captain Goldstein made an urgent appeal for more candidates for the Track Team and outlined the prospects for the coming season.

I. E. Partridge, manager of the Baseball team, gave a clear state-

"NOW THEN TRINITY"

YES; STUDY THE CONSTITUTION.

The Editor of "The Tripod",

Sir: Permit me to thank you for your timely and admirable editorial, "Study the Constitution", in the issue of "The Tripod" for March 19. The Constitution of the United States is well worthy of study merely as an historic document of prime importance and as a model of government which has been admired and imitated throughout the world. But more than this, it is the charter of our liberties. And there can be no study more inspiring to the spirit of true patriotism, or of more absorbing interest, than the story of the winning of freedom in the constitutional development of the Anglo-Saxon race, culminating in the convention of 1787. It is moreover a study of immediate and practical importance. This is a time when all Americans, and especially the students in our colleges and universities, should inform themselves accurately of the contents and meaning of our organic law, of its interpretation in the light of history, of the significance of our political institutions, and of the nature of popular and representative government. For what shall it profit us to join the conflict of the nations and help win the war for democracy, if meanwhile we are robbed at home of those very things which have made us a people great and prosperous? The forces at work to undermine, and eventually to overturn, the Constitution are insidious and powerful. It was well said by Senator Kellogg that "there is a rising tide of socialism today which threatens the foundations of representative democracy the world over." Notice a few facts. In the mayoralty election in New York last fall, the Socialist candidate polled more than 145,000 votes. In the recent election in Wisconsin for a United States Senator, the Socialist nominee (being at the time under indictment for violating the laws of the United States) received the approval of more than 100,000 citizens at the polls, which was approximately four times the vote of his party at the elections in the same state in 1914. Statistics of the municipal elections in fifteen cities in November, 1917, show that out of a total vote of 1,450,000, the Socialists polled 314,000, or more than 21 per cent. of the whole, which was over four times the proportion of the vote usually polled by that party in those cities; and if the Socialists had secured an equal proportion of the vote in the presidential election of 1916, their total vote would have amounted to about 4,000,000.

Now what is the significance of this? It is to be read in the events which are happening in Russia. The leaders of the Bolsheviks in that unhappy country have not only ruined and disgraced the great nation of eastern Europe, but, as a New York newspaper lately observed, they have had the singular eminence of inflicting more harm upon the entire human race than was ever accomplished by any group of men in so short a time since history began to be recorded in the tombs along the Nile. Return now to America and we shall find the final link in the argument. The Socialist party of Pennsylvania, assembled in their annual convention on March 3; sent a telegram of congratulation to the Bolshevik leaders in Russia, in which they said, "your achievement is our inspiration." Do we want this kind of inspiration to prevail in America? If not, we must look to the preservation of our Constitution and our institutions. And the way to set about it is to acquire a real understanding of what they mean. So I say: "Yes, let us study the Constitution."

HENRY CAMPBELL BLACK, '80.

CAPTAIN DAVIS.

"The Tripod" wishes to express in behalf of the undergraduates its appreciation of the fine work that Captain Davis has performed in military affairs at Trinity College.

We gladly announce that Captain Davis will assist Colonel Cowles in the instruction of the Trinity College Reserve Officers' Corps Unit.

In Captain Davis this community possesses a man well versed in military affairs, and one who ever stands ready to impart that knowledge to those who are willing to receive it. He has given of his time and efforts to Trinity College by forming and instructing a battalion and to the state of Connecticut by aiding in the formation of the Home Guard of this state, the most efficient organization of its kind in our country.

The undergraduates of Trinity College, who were fortunate in having him as their instructor during the few months of the last academic year, most of whom are now in the service and many of whom are now officers, profited greatly by the instruction which Captain Davis gave them.

WESLEYAN AND TRINITY.

After two years, differences between Wesleyan and Trinity on the score of athletic eligibility rules have been reconciled, and these two Connecticut Valley colleges will meet again this spring, probably in both track and baseball. The agreement has a natural ground in the mutual recognition of the eligibility rules of each college. There has been for some time a feeling at both colleges that a resumption of relations would be most beneficial. Wesleyan and Trinity, as has so often been pointed out, are natural athletic rivals. The schedules of both colleges have been in a real sense incomplete without the traditional big game of the season. Both colleges are to be congratulated on the resumption of relations, and sincere thanks are due from both to their respective alumni who have brought about this reconciliation.

THIS IS LABOR'S WAR.

This is labor's war. No element of the people of this country, or of other countries, would suffer more than the workers from a German victory—a German peace.

What the Germans mean by a "strong peace," a "German peace," was recently expressed by Gen. Von Liebert, leading Prussian conservative.

"For us there is but one principle to be followed, and we recognize no other. We hold that might is right. We must know neither sentiment, humanity, consideration, nor compassion. We must have Belgium and the north of France. France must be made to pay until she is bled white. We must have a strong peace."

Mr. Gompers spoke well for American labor when he said:

"The Republic of the United States is not perfect; it has the imperfections of the human—but it is the best country on the face of the earth, and those who do not love it enough to work for it, to fight for it, to die for it, are not worthy of the privilege of living in it.

"I say to the Kaiser, I say to the Germans, in the name of the American labor movement: You can't talk peace with the American workers; you can't talk peace with us; you can't talk to us at all now. We are fighting now. Either you smash your Kaiser autocracy, or we will smash it for you."

The workingmen of America have a tremendous interest to serve, a vital cause to defend, a work of surpassing importance to accomplish. What is vital to them is vital to America and to the world. That they see their duty and the great mass of them are performing it with unimpeachable loyalty is a cause for congratulation to the nation and to the world.

WAR-TIME SERVICE.

The United States Civil Service Commission is experiencing considerable difficulty in obtaining typewriter operators and stenographers for the Government. Thousands are needed to fill these positions. Everyone must be made aware of the Government's need. We press on you the necessity of giving widespread publicity to this need.

The United States Civil Service Commission at Washington, D. C., will furnish full information of and application blanks for the examinations. Your help is required.

PRIZE ESSAY.

Consideration of the prizes offered by the American Association for International Conciliation for a review of the book, "The Rebuilding of Europe", by David Jayne Hill, is asked of members of the Political Science Club of this college.

Since the review of this book need not necessarily be an analysis of its contents, and since the personal opinions of the contestants on the questions raised by the book are welcomed by the organizers of the contest, those students of history who have gained an intelligent understanding of American ideals and aspirations, are afforded an opportunity to show what America may be privileged to contribute to the new Europe.

LETTERS TO THE MOTHER OF A SOLDIER.

By Richardson Wright (1910).

New York, Frederick A. Stokes Co.

This is one of the most touching, most beautiful of the books which we owe to the Great War. Dealing little or not at all with the flame and fury of battle, the author of this little volume hears rather the tumult of perturbed souls and brings to us visions of spiritual realities. To the hundreds of thousands of parents, wives, and other loving ones whose griefs and anxieties seem heavier than can be borne, words like these are sure to bring—not relief indeed, but strength to endure. The words bring more than strength. They create and foster a solemn pride of self-sacrifice, a capacity to glorify the giving of the costliest jewels of human life, that lift mortality up toward the heights of Divinity itself.

But yesterday this writer was a "college boy" among us, marked by the customary characteristics and illusions of such. The hurricane of the world-storm has blown through him and revealed him a prophet and seer of visions. That is what, in various ways and with differing results, the great conflict is doing for many millions.

TRACK SEASON OPENS

FIFTEEN RESPOND TO FIRST CALL.

The outdoor track season was formally opened last Tuesday when the first call for candidates for the team was issued. Despite the bad weather about fifteen men responded, most of whom have had experience either in former years at Trinity, prep school, or in cross-country during the past season. There were three letter men; Goldstein, Nordstrom, and Fox, who reported, besides Capt. Buckley of the Cross-Country Team. These men should form a nucleus around which to build a fairly representative team, considering conditions and the fact that other college teams are also affected by the war.

The group system of coaching in force last season, will be employed this year. Last year, because of the interference of military training with the usual time for practice, the team was divided into sections each under the leadership of one man who was acknowledged to be the best in his line. Men in each group practice together. The following assignments have been announced: Dashes, Captain Goldstein; middle distances, Fox; distances, Buckley; hurdles, Kingeter; jumps, Captain Goldstein; and weights, Nordstrom. Candidates are supposed to report to these men every afternoon to receive instructions for the day's workout and timely pointers.

With the first meet—the Connecticut Valley Inter-Collegiate—scarcely a month away, the men will have to show the greatest concentration and willingness to work in order to round out a team which will place Trinity in the foreground. Manager Barber has said: "We are fortunate to have as many 'letter' men as there are, for from reports which Assistant Manager Boyce brought back from a meeting of representatives of teams entered in the Connecticut Valley Meet, other colleges are as badly off

REV. J. L. McKIM.

The Rev. John Leighton McKim, who received the honorary degree of Master of Arts from Trinity College in 1865, died at his home in Milford, Delaware, March 20, 1918. He was born at Newcastle, Delaware, August 1, 1835; the son of Rev. John Linn and Susan Agnes (McGill) McKim.

His father was a graduate of Dickinson College in the class of 1830, and died in 1909.

Mr. McKim prepared for college at Georgetown Academy at Georgetown, Delaware; and was a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania in the class of 1857, where he was a member of Phi Beta Kappa.

December 4, 1860, he married Miss Sarah Fisher Rodney of Lewes, Delaware. They had three children: Maurice, Helen, and Marian.

From 1861 to 1863 Mr. McKim was rector of St. Timothy's Church, Philadelphia; and from 1863 to 1869, rector of Christ Church, Milford, Delaware. From 1879 to 1887, he was rector of Saint Mary's Hall, Burlington, New Jersey; and from 1887 to 1894, rector of St. Paul's Church, Georgetown, Delaware. In 1894, he returned to the rectorship of Christ Church, Milford, where he remained until 1910, at which time he became rector of St. Stephen's Church, Harrington, Delaware, where he remained in charge until the time of his death. He was a trustee of Burlington College.

as we and some not quite so well. We are particularly weak in the jumps, especially in the broad, and also in the pole vault, but it is hoped that some dark horse will develop. This is an unusual situation, for last year Trinity invariably captured all three places in the broad jump in dual meets and Captain Bjorn took first place in that event in the New England Inter-Collegiate. As the season is in its infancy nothing definite as to the real worth of the team can be stated, but Captain Goldstein is quite optimistic over the prospects."

The men who are out for the team include Captain Goldstein, Bond, Beers, Bradley, Bruce, Callen, Fox, Jackson, Nordstrom, Matthews, Ransom, Pressey, Buckley, Kingeter, Hutchison, Cassady, Nichols, and Muller.

WILLIAMS ASKS TRINITY TO ENTER SUMMER TRAINING CAMP.

Captain Davis has announced that a military training camp will in all probability be held at Williams College this summer, if the government does not establish an official camp for all Reserve Officers' Training Corps units. Officials at Williams have prepared a tentative plan for the encampment, in which members of the military units at Amherst, Dartmouth, Trinity, Tufts and Wesleyan have been asked to join.

General William A. Pew, who was superintendent of the camp last summer, has been asked to take charge; if he accepts, Captain Cecil of the Williams R. O. T. C. will work with him in supervising the camp.

UNIT OF RESERVE OFFICERS' CORPS FORMED.

The work has not been limited to the plain infantry drill and lectures. After the mid-year examinations two squads of men were given practical work on the Vickers machine gun at the factory of the Colt Patent Fire Arms Manufacturing Company. The men were taught all the workings of the gun and how to fire it. Actual target work finished this course, which was in charge of Lieutenant Frederick W. Lycett, '06, of the ordnance department.

It is not definitely known just what changes will be made in the course, but in the main it will probably be carried on as before. The action of the War Department marks the culmination of the efforts of Dr. Luther to obtain recognition. Last spring Trinity was promised the institution of a Reserve Officers' Training Corps in the following September, but through some slip it failed to materialize. Now matters have been remedied and the men are taking up the work with renewed enthusiasm. Colonel Cowles reviewed the battalion last Tuesday and has assumed personal supervision of the course.

COLLEGE WAR COUNCIL.

Editors of college newspapers as far west as Michigan were represented at the gathering. Trinity was represented by A. E. Haase, '19, and H. T. Barber, '19.

The meeting was held under the auspices of the Pi Delta Epsilon, the national college journalistic fraternity, and closed in the evening with a dinner at which the chief speaker was Arthur Brisbane.
