A LETTER FROM THE TRENCHES
A member of the Faculty has received a letter from C. T. Senay, '14, who is now a captain of the army somewhere on the front. Portions of the letter are as follows:
"I've just come back from the front line with my company, and I had quite a lively session this time with frequent bombardments of 77's and 105's as well as oceans of gas.
Some of the things that the men can throw their gas masks on with the maximum of speed and accuracy right now. They've sure had lots of practice.

It is funny how a fellow ducks when the shells come over. It is absolutely involuntary. I was out with a squad one afternoon, looking things over when the Boches began to throw a few over. They were all bursting within a few hundred yards but none were near enough to be really dangerous. Machine guns They can drop bullets so accurately down in front of a dugout entrance that it is sure death to pass in or out. One man was hit on the helmet with a dead (dud shell) and it took his head off—sort of painless extraction, as the dentists say.
Our men are absolutely fearless. I have a vast deal of respect for the American soldier. He's a real fighting man.

I was in a cathedral built in 900 A.D., two days ago. Joan of Arc was confirmed there. I saw the grave of the person who confirmed her as well as the grave of the first archbishop of the cathedral. Sir John Hepburn, the first archbishop of the Scots, is buried there also.

My organization is at a big concentrating camp right now. It's a thing that getsTübingen was a skirmish what to expect to mix up in next week. Whatever it is, the Boche will know that the Yanks were present for my men are eager to come to grips with the enemy.

A. A. ELECTIONS.

The cross-county team also was recognized by the election and the following legislation was adopted in its behalf:

"Members of the cross-county team are eligible to wear a 'C' or 'T' consisting of the regulation track letter with the addition of two letter c's placed one on either side of the 'T.' Any member of the team taking a first, second, or third place in any dual collegiate run will receive credit for five, three, or one point towards a varsity track "T."

Irving E. Partridge, '19, of Hartford was elected college track manager this season. He read an extract from letter of Frank Lambert, '16, which he would like to have read to limber up the spirit of the track. Lambert wrote of the contact between Trinity of the past and of today, remarking on the present war-like aspect which in bygone years had been imitated only on the days of Trinity-Wesleyan games.

C. A. Johnson, secretary of the alumni council, talked of the value of the game, not only because one or the other won the victory, but because the men derived a true benefit from the spirit of the game. He spoke of the tennis team which played the following day in Springfield, and of the outlook of its season.

Captain R. C. Buckley and Manager Partridge each spoke about the approaching game and raised the enthusiasm to the highest. After the meeting the college body assembled on the campus and held a college "sing" to liven up their voices for the next day.

G. A. Boyce, '20, F. R. Fox, '20, D. E. Puffer, '20, and F. J. Carlson, '21, enlisted recently in the Naval Reserve and expect to be called soon.
