EDMUND R. HAMPSON, '18, RECEIVES DISTINGUISHED SERVICE CROSS.

Sticks to Post Though Wounded.

Wagoner Edmund R. Hampson, '18, severely wounded in action near Trugny, France, July 22, and who in spite of his wounds made three trips to a dressing station with wounded soldiers has been awarded the Distinguished Service Cross for "extraordinary heroism in action."

"TED" HAMPSON, '18.

The manner in which he was wounded has been learned from letters from his comrades and himself. During an engagement, he was bringing wounded soldiers to a dressing station. A shell exploded four feet in front of the car he was driving, wounding him in ten places; but he stuck to his post until overcome by pain and loss of blood. Three weeks after he had been sent to a hospital, a split iron washer was removed from his leg.

The following is the text of the official communication to his parents:

"Wagoner Edmund R. Hampson, Company B, 101st Machine Gun Battalion—for extraordinary heroism in action near Trugny, France, July 22, 1918. Although painfully wounded Hampson courageously continued his duty of evacuating the wounded until exhausted from the loss of blood. Home address, R. W. Hampson, father, Waterbury, Conn."

"Ted" Hampson, was one of the many Trinity men who enlisted in Troop B, Connecticut Cavalry, before war was declared, and on July 26, 1917, he was ordered into active service. With his troop he went to Niantic where he was stationed until October 9, when his unit sailed for overseas. While at Niantic, Troop B was dismantled and transformed

DR. URBAN TO BE HARVARD LECTURER.

Professor Wilbur M. Urban, Brownell Professor of Philosophy at Trinity, has been appointed visiting lecturer to Harvard University by the president and fellows of that institution and will conduct a number of courses in the department of philosophy of the Cambridge college during the latter part of the present academic year. Leave of absence has been granted Dr. Urban by the Trinity authorities and Dr. Horatio K. Garnier, of Columbia University and formerly professor in St. Stephen's College, has been secured to conduct courses in philosophy during his absence.

TRINITY TO HAVE Y. M. C. A. SECRETARY.

Dr. Luther has been corresponding for some time with Y. M. C. A. Headquarters at Boston, and as a result a "Y" Secretary is expected to arrive here in a few days. The Trinity branch of the Y. M. C. A. has not yet organized this year and will now await his arrival. No definite plans for the organization have yet been made but it is thought that it will be given the use of the College Union. Trinity is fortunate to secure a Students' Army "Y" man, and there is no doubt that every man in the college will stand back of him when he comes here.

into a machine gun battalion. After reaching France, the unit was motorized. Since the early part of last February, "Ted" Hampson has been in active service, being for some time a motorcycle dispatch rider, and riding more than 3,000 miles on his duty.

He has made as little as possible of his brave and praiseworthy actions and it is mostly through the letters of his comrades and his officer that his parents know the details of the affair. The latter wrote to "Ted's" father saying:

"Ted was at all times a willing and cheerful worker and it took this affair in which he was wounded to show that his bravery and grit was unexcelled. No one knew that he was wounded until after he had been overcome by the pain and exhaustion of his wounds. He must have realized even at that moment of such excitement how badly I needed drivers, for he filled his place without my knowing that he was wounded."

He is a member of the Delta Psi Fraternity (St. Anthony Hall) at Trinity and before he entered the service he was employed in the audit department of the Aetna Life Insurance Company.

FOOTBALL.

At a meeting of the Battalion after evening mess on Saturday, about $100 was raised to equip the football team. With over forty men out for the team, prospects are good for a successful season. Games are being planned with Amherst, Springfield and Wesleyan, and it is hoped that games can be arranged with some of the Army camp teams.

LIEUT. FREDERICK BAUER DE- TAILED TO TRINITY.

Lieutenant Frederick Bauer of Newark, N. J., who has been detailed to Trinity, will be in charge of the small arms work in connection with the S. A. T. C. unit. Lieut. Bauer attended the Second Plattsburgh Camp this summer and after that took a course at the Small Arms Firing School at Camp Perry, Ohio. He was a member of the Class of 1920 at the Connecticut Agricultural College and had been a member of the military unit at that college for two years. While there he held at various times the position of corporal, sergeant, and first sergeant.

COMPANY B ENTERTAINMENT.

On Saturday evening Company B gave a vaudeville entertainment in Alumni Hall, to which the whole Battalion was invited. The dozen numbers were enthusiastically received by the good-sized crowd present. The orchestra under the leadership of Allinson furnished excellent music. Solo numbers were given by Messrs. Puels, Smith, and Morris. There was also an xylophone solo by King and a cornet rendering of "A Long, Long Trail," by Tait. Uricchio gave a comedy act and Mitchell a recitation. Allinson proved to be popular in his numbers on the violin. One of the features of the entertainment was the playing by M. J. Bennett of his original composition "My Son, Your Country's Calling." If the way it took with the men is any indication, this song is bound to become popular. The composer sold many copies at the close of the entertainment. The evening ended up with a general "sing" under the leadership of Lieutenant Buck, who had charge of the meeting.

ANOTHER HOUR OF STUDY.

Beginning October 17, all S. A. T. C. men were required to be in quarters from 3 to 4 p. m., unless they have a class at that hour. This hour of supervised study is necessary for the government requirements. From 4 to 5 p. m. and during free periods the men are expected to be outdoors as much as possible and to exercise.

CAPTAIN WESTPHAL, '19, TELLS TRINITY MEN OF EXPERIENCES AT FRONT.

The men of the Trinity S. A. T. C. were given a rare treat last Thursday night in hearing some vivid firsthand impressions of the Front, and in receiving timely and sound advice in their work, from Captain A. E. Westphal, '19, late of the 7th regiment U. S. A. The speaker was presented to the men by Dr. Luther in his customary happy style, as a Trinity man, who, with the Americans and French said to the Germans at Chateau Thierry, "Here is your stopping place, here is where you get off." Dr. Luther alluded in his introduction to the fact that Capt. Westphal bore the marks of shrapnel, for which he wears the wounded stripe.

Captain Westphal at once struck a sympathetic note among his hearers when he declared that the war was not over, "and best of all we now know it." He predicted a year of hard fighting, as the Germans were in the condition of a man who knows he is down and out, and is accordingly desperate. The great applause brought by the statement, "you should be proud to have as your Colonel a man who has officered in some capacity all the regiments engaged at Chateau Thierry," showed the feeling of the Trinity S. A. T. C. toward their Colonel. The Captain spoke of the continual sacrifice required of all, and that the sacrifice is not measured by what is given, but by what is left. He spoke of the great sacrifices that Trinity has made and called upon the S. A. T. C. who make up "what is left," to be worthy of them.

His continual exhortation was discipline, the discipline of close order drill and guard duty. "Learn to do things quickly and to get through. That is the great thing I learned in France. Put snap and dash into everything you do. And remember the salute!" These were but a few of the pertinent bits of advice the Captain lost no opportunity to drive home.

The Captain gave a remarkably clear account of the Second Battle of the Marne, in which his own regiment played so conspicuous a part. "At no point in our particular sector did one German get across the Marne." The Captain spoke of having seen plans found on German prisoners that set Montmirail, 25 miles from the Marne, as the first day's objective in the Crown Prince's offensive, which lasted only twenty-four hours and gained but seven miles. The Captain lauded the gallantry of the 38th Infantry, where the blow was hardest, the German's smashing

"NOW THEN TRINITY"

"THE TRIPOD" WAR FUND NOW EIGHTY-FOUR DOLLARS.

"The Tripod" War Fund, which will make it possible for "The Tripod" to be sent to Trinity men in the service, has already received contributions amounting to eighty-four dollars. Of this amount one dollar each has been given by Dr. F. S. Luther and Thos. H. Craig, two dollars has been contributed by C. B. Walsh and eighty dollars by Edgar F. Waterman, Treasurer of the Corporation of Trinity College.

For every dollar received we will send "The Tripod" for one year to some Trinity man in the service.

WAR DIARIES.

As a part of the course in English for S. A. T. C. men, everyone will be required to keep a personal war diary in which shall be kept a record of all that pertains to his military work done in the S. A. T. C. This is in keeping with the procedure in other countries.

The value of the diary is twofold. In the first place, it will be of interest and value as an accurate account of one side of the history of the war. Secondly, it will be invaluable to the newly promoted officer in training new men. He will be able to refer to his own experiences and use them in training his recruits. It will recall to his mind the questions and the difficulties he experienced and thus enable him to understand and assist his men in the same difficulties. Above all, it will develop in the men the brevity and conciseness so invaluable to the officer.

BATTALION MEETING.

The Battalion of the Trinity S. A. T. C. held its first get-together, "spirit" meeting at 6.45 p. m., October 14. The new Battalion song was sung for the first time under the leadership of Lieut. Buck, and by the way it was hummed after the meeting the tune bids fair to be popular. The words run as follows:

"Hail, sons of Trinity!

Train for the fray!

To France we all will sail,

They need us right away,

So be ready to do your share

And show the Huns that all the Yanks are there,

And we'll push on with vim,

And we never will give in,

'Till we plant Old Glory in Berlin."

The author has not been revealed, but rumor attributes the song to Lieut. Buck. Following this all the Trinity songs were sung, with Shepherd and McGee as leaders. The meeting closed with a rousing three cheers for Lieut. Crook and Lieut. Buck.

TRINITY GUARDED NIGHT AND DAY.

Beginning Wednesday, the guard detail had a twenty-four hour tour of duty, that is to say a guard was maintained all night instead of being withdrawn after taps as has been the custom. The guard is selected according to company roster, active duty for each member of the guard lasting eight hours, made up of shifts of two hours on and four hours off. The guard is changed every 24 hours, guard mount coming at 5 p. m. daily.

NEW REGULATIONS OUT.

The following are extracts from the regulations issued to the men on Saturday:

Headquarters Students' Army Training Corps,
Trinity College, Hartford, Conn.,
October 18, 1918.

The following regulations for the Students' Army Training Corps are published for the government of all concerned.

C. D. COWLES,

Colonel, U. S. A. Retired,
Commanding.

Regulations.

1—The Students' Army Training Corps, being a part of the United States Army, the students are subject to the rules and Articles of War.

2—All persons in the military service are equipped to obey strictly and to execute promptly the lawful orders of their superiors.

3—Military authority will be exercised with firmness, kindness and justice.

11—Students are not only required to abstain from all vicious, immoral and irregular conduct, but it is enjoined upon them to conduct themselves upon every occasion with propriety and decorum which characterizes the society of gentlemen.

12—Any student who drinks or has in his possession any intoxicating liquor shall be punished as a Court-Martial shall direct.

13—Students shall not play at cards or any other game of chance in barracks, hospitals or camp.

14—Students shall not, without authority, have provisions in their quarters.

15—Students shall not, without permission, visit during the hours of study, except the Library, or between tattoo and reveille; or be unnecessarily absent from their rooms at those times.

16—Students shall not play upon musical instruments during study hours.

17—Students shall not introduce civilians into the barracks without permission.

27—Good-conduct passes will be issued to each student, which will entitle him to visit within the city limits of Hartford, during release from quarters when off duty. These passes will be forfeited by misconduct. They shall not go beyond these limits at any time without passes signed by their company commanders, approved by the Commanding Officer, and also by the President of the College, if the students are to be absent from any academic duty. Coats will be buttoned and collars hooked. If the overcoat is worn, it will be buttoned and hooked. HANDS WILL NOT BE KEPT IN THE POCKETS.

33—Each Company Commander, once during any part of the forenoon, and at such times as the Commanding Officer may prescribe, shall inspect the quarters of his Company. At the morning inspection, he shall see especially that the rules and regulations with reference to the Police of quarters have been observed in every particular; at other inspections he shall deal with the general observance of regulations.

39—Students excused from any drill, military exercise or ceremony, by the surgeon or otherwise, shall not leave the barracks during the continuance of such drill or ceremony, unless specially authorized to do so.

40—Students excused from a Company formation or any drill or other duty, for which they have been detailed, shall immediately notify the first sergeant or the officer or student in charge of the roster.

41—Sections, details, detachments and organizations of students shall be marched at attention going and returning from academic halls, mess hall, or any other duty whatsoever.

42—The sections shall assemble at their respective hours of recitations on the sidewalk, the right section in front of Northam Towers.

50—The inspector of sections, in case of any noise, scuffling, or disorderly or improper conduct, in any room or hall under his charge, shall repair instantly to the place of the disturbance and report the students responsible. He shall enter every room in his section immediately after taps has been sounded and shall ascertain whether the occupants of the room are all present and in bed, and the lights extinguished. He shall at once report the result of his inspection to the Officer of the Day.

He shall see that the hall windows are kept opened from 2 to 6 inches according to the state of the weather.

He shall visit and inspect every 51—A room orderly shall be detailed for each suite occupied by students.

52—Tours as room-orderly begin immediately after Sunday morning inspection of quarters.

53—The orderly shall see that his name is posted as such. Immediately after reveille roll call the orderly shall thoroughly sweep every part of the floor of his suite, brush the dust from the furniture and woodwork, and sweep the refuse collected into the hall. All the room orderlies in the section, under the direction of the non-commissioned officer in charge of section, will then sweep the hall, floors, basement, and stairs, brush the dust from the woodwork, collect the refuse and deposit it in the receptacle provided for the purpose. They will also sweep the sidewalk in front of their respective sections, and keep them free from dirt, snow and ice, and police the grounds in front and in the rear of their respective sections.

60—Twenty minutes shall be allowed for breakfast and supper, and thirty minutes for dinner from the time the corps enters the mess hall.

61—Food shall not be wasted, supplies or mess furniture shall not be taken from the mess hall.

70—Call to quarters will be from 8 a. m. to 12 m, from 1 p. m. to 4 p. m., and from 7.15 p. m. to reveille except Saturday and Sundays; Saturday 8 a. m. to 12 m. and 1 p. m. to 4 p. m. for students who have classes, and 10.45 p. m. to reveille; for Sunday 7.15 p. m. to reveille.

Squads were changed to a permanent basis on Saturday, the men being grouped according to height. Following the change in rooms necessitated by this, an inspection of barracks was made.

across the river and then turning in an attempt to crush the flank composed of the 7th Regiment. One company, with the exception of a Sergeant, was wiped out in trying to prevent the crossing at this point. The Americans and French, however, adopting the Germans' tactics, pushed in on two sides forming a pocket in which many Germans were caught. The Captain called the tactics of this war simply the reduction of salients. He said this war was simply a matter of common sense, the one having the most coming out best man. He brought up the importance of camouflage in this connection.

The Captain called the Germans "masters of the machine gun," but at the same time predicted that the Browning would go them one better. "German machine gun nests," he said, "are treacherous, and one runs into them often by surprise." He told of the American Lieut.-Colonel who established his headquarters in a certain farm house, half of which was a German machine gun emplacement. The Captain said the only effective measure against machine gun nests, were one-pounders or Stokes mortars, but that to send infantry against them was suicide. He told the men to become masters of the rifle and perfect shots before everything else.

Tremendous applause and a mighty three cheers, were evidence to Captain Westphal at the close of his address how much the men had appreciated every word. To say his talk

On Tuesday, October 16, the order was issued for a general airing-out of bedding, so from 1 to 3 p. m., the campus was adorned with scores of blankets.
