CLARKIN STADIUM CHOSEN FOR HOLY CROSS GAME

OUTDOOR PRACTICE THIS WEEK.

Final Schedule to be Announced in Near Future.

The Holy Cross baseball game on April 12 in this city will be played at the Clarkin Stadium on Wethersfield Avenue, according to announcement made by Coach Burns. All the other home games will be played on Trinity Field, as it is expected that the grounds will be in proper condition by that time. Outdoor practice will start for the squad this week and continue the rest of the season. With the advent of outdoor work will come batting practice, which will give the coach a better opportunity of looking over his men with a view to picking out the heaviest hitters in selecting his nine.

The baseball schedule is still incomplete, following changes suggested by the Graduate Advisory Committee, but in any event the first three contests will remain unchanged, as they have passed the advisory committee and should encounter no difficulty from the faculty in the matter of cuts. Brown will be played at Providence on April 5 in the opening game, and the Holy Cross contest comes the following Saturday. April 16, the first day of the short Easter recess, is the date set for the Yale game at New Haven. The second and third Saturdays in May are undecided, on account of suggested changes. The Wesleyan series has been so changed that the Middletown game will be played on Decoration Day. The first game is scheduled for Trinity Field on May 21. The Connecticut Agricultural College game at Storrs, May 24, the Worcester game at Hartford May 31, and the Amherst game at Amherst, June 7, will probably remain unchanged, and it is expected that the balance of the schedule will be announced in the near future, as soon as the management has made the suggested revisions.

MEETING OF THE LITERARY CLUB.

The third meeting of the Literary Club was held Tuesday evening, March 18, in Dr. Odell Shepard's apartment. A paper on "The Moving Picture", dealing with the influence of the motion picture on literature, was read by Rufus C. Phillips, '18. Harry D. Henson, '22, read a paper on "The Drama." One of Lord Dunsany's latest short stories was then read by Dr. Shepard and a general discussion along these lines followed. At the next meeting of the Club, Tuesday, March 25, James Callaghan, '22, will read a paper on "Gentlemen's Dress."

CAST FOR JESTERS CHOSEN.

The two plays which are to be presented by The Jesters during Junior Week are "HUNGER", by Eugene Pillott, and "THE REHEARSAL", by Maurice Baring.

The cast for "HUNGER" is as follows:

The Beggar,	Lionel Mohnkern
The Man,	L. E. W. Mitchell
The Satisfied One,	J. K. Callaghan
The Poet,	Theodore Holden
The Girl,	Gibson G. D. Ramsay

The cast for "The Rehearsal" is:

Macbeth,	L. E. W. Mitchell
Lady Macbeth,	Harold Lynch
Shakespeare,	M. R. Mohnkern
Stage Manager,	Everett Sturman
MacDuff,	Algernon Johnson
The Producer,	Edward Hungerford
First Witch,	Frederick L. Bradley
Mr. Thomas,	Thurston B. Macauley
The Gentlewoman,	Merle S. Myers
Banquo,	Jacob Pastor

Rehearsals for this week will be held Friday and Saturday afternoons.

"HUNGER", by Eugene Pillott, is a modern symbolic drama, in one act. "THE REHEARSAL" is a witty comedy of a rehearsal in the days of Shakespeare, but written in quite up-to-date English. The plays are well contrasted and will afford an excellent opportunity for the Jesters' opening efforts.

The Jesters will probably stage their production on April 26, instead of the 24th, owing to the fact that the Junior Prom will be held on the 28th, as decided at the meeting of the Prom Committee last Thursday.

ROBERT M. BRADY, '90, ESTABLISHES $5000 FUND TO BE CALLED THE REVERIUS MANNING LUTHER FUND.

The college has been the recipient of a gift of five thousand dollars presented by Robert McClelland Brady, '90, of Detroit, to constitute "The Reverius Manning Luther Fund", the income of which is to be applied at the discretion of the Trustees in any way they may see fit for the encouragement and advancement of the study of mathematics at Trinity. R. M. Luther, in whose memory the fund is named, died in November, 1891, seventeen months after graduating from Trinity. He was a classmate and close friend of Mr. Brady, who is founding the fund out of love for Trinity and affection for his classmate, whose name he wishes to perpetuate in the annals of the college. R. M. Luther was a brother of Dr. Flavel S. Luther. While in college, both Mr. Luther and Mr. Brady were members of Psi Upsilon Fraternity.

SENATE MEETING.

At a meeting held Wednesday afternoon, the Senate passed a resolution disapproving of the disfiguring of college property by the use of paint during the activities of the night before the St. Patrick's Day Scrap.

TRINITY MEN TO ATTEND EUROPEAN UNIVERSITIES

DR. URBAN ON LEAVE OF ABSENCE.

Dr. Wilbur M. Urban, Brownell Professor of Philosophy, who has been granted leave of absence for the present term, left Hartford Monday to take up the duties of visiting lecturer at Harvard University and conduct a number of courses in the department of philosophy in that university and at Radcliffe College for the remainder of the academic year. During Dr. Urban's absence, Dr. Horatio K. Garnier of Columbia University will carry on the courses in philosophy and psychology at Trinity. Dr. Garnier was formerly professor of philosophy at St. Stephen's College.

TRACK SEASON DISCUSSED.

Bjorn, '18, and "Dutch" Hemman
Offer to Coach Team.

A number of men who will be candidates for the track team when the call is issued met Thursday noon to discuss the track situation. No definite plans could be made on account of the fact that the formation of a track team has not yet received the sanction of the Graduate Advisory Committee, but it was brought out that the prospects for a successful season were very good. The main point of encouragement for the track management is the considerable number of veterans back, who would form the nucleus around which a very strong team could be built. Among these are Goldstein, Fox, Nordstrom, Easland, Shulthiess, E. Armstrong, Ransom, Matthews and Pressey. Besides these there are several freshmen who have track records at their "prep" schools, and in addition, the large freshman class must certainly contain a good deal of undeveloped track material.

As for the arrangement of a schedule, Manager Wyse said that would be an easy matter. He has written to a large number of colleges and has received numerous replies so that he already has several meets in prospect.

In order to cut down the expenses, it was originally decided to dispense with a coach, but Walter Bjorn, '17, who set the New England record in the broad jump two years ago, has offered his services to the team and "Dutch" Hemman, who still holds records for dashes at Carnegie Tech., has also offered to help in rounding the men into shape. Under the care of these two men, who have both had experience as coaches, and who are without equals in their respective events in this part of the country, there seems to be every reason to expect a highly successful season.

SIX RECEIVE APPOINTMENTS FOR ARMY SCHOLARSHIPS.

Five from the 101st—Word Received from Pinney, '18.

Five Trinity men who enlisted while undergraduates in the spring of 1917 in the 101st Machine Gun Battalion, then Troop B, Connecticut National Guard, have received appointments to take a four months' course in English and French Universities among the 200 members of the American Expeditionary Forces who have been so selected, according to a letter recently received from Sergeant Sidney P. Pinney of Company B, by his former room-mate. The other four men are Stanley H. Leeke, 1919, Harold J. Brickley, 1919, Ernest R. Norris, 1919, and Allen Northey Jones, valedictorian of the class of 1917. The plan of sending these men to these universities is part of a general program of the English and French governments to advocate the desirability of their universities, rather than those of Germany, until recently largely patronized by American students.

Pinney is the only one of the five to be sent to an English university, and on March 3, the date of his letter, was at Le Havre and did not know to which university he would be sent. Leeke, Jones, and Norris will attend the Sorbonne at Paris, Leeke and Norris being enrolled in the department of science, and Jones in the department of letters. Brickley will attend the University of Poitiers at Poitiers, France.

Pinney writes that he went as far as Paris with Jones and Norris, and that he recently encountered Joseph Buffington, Jr., a classmate at Trinity, at Tours. Pinney, Leeke and Brickley were all members of the baseball team in the spring of 1917, and Jones played on the football team the previous autumn.

Word has also been received that Corporal Thomas G. Brown, '13, has also been awarded an army scholarship in the Sorbonne at Paris. In a letter to one of his friends at the college, he states that he will continue his studies there until June 30. Corporal Brown is the author of the poem, "To Trinity's Dead in the Great War", recently published in part in "The Tripod." He was attached to Company K, 51st Pioneer Infantry.

HARTFORD CLUB MADE A GREEK-LETTER SOCIETY.

Tau Kappa Alpha, a local fraternity recently formed on the campus, has been officially recognized. The fraternity was originally the Hartford Club, which was a local society founded in 1908. In 1913, a local society was formed for graduate members of the Hartford Club. This has now been extended under the present form to include undergraduates.

"NOW THEN TRINITY"

A second call has been issued for candidates to try for the Alumni English Prizes, since not enough have signified their intentions of taking part in the contest. It is hoped that all men who are at all interested in trying for the prizes will consult Dr. Odell Shepard at once in regard to the choice of subjects for their essays, so that the contest will not have to be abandoned on account of lack of interest.

CLASSED WITH THE BEST BASEBALL PITCHERS OF HIS DAY.

In a two-column review of the career of "Joe" Shannon, '87, in the March 8 issue of the Philadelphia "Public Ledger", D. L. Reeves writes: "Of the great baseball players produced by the colleges, it is a notable fact that by far the greater number have been graduated from the smaller institutions." He goes on to tell of the illustrious career of Shannon as pitcher during his four years at Trinity, two years at the University of Pennsylvania, and after that with a famous athletic club of Philadelphia. "His record at Trinity stamped him as one of the best college pitchers in the country." Reeves names a large number of the contemporary college pitchers, among them those of such universities as Yale, Harvard, Pennsylvania, Cornell, Columbia and Princeton, and states that none of these pitchers were superior to Shannon.

Shannon has accomplished many remarkable feats in the box, no-hit games being a very common thing with him. In one game, played after he had received his degree from the law school of the University of Pennsylvania, only twenty-seven men—the legal limit—faced him in the nine innings. That "Joe" Shannon should have received such wide-spread fame is no cause of wonder for Trinity men, for through tradition, they all know of his marvelous record at Trinity.

Prof. Henry M. Belden, '88, of the University of Missouri, has written an article on "Folk Song in America," in the March issue of "Modern Language Notes."

SOPHOMORES WIN ST. PATRICK'S DAY SCRAP.

Freshmen Raid Union the Night Before.

The annual Saint Patrick's Day scrap was held Tuesday morning and resulted in a decisive and clean-cut victory for the sophomores—the Class of 1921. While the fight was decidedly sophomore, the freshmen put up a very good fight and deserve great credit. They had an arbitrary limitation put on the number of their participants by the senate, rendered necessary by their overwhelming numerical superiority, and this proved an insurmountable handicap, even though the freshmen were allowed to pick the best of their men.

The fight itself had all the earmarks of a mud-pie-eating contest. A damp, foggy night, followed by a discouraging rain which began about an hour before the fight, made the ground under the tree very soft and oozy. Thrashing feet did the rest and at the end of the affair, at 7.40, the clothes of the contestants would have been the despair of any respectable laundryman.

The freshmen formed near the gym and charged the sophomores in two waves. The first wave was led by President F. T. Tansill and the second by M. R. Mohnkern. The sophomores fought a defensive scrap, always keeping close to the tree in spite of the efforts of the freshmen to tear them away. Only once did the base of the tree lack defenders and at that time the freshmen were a little too busy to take advantage of it. The sophomore defence grew stronger as the fight progressed and when the whistle blew the freshmen were farther from victory than they had been at the beginning.

The freshmen were very unsuccessful in keeping their banner hidden. Grime, who was carrying one, was put out of the fight at the very beginning by D'Esopo. Mohnkern, the other banner bearer, got a hold on the tree but with almost the entire sophomore class hanging on his trousers and shirt tails like the proverbial bull-dog on the tramp, he was soon persuaded to come down. A search, exceedingly hard on the remnants of his clothes, resulted in the loss of his banner. Each banner was recaptured only to be lost again.

The night before activities were not as lively as in former years, owing to the decision of the sophomore class to stay at college rather than risk any of their men being captured while tearing down the freshmen posters. The freshmen plastered up the town with their glaring 19/T/22 posters as usual. A picked crew covered Broad Street with thoroughness and skill, flaunting their class numerals from telegraph poles thirty feet above the street, thanks to the athletic ability of one of the crew. This bunch also felt impelled to censor one of Theda Bara's costumes as depicted on a billboard and loaned the vamp a few posters to eke out her raiment.

The silver lining of the green-tinted cloud for the freshmen, however, is the raid which they made on the sophomore headquarters in the Union shortly after midnight. The freshmen received word downtown that the sophomores had captured the class treasurer, Thomas J. Ahearn, and were holding him captive in the Union. The freshmen marched out to college coming through Brownell Avenue and cutting through the lots so that they arrived on the campus back of the Bishop. Here they dropped, hats, coats and paste pots and advanced toward the Union. Then came the rush down the Union stairs, a yell of "Yea-a-a! Twenty-two", and then a pretty little muss. Twenty seconds later, the dozen sophomores were all being held down by the aggressors and, Ahearn was quickly released. Since the freshmen could not legally capture any sophomores inside the college buildings, they evacuated the position.

The majority of the freshmen spent the night downtown, but a few slept at fraternity houses and four others actually returned to Northam and slept, peacefully, if briefly, within a hundred feet of the sophomore headquarters.

The judges were Arthur M. Goldstein, '19, Edward M. Hyland, '19, and Irving E. Partridge, '19.

WINS FAST GAME WITH WESLEYAN FRATERNITY.

Sigma Nu 23—Alpha Sigma Delta 22. The Sigma Nu basketball team took the measure of the Alpha Sigma Delta team from Wesleyan in a fast and interesting game in the Trinity gym Saturday night. The Sigma Nu aggregation led from start to finish, but was never so far ahead that the game seemed safe. The score was 11 to 8 in their favor at the end of the first half, but at the end of the game, they led by but a single point, 23 to 22. The Sigma Nu team played a fine game and deserve great credit for their victory, as the Wesleyan fraternity team has been playing together all winter in the inter-fraternity league at the Middletown institution.

Nichols played a stellar game for the Sigma Nu from the start to finish, and seemed to be all over the floor all the time. Bruce caged a couple of long shots at a time when points counted. Ransom also broke into the limelight with a wonderful shot over his head that added two needed points to his team's score. Easton and Hill were the stars for the Alpha Sigma Delta team.

The lineups and summary:

Sigma Nu	Alpha Sigma Delta
Ransom	RF Hill
Mathews, Morse	RG Newsome
Cahill	C Deininger
Bruce	LG Cutbill
Nichols	LF Easton

Score: Sigma Nu 23; A. S. D. 22; field goals; Cahill 4, Nichols 3, Ransom 2, Bruce 2, Easton 5, Hill 4, Newsome 1; foul goals; Nichols 1, Easton 2; referee; Higgins, Maine; timer, Hazeltine, Lehigh; scorer, Segur, Trinity; time of halves, fifteen minutes.

Robert J. McFetridge, who has been superintendent of the Trinity College grounds and buildings for the past thirty-one years, has recently submitted his resignation to become effective April 1.

Mr. McFetridge was born in the north of Ireland and came to America in 1883. He worked for a year at the Colt's Patent Firearms Manufacturing Co., after which he was employed by Dr. F. G. Ferguson. Dr. Ferguson was at that time residing on Vernon Street, and was professor at the college. At the request of Dr. Ferguson, Mr. McFetridge was engaged by the college authorities and has been associated with the college ever since.
