CAPTAIN SENAY, '14, WRITES OF EXPERIENCES

SAYS REGULARS OCCUPIED PLACE OF HONOR.

In a letter sent from Bannberscheid, Germany, March 31, Captain Charles T. Senay, '14, who is in command of Co. F, 28th Infantry, tells of his experience with the regulars during some of the severest fighting on the western front. Captain Senay was a lieutenant in the first American battalion (regulars) to land in France and has an excellent record, having been awarded the Distinguished Service Cross, and having been wounded. An extract from his letter follows:

Naturally I consider myself very fortunate to be still alive and in fair physical condition. The hell fire of the front burned men up so rapidly that none of us ever expected to pull through alive. As usual, the old First Division bore the brunt in the Argonne fighting. When the advance stopped we were called upon as the wedge to open up a new hole for the khaki hordes to pour through. We did what was ordered. In seven days we advanced seven kilometers against eight German divisions, capturing 1407 prisoners and killing many hundreds, perhaps thousands, more. As a price we had 9387 casualties, the greatest number of any division in the Argonne operation. But we won where others had failed and in less than a month we were back in, hammering as hard as ever. It would be difficult to enumerate the heroes of that Homeric struggle. The shell-torn earth and shot-riven trees were often the only witnesses. Our best and bravest lie shattered and torn, but invincible and immortal, buried 'neath the poisoned soil of that ghastly battlefield. The western front has graves of first division men all the way from Amiens to Luneville. And yet, to read the screaming headlines of the fevered American Press, one might think that Squashville's heroic homeguard saw all of the fighting. The poor old regular army gets all of the knocks and none of the boosts but when there's a fight, you can bet that the regulars occupy the place of honor and of greatest peril. We are hardly regulars any more for the majority of our men were drafted only a few months ago, yet the essence of our point of view is that of the old regular army and the same old regular army, in its palmiest days, never fought harder than do these drafted men who fight under the numerals of its proudest regiments.

I receive a lonely "Tripod" about every three months. Guess old Burlison's to blame. He's supposed to be boss of the U. S. mail and when something goes wrong, "Blame the Boss", say I.

We are sort of sitting on the fence at present. The question is, "Will we go to the States this summer or will we go to Russia or some other land farther east?" The bewhiskered cusses who speak in consonants and are dissatisfied with everything God made, including themselves, have stirred up a merry little fuss in Central Europe. If we do have to settle all the fuss, there will sure be some good Bolsheviks (dead ones).

I trust that the college is prospering in this uncertain time of reconstruction.

BIG RALLY IN UNION TONIGHT.

A mammoth college rally, including a sing and smoker, has been arranged by Harry W. Nordstrom, '19, chairman of the Union Committee, to be held in the Union tonight, (Tuesday) at eight o'clock. The purpose of the meeting is to make Wesleyan's defeat a certainty. Also we would like to show ourselves how well we can sing. We have done woefully little in the line of college singing this year, but if this meeting turns out as well as it promises to, it will be necessary to repair the roof of the Union before it can be used again. Nordstrom is making arrangements for a speaker and will provide a lively "jazz" band. Free smokes furnished by the Y. M. C. A. Everybody out, then, at 7.30 sharp, in the Union.

LYNCH CHOSEN COLLEGE MARSHAL.

A meeting of the college body was held on Friday noon, May 16, in the Public Speaking Room, for the election of a College Marshal. Harold V. Lynch, '20, was elected to the office. Keen competition was manifested in the voting and the meeting was well attended. The duty of the College Marshal is to lead the various Senior processions during Commencement week.

ALUMNI ENGLISH PRIZES AWARDED

R. C. PHILLIPS, '18, TAKES FIRST. Whitlock Prize Contest to Be Omitted This Year.

The Alumni Prizes in English Composition have been awarded as follows: First Prize, of $25, to Rufus C. Phillips, Jr., '18, for his paper on "The Effects of War Flying." Second Prize, of $20, to Harmon T. Barber, '19, for his paper on "The New England Frontier." Third Prize, of $15, to Benjamin Silverberg, '19, for his paper on "Industrial Democracy." Mrs. Henry A. Perkins, of Hartford, was judge of the contest.

These prizes are awarded annually, from the income of a fund contributed by the alumni, to the students who present the best essays on subjects selected in consultation with the Professor of English, and submitted before a date set by him.

It has been customary for the students to whom the Alumni Prizes in English Composition have been awarded, to deliver their themes in public, in competition for the Frank W. Whitlock Prizes. But it was felt by the faculty that there was no necessary connection between the two contests so they have been separated, and hereafter the Whitlock Prizes will be open to all. However, as the time is so short now, and the students have more than enough with which to occupy themselves in their various activities, the Whitlock Prizes will not be awarded this year.

TRACK TEAM MAKES A GOOD SHOWING AT M. A. C.

TEAM LOSES BY SMALL MARGIN.

Goldstein Heaviest Scorer.

The Trinity track team made an excellent showing in its first game of the season, in spite of the fact that it was defeated by the Massachusetts Agricultural College men. The final score was 64 to 53. A light rain fell during the early part of the meet, developing into a heavy shower during the last events. As a result the meet had to be run on a rain-soaked track, making fast time impossible.

The Aggies won seven first-places to Trinity's six, but the greater number of Massachusetts runners entered gave them a preponderance of second and third places. The first three events gave the Trinity runners a lead of one point, but the Aggies ran away with all three places in the mile event, and were not headed during balance of the meet.

Goldstein, Easland and Shulthies were the heavy point winners for Trinity, each taking two firsts and Goldstein taking an additional second in the 440-yard dash. Easland also placed in the pole vault. Sullivan made eleven points for M. A. C. with first in the high jump and century dash, and a third in the low hurdles.

The summary:

100-yard Dash—Won by Sullivan, M. A. C.; second, Goldstein, Trinity; third, Ransom, Trinity. Time, 10 2-5 seconds.

120-yard High Hurdles—Won by Shulthies, Trinity; second, Wason, M. A. C.; third, Meserve, M. A. C. Time, 20 2-5 seconds.

Mile Run—Won by Carpenter, M. A. C.; second, Slate, M. A. C.; third, West, M. A. C. Time, 4 minutes 56 2-5 seconds.

440-yard Dash—Won by Goldstein, Trinity; second, Yesair, M. A. C.; third, Ransom, Trinity. Time 56 seconds.

Two-mile Run—Won by Sweeney, M. A. C.; second, Clapp, Trinity; third, Crawford, M. A. C. Time 11 minutes 7 2-5 seconds.

880-yard Dash—Won by Lyons, M. A. C.; second, Hungerford, Trinity; third, Spring, M. A. C. Time, 2 minutes 13 1-5 seconds.

220-Yard Dash—Won by Goldstein, Trinity; second, Wright, M. A. C.; third, Yesair, M. A. C. Time, 25 3-5 seconds.

220-Yard Low Hurdles—Won by Meserve, M. A. C.; second, Ameluxen, Trinity; third, Sullivan, M. A. C. Time, 30 1-5 seconds.

High Jump—Won by Sullivan, M. A. C.; second, Harding, Trinity; third, Parker, M. A. C. Height, 5 feet 2 inches.

Shot Put—Won by Easland, Trinity; second, C. D. Blyanhard, M. A. C.; third, Nordstrom, Trinity. Distance, 84.2 feet.

TRINITY LOSES TO WORCESTER TECH.

Trinity journeyed to Worcester Saturday only to meet defeat at the hands of Worcester Polytechnic Institute in a game that was called during the first half of the sixth inning on account of rain. The Tech men piled up eleven runs, but Trinity was unable to get a man across the plate.

In the first inning, Trinity made an encouraging start and both teams failed to tally. King, pitching for Trinity, did some fine work in the first and third innings, but his control was not to be relied on, this being the first game he has pitched in collegiate baseball, and he did not receive adequate support. His troubles began in the second, when the Tech men rolled up four runs. There was a visible tightening in the whole Trinity team in the third, and they held the Worcester team to a scoreless half. In the fourth, however, the Blue and Gold nine lost its grip and the Tech men found an opportunity for some heavy work with the stick. When the game was called, the score stood 11-0.

"NOW THEN TRINITY"

On Wednesday will begin the resumption of normal athletic relations with Wesleyan University after three and one-half years of estrangement. On this day the baseball team will meet Wesleyan on Andrus Field. The team has been unfortunate so far this season, and despite its best efforts has been unable to wrest a single victory from its opponents. Such results are discouraging, but it should be borne in mind by every Trinity man that it is not the fault of the team that the season has been disastrous. The players do not claim to be "stars of the diamond." They are the only men in college who have had spirit enough to go out on the field from day to day and give what little they had for Trinity. "Swivel chair artists" have sat back and criticised. But they haven't the spirit or the pep that the men who are doing their best on the field have shown.

On Wednesday, as we have said, the team meets Wesleyan without a victory to its credit so far this season. But the players, undismayed by past performances, are going into the game with all the fight they can muster. And with these nine men doing their best, it remains for us who have done nothing but criticise all year, to drop our critical mood and get behind our team of workers. The two home games have been characterized as much by lack of cheering and Trinity backing as by their results. Few undergraduates have attended the games and these few have sauntered away from the playing field long before the games were finished, leaving a deserted team to play on its home grounds.

So let's adopt a new attitude toward our team before Wednesday. Let's boost it; not knock it. Let every man who is so fortunate as to have no classes Wednesday afternoon, take a Middletown car and go down to back up that team. And while we do not advocate cutting classes as a rule, we really believe that the men who have classes Wednesday afternoon can afford to miss them to go to Middletown and give the team their support.

You all have read that slogan that has been so much in evidence the past few days, "A man may be down, but he is never out." Our ball team may have been down, but it is by no means out, and every man on the nine is going to prove it Wednesday afternoon.

Rev. Dr. Oliver H. Raftery, '73, who has been rector of Trinity Church, Portland, for thirty-three years, and one of the most widely known clergymen of Connecticut, died at his home in Portland, Saturday morning, May 17.

Dr. Raftery was born in New York City, and received his early education at Cheshire Academy. After graduation from Cheshire in 1869, he entered Trinity, graduating with first honors in the the Class of 1873. He graduated from Berkeley Divinity School in 1876.

On being ordained by Bishop Williams, he assumed the rectorship of St. Peter's Church in Cheshire. After spending ten years at this parish, he received a call from Portland in 1886, where he has been ever since. Under his guidance, Trinity Church passed through an era of prosperity. Many improvements on the church, and a new parish house were completed during his regime.

Dr. Raftery was twice married. His second wife, formerly Miss Adelaide E. Brainerd of Portland, a son, Harold Raftery, a Trinity man, now studying in the Cambridge Theological Seminary, and a daughter, Elizabeth, survive him,

Dr. Raftery was recognized as one of the leading Episcopalian clergymen of the state. In 1908, Trinity conferred the degree of Doctor of Divinity. He was one of the college's most distinguished alumni.

Hdqrs. Base Hospital 100,

American E. F.,
March 27, 1919.

Editor of the Tripod,
Trinity College,
Hartford, Conn.,

Dear Sir:

It is with such great pleasure and profit that I have been receiving frequent issues of the "Tripod" that I needs must hereby acknowledge my appreciation of this gift which so many members of the A. E. F. count priceless. As a doctor in the Medical Corps of the Army my story is of the S. O. S. Those who have fought its unspectacular and usually thankless battles of first inactivity and then mad rush will understand what I mean when I say the "Tripod" is appreciated by the Trinity men in the A. E. F. I have met few Trinity men over here in the Base Sections as they have naturally been in their places at the front line. My hope of meeting them in the hospital wards or in the camp hospitals has not been rewarded. So I fall back upon the "Tripod" when it comes and rejoice with the news it brings that I am, too, a Trinity man.

It appears that medical men will be the last to leave France, so I presume on your good nature and kind heart to the extent of asking you to change my address on your records to the above and send along some more copies.

Sincerely yours,
