TRIPOD STRAW VOTE

E. I. N. A. Members to Ballot on Candidates.

BRANDEGEE'S NAME BEFORE STUDENTS.

Voting to be in College Union, Wednesday, 10 A. M. to 3 P. M.

THE TRIPOD, in conjunction with the other members of the Eastern Intercollegiate Newspaper Association will hold a straw vote for president on Wednesday, October 20. Elsewhere in this issue a ballot is printed which should be filled out and signed. A ballot box will be placed in the union and a TRIPOD man will be in charge at the ballot box during the hours of voting. The results here will be posted on the bulletin board Wednesday night. Complete results for the vote in all the colleges which are members of the association will be announced in THE TRIPOD of October 26. The voting will take place between 10 a. m. and 3 p. m.

THE TRIPOD, in view of the intense interest which is being manifested in the campaign of U. S. Senator Frank B. Brandegee for re-election, has added to the ballot the name of the two leading candidates for senator. The issues for which Longergan and Brandegee stand are similar to those of Cox and Harding. At this time the Hartford newspapers are engaged in one of the bitterest newspaper wars in the history of journalism over Mr. Brandegee. One of these papers interviewed members of the faculty for opinions on the justice of its course in the matter.

The gubernatorial candidates have also been placed on the ballot.

SPRINGFIELD DEFEATS CROSS COUNTRY TEAM.

Captain Hungerford Stars for Trinity—Score 19 to 36.

The Trinity cross country team fell an easy victim to Springfield College at Springfield, 19 to 36. Captain Ted Hungerford ran his usual brilliant race and finished second, a short distance behind Peabody, the Springfield star. Peabody captured first place for Springfield and other members of the Springfield team took third, fourth, fifth and sixth places.

The team will go to Worcester on Wednesday for a meet with the Worcester Tech team. A meet with Wesleyan on the Trinity course has been scheduled for later in the season, and a return meet with Springfield will be held here on November 6, the day of the Springfield football game.

Professor Carpenter has contributed to the current physiological number of "Psychological Bulletin" an article entitled "Some Recent Contributions to the Physiology of the Autonomic Nervous System."

FOOTBALL WITH HAMILTON AND HAVERFORD.

Mitchell, '16, Makes Suggestions for 1921 Schedule—Praises Team.

To the Editor of THE TRIPOD:

The Wesleyan game has been played and we lost. It was my privilege to witness the game, and, despite the unfortunate outcome, I find much food for encouragement. The thing that counts is that the team fought and played as a Trinity team would be expected to fight and play against Wesleyan. I have never seen a game which was more fiercely contested. The old Trinity spirit was in evidence in every play, and that assures ultimate success for the football team. The team illustrated the keynote of Trinity spirit—"Fighting to Win; but winning or losing with honor."

Now a few words on "might have beens." It was evident to everyone that it was a grave mistake to play the Wesleyan game so early in the schedule. Early games always favor the larger colleges. Regarding our future schedules, I have the following remedies to suggest:

The two colleges which are more nearly akin to Trinity, and are more properly our rivals than probably any other in the country, are Haverford and Hamilton. In the past decade the Haverford game was the best game on the schedule, with the exception, of course, of the Wesleyan game, and I fail to understand why it has been dropped. Aside from the splendid sportsmanship developed it advertised Trinity better than probably any other game on the schedule. The traditions and sportsmanlike standards of Hamilton closely resemble those of Trinity, and I should be very glad to see Hamilton on the 1921 schedule.

I close with one word of grave censure. When the writer was in college Trinity lost very few games, but we lost never a game that the Trinity stand did not remain to a man and sing "Neath the Elms" as the team walked off the field. That is one Trinity tradition that the present undergraduate body cannot afford to forget. Had that been observed at the Wesleyan game it would have been a tower of strength to the team through the rest of the season, and it would have declared to the world that Trinity supports even a losing team to the last ditch.

However, I do not mean to be a "gloom." I am filled with enthusiasm for and faith in a glowing Trinity future, and I believe that future is now at hand. The solution of our problems is for undergraduates and alumni to rally round the new president with the memory of the glorious Trinity of the past in mind, and the promise of a greater, finer and successful Trinity just ahead.

BOWDOIN TAKES HARD-FOUGHT GAME

J. J. McCOOK TO SPEAK AT INAUGURATION.

German Professor to Make Faculty Address—May be Interclass Baseball.

Plans for the inauguration of President Ogilby on November 17 are progressing favorably, although the final arrangements probably will not be made for a week or two yet. The Rev. Dr. John J. McCook has been appointed chairman of the faculty committee on the inauguration and will also speak for the faculty at the ceremony. The other members of the faculty committee are: Professors Edward F. Humphrey, Gustavus A. Kleene, Leroy C. Barret and Odell Shepard.

The faculty committee held a joint meeting with the undergraduate committee last week and discussed plans for the inauguration. The affair is to be primarily a college function. For this reason it was decided to make no effort to get an intercollegiate football game for the day of the inauguration. The possibility of an interclass baseball game was discussed and was considered favorably. The Jesters will present a three-act play followed by a short comedy on the night before the inauguration. The ceremony itself will be held in Alumni Hall and will be followed by a luncheon in the gymnasium.

SENATE MEETING.

Committee Appointed to Draw Up Budget for Blanket Tax.

Meeting called to order in the history room at 7.35 p. m. Roll-call showed captain of the football team and member of neutral body absent.

Hicks, '21, was elected secretary for the year. Strong, '21, reported for the students' inaugural committee.

Hicks moved that the president appoint a committee to draw up a budget for a blanket tax to provide funds for college activities. Hicks and Strong were appointed.

Strong was elected to succeed Reitemeyer on the student advisory committee.

The Senate showed itself to be in favor of forming a debating society for the coming year.

Meeting adjourned at 8.20 p. m.

W. C. HICKS,
Secretary.

Prof. G. A. Kleene has contributed an article to the August issue of "The Quarterly Journal of Economics." It is entitled, "Bertrand Russell on Socialism."

Forward Pass in Last Five Minutes Defeats Trinity.

TANSILL STARS AT END.

Blue and Gold Fails to Score on Maine Collegians—Bleecker Plays Well.

(Special to THE TRIPOD).

Brunswick, Maine, October 16—Bowdoin slipped over a touchdown in the last five minutes of play here today for the only score of the game, defeating Trinity 6 to 0. The game was fairly even until the score, both teams plugging the line consistently for short gains. The Bowdoin tally came as the result of a forward pass which brought the ball to Trinity's twenty-yard line, followed by four more passes in succession. Mason missed the goal.

Trinity played better football than it played in the Wesleyan game, but the left side of the line was weak and Bowdoin made nearly all its gains there. This was compensated in some measure by the fact that the left side of the Bowdoin line was also somewhat weak. The game was rather listless until the end of the last quarter, being in large part a punting duel between Bleecker of Trinity and A. E. Morrell of Bowdoin, with the Maine man having the edge on distance.

Both teams varied their line bucking with aerial attempts in the first half, but had no success. Following the Bowdoin touchdown, which came as the result of aerial playing, Trinity received the kickoff and immediately opened up. Trinity tried three passes in quick succession, one of which, Bleecker to Sinclair, worked for twenty yards. The other two passes were incomplete, and Bowdoin took the ball on downs. The ball was in the hands of the home team at the end of the game.

Tansill and Bleecker played the best football for Trinity. The former played a remarkable game at end, smearing Bowdoin plays, time and again. He got down well under Bleecker's kicks and stopped his man in good shape. Bleecker punted safely and did most of the ground gaining for Trinity. He was also partly responsible for the forward pass near the end of the game which resulted in Trinity's longest gain. Trinity made three first downs, two of them as the result of forward passes.

The lineup and summary:

FOR PRESIDENT.

This week, a straw vote is to be taken by many of the eastern colleges to determine the college man's choice for President of the United States. The presidential campaign this year is an extremely interesting one and college students, whether of voting age or not should take a keen interest in its issues, and should, by now, have formed an opinion concerning the questions. Don't forget to cast your vote Wednesday. The results of this straw vote may indicate how the November election will go.

Trinity versus Williams at Williamstown, Saturday, October 23.

WEARERS OF THE "T."

Several years ago, Trinity had a "T" Club. To this organization, all wearers of the college letter were elected. Its purpose was to boost our athletics by interesting preparatory school athletes in our college. Why not form this club again? Athletes, get busy! Here is a real chance to help your college.

POLITICAL FORUM.

Although the Philippine issue is not one of the primary ones of the campaign, the Far Eastern question is always one of importance and THE TRIPOD is presenting a quotation from the Democratic Textbook, concerning Harding's record on the Philippines. This question is especially interesting in the light of President Ogilby's speech before the Political Science Club last Tuesday.

"Senator Harding delivered his first speech in the Senate on January 28, 1916, on the bill 'To declare the purpose of the people of the United States as to the future political status of the people of the Philippine Islands, and to provide a more autonomous government for those islands.' He said that coming from Ohio, the home of the man who led in planting our flag in the Philippines, he thought he should 'lift his voice in protest against the proposed measure'."

REPUBLICANS ACTIVE.

G. O. P. Men Plan Rally to Bring Out Vote—Democrats Dormant.

Following the announcement that THE TRIPOD would conduct a straw vote, the officers of the Trinity College Republican club took steps to carry the college for the G. O. P. candidates. Liaison with the Republican State Central Committee, and Alexander W. Creedon, '09, chairman of the speakers' committee, was established and plans were made for a rally to be held Wednesday noon-time. An organized effort to get out the full republican vote of the college for the straw vote will also be made.

The democrats have not yet taken any steps toward organizing a Cox-Roosevelt club, and it is doubtful whether they will make any strenuous effort to carry the election. The collegiate division of the democratic national committee has been in communication with at least two men on the campus, Budd, '21, and Black, '23. What reply Budd made to the request of the committee that he organize a democratic club is not known, but Black, who was approached because he is a cousin of Governor Cox, repudiated the cohorts of democracy and all their works. He is secretary of the republican club and one of the hardest workers for Harding and Coolidge.

RECENT GIFTS TO NATURAL HISTORY MUSEUM.

C. A. Johnson Presents Valuable Microscope of Historic Interest.

C. Amos Johnson, alumni secretary, has presented the Natural History Museum an old-fashioned compound microscope of considerable historical interest. The instrument was made many years ago by Zentmayer, of Philadelphia, and was the best of its kind in its day. It was formerly owned and used by Dr. Paddock, a microscopist of Norwich, Conn. The gift includes a set of valuable lenses and a series of interesting microscopical preparations.

Other recent gifts to the museum and department of biology are as follows:

A medal symbolizing the war service of the home gardens of America. This is a replica in bronze of a medal presented to President Wilson and the heads of the allied governments. It was given to the museum by the National War Garden Commission, of which Charles Lathrop Peck, LL.D., Trinity, 1918, was president.

From Judge Joseph Buffington, '75, a stone device, possibly Indian in origin, from Canada.

From Morris Dworski, 1917, microscopical preparations of pathological tissues from the Babbitt Laboratory, Loomis Sanatorium.

The call for assistant managers of football has been answered by Gesner, '23, and Webster, '23.

EMPLOYMENT BUREAU.

Twenty Men Placed During First Week.

Hersey, '21, reports that the employment bureau is making fair progress. So far about ninety students have applied for positions, about twenty-five persons have applied for the services of students and about twenty applicants have been placed in fair positions. The employment bureau is starting on a small scale, but it is hoped that it will grow to be a large and well known organization. It will be appreciated if the alumni will cooperate with Hersey and report any open positions. Alumnus may register for positions. There are several manufacturing jobs open for students going into the manufacturing business, and they may be had for the asking. It is also requested that all students who are working register with Hersey if they have not already done so.

Hop Committee.

The Sophomore Hop Committee, as announced by the chairman, will consist of the following men: Chairman, C. H. Gesner, Alpha Delta Phi; George Tenney representing Psi Upsilon; E. B. Anderson representing Delta Kappa Epsilon; F. B. Creamer representing Delta Psi; W. W. Canner representing Sigma Nu; T. S. Bradley representing Alpha Chi Rho; E. P. Miller representing Alpha Delta Phi; F. W. Bowdidge representing Delta Phi; G. L. Booth representing Phi Gamma Delta; E. L. Hippe representing Alpha Tau Kappa; H. L. Smith representing neutral body; and H. J. Ferguson ex-officio. The committee will start work on its plans immediately.

Alumni Meet.

President Ogilby outlined the plans for Trinity's future at a meeting of the Hartford Alumni Association held as a football rally at the University Club last week. He spoke of plotting on the grounds on Broad Street and added that the proposed quadrangle probably would not be completed. The new plans will probably include a chapel for the north end of the campus and a new science building and a modern dining hall for the south end of the campus. A new museum was also spoken of. He praised the small college as a distinctly American institution.

G. L. Booth, '23, attended the annual initiation and banquet of the Pi Iota Chapter of Phi Gamma Delta at Worcester Tech, as a delegate from the Tau Alpha Chapter.

JESTERS ANNOUNCE CAST. Plans Made for Play on Night Before Inauguration.

On Tuesday evening, November 16, the day before President Ogilby's inauguration, The Jesters, the Trinity College dramatic society, will give its first performance of the year in Alumni Hall. The play which they have selected for this production is: "The Monkey's Paw", dramatized by L. N. Parker from a very famous short story by W. W. Jacobs, an English writer of note. "The Monkey's Paw", in three scenes, is ranked high among plays that are weird or supernatural in theme.

The performance will be followed by an informal dance, lasting till one o'clock. Music will be furnished by Alcott's New Britain Orchestra.

At a recent meeting of the Jesters, President Ogilby was elected an honorary member. Francis B. Creamer, '23, was elected business manager, and M. R. Mohnkern, '22, publicity manager.

This spring The Jesters expect to revive the old custom of putting on a big play at Parsons'. The vehicle which has been chosen is "The Fortune Hunter", a Broadway success of several years ago, by Winchell Smith, the Hartford playwright. Mr. Smith has given permission to use the play, which will be given for the benefit of the Children's Aid Society, a worthy charity of Hartford.

The cast for "The Monkey's Paw" is as follows:

Mr. White, James E. Callaghan, '22
Mrs. White, E. J. Cullum, '23
Herbert, the son,
Thurston B. Macauley, '22
Sergeant-Major Morris,
Francis B. Creamer, '23
Mr. Sampson, a lawyer,
M. R. Mohnkern, '22

Carlton, who was librarian at Trinity College from 1904 to 1908, and who for the last ten years has occupied the same position at the Newberry Library in Chicago, has been appointed librarian of the American Library in Paris, and is the European representative of the American Library Association. He is national chairman of the enlarged program committee of the association, engaged in raising $2,000,000 to carry out the "books for everybody" movement. Dr. Carlton will have under his direction the association's library in Coblenz, which is furnishing the American Army of Occupation with complete library service.
