BENNY BOYNTON TOO MUCH FOR TRINITY. All-American Man at Williams Runs Wild—Blue and Gold Shows Improvement. (Special to THE TRIPOD.)

Williamstown, Mass., October 23 (By E. I. N. A.)—Benny Boynton, Williams' All-American candidate, defeated Trinity here today by a series of sensational broken field runs which piled up a total of 62 points. The Purple's captain personally accounted for six of the nine touchdowns and was on the hurling end of two forward passes which resulted in scores. He was practically the entire attack of the Williams team and, the few times he did not carry the ball, he interfered for the man who did.

Against these sensational spurts the Trinity team fought hard and well. The line outplayed the Williams' forwards consistently, but did not break through fast enough to stop the Purple flash before he got into a broken field—and then he couldn't be stopped. The team showed a consistent attack for the first time this season and gained ground steadily. Particularly in the second and fourth periods did the Trinity attack get under way. Early in the last quarter Trinity held for downs on its own twenty-yard line and carried the ball to Williams' twenty-five yard mark by off-tackle plunges, end runs and forward passes. In this series of plays the team set a remarkable record for consecutive passes—five beautifully executed plays, Bleecker to Bolles advancing the ball twenty-five yards. Following these one pass missed fire and was followed by two more successfully completed tosses. With the ball on the twenty-five yard mark and two yards to go on the last down, Murphy elected to drop kick from a difficult angle. The ball went wide of the posts into the arms of Boynton, who carried it 103 yards for a touchdown. In the second period another sustained attack took the ball to Williams' two-yard line on the last down, but was a few feet short of first down.

For Trinity, Bleecker and Bolles starred. Bleecker out-punted Boynton and tore off two runs, of twenty, and twenty-five yards, respectively. Bolles, playing his first game at end, spilled all the plays directed against him and held Boynton in leash. He covered punts well and made some beautiful catches of forward passes. Captain Johnson played a hard, steady, and consistent game at right tackle, smearing all the attempts to box him.

Williams used for the most part straight football. Teamwork was in evidence, and the line afforded the backs at all times almost faultless interference. Captain Boynton was easily the star of the day, making a total individual gain of 350 yards, in-

Princeton, October 21, 1920—The straw vote for president conducted by the Eastern Intercollegiate Newspaper Association went overwhelmingly for Harding. The only college in which Harding did not have a majority was in Richmond College, the only representative of the "solid South" in the association. As was to be expected this institution went for Cox. The fact that Eugene V. Debs, now in the federal prison at Atlanta for violation of the espionage act, and running for president on the socialist ticket, ran third was a considerable surprise.

TRINITY HARRIERS LOSE TO WORCESTER TECH.

Hungerford Gives Wonderful Exhibition of Nerve—Score 25 to 30.

In a strongly contested battle, the Worcester Tech harriers nosed out Trinity with a score of 25 to 30. The features of the meet were the magnificent finish of Hungerford and the smooth working of the Trinity team. About two hundred yards from the finish Hungerford weakened, but by sheer will-power and dogged nerve drove himself staggering across the mark. The six Trinity men placed in a continuous line.

The runners finished in the following order: Johnston, Worcester, first; Hoar, Worcester, second; Martson, Worcester, third; Hungerford, Trinity, fourth; Bradley, Trinity, fifth; Clapp, Trinity, sixth; Hallberg, Trinity, seventh; Murphy, Trinity, eighth; Styffe, Worcester, ninth; Gallote, Worcester, tenth.

The Trinity cross country team will meet Wesleyan here next Saturday.

The straw vote at Trinity conducted by THE TRIPOD as a member of the E. I. N. A., went republican. At Trinity, not only were the five presidential candidates balloted upon, but the two leading candidates for U. S. Senator and for governor of Connecticut were also voted upon. The first ballot cast was that of Macauley, '22, who voted a straight republican ticket. The first democratic ballot did not come in until after the balloting had been going on for an hour.

The results at Trinity were:

Total votes cast 104.

Democratic	12

For U. S. Senator:

Bishop's Tea Party.

The annual Bishop's Tea Party was held on the campus yesterday afternoon with a full attendance of the sophomore class and a majority of the freshmen. '19—Franklin K. Lane, formerly Secretary of the Interior, received the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws at Harvard last June.

ALUMNI NEWS.

A letter received not long ago congratulating THE TRIPOD on its showing so far this year also contained the following: "There has not been enough news of the alumni to satisfy some of us who search your columns eagerly for the sight of a familiar name." The criticism is a just one, and one for which there is no alibi. Slowly, however, THE TRIPOD is evolving the system of alumni correspondence mentioned earlier in the year. In this issue is the first regular alumni letter, the work of R. L. Maxon, '16, of Detroit. E. C. Hinkel, Jr., of New York, TRIPOD correspondent for the metropolis, has also furnished us with some valuable alumni news. There are correspondents in a few of the other large cities, but the country is not yet covered. It is hoped that the tentative list, which includes about forty cities, will be complete by the first of the year. Meantime, THE TRIPOD asks the alumni to bear with it. Incidentally, how much news of your townsmen who went to Trinity have you sent it?

ROOSEVELT.

Wednesday, October 27, marks the birthday of one of the greatest men the history of this country has yet produced—Theodore Roosevelt. Whether or not the citizens of this country agreed with him politically, there was for him in all quarters the highest respect that one man can give another, an unquestioning belief in his sincerity. Roosevelt was born in 1858 at No. 28 East Twentieth Street, New York City. The Women's Roosevelt Memorial Association, of which Mrs. Leonard Wood is honorary president, is now raising a fund to restore his birthplace and ask that a birthday gift of at least one dollar be sent to their headquarters at No. 1 East Fifty-seventh Street, New York City, to help them in their worthy project. THE TRIPOD heartily endorses this movement, and urges all Trinity men to contribute to this lasting memorial to one of the greatest Americans, and certainly the greatest man whose name has ever appeared on the roll of Trinity alumni.

A WORTHY CAUSE.

We are printing the following notice from the Red Cross. The great work which the organization has done, and is doing, needs no explanation. We feel assured that Trinity will do its full share, and that it will be well represented in the Fourth "Roll Call."

Are you a member of the American Red Cross?

Did you know, then, that your membership runs out in November and that between November 11 and 25, the Fourth Roll-Call is being inaugurated to give you an opportunity to renew your membership and pay your annual dues?

This is the same Red Cross that stood shoulder to shoulder with the American army in France, the same organization whose workers you met in the trenches, in the cantonments and in the hospitals.

In Europe the work of the American Red Cross, mobilized for war service is practically ended. In this country, the work of the Red Cross, mobilized for home service is being extended to aid the sick, the needy, the unfortunate in all communities, to teach clean living, with the coöperation of government departments.

To the college men of the country the American Red Cross feels that it can look with confidence for a large enrollment. Many of you know from personal experience the service of the Red Cross to the American army and navy. It has not lessened that service, merely changed the field of its activities.

THE IVY.

After many months and numerous promises, the 1921 "Ivy" has arrived. Its material is well arranged, and the work of the art editor is especially commendable. The miscellaneous section is quite amusing. Concerning "Sundials", THE TRIPOD thanks the "Ivy" board for acting on its suggestion, printed long ago, and appreciates the clever historical sketch of the well-known monument. The class of 1921 is to be heartily congratulated on its excellent year-book. "Better late than never" is a trite phrase, and may possibly be altered, in this case, to "Better late than early", since the question of the advent of the "Ivy" gave many a Trinity man a topic of conversation during the long summer months and the opening days of college.

HOCKEY.

Trinity will probably have a hockey team this coming winter. We have had good hockey teams in the past, and with the material which we have on hand now, we ought to have a still better team this year. Those who can play should offer their services when they are requested, and the rest of us should support the team in every possible way.

POLITICAL FORUM.

"I do not want to clarify these obligations; I want to turn my back on them. It is not interpretation but rejection that I am seeking."—Senator Harding at Des Moines, October 7.

"I am in favor of a world association—call it what you will, the name is of slight consequence—that will discourage or tend to prevent war."—Senator Harding at Marion, October 11.

"Now he is against the league. I am for it."—Governor Cox, at Nashville, October 8.

"We will accept any reservation that helps to clarify. We will accept any reservation that helps to reassure. We will accept any reservation that helps to strengthen."—Governor Cox at Tulsa, October 1. (From the "Literary Digest.")

MILITARY COLLECTION TO STATE LIBRARY. Colonel Calvin D. Cowles, '19, makes Valuable Addition to State Archives.

Colonel Calvin B. Cowles, U. S. A., retired, honorary '19, of Hartford, has presented to the Historical Collection of the Connecticut Commandery, Military Order of Foreign Wars in the state library, as a part of the Department of War Records, his collection of war relics, ancient and modern, crude and beautiful, of the war with Spain and Philippine Insurrection, numbering over 100 articles, including spears, bolos, crises, bows and arrows, firearms, also articles of dress, musical instruments, Philippine mats, also a number of relics of the American Army, including rifles, swords, spears and horse equipment. The Philippine shields are beautifully inlaid with foreign woods and many of the spears and knives are beautifully engraved and contain native fine filigree work.

Included in the collection is a fan piece consisting of thirty Philippine poisoned arrows, no two alike.

Among the items are included two swords won by Colonel Cowles during his long service in the United States Army, one of which he wore from the time he graduated from West Point until 1898, and the other, a sabre, which he wore from 1898 until about 1903 when the present regulation sabre was adopted.

These several items will be prepared for exhibition and arranged as soon as possible.

During the Spanish War Colonel Cowles was lieutenant-colonel of the 1st North Carolina Volunteer Infantry which formed part of the 7th Army Corps comprising the Army of Cuban Occupation. He was also acting inspector-general, 2d Division, 7th Army Corps. In 1901 and 1902 he was in command of the sub-district of Davao, Philippine Islands. He was commandant of the Trinity Students' Army Training Corps in 1918.

cluding four long runs of 40, 50, 60 and 103 yards, respectively, in the latter case receiving a drop kick two yards behind his goal and running the length of the field for a touchdown. J. E. Wilson made a good showing at half-back, was a decided factor in the Williams' offense throughout the game, and proved a reliable man after Captain Boynton had retired to the bench in the last period. Montgomery played well at full-back and showed unusual ability in line bucking. Richmond also played a good offensive game, receiving three forward passes during the first period for gains of 15, 20, and 10 yards, respectively.
