ALUMNI TRUSTEE.

Schutz, '94, and Eaton, '99, Receive Nominations.

William H. Eaton and Walter S. Schutz have been nominated for the position of alumni trustee left vacant by the expiration of the term of Eaton in June. There were about thirty other alumni nominated, but Schutz and Eaton were the only two who had the seven votes necessary for nomination when the executive committee counted the ballots on Thursday. William H. Eaton of Pittsfield, who has been nominated to succeed himself, was graduated in 1899, and Schutz, who is now corporation counsel for the City of Hartford, was graduated in 1894. The votes for trustee will be counted on June 18.

VICTORIOUS ENDING OF SEASON

BLUE AND GOLD TOYS WITH UNIVERSITY OF VERMONT—VISITORS GET BUT ONE POINT IN FIRST HALF—FINAL SCORE 23 TO 10.

The basketball team closed its season in fitting style Saturday, March 19, with a 23 to 10 victory over the University of Vermont, champions of the Green Mountain state. The low score does not indicate the complete superiority of the team over the visitors. In fact, as an exhibition of basketball as it should be played, the game was entirely one sided. Trinity toyed with their opponents from whistle to whistle and the score at the end of the first half, 13 to 1, is only a slight indication of the Blue and Gold's superiority. In the closing period Vermont took long shots whenever they got their hands on the ball. Two of them were successful, and once they worked the ball down to the end line and caged a goal. That was the extent of their floor attack.

Canner High Scorer.

Canner accounted for thirteen of Trinity's total, seven fouls and three floor baskets being his contribution to the evening's festivities. Nordlund and Brill accounted for the remainder of the points with three and two field goals respectively. Poirier, who substituted for Mills in the second half, registered all three of Vermont's scrimmage goals, and added to these one foul, making a total of seven out of his team's total of ten. Aside from his individual scoring power, the only bright spot in the Vermont horizon was the cheering section which accompanied the team. It almost equalled Trinity's in numbers and kept up a racket to the end of the game.

The scoring opened with a foul by Canner. Brill followed this with a goal from the floor. Canner dropped another foul, which Nordlund followed with a pretty basket from the side of the court. Heidger rang up Vermont's lone point of the period. The game then went on slowly while Canner added three points from the fifteen foot mark. Near the close of the period Nordlund scored his second basket, and Canner dropped one from the floor, making the score 13 to 1.

In the latter part of the second half, the team contented itself with keeping the ball in play ringing up periodic points just to give the affair the appearance of a basketball game. Nordlund, in particular, dribbled to his heart's content, between, under and over the Vermont defense, taking the ball the length of the floor.

Vermont Gets Some Points.

Canner opened the session with a neat goal from the floor. Poirier got his first basket, a long shot from the side of the court. Canner added a point which Poirier duplicated. Brill dropped his second basket. Poirier then found the hoop for two more baskets, making the score 18 to 8. Canner added two points with

NELSON SHARPE PROBABLE BASEBALL COACH.

Former Springfield Athlete Willing to Train Nine.

Nelson Sharpe, former Springfield College baseball and football star, and at present physical instructor in Easthampton, N. Y., will probably be selected to coach the baseball team this year. He has accepted the terms offered by Trinity, but has not yet signed a contract. He prepared for college at Worcester Academy, and won his letter in five sports there. He played both baseball and football at Springfield, and after graduation coached the baseball team at the University of Iowa. He has played professional baseball with the Springfield team in the Eastern League and with the Fisk Red Tops. During the war he served in the army aviation. His home is in Hartford.

At Library Association Meeting.

Professor Odell Shepard of the department of English took a prominent part in the last meeting of the Connecticut Library Association held in New Haven on February 25, reading a paper before the afternoon session entitled "Recent Poetry." Dr. W. L. Phelps of Yale read a paper on recent novels before the morning session. Dr. Arthur Adams, librarian of Trinity, also attended.

TRACK SCHEDULE VERY UNCERTAIN.

Efforts Being Made for Three Dual Meets.

A track schedule for this spring is still in the works and seems to be as uncertain here as in many other colleges in this vicinity. Negotiations are under way with Boston University, Connecticut Aggies, and Worcester Tech. Manager Kirkby hopes to hear definitely from the Aggies soon as to the probability of their having a track team this year.

Indoor training for candidates was begun at the same time that battery candidates were called out for baseball, and last week the squad was able to get out on the cinder track for practice. Among the veterans are Captain Ransom, Ameluxen, Hungerford, Clapp, Murphy, Bradley, Buckley, Matthews, Cullum, Mohnkern, and Guertin. Nash, a freshman, has been showing up very well in the high jump and seems to have the field very much to himself. There are a number of men out for the pole vault receiving instruction from Coach Drew who has made quite an enviable record in this event at Bates and Springfield.

Freshmen Win Annual Scrap

CLASS OF 1924 RAISES FLAG WITHIN FIVE MINUTES—NIGHT BEFORE ACTIVITIES LIVELY IN SPITE OF RULE AGAINST DOWNTOWN FIGHTING.

The class of 1924 won the St. Patrick's Day Scrap last Thursday morning, raising their flag in less than five minutes, and keeping it flying for the ten minutes required by the Senate rules. The credit for carrying the flag up the tree goes to Carl Nash. The second flag was in the hands of John Sinclair, and he was unable to get up the tree with it.

The fight started shortly after 7.30, the freshmen forming near the gymnasium and charging across the campus in open formation. The sophomores placed most of their men around the tree, with about a dozen scattered around to break the force of the freshman attack. It was only a few seconds after the scrap started when the freshmen got close enough to jump for the tree, and Nash was once pulled down from the branches, before he succeeded in getting up. All the freshmen made a determined effort to climb the tree and this confused the sophomores who merely hauled the attackers down, and made no attempt to discover the flag bearers.

Nash Climbs Tree.

Nash got into the tree by pulling himself up onto a low limb, almost without opposition as all the sophomores were engaged at the moment. As soon as he was in the tree the battle was reversed and the sophomores tried to reach the branches of the tree in spite of the efforts of the freshmen to keep them down. The first move of the freshmen was to break off the limb by which Nash had reached the tree, and the freshman banner flew unmolsted for about five minutes before Barry succeeded in getting up the tree. He started after Nash, but was compelled to halt just out of range of the freshman's feet. Merrill, another sophomore, followed Barry up the tree and Murphy also reached the lower branches. The three sophomores were climbing to positions of attack when the whistle blew for the end of the scrap.

Weather conditions for the scrap were ideal, the ground being soft, without being muddy, and the air just cool enough to prevent lassitude. The crowd watching the scrap was not as large as in former years.

Night Before Fracas.

Although downtown fighting was barred this year by the rules of the Senate, the night before fracas was fairly exciting, but not to be compared with the fight at the Miner House last year. The freshmen left the campus early, and established headquarters at the Saunders House on Asylum Street, while the sophomores remained on the campus during the early part of the evening. Both sides began to act about ten o'clock, the sophomores sending out an automobile patrol, and a large group of freshmen patrolled Asylum Street.

Another group of freshmen sneaked out to college and after snooping around the campus for a time discovered Black and Gammell at the Psi Upsilon house. They were taken after a hard battle, and the freshmen started to retreat toward the center of the city. The sophomores were roused and started out in hot pursuit, gaining on the freshmen who were hampered by their prisoners. At Vernon Street Kennedy and Birmingham of the freshmen remained behind to stem the pursuit, and oc

STOP!

There is a pastime, worldwide in its extent, and honored by age. It has been, and still is, looked upon with favor by kings. Royalty, however, has no monopoly on this game. Very ordinary people—even college students—take part in it. There are thousands of experts in our country, there are many in Trinity College.

We read about them in the papers; we see them in action every day—"Buck Passers." "Passing the Buck" has become a mania. It is a rather poor game. It would seem to indicate laziness and inefficiency on the part of the participants.

Let's stop it! The next time that "buck" comes along let's jump on it and hold it! Let's make short work of it and bury the remains!

KEEP OFF THE GRASS.

One of the greatest assets of Trinity is its beautiful campus. It has become necessary to post signs in several places warning students to keep off the grass. Unfortunately, human nature instinctively rebels, and the signs go unheeded, while the young grass is being crushed and gives way to an unsightly path. Now is the time to act on this matter, and it is up to every student to cooperate in this move for the betterment of the college.

THANKS.

On Saturday night, the basketball team brought its season to a most successful close. Although it has lost a few games during the season, the defeats have not been due to any fault of the players who have consistently played good, clean basketball. We congratulate the members of the team on their excellent work.

No small amount of credit should go to Coach Drew. The results of his efforts speak for themselves. The college cannot but be grateful to him and to the team for their effort on its behalf.

LET'S GO.

We would call the attention of the members of the Interfraternity Council to the fact that now is the time to consider the campaign of the next school year. Last fall the rushing agreement seemed to work fairly well. However, it will need some revision if it is to be again placed in effect. Such business cannot be done hastily. The Council should formulate its plans soon—preferably before the Sophomore Smoker.

THE HOP.

We recommend to all undergraduates that they attend the "Trinity Hop." With the proper support it is sure to be a success. Perhaps the purpose of the dance has been limited too much. Whether or not it is fair to give preference to one major sport over another is a debatable question. However, the student body has voted to give the dance—and the student body should attend it.

Easter Recess.

The Easter recess will begin Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock and ends April 4 at 5.45 p. m.

SIGNS OF SPRING.

The storm doors have been removed from the sections.

A pair of robins was seen on the campus last week.

We were going to say that some of the boys were throwing a baseball around on the campus, but that goes anytime when there is less than a foot of snow.

White flannels on the campus—or on men if you prefer—are no harbingers of gentle May, either.

But the boys have taken to admiring the sunsets from the rocks. Spring is here indeed!

THIRTEEN PREP. SCHOOLS

FOR SOPH. SMOKER.

Ten Entered in Relay Meet and Three in Tennis Tournament.

Plans for the sophomore smoker are moving along rapidly, according to Glover Johnson, chairman of the committee. The success of the relay meet is now assured, as ten teams have already entered. Prospects seem bright for an interscholastic tennis tournament as well, entries having been received from Milford, Williston and Roxbury. These schools have not entered the relay meet, so at least thirteen different preparatory institutions will be represented on the campus over the week end of May 15. Rehearsals for the musical comedy will be started immediately after the Easter recess.

Freshman Dance Committee.

Wilmac Crocker, chairman of the freshman assembly committee, has appointed the following men to serve on that committee: T. J. Birmingham, representing Phi Gamma Delta; F. W. Brecker, representing Alpha Tau Kappa; C. E. Cunningham, representing Psi Upsilon; F. S. Jones, representing Delta Phi; J. E. Mulford, representing Alpha Delta Phi; G. W. O'Connor, representing St. Anthony Hall; A. J. Rich, representing the Neutral Body; E. S. Robinson, representing Delta Kappa Epsilon; G. O. Rose, representing Alpha Chi Rho; J. D. Woolam, representing Sigma Nu; and D. G. Morton, ex-officio. The freshman assembly will be held Friday, May 13, the night before the Sophomore Smoker.

BASKETBALL TEAM CLOSES A SUCCESSFUL SEASON.

EIGHT VICTORIES,
SIX DEFEATS.
Brilliant Record Made in First Major Sport Season.

Trinity closed its first season of basketball as a major sport Saturday, March 19, with an easy win over University of Vermont, state champions. The season has been highly successful. Manager Newsom presented Coach Drew and the squad with a difficult schedule, which included some of the strongest teams in the East. The team went through the fourteen-game list with eight wins and six defeats, turning back the best of its opponents, and scoring 342 points to its opponents' 324. Two of the defeats went into extra periods, and three of the other four were on foreign courts.

The season opened with exceptionally good prospects. Captain Tansill, Nordlund, Canner, Hoard, Brill and Ransom, of last year's squad, and Mills, Miller, Bolles, and Sinclair, freshmen, were the best of the men who answered Coach Drew's call for practice. With this material the coach built up a machine that placed the College on the Hill high up in intercollegiate basketball. Tansill, Nordlund, Mills, Bolles and Canner played the first half of the schedule. After Mills' withdrawal from college, Miller took his place at center, and played an exceptionally strong game.

The Season Opens.

The season opened with a 26 to 16 win over Connecticut Aggies, which was followed the next week with a 33 to 26 victory over Middlebury. The first game after the Christmas recess was a defeat at Providence, Brown taking a 28 to 27 score. Hamilton next visited Hartford and fell 32 to 29. In the Junior week game with Springfield, the only severe defeat of the season was suffered, the physical training experts taking the long end of a 47 to 31 score. Next Stevens Tech, one of the strongest teams in the East, won a 32 to 30, extra-period battle in Hartford. Boston College invaded Connecticut with a record of eight straight games, and left with a broken winning streak, and a 23 to 20 defeat.

New York Trip.

An invasion of New York State followed this victory. Hamilton defeated the team 24 to 18, Albany Law School suffered its first defeat on its home floor, 19 to 15. Then came the West Point game. The first half was all West Point, but in the closing period Trinity fought back in traditional style, and gave the Mid-winter Hop girls the scare of their young lives. The cadets finally won, 30 to 21. With only two days' rest, the team handed Harvard an impressive trimming, in Hartford, 25 to 13. Boston University, new at basketball, requested a game in Boston. The team went on the floor stale, and over-confident, with the result that the Bostonians handed it a 22 to 17 overtime defeat. Connecticut Aggies lay in wait for the Blue and Gold with blood in their eyes, but were again forced down to defeat, this time 17 to 12. The season was a beautiful toss, and Nordlund got his third basket. King added two fouls to the visitors' total, bringing their score into the two digit column. Canner closed the scoring with a foul.

The feature play of the game was Canner's last basket. He received a long pass from Nordlund directly under the backboard. Seemingly before the ball touched his hands it was on its journey through the netting. Nordlund's all-round work stood out head and shoulders above that of any other man on the floor. Hoard's defensive game also featured.

'BUS PARTY RATHER INDIFFERENT SUCCESS.

Stripped Gears Maroon Rooters at Bolton Notch—Armstrong Rescues Stranded Quartet.

The party of rooters which was to have accompanied the basketball team to Storrs for the Aggies game did not turn out to be quite the success anticipated. Everything went along in fine shape until the 'bus arrived at Bolton Notch, where the driver stripped the gears on his car, and about forty men were left on the road, "a long ways from anywhere", as one of them expressed it. After the accident the party broke up.

A small party, that is, comparatively, piled into a Ford and were taken back to Manchester, where they took a trolley to Hartford. The majority of the party took the train from the Bolton station and returned by rail. Armstrong came through the scene of the accident in a car and took four men along to the game with his party. Two other parties reached Storrs, respectively, a few minutes before and a few minutes after the end of the game, making the trip in cars hired in Willimantic.

Those who reached the game, no matter how, joined the Trinity cheering section and made up in enthusiasm what they lacked in numbers during the game. Although the Trinity rooters could not compete with the 300 Aggies' adherents when it came to making a noise, they all

BRIGHT PROSPECTS FOR NEXT YEAR.
Present Team Will be Intact for Next Season.

Next year Trinity should go through the season with practically a clean slate. Only once in a decade can a college boast of an intact team, and that is Trinity's fortune next season. Only Hoard and Ransom, both substitutes, will be graduated this June. Every regular will return for at least one more year, and the present squad, bolstered up by the freshmen who will be eligible after mid-years, should make an unbeatable combination.

Tansill and Nordlund will play their fourth and last year at the guard positions, both having played on the 1918-19 freshman team. The defense put up by these two is nothing short of remarkable, while Nordlund combines this with a speed on the floor and accurate dribbling which is rare in a guard. Miller and Canner will have two more years on the Hill and Bolles is a freshman. This quintet has developed into a star outfit, and it is hard to see how any position could be improved upon in next year's team.

The splendid season just closed has added much to the prestige of the college on the basketball court and next year's schedule will probably see Harvard, West Point, N. Y. U., Stevens, Brown, Boston College, Hamilton, and possibly Yale, on the schedule.

yelled themselves hoarse, and all felt satisfied with their share in bringing victory to perch on the Trinity banner. The men at the game returned to Hartford in all manner of automobile conveyances. One load would have had to count the ties between Willimantic and Hartford, however, had it not been for the kindness of Ex-Mayor "Danny" Dunn of Willimantic, who cashed a check for a member of the party and provided the material wherewith auto drivers are placated.

May Meet Detroit U. in Tennis.

The Trinity tennis team may meet the racquet wielders of the University of Detroit in Hartford this spring. Manager Johnson has received a communication from the Detroit management, which is anxious to meet Trinity on its eastern trip.

Jesters' Coach Active.

Miss Hallie F. Gelbart, for several years coach of the Trinity Jesters, after producing the first play this season of the Bristol Community Players, which Robert Mallory, ex-'22, was instrumental in starting, has gone to Wells College, Aurora N. Y., to coach the sophomore play, "The Man Who Married a Dumb Wife", presented by the Jesters two weeks ago.

Trinity Grad to Exhibit Wireless Apparatus at Radio Show.

C. D. Tuska, '19, of the C. D. Tuska Company located on Homestead Avenue, Hartford, is now on his way to Chicago to arrange for the extension of sales agencies for the company's wireless apparatus.

Unlike many other businesses, the demand for wireless equipment, has not diminished as a result of depression, but practically all makers of radio apparatus in the country report constantly increasing sales.

The Tuska Company specializes in making "continuous wave" transmitters and has had much success in turning out wireless telephone outfits, several stations it has equipped having made long distance records. The company will have an exhibit at the Radio Show on the roof of the Hotel Pennsylvania during the latter part of this month.

Censures "Woman of Fashion."

The Rt. Rev. Philip Cook, '98, Bishop of Delaware, has attracted considerable notice by a Lenten sermon on the "woman of fashion." He declared that with her smart clothes and extravagances she was more to be pitied than blamed, and laid her faults to her acceptance of false standards.

Professor Henry A. Perkins was among the patrons of "The Open Door", a negro musical pageant given at Foot Guard Hall on March 15, for the benefit of Atlanta University.

FRESHMEN WIN SCRAP.

cupied fifteen sophomores for nearly five minutes before they were reduced to tractability. Hall, another freshman, was captured on a street car, and Totten strolled into the arms of some sophomores who were enjoying a quiet snack in a restaurant. The freshmen were imprisoned in Middle Jarvis.

Freshmen Captured.
The freshman raiding party conveyed its prisoners downtown, but was compelled to leave Black when threatened by the sophomore patrol. Gammell was later released, following orders from the judges, who ruled that the fraternity house was on the campus and sophomores captured on the campus could not be held. The sophomores pulled off a real coup when their patrol snapped up Kelley and Wallen at the railroad station as they were returning from New Haven at 2.55 Thursday morning. Sinclair and Crocker escaped, and hurried the freshman party which was to have met the train. The sophomores, however, were in an automobile and easily outdistanced their pursuers, adding the two freshmen to the other occupants of the donjon in Middle Jarvis.

The freshmen posted the city with their class numerals as usual, having yellow posters with black numerals. The job was done thoroughly, and the sophomores made no move to curtail the publicist activities of the first year men.

A FISH STORY.

Major Wilcox Creates Havoc Among Genus Pisces in Florida.

Major Frank L. Wilcox, '80, features in an enormous fish story just brought back from Sarasota, Fla., by Irving C. Treat. He states that Major Wilcox, Foster E. Harvey and he, all of Hartford, caught 200 pounds of kingfish in one day. Major Wilcox is represented as catching one that weighed eighteen pounds. Another fishing party there recently caught sixty-five kingfish aggregating 700 pounds. But wait until Major Wilcox tells his story. Undoubtedly the proverbial H. C. L. will be greatly reduced by a concentrated drive on these overstocked Floridian waters. Major Wilcox is a member of THE TRIPOD corporation.

ALUMNI.

'82—Rev. H. L. Lonsdale is convalescing at St. John's Hospital, Brooklyn, from a critical operation performed on February 14.

Joseph W. Shannon, '87, has written, saying that he has a law office in the Franklin Building, 133 South Twelfth Street in Philadelphia, and will be glad to see all loyal Trinity men there at any time.

'96—William S. Langford is now associated with Marsh & McLennan at 80 Maiden Lane, New York City. The firm handles insurance.

'96—Shiras Morris, president of the Hart & Hegeman Company, was recently elected a director of the Terry Steam Turbine Company.
