CENTENNIAL FUND CAMPAIGN TO BE RESUMED IMMEDIATELY

Plans Have Been Formulated for Campaign Throughout Country, Outside of Alumni.

EFFORT TO RAISE SUM STILL NEEDED TO COMMENCE IN HARTFORD AND STATE OF CONNECTICUT.

Preparations Being Made for Vigorous Campaign in New York City, and Vicinity.

Trinity's campaign for a fund of $1,500,000 to be raised by the Centennial in June, will be resumed soon and pushed vigorously to success. President Ogilby will lead the campaign in person, together with J. H. Kelso Davis, '99, who has already given much time to the work.

Plans are now being formulated for a campaign throughout the country among the friends of Trinity to raise $1,000,000 needed to complete the Centennial Endowment Fund. The General Education Board, Trinity alumni and a few friends have now contributed $518,000, and practically all of this is net as campaign expenses have been small.

During the summer, plans have been made for a widespread effort to raise the sum still needed, this effort to commence in Hartford. In Trinity's home city an appeal will soon be made to all citizens to support the college, upon the ground of its co-operation with and service to the city for one hundred years. Considerable progress has been made already in planning this campaign and preparing the organization necessary.

Following the Hartford campaign, a thorough canvass will be made of the State of Connecticut, covering every city and town in the State, and utilizing Trinity's contribution to the progress of the State for one hundred years. After Connecticut has been covered, New England will be asked to support Trinity.

Plans for a campaign in New York City are still under discussion. A plan has been suggested which will, it is believed, produce excellent results. This will be announced as soon as definite decisions have been made. Thorough canvass will be made also in Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

When these localities have been cleaned up, the scene of action will widen, covering every section of the United States where Trinity can make its voice heard. Wherever Trinity alumni are in sufficient numbers, they will be asked to work to obtain help from their friends.

The execution of this plan will require all the time remaining between now and the Centennial Celebration, it is believed. Preliminary organization alone is a considerable problem, although good progress has been made along these lines.

The Centennial Fund Committee wishes to emphasize that the assistance and cooperation of Trinity men will be needed throughout this "second phase" fully as much as during the first phase. The present undertaking is, if anything, more difficult than the first, for Trinity is now appealing upon whom the college has no direct claim because of loyalty or immediate benefit conferred. It will be impossible to make the campaign a success without much assistance from the alumni.

BISHOP'S TEA PARTY HELD

Rain and Cold Weather Add to its Success.

On Monday, October 23, the annual Bishop's Tea Party was held on the campus for the special benefit of the Freshman class.

A hard rain for two hours previous to the party put the ground in excellent condition for such an affair. Several members of the Freshman class brought their own cups and saucers, which were afterwards grossly neglected.

Standing bareheaded before the Bishop, the Freshmen heard their president insist that the Bishop's arm was outstretched to see if it were raining. The five freshmen, chosen for the Hall of Fame, felt, perhaps, that the Bishop's presentiment, it would rain was extremely conservative. Unsuspecting they grouped themselves beneath the dormitory windows to be deluged with water cheerfully hurled down upon them by the Sophomores. Devoutly kneeling before the benevolent countenance of the Bishop, the Freshmen, at the forceful urging of the Sophomores, poured forth their prayers for the class of '25.

After circling several times about the statue, the Freshmen had an interesting wheel barrow race to the northern end of the campus. After an amusing, confused scramble to recover their caps and right shoes from a pile, they were then lined up at the edge of the embankment. Urged by the upper classmen, nearly half of the Freshmen made a dash for Northam Towers, but they were quickly brought back, and after having been forcibly impressed with the errors of their ways, they tumbled and fell, and slid down the embankment, in a manner that would have done credit to any Freshman class.

After climbing trees and roosting in the branches, wet and dispirited, their ardor and their clothes were still further dampened by several pails of water showered upon them. Thus the Freshmen went to their rooms, and the Bishop's Tea Party was no longer to them a thing of vague possibilities, but a very real memory.

JOHNSTON, '16, NEW ALUMNI SECRETARY.

Russel Z. Johnston has been chosen Alumni Secretary to succeed Owen Morgan, '06, who filled that position since the resignation of T. C. Hudson, '14, last year.

Johnston graduated from Trinity in 1916, and received his M. A. degree in 1919. He also studied at the Harvard Law School, and is now practicing law in Hartford.

AINLEY HEADS SOPHOMORE HOP

Custom Broken by His Appointment of Small Committee.

John W. Ainley, of Westwood, N. J., has been elected chairman of the Sophomore Hop Committee.

For his committee the chairman has appointed T. W. Jones, W. H. Merchant, Wilcox, Morris, Chapman, and Malcom-Smith (ex-officio). By appointing this committee Ainley has broken away from the customary method of appointing one man from each fraternity and one from the neutral body to serve on committees of this kind.

Some objection to Ainley's action was raised by a few members of the Sophomore class, on the ground that an old custom of the college was being broken. Ainley justified himself by the argument that a small committee such as he has chosen will function much more readily and efficiently than the old bulky committees. He also argued that fraternities should not enter into the choice of a committee because the Sophomore Hop is purely a class affair.

The matter was referred to the college senate, which decided to obtain the opinion of the Sophomore class. The Sophomore class met, and after thoroughly considering the situation voted to approve the committee appointed by Ainley. Consequently the committee stands as originally appointed.

The exact date of the Hop has not yet been decided, but it will probably be about December 1.

Robert Thorne is chairman of the committee and Frederick C. Hinkel, Jr., is secretary. The rest of the committee is composed of P. H. Bradin, Frederick R. Hoisington, Uldric Thompson, Jr., Harold B. Thorne, and James A. Wales.

HOWELL, '15, SAFE FROM ARCTIC

Thought Dead, Finally Returns Safely.

The following account of the experience of George Dawson Howell, Jr., in the Arctic, has just appeared in the "Pittsburgh Gazette Times." Howell graduated from Trinity in 1915. His father is also a Trinity man of the class of 1882.

"Lieutenant G. Dawson Howell, Jr., member of the MacMillan-Carnegie Institute magnetic pole expedition of July, 1921, who had been given up as lost in the Arctic regions three months ago, has arrived safely at Meredith, N. H., according to word received by his father, George D. Howell, at the Duquesne Club, recently.

"As radio expert on the schooner Bowdoin, commanded by Dr. Donald B. MacMillan, arctic explorer, and which returned to Wiscasset, Me., early last month after a hazardous attempt to pierce Fury and Hecla Strait of Hudson Bay, Lieutenant Howell had been left behind to check up certain magnetic data.

"Lieutenant Howell left the winter quarters of the "Bowdoin" in July on this expedition, which would carry him by dog teams 500 miles through the northernmost fur post of the Hudson's Bay Company, to Lake Harbor, on the southern shore of Baffin Land. Here, erecting his own radio, he endeavored to get in touch with Dr. Louis H. Bauer, director of the department of terrestrial magnetism of the Carnegie Institute, at Washington.

"The sending range was limited and after an arduous trip he reached the steamer 'Nascopic', which was later frozen in at Fox Channel, but not before the youth had transferred his equipment to the Hudson Bay steamer 'Bayeskimo.' This vessel successfully bucked the ice pack and transferred Lieutenant Howell to the 'Belvernon', bound for New England states ports.

"When war was declared, he enlisted and was assigned for an intensive course at Newport and Annapolis. Here he was commissioned ensign and reported to the cruiser New Orleans, serving on that and other war ships until the armistice was signed. Then, having attained the grade of senior lieutenant, and special mention in the rescue of wounded from the transport Great Northern, ashore at Fire Island, he was assigned to duty with the United States naval contingent at Archangel, Russia, and saw service in Northern Siberia until the American and British troops evacuated Russia. "Lieutenant Howell returned to Pittsburgh in 1919, and entered the efficiency engineering department of

Last Saturday Trinity added another victory to its record by defeating Union College, 7 to 3, in a close and exciting game, played at Schenectady.

The feature of the day was a sensational eighty-five yard run for a touchdown by Keating, immediately after Union had scored a placement kick. Keating accomplished this same feat against Haverford two weeks ago, when he made a ninety-five yard run for a touchdown after the opposing team had scored a touchdown.

First Half Dull.

During the first half Union and Trinity seemed to be very evenly matched, as the ball remained near the center of the field during the whole time, with neither side seriously threatening.

Union kicked off to Trinity. After the first few seconds of play Ortgies made a beautiful run for a gain of about twenty yards. Ortgies played an excellent game. His defensive work was unsurpassed, and he consistently outpunted Heidorf of Union. During the second quarter the ball changed hands several times but neither side made many long gains. The half ended with the ball in the center of the field.

Union Outplayed in Second Half.

Union started the second half well, rushing the ball down the field. Heidorf gained by end runs, but on the twenty-five-yard line the Trinity line held so that Union was unable to gain anything. The ball was directly in front of the goal posts. Captain Heidorf of Union made a successful placement kick. Union was thus the first to score in the third quarter. Sutton's next kick-off was all that could be desired by Union, especially with the score 3 to 0. But it was then that Trinity began to fight its hardest. Keating caught the ball between the ten and the fifteen-yard lines, juggled it and then streaked through a broken field for a thrill-producing touchdown. His interference was remarkable, in fact, only two or three Union men touched him. After making the touchdown, Keating made a successful placement kick, making the score 7 to 3.

From then on there was no question as to the outcome of the game. Union was clearly outplayed, during the fourth quarter, although it was made slow by the wrangling of the officials.

Until Union scored her three points, both teams had been playing largely on the defensive. After Keating's spectacular run Trinity easily defended its margin by strong playing.

Heidorf was the outstanding player for Union, and did most of the gaining for his team in addition to punting. Palmer also made some good gains, while Sutton and Glenn in the line played well.

COMMITTEES.

The action of the Sophomore class in approving the committee appointed by Ainley, chairman of the Hop Committee, is one which sets an excellent precedent. A custom, nobody knows how old, of appointing one man from each unit on the campus has been broken, and the way has been paved for appointment of committees which function.

Under the old custom a dance committee consisted of eleven men and the chairman. In some cases the men selected were good material for committee work, in others the appointment was necessary simply to comply with custom. As a result a top-heavy committee came into being, a few members of which worked. If there is any honor attendant upon membership in dance committees—and with the new Senate rulings regarding conduct of dances there will be either honor or blame—that honor should be earned by labor. A small, workable committee, which will aid the chairman in fulfilling his very important duties, is a thing greatly to be desired.

CENTENNIAL FUND.

President Ogilby has just sent a letter to each alumnus, explaining as fully as possible at this time the plans of the committee and emphasizing the importance first of all, of compiling an adequate list of names of prospective givers. Dr. Ogilby asks alumni to send in such names immediately, and to keep on sending them in whenever they come to mind. It is estimated that at least 10,000 well chosen names are necessary before opening the campaign of solicitation.

The plans at present call for a personal canvass of prospective givers wherever possible. Literature will be used judiciously to prepare the prospect for canvass, and for some other purposes, but in general no attempt will be made to raise $1,000,000 for Trinity by "mail order" methods. It could not be done.

Building up the machinery for a personal canvass of prospective givers from Hartford to Oshkosh is no mean task, but with plans at present formulated, it is believed that it can be done, especially if the alumni will cooperate loyally as they have thus far in the campaign.

Preparations are now being made at the college to handle the campaign along the lines planned. The office of the Centennial Committee has been removed to the basement of Seabury Hall, where there is ample room. New addressograph and multigraph equipment adequate to handle a large mailing list is being installed, and a thoroughly equipped office is being built up.

President Ogilby is devoting much of his time and thought to the campaign, and expects to do a great deal of traveling and speaking for Trinity this fall and winter. Already he has received invitations from several places to speak about Trinity.

During the past year Arthur V. R. Tilton, '21, has accomplished a great deal as Executive Secretary. After helping to make preparations during the summer, he is now ready to press the campaign to a successful close.

OUTLINE FOR ATHLETIC TRAINING ADOPTED

To Guide in Selection of Winner of McCook Trophy.

The Committee on Athletics and College Organizations has adopted the following brief outline of requirements for athletic training, to guide in the selection of the winner of the George Sheldon McCook trophy:

- 1—Good Morals.
- 2—Reasonably early hours to bed.
- 3—No eating between meals and a well regulated diet.
- 4—No "Drinking."
- 5—No smoking.
- 6—Compliance with the coaches' directions.

The George Sheldon McCook Trophy is awarded to a Senior every spring, for distinction in athletics, manliness, courtesy, self-control, uprightness and honor at all times. The committee of award consists of the Athletic Committee of the Faculty, and the captains and managers of the track, baseball, football, basketball and tennis teams. Scholarship shall be considered only in case the candidates are of equal merit in the above mentioned qualities. But the trophy shall not be awarded to any one who seems in danger of not obtaining his degree with his class. If a candidate cannot be found, the committee may refuse to make the reward. It is the opinion of the Committee that the Trophy should not be awarded to any student who did not keep the rules of training on the different teams, and that every effort should be made to raise the standard of observance of training rules by the contestants in the various sports.

BOWDIDGE AND SLATTERY NAMED FOR CHAIRMAN OF UNION COMMITTEE.

Any other nominations may be made if supported by at least twenty members of the student body.

The election will take place at the meeting of the college body which is to be held next Monday morning during the first hour.

McCRACKAN, '85, CONTRIBUTES TO "OUTLOOK"

Trinity Man Publishes Authoritative Account of Palestine Situation.

In the issue of "The Outlook" for October 18 appeared an article on the work of General Allenby in Egypt, written by William D. McCrackan, who graduated from Trinity in 1885.

Mr. W. D. McCrackan, '85, has recently written and published a book entitled "The New Palestine." The book is an authoritative account of Palestine since the war, giving the political, racial, and economic problems that confront the new administration, with glimpses of the customs of the people, and a keen appreciation for the beauty and mystery of the Holy Land.

In "The New Palestine" Mr. McCrackan gives first hand information of the present situation in Palestine. The book stands out for its truth, its accuracy, and its value to every one who is interested in world happenings.

Mr. McCrackan has only recently returned from Jerusalem, where, as editor of the first newspaper in the English language in the Holy Land, and as a member of the American relief organization, he was in a position to learn real facts and to weigh them from an unbiased point of view.

Among the subjects of which Mr. McCrackan treats are "General Allenby's Campaigns"; "The Germans in Jerusalem"; "The Jews in Jerusalem"; "Jerusalem Trades and Industries"; "The First Demonstration Against Zionism"; and sketches of the prominent men including Sir Herbert Samuel, Field Marshal Viscount Allenby, etc., who are making the history of the state.

Henry van Dyke, in a letter to the author, says of Mr. McCrackan's "The Spell of Tyrol"; "You have told the story with the skill of one who knows and loves his subject. Your chapters are delightful reading, and they bring back to me many golden memories of travel and profitably increase my knowledge of Tyrolean history. So, you see, I am much in your debt."

The same may be said of this latest book by Mr. McCrackan, for he presents his subject with the same understanding, appreciation and charm of style.

Field Marshal Viscount Allenby, writing to Mr. McCrackan from the Residency in Cairo, January 16, 1922, said, "I congratulate you on the accuracy of your narrative."

Mr. McCrackan graduated from Trinity in the class of '85, and obtained his M. A. degree in '88. He is a member of the Psi Upsilon Fraternity.

THRU THE EDITOR'S TRIPOD

Professor Hilmer said the other day that an economist has been described as a blind man hunting at night in a dark cellar for a black cat which was not there. We know some people who hunt at night in dark cellars and see black cats which are not there.

EIGHTY-FOUR IN FRESHMAN CLASS

Total Enrollment in College is Now Two Hundred Sixty-Eight.

According to the records of the registrar there are now two hundred and sixty-eight men enrolled in the college, eight-four of whom are Freshmen.

These records also show that the parents of nearly a quarter of the Freshman class are foreign-born.

Russia, Germany, Austria, Italy, Wales, Scotland and Egypt are given as the birthplaces of the fathers. Out of the total enrolled in the Freshman class only seventeen have chosen courses leading to an Arts' degree. The rest are candidates for a B. S. degree.

At Trinity this year are transfers from Connecticut Agricultural College, Fordham, New York University, University of Detroit, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Williams, Dartmouth, Amherst, Colgate, Tufts, Bowdoin, Princeton, Wesleyan, University of Maine, and College Francaise.

The average age of the entering class is between 19 and 20.

There is an increase in the number of students taking German this year. During the war the German classes were all small. In September, 1918, only three men were taking German, but now there are fifty-six in the beginning class and thirty-two in the more advanced classes. French seems to be popular, as one hundred and thirteen men are taking courses in French, thirty-five of whom are just beginning a study of the language in French I.

Last year the Freshman class in Latin contained twenty-five, while this year there are only eleven in the same course. The total number in classical courses is sixty-four. However, the largest enrollment in any one class is in Professor Humphrey's course on Modern European History. There are over seventy in this course. From present indications it is thought that an assistant in the History Department will be necessary at least by next year.

MATRICULATION DAY IS NOVEMBER FIRST

Rev. G. H. R. Nicholson, Headmaster of Kingswood School, to Give Address.

Wednesday, November 1, being All Saints' Day, is to be Matriculation Day and will also be observed as Founders' and Benefactors' Day. This year the classes of the first periods only will be suspended instead of giving the whole day as has been done previously. The Rev. George H. R. Nicholson, headmaster of Kingswood School, will deliver an address to the entire student body following a Communion service in the Chapel. After the address, the Freshmen will remain for the Matriculation ceremony.

AGGIES WIN HARD BATTLE

First and Only Defeat of Season Thus Far.

"They came, they saw, and they conquered", the Roman historian may well have said of the Connecticut Aggies, who left Hartford last Saturday with the first victory over the Trinity eleven recorded in the gridiron relationship of the two colleges. In a well-fought battle against a superior team, the Trinity eleven fell before the strong line and the fast backfield of the Storrs' aggregation by the score of 19 to 7.

Nearly 1,000 spectators gathered on Trinity Field last Saturday to watch what was expected to be Trinity's hardest contest of the season. The first quarter left the stands in doubt as to the outcome of the game, but during the second period the Aggies opened up and rushed the home team off its feet to the tune of two touchdowns. Another was recorded in the third quarter and at that time it looked as if Trinity was to have nothing but a goose egg against the nineteen points that the visitors had amassed, but in the last period the Blue and Gold came to the fore and, in a rush of real football, swept the Storrs' line and backs before it recording one touchdown and threatening the visitors with still another attempt at scoring. If this spurt of the sort of football that Trinity has been playing in her previous games had come in the second or third period of Saturday's contest, there would have been more of a question as to the victor.

Both teams were unsuccessful, in the long run, in their attempts at straight line plunges, while the Blue and Gold backs were thrown for loss after loss on end runs. Trinity's aerial game that proved effective in the Lowell game, was worthless Saturday, only four passes being completed out of twenty-one attempts.

Brill, O'Connor, and Noble made a number of spectacular tackles by breaking through the Storrs' line and nailing the runners for losses behind the scrimmage line. On the other hand, time after time Trinity backs were thrown for long losses on end runs and attempted trick plays and passes.

In the last half of the game punting was resorted to by both teams when distance could not be gained on line attacks and straight football.

The trick four-man pass that brought the Connecticut Aggies' first touchdown was a play the like of which has seldom graced a Trinity Field game. While the defenders of the goal chased from man to man, the Storrs' backs tossed the ball from one to another until finally a long forward pass was hurled to Ryan, who tore across the goal line for the first score of the game. Another score was gained by a forward pass, and the third by a specimen of open field running that completely dazzled the home team.

Trinity rushed the visitors off their feet in the fourth quarter when two passes, one from Keating to Kennedy and the other from Kennedy to Brill, who was on the end of the line, placed the ball on the 3-yard line, and in two powerful rushes Keating and Kennedy put the ball the rest of the distance.

First Quarter.

Eddy kicked to Keating who received on his 30-yard line and ran the ball five yards before being nailed by Patterson. Kennedy and Keating made seven yards on the next three plays through the left side of the lines and then Ortgies punted to Berry, who received on his 28-yard line and managed to make one yard before being nailed. The Aggies' first attempt to pierce the Trinity line resulted in a stonewall at left tackle. Berry repeated with another buck at left tackle, which netted seven yards. Ryan made one through center and a 5-yard penalty for offside netted first down for the Aggies. Berry was stopped at left tackle for no gain and on the next play Ryan went through center for six. Daley followed with three more yards through center giving Aggies first down. Berry and Ryan made two more attempts to pierce the center which resulted in a loss of a yard. On the next play Berry was nailed behind the line for a two yard loss. A high punt directly above the line by Eddy was caught by O'Connor.

Keating failed to gain around the right end and, on the next play, Kennedy went through left tackle for five yards. Daley nailed Keating for a 2-yard loss, forcing Ortgies to punt. Cohen received on his 30-yard line and was halted after a 3-yard run. On the next play Cohen was thrown for a 2-yard loss by Ortgies. Berry regained through left tackle on the next play and on the third down Eddy punted to Keating on Trinity's 30-yard line. An 8-yard run was stopped by Dunn. Kennedy made five yards through left guard and Berry broke through on the next play and nailed Keating for a loss. Trinity attempted the first forward pass of the game which was unsuccessful. A 5-yard penalty on the Storrs' team gave Trinity first down. Keating failed to gain around right end but Kennedy made two yards off the left tackle and followed with a 7-yard pass to Keating. Kennedy gained first down for the Blue and Gold with a plunge through center. Fischer made nine with an off tackle play on the right side and Kennedy followed with a yard through center.

Second Quarter.

First down with the ball in Trinity's possession on the Aggies' 3-yard line. Keating was thrown for a loss on the first play by Dunn but on the next play Kennedy made seven through left guard. Keating made five yards around left end finally being stopped by Ashman. Kennedy made one off right tackle and Fischer was halted at the line of scrimmage in an attempt around the left end. Daley intercepted a pass from Kennedy intended for Keating but was immediately downed. Berry was halted by a stonewall at center but gained three yards around the right end on the next play. Cohen gained four through center. Trinity took the ball on the center line of the field. Fischer, Keating and Kennedy all failed to gain through the line so Ortgies punted.

Cohen received on the Aggies' 15-yard line and carried the ball back to the center of the field. Berry made six yards around left end but on the next play Noble broke through and nailed Daley for a 2-yard loss. Brill shot through center and downed Ryan behind the line forcing Eddy to punt. The ball was downed on Trinity's 36-yard line. Kennedy was stopped at the right end after a 1-yard gain by Daley and on the next play Daley recovered a fumble by Keating. Ryan made two through center and on the next play O'Connor broke through and prevented a gain.

A forward pass to Syneidman brought the ball to Trinity's 13-yard line. Brill stopped a gain through center, but Ryan followed through center again for two yards. SIX SURVIVORS IN TOURNAMENT

Thoms Leading in Freshman Tennis Tournament.

At the present time Thoms is leading in the race for the tennis championship of the Freshman class. Neuman is considered his strongest rival and will probably meet him in the finals. Out of the fourteen that entered the tournament eight have thus far been eliminated. It is hoped that the finals can be played the last of this week or at the latest during the first of next week.

A Freshman tennis tournament has not been held for several years. It has been customary to hold a tournament in the fall for the whole college, and the players have been ranked according to the result of this tournament. This year the tournament was limited to the Freshmen only.

It is planned to mark a tennis court in Alumni Hall in order that indoor tennis may be played all during the winter, and to assure a good team next spring.

Yesterday afternoon Bill Duffy planted another tree in the same position on the campus to take its place. Bill says that there will always be a tree on the campus for last year's senior class as long as he has anything to do with the college, and that means for many years to come.

WORDS OF WISDOM.

To make a tall man appear short, strike him for a loan.

It is needlessly expensive to make the same error twice.

More people squint with their brains than with their eyes.

One of the luckiest things that can happen to a man is not to count on his luck.

Every one should have something to do, something to love, something to hope for.

Any man may forget to wind his watch, but the flight of time goes on just the same.

He who takes time by the forelock is the only one who realizes that time is money.

The unexpected happens occasionally, but not so often as the expected fails to happen.

Yes, Herman, a man should tell his troubles to his wife—and she generally manages it so that he has plenty to tell.
