

GLEE CLUB COMPETES IN NEW ENGLAND CONTEST

Amherst, Wesleyan and M. I. T. Place in Springfield Concert

PROGRAM VARIED

Four Joint Numbers Rendered by Nine Clubs Participating at Auditorium

On Friday, February 24, at Springfield, Mass., the Trinity College Glee Club competed against eight other New England Colleges in the Seventh Annual Intercollegiate Glee Club Contest. Those represented were Amherst, Bowdoin, Clark University, Middlebury, M. I. T., Trinity, University of Vermont, Wesleyan, and Williams. The final decision gave Amherst first place, Wesleyan second, and M. I. T. third.

Leaving at 1 o'clock by bus, the Glee Club members arrived at Springfield about 2 o'clock, going immediately to the Auditorium, where they held a short rehearsal.

At 4 o'clock each club sang the prize song, "Yea, Cast Me from Heights of the Mountains", by Elgar. This performance was open only to the judges and a limited number of spectators. The piece sung at this time counted one-half in the ratings of the final scores.

Before the evening concert the Club had dinner in the main dining room of the Hotel Kimball, at which its headquarters were located.

The evening program began at 8.30 before a well-filled house, the nine combined Glee Clubs singing the "Star Spangled Banner" on the stage of the auditorium. Following this, the choice songs of all the colleges were presented, each number being judged as the other half of the contest. "Shenandoah", sung by the Amherst Club, and "Full Fathom Deep" by Wesleyan were outstanding among these selections. The clubs which won the first three places in the afternoon appearance were then announced, and each of them rendered the prize song again. They were the Williams, Wesleyan, Amherst, and M. I. T. groups. The order of their rating was not revealed at the time beyond the fact that three of them had tied for second place up to that point.

The next feature on the program was the singing of college songs, of

TRINITY LOSES TO M. I. T. IN SQUASH

The Trinity College squash racquets team lost a return match with M. I. T. 3 to 2, the results of the individual matches coinciding with those in the first contest. The match was played at Trowbridge Memorial courts on Saturday afternoon, February 25.

Lucas of M. I. T. defeated Hollins of Trinity 15-12, 15-10, 16-18, 17-16; Frothingham of Trinity defeated Wood of M. I. T. 15-11, 12-15, 15-12, 9-15, 15-11; Ingalls of M. I. T. defeated Mason of Trinity 10-15, 12-15, 15-9, 15-12, 15-11; Benjamin of Trinity won his match 15-19, 15-8, 10-15, 15-11; White of M. I. T. defeated Ladd of Trinity 15-12, 17-16, 12-15, 15-11.

After the match there was an exhibition match between Paul Callahan, of the Hartford Golf Club, and John Summers, Coach of M. I. T.

ELEVEN MEN CHOSEN AS NEW MEMBERS BY S. D. C.

Sophomore Dining Club Appoints Outstanding Students of '35 to Join Society

At a meeting of the Junior delegation of the Sophomore Dining Club held Friday afternoon, February 24, in 39 Jarvis at 4 o'clock, eleven members of the Class of 1935 were elected to the organization. Charles T. Kingston, Jr., chairman of the Club, presided at the meeting. The new members include:

R. Pearce Alexander of Philadelphia, Pa., who has achieved outstanding success in track, and who was also a member of the 'Varsity football squad. He is a member of the Sigma Nu Fraternity.

Robert J. Lau of Long Island City, N. Y., who has served as stage manager of the Jesters, as a member of the track squad, and as a member of the Reportorial Board of the Trinity Tripod. He is a member of the Delta Phi.

James A. Hanaghan of Hartford, who was one of the mainstays of the football team, playing right tackle, and who is a member of the Junior 'Varsity basketball squad. He is a member of the Sigma Nu Fraternity.

J. Joseph Maher of Philadelphia, Pa., as center on the football team won much praise for his brilliant

CONNECTICUT SWIMMERS BOW TO BLUE AND GOLD

More Records Fall as Motten, Coit Star in 52-25 Victory

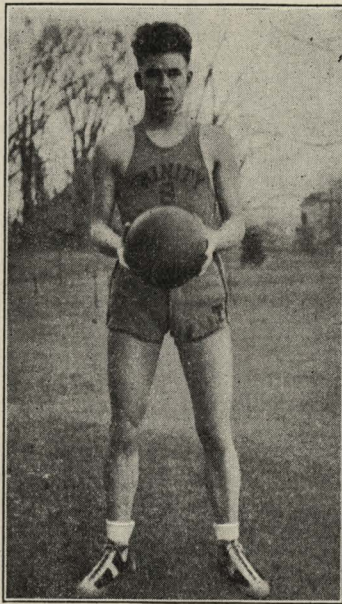

Last Tuesday evening, the Trinity 'Varsity overcame the Connecticut State swimming team by a score of 52 to 25 at the Trowbridge Memorial Pool. The outcome of the contest was never in doubt, as the Trinity team started to pile up points over their rivals from the first event. The meet, however, was hotly contested, one college record and three pool records being smashed.

The Trinity medley relay team of Adams, Coit, and Mortimer started things off by making a new pool record in 3.32.2. In the 220-yard swim, Motten lowered the college record to 2.41.0; and Coit showed great speed in the 220-yard breaststroke to bring the pool mark down to 2.58.5. Swimming for Connecticut State, Weigold forged ahead to win the 100-yard dash in 58.6, a new record for the pool. Mowbray also did some fast swimming to win the 50-yard dash. In the dives, Paige took first place with a score of 61.6 and Budzelic of the Aggies was second, while Angus trailed with a score only 1.8 points behind the winner. Wissinger, of the Aggies, showed power and good form to win the 150-yard backstroke; but the record-holding relay team of Adams, Hall, Mowbray, and Mortimer won the final event for Trinity.

Summary:
Medley Relay—Won by Trinity (Adams, Coit, Mortimer); time 3.32.2.
220-Yard Swim—Won by Motten (Trinity); second, Tucker (Trinity); third, Washburn (Connecticut); time, 2.41.0.
50-Yard Dash—Won by Mowbray (Trinity); second, Weigold (Connecticut); third, Hall (Trinity); time, 25.9.

CONNECTICUT STATE IS DEFEATED BY TRINITY

Martens, Scoring Ace, Shares Honors with Duksa and Captain Daut

The smooth-running Trinity basketball team, in the hardest fought game on the local court to date, last Thursday night added to its list of victories a 38 to 19 win over the Connecticut State College. This fourth straight victory on the home court did not come, however, without a struggle. The lead changed hands rapidly during the first half, being finally tied at 11 all after 14 minutes of play. There followed a determined Trinity rally in the closing minutes of the half which carried the Blue and Gold well into the lead. At half time they were in front, 23 to 14.

Shortly after the beginning of the second half, Martens was taken out of the contest on personal fouls; but not until he had scored 11 points, four field goals and three free tries. As he walked off the floor, he was accorded a rousing ovation that lasted nearly a minute. Shortly after this Captain Levitow of Connecticut, who was guarding Martens, also went out on fouls. From then on the Blue and Gold had the game well in hand and were never seriously threatened. Kearns starred in the general play, scoring eight points while holding his opponent scoreless. Bob Daut, besides having full control of practically every jump, found the hoop for four field goals and one foul shot while holding his opponent to one field goal. Kelly and Duksa stood out as usual, the former in good measure being responsible for the substantial Trinity lead at half time. The hard-fighting visitors played a fine defensive game but were no

HARTFORD ALUMNI MEET AT MID-WINTER SMOKER

Graduates Discuss Plans in Cook for Entertainment of 'Varsity Team

Friday evening, February 24, Sidney Pinney, president of the Hartford Alumni Association, met with the Alumni Committee at its mid-winter smoker. The 23 members of the committee present dined in the Commons and spent the evening in the lounge discussing their plans and indulging in genial games of bridge. During this time a fire was lighted for the first time; an appropriate procedure, as the Alumni Association has given the andirons for both the Commons and the lounge.

It was planned by the President and his associates to hold a smoker at the Hartford University Club on St. Patrick's Day at 8 p. m. A. Northey Jones, president of the entire alumni body, will come up from New York to be present at that function. A. Everett Austin, Jr., instructor in Fine Arts at this college, is arranging the program, which will be of great interest. A large group is expected to attend and arrangements are being made to have the 'Varsity basketball team as guests.

HAY FEVER TITLE OF NEXT JESTERS' VEHICLE

Dramatic Society Selects Play by Noel Coward—New Members Chosen

At the Delta Phi house, on Thursday, February 23, a meeting of the Jesters was held in order to elect new Senior and Junior Jesters and to choose a new play. Before either of these two procedures were commenced, a committee was appointed for the purpose of revising the present constitution of the Jesters' Society. J. Jack Sharkey was chosen chairman of the committee, while the other members include Andrew Onderdonk and William W. Sisbower.

The next course of business was the election of new Jesters. Harris King Prior, '32, was chosen an honorary Senior Jester, and Paul W. Adams a regular Senior Jester. Those men who were made Junior Jesters are: Horace Barnard, Jr., Jack A. Carr, Desmond L. Crawford, Albert M. Dexter, Jr., Joseph L. Droegge, Donald A. Dumont, Kenneth W. D. Graham, Adolph A. Hoehling, 3rd, Charles H. Mortimer, James S. M. Ogilvy, Herbert R. Scull, and T. Lowry Sinclair. These men include the acting, business, and stage staffs of the Jesters.

After a good deal of deliberation, "Hay Fever" was finally selected as the forthcoming Jesters' production. This play is a light, satirical comedy written by Noel Coward, and has recently enjoyed quite a run on Broadway, as did "The Bad Man" previously. Judging from the success which this latter play met at Trinity, it was decided to produce one as nearly like it as possible. Thus, partly from the present demand, "Hay Fever" was chosen. It is a

Capacity Crowd Witnesses Game Featured by Fast and Rough Play

DAUT OUTSTANDING

Trinity Captain Tallies Fourteen Points; Kelly, Duksa Excel on Defense

Trinity's conquering basketball team again proved its worth Saturday night, when it defeated the Harvard quintet in a game played at the Hopkins Street gymnasium by a score of 33 to 27. A capacity crowd saw the Blue and Gold five out-play a Harvard team that threatened until the final minutes of play. The game was fast and the play brilliant at times, but Harvard's play, like that of most large colleges, was of the rough-and-tumble variety, and occasioned the calling of many fouls.

The game began with Trinity getting the tap and passing the ball into Harvard territory at once. On an attempted scoring play, Johnny Martens was fouled; the star forward, by making good the attempt, put Trinity in the lead, 1 to 0. Captain Daut then raced away from his man to score the first goal of the game. Before the Crimson team could get going Martens had dropped in another field goal and Trinity led, 5 to 0. Hageman and Boys of Harvard countered with field tries, however, and put their team into the running. With the exception of a brief period in this first half, when Harvard sported an 11 to 9 advantage, the Blue and Gold team was always in the lead or deadlocked with their opponents. Both teams seemed a bit nervous at times, and several easy scoring attempts were wasted. With little over a minute of play left in the first half, Kelly eluded his man and, receiving a pass under the hoop, flipped the ball through the basket. Seconds later, Kelly added two more points to the Trinity total by scoring from the middle of the floor. At half-time Trinity led, 16 to 12.

Harvard started the second period with a burst of speed, its men racing and passing the ball about with greater gusto than they had shown previously. Trinity guarded closely, however, and before the Crimson group could score Trinity took the ball and cut loose with one of its

DANCE HELD AFTER GAME WITH HARVARD

Following Trinity's basketball victory over Harvard last Saturday night at the Hopkins Street gym, an informal dance was held in Cook Hall, sponsored by the Senate. About fifty couples attended, dancing to the music of Johnny Johnson's seven-piece orchestra from 10 p. m. until midnight. Refreshments were served downstairs in the cafeteria.

Among those present were Dr. and Mrs. Ogilby, Professors Humphrey, Barret, Kriebel, Bangs, Oosting Jesse and their wives and members of the Senate. Many alumni of Trinity and Harvard and the basketball squad of Harvard also attended.

The Harvard Club of Hartford dined at the college at 7 o'clock the same evening as guests of Dr. Ogilby, later going to the game and then attending the dance.

SPORTSMANSHIP

The victory over Harvard last Saturday night was indeed a fine reward for the efforts of Coach Oosting and the members of the basketball squad. It was a fitting climax to a prosperous campaign, and we wish the team all possible success in its future games.

The conduct of the spectators, particularly of the Trinity rooters, was not praiseworthy, however. It is distasteful to note that in all our contests whenever a penalty is called against Trinity, a marked groan, accompanied by jeers, is almost invariably the result, and that whenever a penalty is called against our opponents, a general cry of pleasure can be heard. This, aside from being poor sportsmanship and bad manners, is extremely childish. The terms "robber", "thief", and other like epithets may be expected on the sandlot, but certainly not from college students. This is a matter which should be of vital concern to every Trinity man.

This condition has been existing throughout the whole basketball season. It was present during the past football season. To be sure, a great deal of this unpleasantness is due to spectators who have no connection with the college. Nevertheless we can not excuse ourselves quite so easily, since there is no doubt that we do aid in the general outcry. It may be fairly said that any undergraduates who are guilty are much in the minority which, although a somewhat hopeful condition, is certainly not completely satisfying. Since we must realize that the conduct of one person making a groan will not be counteracted by ten persons remaining perfectly quiet. The distasteful effect still persists.

A condition such as this tends to mar whatever feeling of respect our opponents may have for us on the field. We are in a unique position. We are limited in size in comparison with most of the institutions with which we compete. Yet we maintain a high athletic standard. There is no reason why we cannot maintain an equally high standard of conduct at our contests. Such a standard is much more easily attainable for us to maintain than for a larger institution. It is not a matter of mass concentration, but one of individual effort. Let us take pains to achieve our purpose. Then, win or lose, we can always be assured of a feeling of pride toward our teams and our college.

What became of the Lemon Squeezer?

THE GLEE CLUB

We extend our compliments to Mr. Watters and the members of the Glee Club for their fine efforts to take honors in the New England Glee Club Contest at Springfield. Although failing to gain any of the coveted first three places, the Club deserves the highest praises for its splendid work during the winter.

Mr. Watters has succeeded, we believe, in carrying on the fine spirit in the organization which was instilled by his popular predecessor, Mr. Merritt, who has since gone to Harvard.

That the Glee Club has been somewhat handicapped is undoubtedly true. It is always difficult for a new coach to step squarely into the shoes of another man, although Mr. Watters has done admirably. This fact combined with the many changes in the personnel of the Club itself make success a matter of time rather than of immediate conclusion.

The men in the Glee Club have worked hard and creditably. Their efforts are apt to be overlooked in the press of the daily affairs of undergraduate life. To them the Trinity Tripod extends a vote of praise.

PROFESSOR HUTT GIVES SUNDAY CHAPEL TALK

Sermon Deals with Logical Thought; Value of Hasty Decisions Questioned

Sunday morning, February 26, Professor R. B. Hutt spoke in chapel. He chose his subject from the well-known passage in the Corinthians, "When I was a child I spake as a child and thought as a child; but now that I have become a man, I have put away childish things."

Dr. Hutt told of a belief he held as a boy. He was under the impression that malaria was due to the mesmerism of the night air; some protection, therefore, must be taken against the night air. Today we know that we should have protection from night air because in some parts of the country malaria germs are carried on the wind. Screens now keep out the insects which may carry the germs. He gave this example to show how invalid reasoning is not necessarily a cause for an erroneous conclusion.

A child, the speaker continued, accepts many things for granted that a grown person is apt to question, or even promptly discard. However, if the grown person takes time to reason out logically that which he accepted as a child, he often finds, with some concessions, his early belief to be correct. The date of creation given in Genesis, for example, we realize is wrong, but that fact should not lead us to disregard the conclusion that God created the universe. Similarly, we are told to believe that Moses was the author of the first five books of the Bible. Because the last verses of Deuteronomy speak of Moses' death and events which transpired afterwards, does not mean that Moses could not have written the other four books.

In closing, Professor Hutt urged us not to be too hasty in our decisions once we have discovered a fact contradictory to what we have been taught; and to apply logically that which we learn with what we know.

PSI U., D. K. E. LEAD IN BASKETBALL TOURNEY

Former Defeats Commons Club Five as Latter Defeats Delta Phi

During the past week of interfraternity basketball, three more games were played, and in both leagues the lead changed hands. In the National League Psi Upsilon assumed first place by virtue of a 23 to 12 victory over the previously undefeated Commons Club quintet, while in the American League Delta Phi succeeded in marring Sigma Nu's record, only to lose to Delta Kappa Epsilon in a closely fought game. As a result of this victory, D. K. E. displaced Sigma Nu at the top of the league.

The Psi U. team, led by Heyel and Sinclair, displayed a fast attack and a sound defense, and the outcome was never in doubt. At half time the score was 11 to 4. Despite a threatening Commons Club rally early in the third period, the Psi U.'s came back to score heavily in the closing minutes and make the final score 23 to 12.

In Delta Phi's upset of Sigma Nu, R. Lau and Ampert were outstanding for the victors, while Birch captured scoring honors for the day with eleven points. The contest between D. K. E. and Delta Phi developed into a real battle, and the closeness of the game is attested by the final score of 21 to 19. Again Lau played well, tallying eight points. Ferris was high man for D. K. E.

NATATORS DOWN COAST GUARD BY 47-37 SCORE

Co-Captains Mortimer and Adams Excel, Winning All Their Events

Last Saturday afternoon, in Billard Hall in New London, Coach Clark's Varsity swimming team defeated the Coast Guard Academy squad by the score of 47 to 37. A packed gallery witnessed the meet which was won by Trinity only after keen competition in most events.

The Blue and Gold co-captains, Mortimer and Adams, showed up well, winning every event in which they took part. Henderson of the Academy starred in the distance swims, breaking the pool record for the 220 in 2:36.0, and barely nosing out Motten in this and the 440-yard swims. Coit showed his usual excellent form in the breaststroke, winning the 220-yard event a lap ahead of his nearest competitor and contributing much to the two lap lead by which Trinity won the medley relay. Paige won the dives with a score of 100.7, Boole of the Academy taking second with 92.3. The 400-yard relay, won by the Coast Guard Academy, was thrilling throughout, the outcome being in doubt up to the last few yards.

The summary:
 400-Yard Relay — Won by Coast Guard Academy (Baxter, Watson, Oren, Boole); time, 4:14.0.

200-Yard Breaststroke — Won by Coit (Trinity); second, Coffin (C. G. A.); third, McIntosh (C. G. A.); time, 2:55.0.

150-Yard Backstroke — Won by Adams (Trinity); second, Baxter (C. G. A.); third, Johnson (C. G. A.); time, 2:0.0.

60-Yard Dash—Won by Mortimer (Trinity); second, Mowbray (Trinity); third, Boole (C. G. A.); time, 32.2.

440-Yard Swim—Won by Henderson (C. G. A.); second, Motten (Trinity); third, Ellsworth (Trinity); time, 5:40.4.

100-Yard Dash—Won by Mortimer (Trinity); second, Watson (C. G. A.); third, Oren (C. G. A.); time, 1:3.6.

Dives—Won by Paige (Trinity); second, Boole (C. G. A.); third, Angus (Trinity); score, 100.7.

220-Yard Swim—Won by Henderson (C. G. A.); second, Motten (Trinity); third, Tucker (Trinity); time, 2:36.0.

 match for the flashy Trinity quintet. The Connecticut freshman team had little difficulty in thoroughly trouncing the Trinity junior 'varsity. The local Jayvees hardly got started during the first half scoring one field goal and two free tries while their opponents were amassing 23 points. From then on they held their own, the game closing 42 to 22 in favor of the invaders.

 very brilliant comedy throughout, and is said to have no lagging moments whatsoever. Written in three acts, the script calls for four male parts and four female parts. Although at present no definite day has been set for tryouts for the various character roles, the entire cast will undoubtedly have been selected by Thursday.

People know it..

Chesterfields are Milder

WHEN you ask a Chesterfield smoker why that's his brand — he generally comes right out flat-footed and says . . . "It's because They're Milder!"

So we're going to keep on doing everything we know how to keep them that way.

That's why we look for and buy the mildest and ripest tobaccos we can get. That's why we age them in our warehouses till they're mellow and sweet.

We believe that even the shredding of the tobacco . . . and the quality of the paper it's rolled in, have a lot to do with the even-drawing, mild smoke that people enjoy in Chesterfields.

You can bank on this . . . every method known to science is used to make Chesterfield a milder, better-tasting cigarette that satisfies.

flashy scoring spurts. Kearns, Daut, and Martens countered in quick succession and forced the Harvard team to take time out to talk things over. The rest benefited the Harvard men, for they came back to score four more points before Kelly countered for Trinity again. Harvard again spurted and with eight and one-half minutes to play they were only four points behind, the score then being 29 to 25. The Blue and Gold quintet fell back on its superior passing game, however, and kept the ball in its possession for the greater part of the remainder of the game. Daut scored Trinity's remaining points with one field goal and two foul tries.

Daut, Kelly, and Duksa were outstanding for Trinity, Daut scoring 14 points and continually out-tapping his opponent. Kelly and Duksa both guarded their men well and turned in excellent defensive performances. Kelly, in addition, was able to slip down the floor to get four field goals. For Harvard, Hageman and Merry starred.
