

BEER RETURNS AT LAST TO RUIN TRIPOD STAFF

Riddles Rout Raw Reporter as Feverish Faculty Favors
Fun on Floors

HARD-BOILED EGGS

Students Stand Stolidly Swilling
Suddy Stuff—No Smoking
Allowed Tonight

With a foamy splash the long-awaited brew again flowed free from famished faucets (Umph, 'scuse me), and once more that precious beer ran faster than Niagara past tens of quivering Trinity pallets. So we sicked our star reporter on the biggest scoop of the year—to question the mighty moguls of mind (faculty, to youse) as to the when and why and how of beer. But the sap went first to Schmeer's and forgot all about that dandy assignment till he started back up Vernon Street.

On bumping into O. L. (Shorty) Shepperd, who blankly gazed at flitting swallows, our little dumpling recalled his task and grabbed the following:

"In reference to your well-put query, I can only say that recently I have had the honor of an invitation from the Kappa Beta Phi sorority at Wellesley to read to them my very latest sonnet. How do you like this one—written just for them:

"O, little Freshman lambkins,
"We urge you have a care! !
"Lambsnatcher's out to get you.
"Beware!
"Take care!
"Beware!"

That was enough for our bit-befuddled scribbler. With a jaunty "so-long" and nary a whisper of thanks, he dashed on up the street, plunging dully into his next victim. Butch Costhelo gazed wisely down upon our little fellow, and answered his eager question with something like fortitude.

"To be'er not to beer, that is the question. Heh, heh, heh."

Oscar watched him as he walked backwards down the street, still chuckling. Once more he faced the west, ever seeking little words of wisdom for his great big job. Hiking toward him strode G. H. (Gusty) Kleenee, bound for Broad Street and suds beyond.

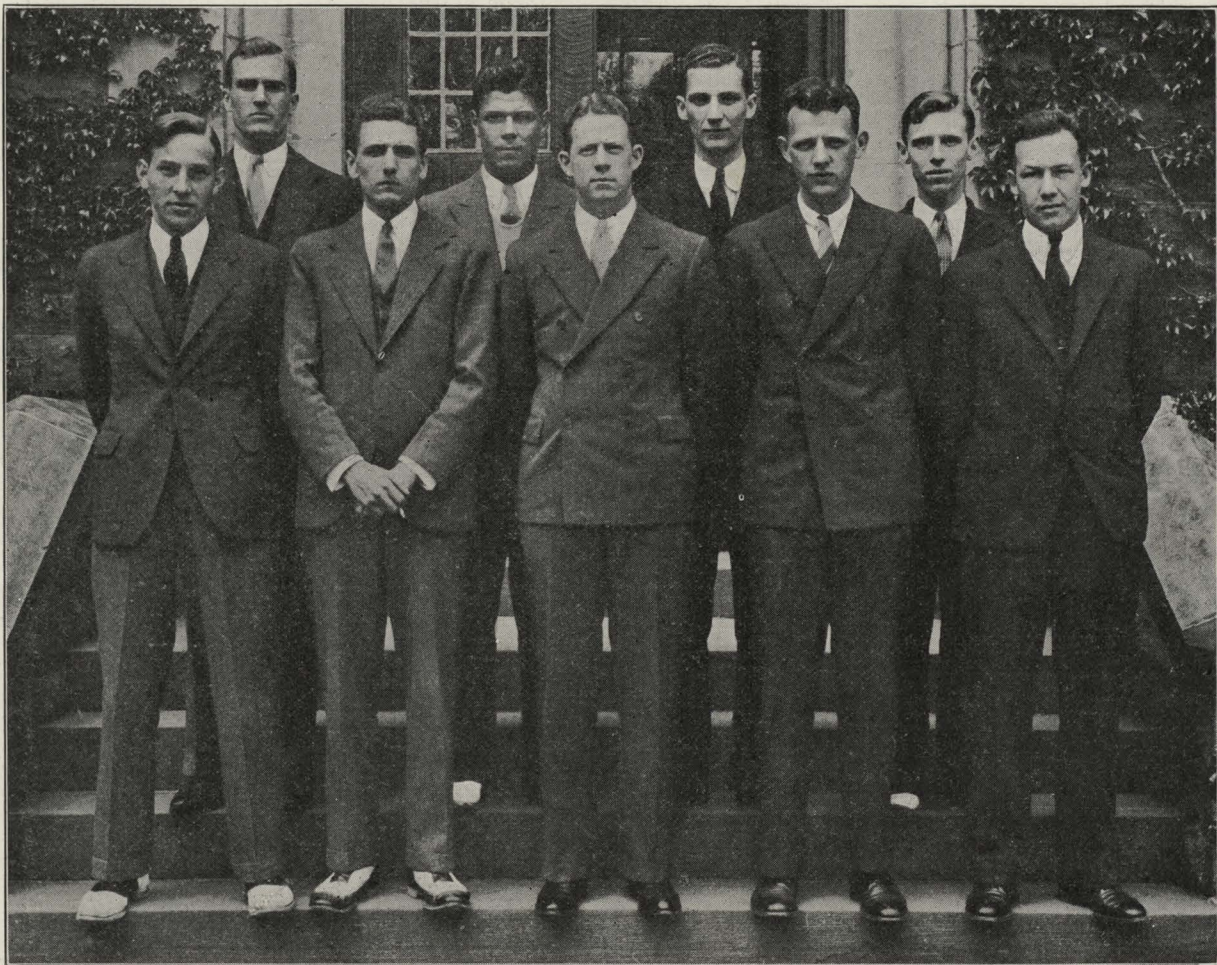

"Us economic fellows", he slowly drawled in reply, "don't dare say much nowadays. But the college must of necessity imply acculation. Through the long centuries of her perennial youthfulness she gathers unto herself every premise possible to the imagination of man; nor does she eschew the postulated or the theorized, but accepts all to further the human intelligence. Then . . ."

Our little hero fell asleep. Hours later he started up from his curbstone resting place. The sun was sinking. Save for one lone figure, slowly walking toward him counting the trees (then multiplying each by six), came Moo Chumphery.

"Beer?" he answered (smiling), "Beer? Just graft—millions, well, billions' worth. Why, out in Minnesota my brother's nephew grows beer on bushes. I've seen billions . . ."

Moaning gently, scarcely breathing, our tender greenhorn tore away. He rushed about from man to man, scribbled wildly what he could, slid what notes he'd garnered (in what you've got to admit was one hell of an afternoon), under our door and disappeared—forever. We found his meagre scribblings, and took from

(Continued on page 4.)

THE SENIOR BALL COMMITTEE

DR. SWEET GIVES TALK TO PRE-MEDICAL CLUB

Trinity Graduate Tells Members of Rules for Becoming a Good Doctor

Dr. John Sweet, Trinity graduate of the Class of 1910, was the guest speaker at the first official meeting of the Trinity Pre-Medical Club held on Monday evening, May 8. His address dealt with the difficulties confronting men studying to become doctors and the satisfaction which can be realized by serving humanity. Arthur Jensen, president of the club, opened the meeting by reading the constitution of the organization, which was adopted by a vote of the members. Dr. Ogilby then gave a short talk in which he wished a long life to the newly-formed group, and concluded by introducing Dr. Sweet.

The speaker stressed the qualifications of a good doctor: he must be reasonably wise, and he must be friendly and tactful; he should avoid gossip, and love his work. The real measure of a physician's success is not financial gain, but in the opportunity which is offered to serve his fellowman, Dr. Sweet said. He also

(Continued on page 4.)

NOTED AUTHOR TO SPEAK NEXT SUNDAY MORNING.

The Reverend Bernard I. Bell, the warden of St. Stephens College, is going to speak in chapel Sunday morning, May 14. Dr. Bell is the author of several books which have been widely read of late, chief among them being "Right and Wrong After the War," "Post-Modernism and Other Essays," "Common Sense and Education," and "Beyond Agnosticism." He has been a constant contributor to the Atlantic Monthly writing essays on education which have aroused keen discussion. It is said that few men have a greater gift than he for expressing in vivid form criticisms of modern education.

(Continued on page 3.)

SENIOR BALL TONIGHT TO BE IN ALUMNI HALL

Norman Cloutier and His "Merry Madcaps" to Play from Ten to Three

SIXTY GIRLS EXPECTED

Alpha Chi Rho, Psi Upsilon and Delta Phi to Have House Parties

The Senior Ball will take place this evening in Alumni Hall, starting at ten o'clock and running through to three. The dances will be according to program until midnight, there being ten dances on the program. The Grand March, led by Miss Marion Johnson of West Hartford and Mr. Edward S. Paige, Chairman of the Dance Committee, will be after the fifth dance. Music will be that of Norman Cloutier and his Merry Madcaps.

Three fraternities, Alpha Chi Rho, Delta Phi, and Psi Upsilon are to have house parties over the week-end. An estimate of sixty girls will attend the Friday night dance as guests of the several fraternities.

From Alpha Chi Rho: Misses Genevieve Ellis and Marjorie Wilkins, New York City; Ruth Rowell and Barbara Rohrmayer, Connecticut College; Eleanor Grant and Grace Hellison, Wellesley College; Helen McClellan, Poughkeepsie, N. Y.; Margaret Kimberly, Goshen; Adel Hillman, New Haven; Florence O'Brien, Hartford; and Frances Gerster, Rye, N. Y. Chaperones: Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Pinney of Wethersfield.

From Alpha Delta Phi: Misses Alice Gregg, Margaret Walbran, and Mary Bunce, Smith College; Elizabeth Wilson and Caroline Neill, Wellesley College; Maxine Nowak and Marjorie Malcolm, Chicago; Margaret Quigley, West Hartford; Miss Frances Chat-ham, Elkin, N. C.; Helen Schnepel,

(Continued on page 5.)

NEW SENATORS CHOSEN BY STUDENT BODY

College Marshal and Secretary of Athletic Association
Also Elected

The annual elections for the College Senate were held yesterday in the Union. For the first time in the history of the student governing body two men were allowed to represent the Neutral Group who have been clamoring for some such reform in representation during the past academic year.

Charles T. Kingston of St. Anthony Hall, Edwin G. Gallaway of Psi Upsilon, Robert H. Daut of Delta Phi, Seymour E. Smith of Alpha Chi Rho, Gustav H. Uhlig of Delta Kappa Epsilon, Edward J. Brewer of Sigma Nu and Charles O. Bierkan of Alpha Tau Kappa were the fraternity men chosen. Rex J. Howard and John R. Bose represent the Neutral Body. These men, along with Andrew Onderdonk of Alpha Delta Phi, will serve a term of one year in the Senate. Onderdonk was appointed Treasurer of the Senate for next year at a recent meeting of the retiring

(Continued on page 3.)

PUBLIC SPEAKING TRIALS.

On Monday evening, May 15, at 7.30, the preliminary trials for the Public Speaking prizes will be held, on the basis of which certain contestants will be selected to compete on Tuesday, May 23, in the final trials.

These speeches are to be original in composition and limited to ten minutes in length. There are no restrictions on the choice except that the subjects must be approved by either Professor Kleene, Professor Allen, or Dean Hood.

There are three prizes awarded annually in the Public Speaking Contest. Only Seniors may compete for the Brown prize of $100. The other two prizes are the Whitlock prizes of $30 and $20, respectively.

TRINITY NINE LOSES TO WILLIAMS 13 TO 5

Fatal Sixth and Seventh Innings
Bring Purple Far Ahead of Blue and Gold

BOCK HITS HOMER

Houlihan Pitches Good Ball But
Visitors Fail to Stop
Many Singles

The Trinity baseball team traveled to Williamstown yesterday and lost to the Purple nine 13 to 5, though leading at the end of the fifth. Running through their batting order twice in as many times up, the Williams' men ran up ten runs in the fatal sixth and seventh. A smashing homer by Bockwinkel in the eighth gave the visitors their fifth run.

An error, and two clean singles by Amport and Carey, gave Trinity its first two runs in the third, and in their half of the fifth the visitors gained the lead by adding two more. Bockwinkel walked, Fritzson's single, and Kearns' double cleared the bases. In the sixth, despite good pitching by Houlihan, the ball game went to Williams. Again in the seventh four singles, a triple by Klinck, and two infield errors totaled five more runs for the Purple. Box score:

Williams.

	AB	R	H	PO	A	E
Markoski, ss,	4	4	2	4	1	0
Navins, 2b,	5	1	4	2	3	0
Lankin, ss,	5	1	0	3	4	1
Winn, cf,	4	1	1	0	0	0
Butler, lf,	4	1	0	0	0	1
Klinck, c,	4	2	1	0	7	0
Lasher, 1b,	4	3	2	0	10	0
Loranger, rf,	2	0	0	0	2	0
Hapgood, rf,	1	0	0	0	0	0
Falk, rf,	1	0	1	0	0	0
Kroll, p,	2	0	0	3	0	0
Hermans, p,	2	0	0	0	0	0
Totals,	38	13	11	13	27	2

Trinity.

	AB	R	H	PO	A	E
Eigenbauer, cf,	2	0	0	0	2	0
Hall, cf,	1	0	0	0	2	0
Kelly, ss,	4	0	0	2	4	2
Wheeler,	0	0	0	1	0	0
Bell, rf,	3	0	0	0	0	0
Ferris, rf,	1	0	0	0	0	0
Bockwinkel, 1b,	3	2	3	0	8	1
Fritzson, lf,	4	1	2	0	1	0
Kearns, 3b,	4	1	1	1	0	1
Carey, 2b,	4	1	1	0	0	1
Marquet, 2b,	0	0	0	0	0	0
Amport, c,	4	0	1	0	6	0
Houlihan, p,	2	0	0	3	1	0
Winans, x,	1	0	0	0	0	0
Totals,	33	5	8	7	24	5

Triples, Lasher, Klinck, Markoski; home run, Bockwinkel; double plays, Kelly to Bockwinkel, Larkin to Navins to Lasher; base on balls, off Kroll 2, off Houlihan 4; struck out by Kroll 5, by Houlihan 5, by Hermans 2; hits, off Kroll 5 in 5 1-3 innings; off Hermans 3 in 3 2-3 innings; umpire, Bolster; time of game, 2.07.
x—Winans batted for Houlihan in 9th.

TENNIS TEAM LOSES 9-0

The undefeated tennis team met its first setback Thursday from a superior Williams' aggregation. The Purple, represented by one of the strong teams of the eastern colleges under the leadership of Alex Horton, twice Intercollegiate Champion of New England, presented a carefully coached and well-balanced outfit.

Mowbray at No. 1 position played his usual consistent game, but was obviously outclassed by Horton, whose brilliant stroking and court strategy allowed him to win with ease, 6-1, 6-1.

The Trinity Tripod

TRINITY COLLEGE, Hartford, Conn.

Published twenty-six times during the year.

Subscription Price, $2.50 per Year.

Entered at the Post Office, Hartford, Conn., as second-class matter. Acceptance for mailing at special rate of postage provided for in paragraph 4, section 412, Act of October 28, 1925, authorized October 14, 1926.

Advertising Rates furnished on application.

Subscribers are urged to report promptly any serious irregularity in the receipt of THE TRINITY TRIPOD. All complaints and business communications should be addressed to the Business Manager, THE TRINITY TRIPOD, Trinity College, Hartford, Conn.

The columns of THE TRINITY TRIPOD are at all times open to alumni, undergraduates, and others for the free discussion of matters of interest to Trinity men.

FRIDAY, MAY 12, 1933

Editor-in-Chief

WILLARD J. HARING, '34

Managing Editor

HAROLD R. BAYLEY, JR., '34

Reportorial Board

James R. Miller, '36
Charles B. Roberts, '36
Adolph A. Hoehling, Jr., '36
Charles J. Sutherland, '34
James Frankel, '36
Malcolm V. Lane, '35
Donald G. Hurd, '35
Harry J. Davis, '36

Editorial Board

William S. McCornick, '34
Richard I. Thomas, '34
John S. McCook, '35
Robert M. Roney, '35

Business Manager

Andrew Onderdonk, '34

Advertising Manager

J. Douglas Gay, '34

Circulation Manager

Thomas J. Sisbower, '35

A QUASI-HOLIDAY

Senior week-end has come around again and for the time recitations and textbooks are forgotten. Instead of our grinding away for that inevitable Saturday morning class, we will spend Friday evening dancing happily in Alumni Hall to the pleasantly stirring music of Norman L. Cloutier and his Merry Madcaps. Then Saturday afternoon we will pass our time pleasantly at the tea dance in the Cook Dining Hall, and, come nine o'clock, we will return to Alumni Hall and dance the evening away.

This, with variations, will be our week-end program. We welcome all the girls with outstretched arms and offer them the key to the college and also to the city. And if they perchance desire a tiny sip of beer, we are sure that they will have no difficulty in obtaining it. So, come lads and lassies, throw aside your dull worries of yesterday and tomorrow and enjoy yourselves today.

EQUAL REPRESENTATION

The recent discussion between the Senate and the Neutral Body regarding the number of Senators has undoubtedly much to be said for both parties. The feeling in the past on the part of the Neutrals that they should have more representation in the Senate is entirely a natural one, as is also the feeling on the part of the Senate that the Neutrals do not deserve more representation than they have under the new constitution.

The argument of the Neutral Body seems to be largely a financial one, and since it is true that all students contribute an equal amount to the Senate fund, they are, therefore, entitled to equal representation, it must be admitted. The Senate's argument that the college does not receive equal social support from all the students is also true, and that those giving the more support deserve more representation is well founded.

However, there remains another side to the question which has not been considered. The matter is not merely a financial or social one, nor even a combination of the two. There is the additional factor of the support that the various organizations receive in the form of memberships.

Let us then approach the question from the side of the organizations which receive various appropriations from the Senate, and attempt to determine how much support these groups receive in themselves from the Neutral Body and the fraternities. This may seem prejudiced from the outset for the reason that it is immediately evident that fraternity men holding memberships in these various groups outnumber by far the members of the Neutral Body.

Nevertheless there is a greater issue than the mere matter of representation in the Senate. Trinity has been in the past, possibly always will be, divided between two factions—the group living on the campus, and the group living at home. The only union that these groups can have with any marked success is the common tie of college spirit. Not the “rah-rah” spirit of collegiate fame, but a deep and reverent affection for the college itself and what it represents. This can be gained in a large measure by all the students meeting and working together on a common ground such as we have in our classrooms, our sports, our intramural athletics, and our organizations.

With the establishment of this feeling, and we believe it is a growing one, the college will be in a position to assume its true place in the lives of the students. But until all students are willing to take part in organizations, to contribute socially and financially as well, it is inevitable that the group giving the most will expect the most representation.

COMMUNICATIONS

The Senate Explains Its Attitude Toward Neutral Representation

To the Editor of the Tripod:

The Senate was both interested and impressed by the display of enthusiasm shown by the Neutral group in presenting to them a petition for increased representation in next year's Senate.

Mr. Peiss and Mr. Bose joined in a cordial and lengthy discussion of the entire situation.

The petition was tabled indefinitely upon unanimous vote, with a provision that next year's Senators might reconsider the petition if the present enthusiasm of the Neutrals continued and bore results in the form of increased interest in the activities of campus organizations and classes.

The Senate did not feel that the activities of the Neutrals during this year warranted an increase at this time from one to four in the number of their representatives. On the other hand, it did not want to defeat by a negative vote the purpose of the Neutrals who were interested enough to present the petition.

At a recent meeting, the Senate increased the Neutral representation for next year to two men (one a campus man and the other an off-campus man). The Senate hopes that the Neutrals will back their representatives elected yesterday by meeting regularly with them in a body, and that the Neutrals will support a variety of campus activities next year in a way unprecedented.

Next year's Senate should have no difficulty in deciding whether Neutral interest has increased, and, upon recognizing that fact, will undoubtedly increase the representation to four by accepting the tabled petition unconditionally.

THE SENATE.

**

Peiss Answers Communication of "A Senior" and Defends Neutrals

To the Editor of the Tripod:

It pains me grievously to see “A Senior” vacate his proper position of setting an example for the younger and supposedly less sage members of the student body and descend to firing spitballs. The observation concerning the non-fraternity men who “razz” their team is obviously so unfair, nasty, and in such bad taste that it requires no comment. It speaks for itself—and not with the voice of angels. I have been racking my brains for the past week in the attempt to identify the man who “has held a scholarship for three years, and has been awarded a fellowship,” and who “has worked the college for every penny possible,” but returned practically nothing. This man ought to rush immediately to the fore with the cogent point that there is a distinction to be made between the social activities of the college—directed by the Senate—and the scholastic achievements—directed by the administration and faculty. So effective is this distinction that the administration and faculty have in general observed a “hands-off” policy with regard to the affairs of the Senate. No one would doubt that, had they been so inclined, they could long ago have forced payment of student class dues.

I think that the Philosophy Department must feel a sense of shame and futility when it reflects that this communication of “A Senior's” is the summit and the result of its attempts to inculcate Logic into the young mind. Throughout this communication the vital distinction which I have just mentioned is ignored. Having slyly sidestepped the embarrassing hurdle presented by the fact that each man does contribute ten dollars annually from his tuition fee, “A Senior” then tries to justify the present state of affairs by what he considers more pertinent arguments. And what does he cite? We hear that only one man is necessary on the Senate from the Neutral body, “because the views of the Neutrals are far less in quantity than those of any one fraternity” (surely an insulting statement if I ever saw one); that some members of the Neutral body go home instead of

Book Review

PEOPLE WORTH TALKING ABOUT, by Cosmo Hamilton. New York: Robert M. McBride & Company.

In “People Worth Talking About” the author introduces us familiarly to a multitude of literary personages. He seems either to know them all, or to know all about them. First he presents us to “dear boobs” Shaw, and then takes us through the company of celebrities to meet Arnold Bennett, Rex Beach, Swinburne, and others of the present and of the past. These character sketches and lively anecdotes first took form as fifteen-minute radio talks. Even then listeners deduced that Cosmo Hamilton's acquaintance among men of letters is vast. But his book shows not only that he has known them; he has made a thorough study of them in the biographies and records which others have written. Thus some of his sketches, though personal and intimate, are more transcription than recollection. For instance, an excellent bit about Joseph Conrad is largely taken from Rothenstein's “Men and Memories.” Stories of Gertrude Atherton have been drawn from her autobiography. Arnold Bennett is treated rather rawly while his own diary is opened to the reader. He is the only writer, however, whom Mr. Hamilton belittles. Most of them he flatters.

The author has a rare gift for story-telling, and he includes a number of examples. There is a delightful piece about P. G. Wodehouse teaching a fat man to ride a bicycle in Hyde Park. Stories about Galsworthy, J. M. Barrie, and droll Sinclair Lewis bring us pleasantly nearer them.

Mr. Hamilton, knowing most of the great writers of the day, is qualified, he feels sure, to tell us which ones are topmost in the ranks. He is quite insistent, therefore, in specifying “the Big Four,” who are “without argument”—H. G. Wells, Rudyard Kipling, George Moore (who was living when this essay was written), and George Bernard Shaw. He says of them: “They continue, with almost the same energy as in their early days, and certainly with the same brilliance, to produce work which none of the younger generation of writers can rival or approach.”

Mr. Hamilton writes with a mingling of the critical and the biographical, and is perhaps better in the latter mode. Personal acquaintance with his subjects undoubtedly enriches his stories of them, but it distorts his view as a critic. —J. R. M.

attending baseball games (making themselves thereby ineligible, I suppose, for Senatorship); that the Neutrals are here to “get as much as possible and give the least they can in return” (again failing to make the distinction between studies and social affairs, and minimizing the importance of scholarship that will bring prestige to this college in years to come). That the Neutrals do not support performances and dances with the same enthusiasm as do fraternity men can hardly be denied, but even the fraternity men, if they want to be honest with themselves, can discover adequate reasons aside from simple apathy.

To return (in turn) to economic considerations, the function of the Senate is not, as I know it, confined solely to sounding out the opinions of the various groups of men on the campus. The Senate allots sums of money to the various extra-curricular organizations, and of that money everyone, even the Neutral, contributes ten dollars each year. If half of that ten dollars is spent upon the year book and the Tripod, why should the Neutrals not have a louder voting voice in its expenditure? Why should the Neutrals not also have some say concerning the maintenance of the established organizations and the creation of new (such as the late lamented Tablet), for, by “A Senior's”

(Continued on page 4.)

MEN'S FOUR-IN-HANDS

29c each

An odd lot of Men's Silk Four-in-Hands. Some are hand tailored, values to 95c.

Men's Dep't—Street Floor

Brown Thompson Inc.
Hartford's Shopping Center

Trinity College

Hartford, Conn.

“Inspiration is a strange thing, and less obedient even than love to the will of man. It will decline to come when you prepare for it with the loftiest intentions, and, lo! at an accidental word it will suddenly fill you.”

—Owen Wister.

MANUFACTURERS OF DISTINGUISHED QUALITY
HALFTONE AND LINE ILLUSTRATIONS
PIONEERS IN COLOR SEPARATION PLATES

OUR PLATES MAKE GOOD IMPRESSIONS

TELEPHONE 6-6677

BOND PRESS Printing

OF THE BETTER CLASS
AT CONSIDERATE COSTS

94 ALLYN STREET

Publication Work a Specialty

LINOTYPE COMPOSITION

Printers of “The Trinity Tripod”

ST. STEPHENS ROUTED BY TRINITY 9 TO 3

Visitors Checked by Houlihan
As Blue and Gold Scores
Initial Triumph

BOCKWINKEL STARS

Kelly, Kearns and Bell
Also Excel With Hard Hitting

Last Wednesday, playing on a rain-soaked field, the Trinity baseball team easily won a 9 to 3 decision over the St. Stephens' nine for the first victory of the current season. Allowing only three hits, Houlihan pitched himself out of every hole into which his lack of control put him. That is, with the exception of the fifth inning, during which the visitors chalked up their three runs.

The St. Stephens' southpaw, Gastran, just suited the Trinity batters. In the third they added two hits, two bases on balls, and two errors to make a total of five runs. Three more hits and a base on balls in the fourth brought in three more runs, giving Trinity an 8 to 0 lead. Another run came across in the sixth when Kelly scored on Bockwinkel's triple to right center. Long range hitting was a prominent feature of the game. Kearns and Bockwinkel each clouted a triple. Kelly and Bell both hit for the half circuit. The hits were bunched admirably giving the Blue and Gold an easy lead.

The visitors were able to get only three scattered singles off Houlihan; but his adeptness at issuing free passes, accompanied by a couple of wild throws and errors by his teammates, kept him in constant danger. Only once, however, did he fail to pitch himself out of trouble. In the sixth frame three bases on balls, two errors and a single gave St. Stephens its three runs. That was the only real threat made by the visitors. The game was called by agreement in the seventh inning.

Trinity.	AB	R	H	PO	A	E
Eigenbauer, lf,	3	1	0	1	0	0
Kelly, ss,	4	2	2	2	1	0
Bell, rf,	4	2	2	1	0	0
Bockwinkel, 1b,	3	0	2	6	0	0
Armstrong, cf,	3	1	1	2	0	0
Kearns, 3b,	4	1	1	2	1	0
Carey, 2b,	4	0	1	0	1	1
Amport, c,	2	0	0	7	1	1
Houlihan, p,	2	1	1	0	4	0
Totals,	29	9	10	21	8	2
St. Stephens.	AB	R	H	PO	A	E
Mitchell, lf,	2	1	0	1	0	1
Brady, lf,	0	0	0	0	0	0
Gastran, p,	2	1	0	0	0	1
Mason, 3b,	1	0	0	0	0	0
Bold, rf,	2	1	0	0	0	0
Kepplar, ss,	3	0	1	1	1	0
Spahr, 2b,	3	0	0	1	0	0
Diebst, c,	3	0	0	6	1	0
Brk'vn, 3b-cf,	3	0	1	4	2	0
Fried, cf-p,	2	0	1	1	1	0
Goldstein, 1b,	1	0	0	4	0	0
Molineaux, 1b,	1	0	0	0	0	0
Totals,	23	3	3	18	5	2
Trinity	0	0	5	3	0	1
St. Stephens	0	0	0	3	0	0

Two-base hits, Kelly, Bell; three-base hits, Bockwinkel, Kearns; stolen bases, Kelly 2, Bell, Armstrong 2; left on bases, Trinity 7, St. Stephens 5; base on balls, off Houlihan 7, Gastran 5; struck out, by Houlihan 5, Gastran 4, Fried 1; hits, off Gastran 7 in 5, Fried 3 in 1; wild pitches, Houlihan 2, Gastran 2; losing pitcher, Gastran; umpire, Elliott; time, 1.47.

'OW WE LOVE 'EM.

Me 'at I doffs
For Trin's ol' Profs
Each one I 'olds mos' dear
They're large an' small
Both please an' gall
But some me thinks mos' queer
They're fair enough
An' seldom tough
But twelve months make a year
By which I means
E'en nine we deems
Long 'nough for one to hear
But here it's May
Near time to play
An' idle all the Summer
When Fall comes 'round
An' we're all browned
An' tired o' bein' a bumner
We'll start to yearn
An' then return
And be glad to get back 'cause we like the place quite a bit especially the Senior
Ball and stuff like that.

ANNUAL CONCERT GIVEN BY TRINITY GLEE CLUB

Piano Solos and Violin Duet Feature Presentation in Alumni Hall

The Trinity Glee Club gave its final concert of the year in Alumni Hall last Saturday night. Featured in the program, in addition to the choral numbers, were a group of piano solos and a violin duet. A large audience attended and took part in the dancing that followed the concert.

The first group in the program consisted of four numbers rendered by the Glee Club: "Now Let Every Tongue Adore Thee", by Bach, "Adoramus Te", by Palestrina, "Bretton Canticle", arranged by Taylor, and "Laudamus", by Protheroe. Walter Johnson then offered four piano solos, taking selections from the works of Schumann, Grieg, Palmgren and Grainger.

Following this group, the club sang five numbers: "Sun and Moon", by Gretchaninoff, "Fireflies", and "Sylvia", by Speaks, "Lullaby", by Brahms, and "Now is the Month of Maying", by Morley. Charles and William Kirby next interpreted the "Concerto in A Minor", by Vivaldi-Natchez in a violin duet.

The Glee Club closed the program with Grieg's "Landsighting", and "Yea, Cast Me from Heights", by Elgar, followed by "Fight, Trinity", and "Neath the Elms."

A joint choral service with Wesleyan is being planned for the vesper service of May 21. This will be the final appearance of the organization this year. The club is under the direction of Mr. Clarence Watters, and its officers are: James Henderson, President; Nicholas Hubinger, Vice-President; Curtis Junker, Manager; Dennis Farnell, Student Conductor; Charles Wilding, Librarian. John Melville is the accompanist.

DR. BELL TO SPEAK.
(Continued from page 1.)

St. Stephens College is now a part of Columbia University. Within the past few weeks certain drastic changes have been made in regard to St. Stephens College which were so much in opposition to Dr. Bell's ideas, that he has tendered his resignation as warden.

TRINITY NETMEN WIN OVER BOWDOIN, 5-4

Superiority in Singles Play
Gives Blue and Gold Men
Second Straight Victory

On Tuesday, May 2, Coach Altmaier's tennis team barely nosed out Bowdoin by winning five matches out of nine. The first three singles matches were played on the Hartford Golf Club courts, and were easily won by Trinity; the remainder of play, on the college courts, was more even, and was won, for the most part, by Bowdoin. The weather was ideal for tennis, there being little wind.

At No. 1, Mowbray and Woodger played a most uninteresting two sets before the former won 6-3, 6-1, to give the first victory to the home team. The points were not long drawn-out and Mowbray was consistently superior to his opponent. Although Craig defeated Loth of Bowdoin 6-1, 6-3, the second match was marked by long rallies, both men playing a conservative game. Each point was fought out; and Craig had the edge on account of his greater reach and accuracy. The Stein-Bates match was also marked by rallies, in which Stein's greater steadiness won the third point for Trinity.

In the matches on the college courts, however, Bowdoin had the upper hand; and there were some very even sets, especially in the doubles. Jackson, Trinity No. 4 man, was defeated in straight sets by Ashley 6-2, 6-3. Ashley, by difficult placement shots, seemed to have little anxiety over Jackson's drives. The match, however, was close in parts, and not without a good deal of keen competition. Thoits, of Bowdoin, also defeated his opponent in straight sets, winning from Greenberg on the No. 5 court 6-3, 6-4. Shaw, however, won Trinity's fourth point by overwhelming Monell 6-2, 6-1.

Entering the doubles with a lead of four matches to two, Trinity lost to Bowdoin's first team of Woodger and Bates by a score of 3-6, 6-4, 6-2. Mowbray and Craig played a desperate game, but could not retain their early lead. Stein and Greenberg, who play the same sort of game with excellent teamwork, won their match with Loth and Monell of Bowdoin after a first long carefully played set of sixteen games. The final score was 9-7, 6-4. The third match, between Jackson and Shaw of Trinity and Ashley and Thoits of Bowdoin, was also an even contest, in which Bowdoin was the victor by a score of 11-9, 6-4, thus making the final score of the total match 5-4 in favor of Trinity.

TWENTY-FOUR NOMINEES CHOSEN FOR ELECTIONS

Candidates for Senate, College
Marshal and Secretary of A. A. Elected

On Wednesday, May 3, final nominations for candidates to the Senate were presented to the President of that body, Edward Paige. The final election for officers of the college body are to be held Thursday, May 11, from 8.30 a. m. to 4.30 p. m. In accordance with Article 2, Section 6, of the Senate Constitution, no student may vote or be eligible for nomination who has not paid his class dues. Two nominees are chosen from each group of the students and one of each pair is chosen Senator.

Leading the list of candidates for Senator are Charles T. Kingston and William H. Benjamin of St. Anthony Hall. Delta Kappa Epsilon nominated Gustav H. Uhlig and Robert E. Schultze. Seymour E. Smith and Charles A. Teuker were the choice of Alpha Chi Rho, and Psi Upsilon nominated Edward G. Gallaway and David H. Harris. Sigma Nu chose Edward J. Brewer and Donald A. Dumont to represent it. Either Robert H. Daut (Continued on page 6.)

FRESHMAN JITTERS.

Now I lay me down to sleep
Hoping for the buzzer;
Hide my head—lift my feet,
Dreaming of my muzzer.
Da da da, let me be
Don't disturb my slumber;
Oh ho hum, can't you see
I want to be yet dumber.
* *
1932 we knew would be
A year before 1933.
* *
Pleasure 'fore anything else?
Cheques must be first for ourselves.
* *
Greek would be much better
If it didn't metter:
* *
A collitch goil is lotsa fun
At school away from mother;
But at Easter when they're hum
I gotta get another.

MR. AND MRS. HATHAWAY TELL OF EXPERIENCES

Guests of Dr. Naylor Entertain
With Talk on Life in Belgian Congo

On Tuesday evening, May 2, at 9 o'clock in the Lounge of Cook Hall, Mr. and Mrs. B. Hathaway gave an informal talk on their experiences in the Belgian Congo. Mr. and Mrs. Hathaway are friends of Dr. Louis Naylor, Professor of the Romance languages, and spoke on his invitation.

Mr. Hathaway spoke first and told how he and his wife had gone out to the Belgian Congo three years ago to do missionary work among the Bobangi tribe. Mr. Hathaway gave a short description of the socialist system of living in use not only among the Bobangi, but also among many other native tribes. If a Bobangi should kill an elephant it would not belong to him, but only what remained after the headman, sub-headman, and relatives got their "cut." This practice, he said, prevents any one family from getting too affluent or too poor.

Mr. Hathaway, in closing, compared the Congo practice of wife buying with the American debutante system and stated that comparison was not too unfavorable to the American debutante.

Mrs. Hathaway spoke on the almost insurmountable difficulties they encountered in trying to give the Bobangi some smattering of education, and the ingenious methods they used in surmounting them. She gave examples of how the different languages sounded and the difficulties encountered in trying to learn them.

The meeting was then turned into an open forum, and a short time later was adjourned to the college cafeteria where refreshments were served.

SENATORS ELECTED.
(Continued from page 1.)

Senators and is thus automatically included in the roster.

In addition to the above choices Harold R. Bayley was elected College Marshal, and John S. McCook won the post of Athletic Association Secretary. Bayley, who is a member of the Alpha Delta Phi fraternity, has held many prominent managerial roles as well as being on the Tripod staff. McCook, a member of the Psi Upsilon fraternity, was only recently elected to the Sophomore Dining Club, an honor conferred on men who have been outstanding on the campus during their first two years at Trinity.

CHAPEL NOTICE.
The speaker in Chapel on Saturday afternoon, December 32, 1955, B. C., will be the Honourable (?) Theodore Zion Hertzberg, Secretary of the Bridgeport Executive Council of the Plantville Community Chest Corporation, Inc., who is not responsible for the administration of all details, or something, of that unimportant organization. He will speak on, "Develop Your Chest or Bust."

TRINITY TRACKMEN BOW TO STRONG UNION TEAM

Blue and Gold Loses First Meet
77-49 Though Strong in Field Events

FAST TIMES MADE

Visitors Allow Only One First in Eight Races—Daut and Warner High Scorers

The Trinity track team lost its first dual meet of the season to Union College by a score of 77 to 49 last Saturday on the Trinity field. In spite of the fact that the damp, chilly weather was unsuitable for record-breaking performances, the Union runners turned in exceptionally fast times in practically all of the running events, allowing Trinity only one first place in the eight races. The Blue and Gold team was stronger than its opponent in the field events, however, but could not overcome the lead obtained by the Union team through its power on the track.

The Union College team is the strongest team that Trinity has met in years. It is well balanced and, due to the fact that it has been training all winter, is in physical condition. The closest and most thrilling events were the 220-yard low hurdles and the 100- and 220-yard dashes. Bob Daut of Trinity, defeated by his Union opponents in the high hurdles, turned the tables by just speeding in ahead of his two rivals in the low hurdles. In the 100- and 220-yard dashes, Sullivan of Union got fast starts and maintained a scant lead all the way to the tape, fighting off Thayer's challenging spurts successfully. Although Dave Swanson, the Trinity captain, was defeated in the quarter mile, his time of 53 seconds compares favorably with the best time made in this event at Trinity last year. Daut and Warner were the high point men for Trinity, Daut garnering points in the high and low hurdles and the broad and high jumps, with Warner taking first places in the discus throw and broad jump.

Summary:

High Hurdles—Waldron, Union, first; Turner, Union, second; Daut, Trinity, third; time, 16.4 seconds.

100-yard Dash—Sullivan, Union, first; Thayer, Trinity, second; Kellam, Trinity, third; time, 10.6 seconds.

One-Mile Run—Teele, Union, first; Gottschalk, Union, second; Holleran, Union, third; time, 4 minutes, 40.9 seconds.

440-yard Dash—Forbes, Union, first; Hill, Union, second; Swanson, Trinity, third; time, 51.6 seconds.

Two-Mile Run—Lap, Union, first; Gladwin, Trinity, second; Mirate, Union, third; time, 10 minutes, 42.8 seconds.

220-yard Low Hurdles—Daut, Trinity, first; Reeder, Union, second; Turner, Union, third; time, 27.6 seconds.

220-yard Dash—Sullivan, Union, first; Hill, Union, second; Thayer, Trinity, third; time, 23.6 seconds.

Half-Mile Run—Holleran, Union, first; Moulton, Union, second; Childs, Union, third; time, 2 minutes, 2.5 seconds.

Pole Vault—Griffind, Union, first; Mowbray, Trinity, and Reeder, Union, tied for second; height, 11 feet.

High Jump—Turner, Union, first; Daut, Trinity, second; Kellam, Trinity, third; height, 5 feet, 10 inches.

Discus Throw—Warner, Trinity, first; Barnett, Union, second; Alexander, Trinity, third; distance, 117 feet, 3 inches.

Broad Jump—Warner, Trinity, first; Kellam, Trinity, second; Daut, Trinity, third; distance, 19 feet, 11½ inches.

Shot Put—Alexander, Trinity, first; Kellam, Trinity, second; Waldron, Union, third; distance, 37 feet, 8 inches.

Javelin Throw—Thayer, Trinity, first; Gallan, Union, second; Parker, Union, third; distance, 165 feet, 10 inches.

Final Score: Union 77, Trinity 49.

ADVERTISEMENT

HERMAN (Horse-Face to You) Y. B. ATUFFY
IMPORTER OF DISTINCTIVE LINGERIE
708 Rue De Vallee, Hartford.

Says Archibald L. Van Puyster, Captain of the 1932 Trinity Wrestling Team, "I have purchased Atuffy Lingerie since I've been here, and I think it's simply divine. It's so soft and fluffy and feels so lovely on me."

UNCLE TOM MAKES NO COMMENT ON INVENTION

Old Fox of Boardman Refuses to Grant Request of Simpering Tripod Reporter

Ye scribe entered Old Uncle's laboratory, and, seeing that the Grand Old Man of cribbage was engrossed in a scientific magazine, forbore to speak until the kindly sage should notice him. At last Uncle Tom, as he is known to his boys, laid down the magazine, a foreign publication called "La Vie Parisienne," and peered at the intruder over the top of his lenseless spectacles.

"What you-all want, Son?" he asked in his childish bass, flicking an imaginary bit of lint from the top of his bald head.

"I represent the Tripod," said the tot, crying a bit.

"I won't sign no papers", said the sage sullenly, his eyes roving restlessly around the tiny white-washed cell.

"Oh, no," said the student, blushing with shame, "I came to see you about your last invention, you rat."

"Oh, pshaw," said the sage slangily, tossing his auburn curls willfully, "Youse guys're drivin' me crazy 'bout that ol' 'chine."

"Ou est la machine?" asked Rosen-crantz, his beady eyes searching the other's face craftily.

"That's telling," said the old fox of Boardman, flicking a handkerchief from his coat-pocket as the entrancing odeur of "L'Apres-Midi d'un Cochon" filled the room.

"You see," he began in his childish treble, his eyes twinkling roguishly as he polished his celluloid collar with an old sock. "You see, the Colonel and Bud are after this 'vention."

"Never mind that, my brave," said the reporter. "How did you come to think of the contraption in the first place?"

"Wal, son," said the grey-beard, picking his teeth with a bit of old scrap-iron, "She was young and I was healthy and the moon was shinin' up above, and I jest thunk of it, that's all. It takes a heap o' livin' to make a house a home," he concluded, a tear glistening in his wat'ry eye.

"O. K. Frankenstein," said the stripling, moved despite himself.

"O. K. can you see?" asked the cad, shooting his cuff at a sparrow that flew by the window just then.

"You rotter!" hissed Young Wild West as a shot rang out in the gambling den. Fu Manchu had struck again!

GOLF TEAM ORGANIZED TO PLAY FOR TRINITY

Defeat at the Hands of Amherst and Tie with Bowdoin Marks Recent Introduction

The Trinity golf team, although unrecognized by the Athletic Council has taken part in two intercollegiate matches thus far this spring, and prospects for further competition are bright. The squad at present is composed of Donald Snowden, Robert Hollins, James Marks, Charles Sheafe, and John Ellsworth.

On April 29 the Blue and Gold men played a team from Amherst at the Orchards Golf Club at South Hadley, Mass. Amherst returned the winner 7 to 2 with all the individual scores close. Snowden, Hollins, Marks, and Sheafe represented Trinity. Bowdoin was the next opponent and this match ended in a 3 to 3 tie. Two foursomes were played with Snowden and Hollins outscoring Woodruff and his partner from Bowdoin 2 to 1, while Breed and Clark of Bowdoin turned the tables by upsetting Ellsworth and Marks with a duplicate score.

A third match has been scheduled with Wesleyan on May 18 to be played at the West Hartford Golf Club course.

CAMPUS COMMENT

GLEE CLUB CONCERT.

What with Spring and so many goings-on, the Tripod is never short of copy, so it's difficult for us to squeeze in a few lines somewhere on one of the four pages. But last Saturday night we went to the Glee Club Concert and enjoyed it so much that we forced the editors to grant us a little space in which to put a few remarks.

There were quite a few people there, mostly patronesses, faculty members, and—we couldn't help notice this—many more neutrals than fraternity men. It is too bad the students don't turn out better for the annual concert; perhaps the majority of them that care for such things are in the Glee Club, and there are few left to make up the audience.

We have considered "Sylvia" our favorite glee club song, and Saturday night we certainly were not disappointed. Of Walter Johnson's piano solos we liked Palmgren's "May Night" best. Such a piece, we think, should be played with dimmer lights; Johnson did it so—well, gently.

Judging from the applause they received, the Kirby brothers were the hit of the evening. It is fascinating to watch a group of violins in a symphony orchestra being played in unison, the bows rising and falling together. But as the two Kirbys, who look as much alike as two twins ever could, played their duet, the strange effect of seeing double was very striking indeed.

Our only criticism of the whole affair lies in the fact that the program lacked any more or less lively bit to break up its solemnity. "Fireflies", sung by the club in its second group, was the only song that gave such relief. Perhaps more students would come to the concerts if a few "specialty" numbers were presented—lighter stuff, jazz, if you will, sung by a quartet. For larger attendance the tastes of all must be considered, a difficult task when dealing with college men.

We didn't see anyone who was not enjoying the dance that followed. The orchestra was sufficient, the crowd gay, and then—there were those pretty speeches.

BEER RETURNS.

(Continued from page 1.)

them the following quotations:

J. H. (Hoo) Ray Yusting—"I like very much all sorts of stuff like that—I mean stuff like beer, an' women an' moons an' things. Atten-shun!" S. S. (Swanny) Duck—"We've had nary a case in this here collidge (as) yet, and by gar there ain't agoin' to be any either. Oh, you mean beer. Haw, haw, I thought—haw, haw. . . ." U. C. (Rabbit) Oilin—"I tank I go home now."

And the rest were too messed up to read. Great stains like the salty tears of disillusioned youth obliterated all the remaining writings. So touched we were that never again will we waste a star reporter, to quote dry words, supposed to tell the where, the why, and the how of that earthly manna—beer.

COMMUNICATIONS.

(Continued from page 2.)

own admission the Neutrals do contribute five dollars each year to their support. As for the payment of class dues, is "A Senior" aware of the situation in his own class? Of sixty-five men, fifteen have paid their dues in full. Of these, twelve are fraternity men; and of these twelve, eight are Senators, who must pay their dues before being eligible for office.

When those fraternity men who are loudest in their denunciations bring to the problems of the Neutral body an impartial interest that transcends Babbitt-like indignation and righteous sneers, I am confident that there can be worked out upon this campus a satisfactory system for the carrying-on of extra-curricular affairs and, what is more important for the immediate moment, the efficient and painless collection of class dues. I wish I could see it in my time.

REUBEN PEISS.

DR. OGILBY GIVES TALK IN CHAPEL ON FREEDOM

President Speaks for Independence Taking Text from Epistle of St. Peter

In a sermon preached at the 11 o'clock Communion Service in the Chapel last Sunday, President Ogilby spoke of freedom and how it is abused. He used as his text St. Peter's First Epistle for the Third Sunday after Easter.

Throughout the talk Dr. Ogilby stressed the important and essential part that freedom plays in our lives, and warned that one must not abuse it. The spirit of every college should be free, he said, and in spite of certain social group restrictions, there are nevertheless those elements which make for an amount of independence. "Free Seeking After Truth" should be our watchword, with a freedom of thought and will. In the beginning of the Epistle there is a request to "abstain from fleshly lusts", and it ends with "Honor the king."

All through history there is a long line of rebels who defied existing authority, President Ogilby continued, John Brown being a comparatively recent one. Also the challenge of the Puritan Movement in England to the Stuart Regime is very noteworthy. When St. Peter stated that one should submit himself to every ordinance of man, it is only fair to add that he was forced to employ a maximum of caution, as the Epistle was addressed to a small group of Christians in Asia Minor, who at the time were all under fire. The President went on to say that a manifestation of freedom in any form is a recrudescence of the beast, and that fleshly lusts are against the higher things of the spirit. It is very interesting to watch the course of world events at present. In many countries freedom has taken the form of an attempt to abolish the orthodox types of religions. Will the German Church follow the course of the Russian? The next several months will, in all probability, tell.

In closing, Dr. Ogilby quoted a verse from an old Latin prayer used frequently in the morning Chapel service. It went as follows: Quem nosse est vivere cui servire est regnare, which translates, "In knowledge of whom standeth our eternal life whose service is perfect freedom."

JESTERS TO SPONSOR GERMAN PLAYS HERE

Two Short Productions to be Given in Public Speaking Room Next Wednesday Night

At the most recent meeting of the Jesters the members voted in favor of the plan to take over the production of the German plays, which have been given on the campus this fall by voluntary groups. Hereafter the plays will be given under the supervision of the Jesters and credit toward Senior and Junior Jesterships will be awarded to those comprising the casts. The first of the series of entertainments will be presented next Wednesday evening in the Public Speaking Room. There will be no charge. The time will be posted on the Bulletin Board in the near future.

Two plays will be on the Wednesday program. They are "Einer Muss Heiraten," by Wilhelmi, and "Eigensinn," by Benedix. Senf, Hubinger, Junker and Howard will have the roles in the first presentation. Heinsen, Clark, Stolz, Thomas, Liddell and Senfleben will make up the cast for "Eigensinn." Remember the date, Wednesday, May 17, time to be announced.

Other business included the elections of members on the strength of their work in the spring play. James Leslie Grant was elected to Senior Jestership. New Junior Jesters include Louis Carson, Jack Williams, Wyatt Williams, Eugene Gane, and Tuckerman Chapin.

Final Examination Schedule

The Trinity Tripod wishes to express its appreciation to the members of the committee on the final examination schedule for their kindness in allowing the following schedule to be printed. Will students please note that this is not the final draft and is subject to change?

JUNE, 1933

Friday, June 2, at 9 a. m.
Mathematics 2 (All sections).
Friday, June 2, at 2 p. m.
Economics 1 (All sections).
Saturday, June 3, at 9 a. m., Period 6.
Chemistry 6, Drawing A and 1, French 1, Philosophy 4b.
Saturday, June 3, at 2 p. m., Period 4.
Economics 3b, Philosophy 1a (Logic, Dr. Means).
Monday, June 5, at 9 a. m.
English A, Greek 4.
Monday, June 5, at 2 p. m., Period 7.
English 1, History 5, Philosophy 7b.
Tuesday, June 6, at 9 a. m., Period 5.
Economics 2, German 5, Latin 1, Philosophy 1 (Psychology-Logic, Professor Hutt), Philosophy 3, Physics 2.
Tuesday, June 6, at 2 p. m., Period 3.
English 12b, History 3, Italian 1, Philosophy 2, Physiology 1.
Wednesday, June 7, at 9 a. m.
French 2 (All sections), and French 3 (All sections).
Wednesday, June 7, at 2 p. m., Period 1.
Biology 3, C. E. 2, English 10, Geology 4, German 3, History 2.
Thursday, June 8, at 9 a. m.
German 1 (All sections), and German 2 (All sections).
Thursday, June 8, at 2 p. m.
Greek A (All sections), Greek 1 (All sections), Physiology 2.
Friday, June 9, at 9 a. m.
History 1 (All sections).
Friday, June 9, at 2 p. m., Period 12.
Biology 1, Chemistry A, Fine Arts 2, History 6, Philosophy 5, Physiology 4.
Saturday, June 10, at 9 a. m., Period 2.
Geology 1, Greek 2, History 14, Mathematics 6, Physics 6.
Saturday, June 10, at 2 p. m., Period 8.
Chemistry 3 and 7b, English 15, Physics A.
Monday, June 12, at 9 a. m.
Physics 1 (All sections), Physics 4 and 5.
Monday, June 12, at 2 p. m.
Astronomy 1 (All sections).
Tuesday, June 13, at 9 a. m., Period 11.
Chemistry 1 (All sections), Chemistry 8 and 9, History 11, Latin 4, Mathematics 3, Music 1, Philosophy 1b (Psychology, Dr. Altmayer).
Tuesday, June 13, at 2 p. m., Period 10.
Biology 2, English 2, French 6b, Hygiene 1b, Latin 2, Physics 3.
Wednesday, June 14, at 9 a. m.
Mathematics 1, 1T, and 1ba (All sections).
Wednesday, June 14, at 2 p. m., Period 9.
C. E. 1, Economics 4, Fine Arts 1, Greek 7b, Philosophy 8b.
English 4 and Chemistry 2 not yet placed.

This is not the final form of the examination schedule, but is approximately correct. Students should consult the final schedule when posted, and note changes made.

DR. SWEET SPEAKS.

(Continued from page 1.)

spoke of the large number of applicants for admission to the medical schools of the country, and of the hard work required to complete a course in medicine and gain an internship. Dr. Sweet closed by congratulating the members on the choice of their life-work.

President Jensen next introduced Dr. Swan, who outlined the growth of the Pre-Medical Department at Trinity and told of the requirements of medical schools and state associations that must be met by the young doctors of today.

Before adjourning, the members elected Dr. Sweet, Dr. Ogilby, Dr. Swan, Dr. Bissonnette and Dr. Kriebel honorary members in recognition of the support which they have given to the club.

AMHERST NINE SCORES 5-0 WIN OVER TRINITY

Thompson Limits Blue and Gold Batters to Three Singles in Rain

The Trinity nine suffered the second defeat of the season last Saturday at the hands of the men from Amherst. In a drizzling rain Thompson, Amherst pitcher, allowed only three scattered hits to shut out the Blue and Gold, while his teammates were running up a total of five runs.

Unable to get their eyes on the ball the Trinity batters could not keep pace with the visitors. Bill Henebry worked hard the whole course but pitched himself into trouble several times by walking the first man to face him. Amherst's first run came in the second inning. Henebry passed Ryer, the first man up. He went to second on a passed ball, to third as Carey was throwing out his teammate at first, and home on a wild pitch. In the fourth inning DeBevoise, first man to bat, walked. On fielder's choice he went to second, a wild pitch sent him to third and a single by Warner brought him home. Amherst's hitting was timely. In the sixth a triple by DeBevoise, followed by a double by Ryer, gave the Jeffmen their third run. In the seventh a well-executed bunting attack caught Trinity flat-footed and another man scored when Kearns made a wild throw to first. A triple by Harroun then drove in the fifth run.

Trinity garnered three scattered hits. Henebry singled in the third, Carey in the fifth, and Amport in the eighth. The Blue and Gold could not seem to break through the fine pitching of Thompson and never threatened. With few exceptions the local men went down one-two-three.

Amherst.		A	B	R	H	P	O	A	E
Fusco, 2b,		4	1	0	1	2	0
Teradash, 2b,		1	0	0	0	1	0
Harroun, 3b,		5	0	2	1	1	0
Chapman, rf,		1	0	0	0	0	0
DeBevoise, rf,		3	2	1	0	0	0
Ryer, cf,		4	1	1	2	0	0
Murphy, ss,		3	0	0	2	6	0
Brehn, 1b,		0	0	0	5	0	0
Warner, 1b,		4	0	1	11	0	1
Willoughby, lf,		0	0	0	0	0	0
Griffiths, lf,		2	0	1	1	0	0
Keedy, c,		4	1	1	4	0	0
Thompson, p,		3	0	0	0	4	0
Totals,		34	5	7	27	14	1
Trinity.		A	B	R	H	P	O	A	E
Eigenbauer, lf,		2	0	0	1	0	0
Fritzson, lf,		2	0	0	0	0	0
Kelly, ss,		4	0	0	1	0	0
Bell, rf,		4	0	0	1	0	0
Bockwinkel, 1b,		4	0	0	10	0	0
Armstrong, cf,		3	0	0	1	0
Kearns, 3b,		3	0	0	0	1
Carey, 2b,		3	0	1	3	4	0
Amport, c,		3	0	1	9	3	0
Henebry, p,		3	0	1	1	2	0
Totals,		31	0	3	27	10	1

Score by innings:
Amherst 0 1 0 1 0 1 2 0 0—5
Two-base hit, Griffiths; three-base hits, DeBevoise, Harroun; stolen bases, Warner, Carey; sacrifice, Thompson; left on bases, Amherst 7, Trinity 4; base on balls, off Henebry 4; struck out, by Thompson 4, by Henebry 9, hit by pitcher, by Henebry (Willoughby); wild pitches, Henebry 2; passed balls, Amport; umpire, Elliott; time of game, 2 hours.

CHAPEL NOTICE.

The speaker at the Wednesday morning chapel service, May 17, will be Rev. Worcester Perkins, of the Church of the Holy Communion in New York City. Mr. Perkins was in the Class of 1915 in Trinity but he left before he received his degree to complete his studies at Harvard.

On Sunday afternoon, May 21, Mr. Watters will play his monthly organ recital at 4 o'clock. At the Vesper Service following at 5 the Wesleyan Glee Club and the Trinity Glee Club will provide special music.

J. LYON & SON

Plumbing, Sheet Metal and Heating Contractors

20 Central Row, Hartford, Conn.

Phones 2-0868 and 2-7508

FOR MANY YEARS OUR COAL

has given warmth and comfort to old Trinity. We handle the finest grades of Coal produced.

THE NEWTON TUNNEL COAL COMPANY

Offices—3 ALBANY AVENUE. 218 PEARL STREET

Call 2-3060

PIANOS, RADIOS HOME MOVIES VICTOR RECORDS

WATKINS BROTHERS, Inc.

241 ASYLUM STREET.

LAVALETTE SODA SHOPPE

Luncheonette, Candies, Manchester Dairy Ice Cream

162 Washington St., Hartford

Open Evenings.

SLOSSBERG

Tailoring Parlor

The Well-Known Trinity Tailor

65 LINCOLN STREET.

Telephone 5-1436.

PROFESSIONAL BUILDING BARBER SHOP

Experienced and efficient barbers always at your service.

59 High Street at Allyn

For Snappy College Footwear

GOODMAN'S GOOD SHOES

320 ASYLUM STREET.

$3.85 to $8.85

Trinity Men Favor the HOTEL BOND BARBER SHOP

STEINMEYER'S HABERDASHERY

at

123 Pearl Street near Trumbull

COLLEGE SUPPLIES

DRAWING MATERIALS AND INSTRUMENTS.

FOUNTAIN PENS AND PENCILS. NOTE BOOKS, STATIONERY.

GUSTAVE FISCHER CO.

236 ASYLUM STREET.

GEORGE AND FAT

At your Service.

TRINITY SERVICE STATION

Broad and Vernon Streets

DEBATERS WIN PLAUDITS FOR RECENT SHOWING

Letters Bear Testimony to Success of Athenaeum in Radio Debut

Both the written and verbal verdicts of interested radio listeners gave the Athenaeum team a convincing margin over the Wesleyan Debating Society in the radio debate broadcast from WTIC., Wednesday night, April 26. Mr. Senf and Mr. Heinsen are to be congratulated upon their successful radio debut.

Only seven letters were received from the radio audience, but five of those gave the decision to Trinity. One letter came from New York, one from Massachusetts and the rest were from Connecticut. One was received from a Connecticut State College student who stated in no uncertain terms that Trinity was the winner and that the last speaker, Mr. Senf, had presented a stirring and forceful speech. The amount of radio mail, though small, reflects the general attitude of people who heard the debate. It is generally thought that Trinity presented a preponderance of evidence and that the affirmative side, having the burden of proof, was unable to advance any one overwhelming argument.

An indication of the preparation that went into this debate was evidenced in the manner in which both Mr. Senf and Mr. Heinsen anticipated and refuted all the arguments of the Wesleyan team. Wesleyan had debated the same question three times before, winning over Williams and Amherst, but even with this advantage they were unable to overthrow the Trinity arguments.

Because of the fact that the teams had only one half-hour on the air, there were only four speakers and no rebuttal. This meant that Trinity must present an overwhelming argument and at the same time refute all of Wesleyan's points.

There is a wide interest in radio debating and almost every letter stated that the writer looked forward to future meetings.

The recent international broadcast in which Columbia and Oxford carried or a formal debate was exceptionally well received. Newspapers in and around Hartford gave space to the Wesleyan-Trinity debate and the publicity ensuing from the radio discussion must certainly be heartening to both undergraduates and alumni.

Have you thought of making DENTISTRY YOUR LIFE WORK?

THE Harvard University Dental School offers a comprehensive course in this field of health service, which is becoming increasingly important in relation to medicine and public health.

A "Class A" school.

Write for catalog.

Leroy M. S. Miner, D.M.D., M.D., Dean, Dept. 1, 188 Longwood Ave., Boston, Mass.

Suits from Fashion Park

$30.00 and more.

Stackpole-Moore-Tryon Co.

115 ASYLUM STREET

CALENDAR

Saturday, May 13:

3 p. m.—Baseball: Second team vs. Kent at Hartford.

4 to 6 p. m.—Tea Dance in Cook Hall.

9 p. m.—Fraternity Dance in Cook Hall.

Sunday, May 14:

Services at 8, 11, and 5. The Rev. Bernard I. Bell of St. Stephens College will preach at the 11 o'clock service.

Monday, May 15:

New England Intercollegiate Tennis Tournament at Chestnut Hill, Massachusetts.

Tuesday, May 16:

5.15 p. m.—Special Vesper Service for Diocesan Convention.

Wednesday, May 17:

8.30 a. m.—Chapel Service. Rev. Worcester Perkins of New York will speak.

9.20 a. m.—Rabbi Feldman will speak to Freshmen on "Judaism."

Friday, May 19:

1 p. m.—Committee on award of McCook Trophy meets in German Room.

Saturday, May 20:

2.30 p. m.—Track: Tufts College at Tufts.

Sunday, May 21:

Services at 8, 11, and 5.

4 p. m.—Organ Recital by Mr. Watters.

5 p. m.—Vespers with Music by Wesleyan Glee Club and Trinity Choir.

TRACK TEAM PREPARED FOR INTERCOLLEGIATES

Nine Men of Squad to Travel to Worcester Tomorrow for Big Meet

Nine members of Trinity's track team will journey to Worcester tomorrow, May 13, to take part in the annual Eastern Intercollegiate Meet which is to be held on the Worcester Tech. field. The trials in the various events will be run off in the morning with the finals taking place in the afternoon. Coach Oosting's men are in good physical condition and hope to better the showing made by the Blue and Gold representatives at this meet last year. At that time Trinity garnered seven points.

The men making the trip are: Captain Swanson, Adams, Thayer, Kellam, Daut, Warner, Harris, Gladwin, and Alexander. Swanson was unable to run last year due to the fact that he was bothered by a bad cold, but he is ready to do his best in the half-mile this season. Adams, who also specializes in this event, will be his running mate. Thayer also kept from active competition last year since transfers were not allowed to participate in the meet, will represent Trinity in the javelin throw and sprints tomorrow. Kellam, although he is still feeling the effects of a bad cold, will be entered in the high and broad jumps. Daut, a point winner last year in three events, will run the high and low hurdles and will also take part in the broad jump. Warner will represent Trinity in the high and broad jumps and the discus throw, while Alexander will participate in the discus throw and the shot put. Harris will run the mile, Gladwin, the two-mile race.

Rhode Island State, the winner of last year's meet, is a favorite to repeat again this year. The nine colleges entered in the meet are: Worcester Tech., Rhode Island State, Massachusetts State, Connecticut State, Norwich, Tufts, Middlebury, Vermont, and Trinity.

SENIOR BALL PROGRAMME HOLDS CAMPUS INTEREST

(Continued from page 1.)

Athol, Mass. Chaperones: Mr. and Mrs. Norman L. Spelman, Hartford. From Delta Kappa Epsilon: Misses Jean Taillon, Lillian Osborn, and Dorothy Ericson, Hartford; Vivian Price, West Hartford; Helen Cooley, Wethersfield.

From Delta Phi: Misses Marion Johnson, Betty Boucher, and Mary Gilbertson, West Hartford; Geraldine Foley, Oxford School; Emma Hills, Plainville; Theda Dickerman, Plantsville; Claire Rew, New York City; Janet Goldmark, Greenwich. Chaperones: Mrs. Ronald C. Oxford, Port Chester, and Mrs. Laura Herrick, Hartford.

From Psi Upsilon: Misses Jean and Anne Whaples, Farmington; Corinne and Eleanor Beckwith, Smith College; Phyllis Piper, Alice Groht, Janet Lillie, Elizabeth Whately, and Dorothy Dunning, West Hartford; Virginia Stewart, Kingston, N. Y.; Marion Carmichel, Philadelphia; Jean Trumbull, Plainville; Jean Ferris, Glen Ridge, N. Y.; Mary Sinclair, Northfield Seminary. Chaperones: Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Towne, Elmhurst, L. I., and Mr. and Mrs. Kingsbury Dyke, Farmington.

From Sigma Nu: Mrs. Paul M. Christenson, Windsor; Misses Jeanne Kenyon and Kay Mulcahy, Hartford; Barbara Hinckley, La Salle Junior College; Margaret Wood, Philadelphia.

From St. Anthony Hall: Miss Elizabeth Motsinger, Winston-Salem, N. C.; Miss Margaret McGrath, Mt. Kisco, N. Y.; Miss Elizabeth French, Vassar College.

Patronesses of the Senior Ball are Mesdames Arthur Adams, Morse S. Allen, A. Everett Austin, Jr., Frank C. Babbitt, Archie Roy Bangs, Leroy C. Barret, Thomas S. Bissonnette, Joseph C. Clark, Haroutune M. Dandourian, Stanley L. Galpin, William C. Helmbold, Thurman L. Hood, Edward F. Humphrey, R. B. W. Hutt, Gustav A. Kleene, Roger H. Motten, Remsen B. Ogilby, Raymond Oosting, Henry A. Perkins, Charles E. Rogers, Charles J. Rohr, Odell Shepard, Sterling B. Smith, Horace C. Swan, Edward L. Troxell, and Arthur P. R. Wadlund.

The Dance Committee is composed of Edward S. Paige, Chairman, Herbert O. Bell, George H. Bockwinkel, John T. Campion, John P. Cotter, James M. Henderson, John P. Leo, J. Jack Sharkey, Charles M. Sheafe, and William W. Sisbower.

THE CASE, LOCKWOOD AND BRAINARD CO.

PRINTERS, BOOKBINDERS AND PAPER RULERS

85 Trumbull Street Hartford, Conn.

Complete Squash and Gym Equipment for Trinity Students At Special Prices.

Sport Radio Centre, Inc.

308 Asylum Street, Hartford, Conn. Hotel Bond Building.

THE PROMENADE BALLROOM BEAUTIFUL

1001 Main Street, Hartford

Presenting America's Finest Recording and Broadcasting Orchestras

Just Say: "Meet me at the Prom."

PATRONIZE LAWLER'S

(Incorporated)

50 CHURCH STREET

SODA FOUNTAIN AND LUNCHEONETTE

HOME-COOKED FOOD

CAPTAIN SANSOM'S AIR COLLEGE

PRIVATE PILOTS' COURSES

$198.00 Terms.

Highest Trained Instructors and most completely equipped Flying School in the State.

INTERSTATE AIRWAYS, Inc.

Brainard Field, Hartford, Ct.

Telephone 5-9110

THE W. G. SIMMONS CORP.

58 Pratt Street

SHOES AND HOSIERY OF DISTINCTION

LOWRY SINCLAIR, '36

17 NORTHAM TOWERS

P. O. POSTMA

Jeweler

WATCHES, DIAMONDS, CLOCKS, JEWELRY; REPAIRING.

19 Pearl Street, Hartford, Conn.

Once acquainted with this store, you will never regret it.

PLIMPTON'S

Stationers Engravers Printers

252 Pearl Street, at Ann

S. Z. TOBEY

TAILOR

EXCLUSIVELY for COLLEGE MEN

With a Reputation of 30 Years' Standing.

Cor. Washington and Vernon Sts.

Phone 6-1763.

The Atmosphere of Home ALLYN HOUSE BARBER SHOP

156 ASYLUM STREET.

Trinity Students Patronize THE DIXIE LUNCH

633 PARK ST. (Near Broad St.)

HOMELIKE ATMOSPHERE

Wholesome Food at Moderate Prices.

ALWAYS OPEN.

Service First HAMILL'S GARAGE

Day Phone 7-7666 Night Phone 2-2908

P. L. HAMILL, Proprietor.

CHRYSLER SPECIALIST.

General Repairing on All Makes of Cars.

2 WARD STREET, HARTFORD, CONN.

Near Washington Street.

ROBBINS RESTAURANT

Table d'hote Luncheon.....50 cents

Table d'hote Dinner.....$1.00

Schrafft's Selected Candies

Sodas and Robbins' Home-made Ice Cream

687 MAIN STREET, HARTFORD, CONN.

DECISION

Your family's later peace of mind and comfort may hinge on your decision regarding an Executor.

We offer Our Strength and Experience.

THE BANKERS TRUST COMPANY

FARMINGTON AVENUE AT ASYLUM PLACE

FOREIGN SERVICE

Coaching Course for United States Foreign Service

Candidates for State Department Examination September 17-27 now being enrolled. Course begins June 19. For particulars apply to

Harvey Institute

2129 Florida Avenue, N. W.,
Washington, D. C.
Telephone—North 1538

CAMPUS BARBER SHOP

Sanitary and satisfactory service guaranteed. Open Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday, 1 to 6 p. m.; Tuesday and Thursday, 3.30 to 6 p. m.; Saturday, May 13, from 1 to 9 p. m. Special appointments can be arranged.

HAIRCUT 30c

SHAVE 15c

BONCILLA FACIAL, 50c

JARVIS 42—SECOND FLOOR.
JOSEPH SARCIA, Proprietor.

THE HEUBLEIN HOTEL

A most Satisfying Hotel, catering to a Select Clientele.

Rates Reasonable.

CLIFFORD D. PERKINS, Prop.

THE COLLEGE STORE

THE PLACE OF ACCOMMODATION

M. W. SCHER, Proprietor

44 Vernon Street, Hartford, Conn.

THE HARTFORD MARKET

The Finest of all
Food Products

Cor. Main and Mulberry Streets

STUDENTS' LAUNDERING,
DRY CLEANING WORK

A SPECIALTY.

NEW ENGLAND LAUNDRY

Telephone 2-3153

203-225 HAWTHORN STREET

441-455 HOMESTEAD AVENUE

HUBERT'S DRUG STORE

213 ZION STREET.

"Over the Rocks."

PRESCRIPTIONS AND DRUGS.

The store where they cash your checks

Bryant & Chapman

SAFE MILK

PHONE 2-0264

THE ONLY
STATE APPROVED LABORATORY IN HARTFORD COUNTY

"SAY IT WITH FLOWERS"

Arranged by KEN MACKAY

332 ASYLUM STREET

Telephone 7-1157

They Satisfy

.. all you could ask for!

Just two words...

Yes, I have heard about two words; and now and then three words—but "They Satisfy" means "To gratify fully."

Why do these two words "they satisfy" fit Chesterfields? Because Chesterfield Cigarettes are milder. Because Chesterfield Cigarettes taste better.

Chesterfield's way of blending and cross-blending fine Turkish and Domestic tobaccos brings out better flavor and aroma.

They Satisfy!

Chesterfield

the cigarette that's Milder
the cigarette that Tastes Better

© 1933, LIGGETT & MYERS TOBACCO CO.

NOMINEES CHOSEN.

(Continued from page 3.)

or Charles A. Fritzson will represent Delta Phi in next year's Senate, while Charles O. Bierkan or James J. Albani is to be the Senator from Alpha Tau Kappa.

On Monday, May 8, the Neutral Body held a second meeting at which two more candidates were chosen, so that it will have two Senators, either Rex J. Howard or Warren F. Reuber, and either John R. Bose or Charles J. Sutherland.

At the same time the Secretary of the Athletic Association will be chosen from among three Sophomore candidates, William J. Angus, John S. McCook, and Territt H. Mowbray.

Rex J. Howard, Charles T. Kingston and Harold R. Bayley are the three nominees for the office of College Marshal, which will also be filled at this election.

INTRAMURAL TENNIS TOURNAMENT STARTS

Alpha Chi Rho, Alpha Delta Phi and Alpha Tau Kappa Score First Round Wins

The Intramural Tennis Tournament got under way recently, despite inclement weather, with three of the fraternity teams surviving the first round. Alpha Chi Rho opened the competition by pinning a 4-1 defeat on Delta Phi and Alpha Tau Kappa also won its initial start with a 3-2 victory over Delta Kappa Epsilon. Alpha Delta Phi was the other winner in a 3-2 triumph over the Sigma Nu netmen.

The Alpha Chi Rho men had little trouble with Delta Phi in the singles. Jackson defeated Flaherty and Leo defeated R. Lau; in the doubles, Schramm and S. E. Smith won from P. Adams and Brezina, and Johnson and Butler upset Crawford and Dunn in the only close match. L. Lau won over Burfeindt for the sole Delta Phi triumph.

Winners for Alpha Delta Phi were Craig, who defeated Day, and the doubles teams of A. H. Onderdonk and Baldwin, and Haring and Littell. Sigma Nu won two singles matches when Slater upset Purdon, and Ellsworth turned back L. Wadlow.

Delta Kappa Epsilon won two doubles matches by default, but weakness in the singles caused their defeat as McVane, Cotter, and McCurdy all won for Alpha Tau Kappa. Ferris, Coles, and Armstrong played for Delta Kappa Epsilon.

SEE OUR DISPLAY AT THE UNION EVERY MONTH
MAX PRESS, INC.

Tailors, Clothiers, Haberdashers
Middletown: Hartford Office:
205 Main Street Bond Hotel

FLY

WITH

Flying Instruction. Long and Short Distance Flights.

Flights — $1.00 and up
Flying Instruction—$5.00 and up

Hartford's Oldest Pilot in Line of Service.

Call—5-9354