JESTERS PUSH RIGOROUS PRACTICE SCHEDULE FOR DECEMBER PRODUCTION

FESTIVITIES PLANNED

Faculty Members Plan Parties To Add To Enjoyment Of Melodrama

Friday, October 27 - Completing the first week of rehearsals, the Jesters are preparing at top speed for the presentation of "Silas the Chore Boy" on Friday, December 15.

Since Mr. Wendell, the faculty adviser of the Jesters, is unable to direct the play, they are experimenting with a student director, Mark Rainsford, '41, who has had considerable experience in dramatics with summer theatres. He will be assisted and guided by Mr. Wendell.

The auditorium of the West Middle School, which is to be used for the play, is a modern theatre, with carefully planned acoustics including a soundproofed ceiling, lighting facilities which include foot and first bar lights, and a projection room so that spotlights may be used. The chief fault of the auditorium from the Jesters' viewpoint, is its limited seating capacity of only five hundred.

The problem of seating capacity will be relieved by the contemplated increase in the number of reserved seats, with a special price of one dollar to students for the regular dollar twenty-five tickets. There will also be the general admission seats at seventy-five cents, with a student rate of fifty cents.

Several members of the faculty are planning to give dinner parties before the show, to assist in the festivities, and it is to be suggested to the various fraternity houses that they plan parties for before and after the play.

OOSTINGMEN TO MEET POWERFUL CARDINALS

Hilltop Harriers Depending On Caffrey And Rosen To Win Vital Wesleyan Meet

Fresh from their convincing victory over a strong Coast Guard Academy outfit, Coach Ray Oosting's charges will meet the Red and Black Wesleyan harriers this Friday. The meet will be held at Middletown on the rugged three and a half mile Wesleyan course.

Class held last Tuesday, October 24, Edward O'Malley of Manchester was elected president. George Jones, IV, of New Haven, and Chester Ward of Spartansburg, South Carolina, were elected Vice-President and Secretary-Treasurer, respectively.

O'Malley is pledged to the Alpha Delta Phi fraternity, Jones to St. Anthony Hall, and Ward to Delta Kappa Epsilon.

CHANGES ANNOUNCED BY "TRINITY REVIEW" BOARD

Price Reduced; Board Predicts Improvements In Future Issues Of Magazine

Friday, October 27-Several changes concerning the policy and publication of the forthcoming issues of "The Trinity Review" were decided upon by the board of editors in the first official meeting of the college literary society this evening. A marked reduction in price was agreed upon, setting the cost at seventy cents for the two with last year's price of one dollar. Richard Morris, '40, Editor-in-Chief, like to offer his thanks to the generous supporters of last year whose contributions, both literary and financial. had made possible the establishment the works of the Lord and try to unof a magazine which the board of editors would strive in every way to maintain on a standard compatible with the demands of student literary expression. "It is only through the sincere interest of the subscribers and contributors that such an organ of expression can even attempt to exist. Many helpful suggestions have been nation via artists and poets." given concerning the general nature of the materials of the magazine," said Morris.

In accordance with these suggestions, Morris announced on behalf of the Board that "The Trinity Review," though shying from any sort of a policy which could be interpreted as mas, all make it a great hardship to an attitude of journalism, would contain material acceptable to the student body as a whole. A greater variety of articles would be a major aim. Short stories, essays and poems will be of a more readable nature and the tone of these will be directed for the purpose of entertainment as well as of intellectual constructiveness.

NOTED POET STRESSES LIFE OF INNER WORLD AT WEDNESDAY CHAPEL

REVEALS CURRENT NEED

Development Of Contemplation Distracted By Newspaper, Radio, And Theatre

Wednesday, October 25-The speaker in Chapel this morning was Padraic Colum, famed poet and dramatist. Mr. Colum, a small, insignificant-appearing man, speaking on 'Something of the Attitude of an Intellectual in the Face of Events in Europe," had a stimulating message for his large audience.

Mr. Colum prefaced his address with several comments upon the physical beauty of the Chapel, and the literary beauty of the Lesson for the day, read from the Bible by Professor Odell Shepard. By way of introducing his theme, Mr. Colum said:

"You are fortunate in being able to come into a place such as this to listen to the poetry of the Bible. I say this with conviction. You belong to a country that has a tradition for action, and the will to achieve by acissues during the year, as compared tion. In order to carry out that program, however, you should know something besides the world of acof the "Review" said that he would tion: you should have the opportunity of entering into that inner worlddeep within yourselves- the world of meditation. You should regard derstand the works of His hands. Your lives will be barren and bare, empty and unhappy, otherwise. You must know something of the wonder and beauty of the world. The best way to learn appreciation of these is from a religious point of view, but you can do it too, through the imagi-

> The speaker continued, "If your inner life wears thin you have lost the great thing in life. This is an exceedingly bad time for those who want to have an inner life. Everything seems to be organized to distract us. Newspapers, radios, cinedevelop this inner self. So I advise

Cleveland Defeats Hagedorn In Final Match Of Tourney

Horace G. Cleveland won the Fall Tennis Tournament last week by beating Maxwell E. Hagedorn in the finals last Thursday. Never seriously challenged throughout the rounds of play, Cleveland was almost an odds on favorite to succeed Ben Rohowsky, last year's captain of the varsity, as holder of the cup.

FORDHAM MAN WILL TALK ON BUSINESS AS CAREER

Sidney W. Edlund Will Discuss Formation Of Man-Marketing Clinic On November 2

On Thursday, November 2, Mr. Sidney W. Edlund will visit Trinity College in order to discuss the formation of a Man Marketing Clinic. Having run such a clinic at Fordham University last year, Mr. Edlund is convinced that there is greater need for the teaching of planning for a satisfactory living and is eager to put this idea before business men of Hartford and students of Trinity College.

Through the coöperation of Mr. E. K. Roberts, Jr., '09, Mr. Edlund will have dinner at the College with a few members of the Faculty and a few members of the Senior Class. Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors who are interested in entering, a business career after graduation are invited to only just begun. I submit herewith come to the Lounge at 7.30 p.m., November 2, to hear Mr. Edlund. After speaking twenty minutes or so,

Mr. Edlund will hold a general discussion with those students who wish to stay on and ask questions. Since this is the first effort of the year to arrange for a wise selection of jobs after graduation, full coöperation of men who plan a business career is expected.

Shrinkage Of Invested Funds Given As Reason For Large Deficit

DOOLITTLE ADVANCED

Promoted To Assistant Professor Of Physics; New Building Projects Discussed

Saturday, October 28-The stated fall meetings of the Board of Trustees was held in the Chemistry Auditorium this morning. Members present were President Remsen B. Ogilby, the Hon. Joseph Buffington, William Gwinn Mather, Charles G. Woodward, Samuel Ferguson, General James G. Harbord, the Hon. Philip J. McCook, James L. Goodwin, Martin W. Clement, Lawson Purdy, Richardson Wright, George S. Stevenson, Lyman B. Brainerd, Bern Budd, Charles F. Weed, Dr. Jerome P. Webster.

The customary reports were presented and accepted, including the reports of the President, the Dean, the Librarian, and the Treasurer in printed form. The Treasurer's report showed that the fiscal year 1938-39 closed on June 30 with a deficit of $5,750.58. This was due, in large part, to a shrinkage in expectations rom invested funds.

In his report the President presented a program for the development of Trinity College-1920-1940. Of it he says, "Allow me the privilege of going back to my arrival on the Trinity Campus 19 years ago. At that time the physical conditions of our plant cried aloud for attention. Something has been done to meet our need, and yet I have a feeling that we have a building program which crystallizes

Blue And Gold Squad Slated As Favorites Against Mediocre New York Eleven

On Saturday, November 4, the varsity football squad will travel to Rochester, New York, to engage the OnWestern Front As War Correspondent University of Rochester on their gridiron. This is the first time in several years that Trinity has played Rochester in football. Up to this time Rochester has compiled a none-too-impressive record. far this season. In the first game of the season they lost 12-0 to Oberlin College of Ohio. In the next three successive games they lost by scores of 26-6 to R. P. I., 32-0 to Amherst, and 7-6 to Hamilton. This record does not tell the real story, however. The Rochester team has been dogged by hard luck all season. They have lost several members of their starting lineup by injuries. Several more of the first-string squad have been declared ineligible due to scholastic difficulties. Rochester uses the Minnesota system of attack, which is profitably employed by many of the leading elevens throughout the country. Pete to the air at the slightest provocation. After two weeks of rest, the Trin-(Continued on page 3.)

The Blue and Gold squad will be out for its third straight win and it will take more than a little Weslevan pressure to make the visitors return home with long faces. The only defeat to date marring a potentially perfect record is that suffered at the hands of Worcester Tech. According to Ray Oosting, the boys have been working exceptionally hard and will be in excellent shape by the time of the Weslevan encounter.

The Red and Black team is also a very strong outfit and, judging from previous performances, must be rated on a level with Trinity. Captain Guernsey has shown up well and, coupled with Holmes, another sophomore of fine repute, will be hard to beat. Steward and Spadone must also be considered, both having accumulated a neat sum of points in earlier meets.

Trinity hopes will again be pinned on the able legs of Jim Caffrey, who has already one first place, a tie for

THE CASE OF THE MISSING "IVY"

The delay in the appearance of the 1940 Ivy has overstepped the extent of patience which can be endured even by the college body. The leniency of the students until the present time in regard to the yearbook's failure to appear has been evident in their casual or jesting references to its plight. Are we expected, however, to continue in this fashion until the 1940 Ivy becomes just another lost episode in the history of Trinity College? Are we to risk the danger of the extinction of our college yearbook-one of the few enterprises which has survived the vicissitudes of time and to use it for that moment. since the early days of Trinity's history, by letting the non-appearance of last year's volume go by without a murmur?

We hesitate to place the blame for the Ivy's lateness on anyone in particular, but feel that the time has come for the Senate to make a thorough investigation of the matter, placing the blame where it is due, and recovering the students' money invested in this project if there is to be no yearbook.

The only tangible statement that we have from the Ivy Board on this subject is a communication which was printed last May in which the yearbook editor undertook "to explain to the student body the reason for the lateness of the 1940 Ivy." In this communication he also stated that "it will probably be after the tenth of June before the book will be distributed." The student body was somewhat stunned over this announcement, but consistent with its usual leniency or indifference over matters directly concerning its interest, neither its members nor its representative body-the Senate-took action. Earlier this month a communication appearing in this paper requested a definite statement on the matter either from the editor or some responsible person. But to date no answer or explanation has been forthcoming.

It seems to us, therefore, that immediate action should be taken being. It's one thing you'll always upon this disgraceful situation by the Senate in its capacity as the have. # SPORT SIDELIGHTS

If comparative scores mean anything, there are some interesting results from Saturday's games which may attract the attention of Trinity fans. The most important game from Trinity's present standpoint was the Amherst-Wesleyan game. These two teams provide the heaviest barriers to an undefeated football season for the Blue and Gold of Trinity. Wesleyan provided somewhat of an upset in defeating the pre-game favorites. At the beginning of the season the so-called experts picked Amherst as the "Little Three" title winner. That was Amherst's first defeat of the season. Wesleyan has lost only to Bowdoin by the none too impressive score of 19-0.

Amherst lost most of their first string backs by graduation last June. Wesleyan on the other hand has about the same setup as Trinity. Both Jack Blott's Cardinals and Dan Jessee's Hilltoppers are well supplied with sophomore material. It looks as though the last two games on Trinity's schedule are going to be a tossup.

Union continued their undefeated string at the expense of R. P. I. by the score of 26-6. Trinity nosed out R. P. I. 26-19 and fought Union to a 7-7 deadlock, which all goes to show comparative scores don't mean a thing. Worcester Tech lost their second game of the season to Massachusetts State 7-0. Rochester, Trinity's opponent next Saturday, lost a close game to Hamilton College 7-6. This ended a nine-game Hamilton losing streak. Hobart, whom Trinity defeated 13-0 two weeks ago, lost another to Kent State 8-0.

Flashes from Other Fronts - Ray Ferguson seems to be holding the soccer team together with their consistently good defensive play. Ray Oosting can be justly proud of a Cross-Country team which has lost only one meet this year when Worcester Tech defeated the Oostingmen State attack at Trinity's goal also by two points in the first meet of the season. Why don't those who are interested in starting a wrestling team do something about it?

Up until last Saturday's games, Hobart was the only team that Trinity has faced which had lost to any other opponent than Trinity. Hobart had lost to a strong Norwich team in one of their earlier games. Union is still keeping pace with Trinity in having only one deadlock to blotch their record.

The weather on the day in which the Trinity Frosh booters broke into the winning column against Morse was conducive more to ducks than to soccer players. Most of the boys spent their time trying to keep their feet on the ground and there was enough sliding to make a baseball umpire feel at home. Towards the last half of the encounter the game took on the aspects of a night game without the flood lights. The only concession that

YALE AND MASS. STATE DEFEAT TRIN BOOTERS

Blue And Gold Offense Stalls As Elis And Bay Staters Blank Hilltoppers

The Trinity soccer team dropped its third and fourth games of the season by losing to Yale last Tuesday by the score of 9-0 and to Massachusetts State, Saturday, by the score of 2-0.

In the Yale game the Blue and Gold booters were hopelessly outclassed by the experienced and greatly superior Yale team. Except for an attempted score which sailed over the Yale goalposts, the Hilltoppers were kept busy defending their own goal for nearly the whole of the first quarter. The Yale team kept hammering at the Trinity goal, scoring five times in the first period, when Carrington and Erickson each kicked the ball through twice, while Gaines tallied once.

The Yale team scored twice in the second quarter on kicks by Stevens and Erickson. The Blue and Gold eleven rallied toward the end of this period and unsuccessfully attacked the Yale goal several times.

The Hilltoppers were again driven back by their opponents in the third quarter, and both Carrington and Erickson scored.

The fourth quarter was the best one for the Hilltoppers. They kept the ball in the Yale half of the field most of the time and made several attempts at their opponents' goal. But they failed to tally and the game ended with Trinity on the short end of a 9-0 score.

In the Massachusetts State game the Trinity team attacked their opponents' goal several times but failed shift of the forward five Coach Mcto score. Massachusetts State retaliated with several unsuccessful attempts to score at the Trinity end of the field. The second quarter saw the first Massachusetts State tally when Mallanev scored early in the period. The Hilltoppers rallied and invaded the Massachusetts State half, but failed to score. A Massachusetts failed.

The two teams battled without scoring in the third quarter, but in the fourth period the Massachusetts State booters penetrated the Trinity defense and Schoonmaker scored. The game ended with the Hilltoppers losing by the score of 2-0.

was made to the elements was the introduction of a bright yellow ball with which the freshmen promptly scored two goals.

While on the subject of soccer an observant spectator at this week's varsity game might have noticed that there was a different goalie in the nets. We have it on reliable information that the former crop of netminders had a nervous breakdown en masse after the nine-goal deluge which occurred at New Haven last week.

physical condition for next Saturday's game. Bill Ryan, star passer and runner for Trinity, is expected to show his true form against the New Yorkers. Ryan was not even in uniform for the Hobart game. Walt Mugford, who suffered an injured leg in the Hobart game, is also expected to be on the firing line against the Rochester team. The rest of the squad is in good shape.

TRINITY SOCCER TEAM TO MEET COAST GUARD HERE

Revamped Team Seeks Season's First Win; Coach McCloud Shifts First Line

On Saturday the Trinity soccer team will meet the Coast Guard booters on the Blue and Gold field at 2 p. m. Little is known about the boys from New London, but it is believed that they are having only fair success in the already fading season.

Coach McCloud is doing his best to oring a scoring punch into the forward line. In the game with Massachusetts State, he shifted Insley from left half to inside right, and then as the game progressed he pushed Captain Ferguson into the forward wall. The team is sorely in need of a man who can boot the sphere between the goal posts, but such a person has yet to be discovered wearing the Blue and Gold uniform. In this sudden Cloud has pushed Roberts into left wing with Bestor shifting over to inside right and Burrage taking care of the center forward position. In the clash with Coast Guard either Ferguson or Insley will try their hand at left inside with Williamson at left wing being pushed hard by Carpenter, a newcomer to the game this year. In the defense position Dunn has been moved over to take center half, Insley will be covering his old territory of left half, and Cannon will be in at right half. Johnson and Tyler will be in their fullback positions as usual. Jack Crockett, a newcomer to the game this week, seems to have caught on to the tricks of a goalie and will be in there doing his best to keep the ball on the outside of the net.

Coach McCloud believes that the team has lost none of its spirit in absorbing four defeats in a row this year and guarantees that it will be out doing its very best on Saturday.

Star Oosting Quintet Registers Second Win Of Season By 23-32 Score

Friday, October 27-Featuring the same quintet of Caffrey, Rosen, Smellie, Charles, and Riley, which romped nome in successive order in last week's triumph over Springfield, Ray Oosting's cross-country speedsters chalked up their second win of the season this afternoon by a 23-32 score, capturing places one, two, five, seven, and eight from a strong Coast Guard Academy Corps. Moreover this success marked a Trinity revenge for the defeat imposed by the cadet runners last year.

Veteran Jim Caffrey, pace-setter of the Trinity forces, coasted to the finish first in 17.41:4 speed, 150 feet ahead of sophomore ace Rosen. Rosen. in turn, claimed second place by the same margin. Seconds later, a stiff battle for fourth spot ensued as Smellie reached the campus green with a 100 yards to go, trailing Cadet McGary by 20 yards. Smellie burst out with all he had left, closing the gap with every leap, and had there been five yards more to go, he would have passed his foe. But just as the sprint ended. Captain Charles and Riley dashed in, hand-in-hand to grab the victory with three seamen in their wake.

At the beginning of the race, it appeared as though the whole Trinity squad was shooting for first place as they all kept pace with Caffrey. Captain Charles and Riley came up fast to offset a loss at the one and one-half mark where two guardsmen sneaked into third place, by passing into seventh and eighth places, respectively.

From then on the Blue and Gold agents put on the pressure. As the race turned the bend at the two and one-half-mile post, Smellie, Charles, and Riley were together in fifth, sixth, and seventh spots, with Caffrey and Rosen leading and victory almost certain.

The runners finished in the following order: Caffrey, T; Rosen, T; W. Rea, C; McGary, C; Smellie, T; Banner, C; Charles, T; Riley, T; J. Rea, C; Wright, C; Crouch, C; Bennett, T; Horn, C; Elrick, T.

The Blue and Gold continued to carry the play and succeeded in marking up another tally early in the second quarter to give the home team what seemed to be a commanding lead. While the Trinity booters suffered a temporary offensive let-down, however, Morse launched an offensive drive that finally culminated in a score when Sady, center forward, punched the ball in. The score at the half was 2-1.

The third period began with Trinity determined to augment their lead. Despite this ambition the Trinity freshmen were unable to accomplish another marker. The last quarter commenced with the Blue and Gold deciding to play a defensive game first, and a second to his credit; and Rosen, sophomore flash, who has likewise placed well in all former meets. Smellie and Captain Charles have proven themselves to be dangerous men in any race and the Cardinal runners will do well to watch them. Riley, Bennett and Elrich are coming along fast and are counted on to wind up well among the leaders. There is a slight possibility that Herb Pankratz will run on Friday, which raises Trinity hopes high.

Ray Oosting believes that the probable deciding factor will be the holder of the first and second positions. If the entire distance with Dave Tyler the Hilltoppers are able to nab these honors, the meet will more than likely be Trinity's; on the other hand, if Caffrey and Rosen fail to come home, one, two or vice versa, the chances for a win will be slim indeed.

The freshman team will also make the trip to Middletown where they will clash with the Cardinal freshmen. Their course covers only two and a half miles as compared to the three and half mile jaunt the varsity must complete. Dave Tyler and Cap Flynn are the freshman standouts.

FROSH HARRIERS LOSE TO BRISTOL HIGH MEN Thursday, October 26-The Blue and Gold freshman runners suffered their second setback of the season at the hands of a Bristol High School array by a 32-23 score, over the two and one-half mile Trinity course this afternoon.

The competition was keen throughout, and it was only in the sprint from Vernon Street that Hooper, the fifth Bristol runner, edged out two Trinity men to clinch the meet. The top speed of 13:59 was fielded by Elgert of Bristol who led the pack of Trinity hot on his trail. Bill Flynn, Tyler's running mate for two miles, finished fourth.

At the half-mile mark on Zion Street, three Bristol runners and Tyler were setting the pace as Flynn and Vignone, both Oostingmen, crept up fast, catching Tyler at the first milestone. These three were matching stride with stride in third, fourth, and fifth notches and from that point on, the gaps between the runners began to lengthen. As the one and one-half mile post was passed, Tyler and Flynn snatched number two and three berths, respectively.

Ray Oosting's charges showed a marked improvement over the previous week as they placed second,
