

Kaufman-Hart Farce Stars Wollenberger

By STEVE TUDOR

Tomorrow night the Jesters will do their first performance of "The Man Who Came To Dinner," a comedy in three acts by Moss Hart and George S. Kaufman, exactly 13 years, six months, and two weeks from its opening in 1939 on Broadway.

Curtain time tomorrow night will be 8:30 and on the remaining nights, Friday—8:00, Monday and Tuesday—8:30. Professor George Nichols, the director of the Jesters, is shortening the intermission on Friday so that the production will be over by ten-thirty. General admission is one dollar or a student activity card.

Those acting in the leads of the 35 character cast are Trinitymen Joseph Wollenberger, John Mazzarella, David Kennedy, Bill Dobrovir, Mike Schneeborg, Clay Stephens, and Sheldon Berlow. Non-Trinity actors are Joy Ericson, Joy Illig, Janet Karny, Martha Williams, and Ann Morris.

Keeping the show on the road behind the scenery will be stage manager Patterson Keller; stage-hands Oliver Putnam, Peter Turner, Robert Thomas, and Raymond Leonard; lighting-technicians Jack Isselhardt, and John McIver.

Nearly 200 "Props" Used

"A Man Who Came To Dinner" is one of the most complex plays ever produced by the Jesters. Nearly 200 "props" are employed. Trinity faculty wives donated many of these and have the whole-hearted thanks of the cast. In the intricacy of the performance's rapid maneuvers two of the characters each make 26 entrances. The large cast has required hard work for co-ordination of the Jesters who have been practicing since before spring vacation.

Kaufman and Hart's play is characterized by constant banter among the actors, with few long speeches. The plot is a simple one revolving around Sheridan Whiteside, a world promi-

Tau Alpha Becomes Pi KA; Chartering on Saturday

By JOHN BERSETH

This weekend a long-hoped-for dream will be consummated when the undergraduate chapter of Tau Alpha becomes initiated into the national fraternity of Pi Kappa Alpha.

Friday night, visiting initiation teams from nearby PiKA chapters will bring the individual brothers into the fraternity. Saturday afternoon, there will be a chapter chartering ceremony, and Tau Alpha will officially become Epsilon Alpha of Pi Kappa Alpha. The festivities will end Saturday night with a formal banquet in Hamlin.

Attending this dinner along with the new PiKaps and their week-end dates will be President Jacobs, Deans Clarke and Hughes, Professors Candellet and Risdon, who have been advisers to the group during its formative stages, and the presidents of the other fraternities—all representing the Trinity community. The national fraternity will send many representatives to the ceremonies, including Harvey Newell, National President; Jess Van Law, District President; John Horton, Field Secretary who has worked with the group from the beginning of their interest in PiKA, and several other dignitaries. Tau Alpha alumni who will attend include George Malcolm-Smith, '25, from the original founding group, and Tom Ferguson, '51, present head of Tau Alpha Alumni.

Pi Kappa Alpha is a national fraternity founded at the University of

Quarterback Logan Made Senate Prexy

James P. Logan, a member of Alpha Chi Rho and the varsity football quarterback, was elected president of the 1953-54 College Senate Monday night. Jim Leigh, off-campus neutral, was elected secretary and John Bloodgood, on-campus neutral, gained the position of secretary.

The new officers replaced Ex-President Ray Parrott, and Gordon Clem and Joe Wollenberger, former secretary and treasurer, respectively. The old Senate members will attend their annual dinner at Cooke's Tavern in Plainville, Conn.

The other newly elected senate members who chose the new officers are Charles Van Lanen of Alpha Delta Phi, Dave Fisher of Alpha Theta, Robert Taft of Brownell Club, Edward Jager of Delta Phi, Charlie Bowen of Delta Psi, William Conner of Delta Kappa Epsilon, Ralph Tomkins of Psi Upsilon, George Pike of Tau Alpha, Russell Ainsworth of Theta Xi, and Peter Carlough of Sigma Nu.

Student Artists Exhibit At Annual Collegiate Show

Students have submitted original art work to the ninth annual New England College Art Exhibition at the Springfield Art Museum, which began April 12 and will continue through May 3.

Those submitting oils, water colors, temperas, and sculpture were: Clayton S. Bradford, Winthrop W. Faulkner, Glen N. Gordon, Jr., Benjamin Martin, Stanley R. McCandless, and Wayne A. Schoyer.

Students from American International, Amherst, Bennington, Connecticut College, Dartmouth, Goddard, Middlebury, Mt. Holyoke, Smith, Springfield College, the Universities of Connecticut, Massachusetts, and Vermont, Wesleyan, and Williams are also submitting entries.

JONI JAMES, SEXY SONGSTRESS, TURNS DOWN SENIOR BALL BID

Popular singer Joni James was the featured star at the State Theater this weekend so we wandered over to see if she would be our date at the Senior Ball. Miss James, a dark, attractive 5'10" posed for several photographs and gave us a short sketch of her road to popularity.

Born Joanna Carmella Babbo, 22 years ago in Chicago, she attributes her success mainly to luck. The daughter of an Italian immigrant, who died when she was four, along with three brothers and sisters, was encouraged by her mother to take part in the musical activities at Bowen High School in Chicago. Upon graduating from High School she decided to study ballet seriously and with a companion, Diana Dennis, who is now her personal secretary (and whom we eyed appreciatively), began working in a bakery to finance her ballet lessons. In 1948 her dancing career was interrupted by an attack of appendicitis. At this time she had the opportunity to augment a bakery income by singing in a few small night-spots around her home town. As her repertoire and popularity expanded, more and bigger chances came along. After a few television auditions and unsuccessful recordings, Miss James finally came up with "Why Don't You Believe Me," which as many know, made her famous almost overnight. WRTC lists her at the top of its request programs.

We learned that all this sudden popularity and wealth has opened diverse opportunities for Miss James and company. After a few more engagements in this country the troupe will go to London for a booking at the Paladium and then to Hollywood for a movie. We asked Miss James how she felt about her sudden rush to the top. "Well, it's sort of like Cinderella, you know," she said. "Eleven years in ballet without a singing lesson and . . . well . . . here I

Senior Weekend Will Feature Parties, Girls

Claude Thornhill and Band To Play Hartford Club Ball

By MORT SCHECTMAN

The College will withstand the greatest invasion of women this year when over 350 lovelies arrive Friday afternoon for the beginning of Senior Ball Week End. From the conclusion of classes Friday until late Sunday afternoon the final social spree of the college year will be activity-laden. Claude Thornhill and his band will play at the big dance.

Festivities will commence Friday with cocktail parties and dinners at most of the houses. According to President William Godfrey of the Interfraternity Council parties commencing at 9:00 P.M. will continue until 2:00 A.M. with bars closing at 1:00 A.M.

Houses Feature Bands

The "Crow" house will be entertained by a combo, the "Pipes," and a special group under the direction of Peter Sivaslian. Pat Burd and his band will play for the Brownell Club. Morris Watstein and his orchestra will be at Theta Xi, while his other groups play for Psi Upsilon and St. Anthony's. At 7:00 P.M. Tau Alpha will be initiated into the national fraternity Pi Kappa Alpha at Boardman Hall. Later they will hold a house party and dance.

Delta Kappa Epsilon's steak roast will precede a house party. Delta Phi's guests will dance to the music of Bob Halprin. Alpha Delta Phi and Alpha Theta are planning parties. The "Jets" will entertain at Sigma Nu on Friday night.

At 7:30 P.M. Friday evening the Jesters' final performance of the

A. Tildesley Named Senior Class Agent

John F. Butler, Executive Secretary of the Trinity Alumni Fund, announced last week that Arthur Tildesley had been appointed Class Agent by the Executive Committee of the Alumni Association.

Tildesley, a former Senator, member of the Medusa, class officer, and member of Psi Upsilon, will act as chief coordinator for the class agent committee. The committee contacts class members each year to solicit money for the alumni funds.

The following men were appointed to serve on the committee: Donald Burns, Davis Dean, Umberto Del Mastro, Winthrop Faulkner, Bruce Fox, Benjamin Jones, John Larson, William Lauffer, G. Phillip Lecrenier, William Miller, Frederic Parsons, Richard Roback, Elliott Valentine, William Whitelaw, Peter Winslow, and Joseph Wollenberger.

All of the committee members met with Mr. Butler for dinner last week, where he described the job of a class agent to them.

Ed Jager Atheneum Head; Debaters Beat Bowdoin

Edward Jager, recently elected Senator from Delta Phi, was named president of the Atheneum Thursday at the society's elections. Roger Harmon was named Corresponding Secretary; Joseph Kelly, Recording Secretary; Keith Black, Business Manager; and Richard Wainman, Publicity Chairman.

Monday night, two teams, one negative and one affirmative, defeated Bowdoin in a debate on the F.E.P.C. On the victorious affirmative were Ed Jager and Roger Harmon while Ellard Hulbert and Allan Martin took the negative.

Judges for the contest were Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Morse and Professor Robert F. Kingsbury. The club held a business meeting yesterday in the Atheneum Lounge.

Nash Reads Poems To Capacity Crowd

Ogden Nash, America's bard of light verse, described himself as a picture of "decrepitude and dishevelment" as he stood before an overflow crowd in the Chemistry Auditorium Thursday night. "I have just recently recovered from the chicken pox," he explained, "which I somehow overlooked in my childhood, but what particularly worries me now is the fact that as a child I only had 'the mumps'."

He continued with a few laugh-provoking comments on the predicaments of a man who has reached middle age and then establishes himself by making it clear that he is not the author of the poem "men don't make passes at girls who wear glasses," which was written by Dorothy Parker, but the "candy is dandy but liquor is quicker" man.

Reads Poems

In the course of the lecture he included readings of a number of his poems among which were "Peek-a-boo, I Almost See You," a satire on the glasses modern men wears and "So Pensive," which was written on a day he could only describe as "grim." Inspired by the discords of his children at early-morning piano practices he wrote "Piano Tuner, Please Untune Me That Tune" which he also read.

Author of Many Volumes

Mr. Nash is the author of many volumes of poetry as well as the book of the smash-hit musical "One Touch of Venus," which he wrote with S. J. Perelman. His poetical works include "The Face is Familiar," "Ver-sus," "Good Intentions," "Family Reunion," and recently, "Parents Keep Out."

The poet has been very productive over the 22 years that he lent his talent to the art. His works have appeared regularly in the New Yorker, on which he once held for 90 days (due to an uncompromising editor, he says) the position of Managing Editor. He has also been a bond salesman (quite unsuccessfully) and an employee of Doubleday Publishing Co.

Tau Alpha

Virginia in 1868. Since then it has had a slow-but-sure growth South, West, and more recently North, until it has reached its present strength of over one hundred chapters.

Chapters of the fraternity in this area include New Hampshire, R.P.I., Rutgers, Cornell, and Syracuse. The fraternity is among the top ten in all of the comparative groupings put out by the National InterFraternity Conference. The PiKAP alumni roles number such men as Senators Morse and Sparkman, band leader Johnny Long, and sportsman "Happy" Chandler.

Tau Alpha was founded in the spring of 1948 as the result of a coalition between the alumni of Alpha Tau Kappa and Phi Gamma Delta, two fraternities which once had chapters on the campus. Since its inception, the group has purchased and redecorated a house, gained many new brothers, and in general has prepared itself for ultimate initiation into a national fraternity. The brothers decided this winter by unanimous vote to petition Pi Kappa Alpha for membership. Since then the chapter has prepared a printed petition to send to all other PiKA chapters and also has had many visits and inspection tours from national officers and brothers in undergraduate chapters in the vicinity.

College Honored at Rotary Club Luncheon for Services To City; Wollenberger M.C.

Joe Wollenberger, '53, was the master of ceremonies Monday at a Rotary Club luncheon program. The services which the College and its organizations render to the City of Hartford was the theme of the program.

Both Dean Arthur H. Hughes and Public Relations Director Robert M. Bishop were present as representatives of the administration, while a number of students were on hand as representatives of the student body.

David Dean of Delta Phi explained how his fraternity raised money for Mom Bazinet and her social work. Odie Cresse, Sigma Nu program, explained the Sigma Nu's policy of aiding underprivileged children. Carl Heller and Kingston Howard explained the results of the Theta Xi Sweetheart Ball which raised over $1300 for the Heart Fund. The recent blood drive sponsored by DKE was explained by Dick Lyford, as representative of his house.

Former senate president Raymond Parrott also was on hand to represent the student body. Wesley Eustis, '56, thanked the Rotarians for presenting him with a scholarship to Trinity.

Under the direction of Donald Kim-mick, the Trinity Pipes entertained the group with several selections.

LIBBY HEAD CHEERLEADER

The Trinity College Cheerleaders elected as their captain for next year, Dick Libby, '54. Dick is presently a Lieutenant in the R.O.T.C. and President of Alpha Phi Omega, National Service Fraternity recently established here at Trinity. He is also a member of Tau Alpha.

Other officers recently elected are Aaron Brotman, Manager, and William Zito, Secretary.

All three of these cheerleaders saw a great deal of service as cheerleaders this past year.

Purpose of the Jaycees

The purpose of the Campus Jaycees will be two-fold. Primarily, as a campus service organization, it will sponsor such projects and advocate such reforms as it feels will benefit the student body. Secondly, as a community service organization, it will assist the Hartford Junior Chamber of Commerce whenever and wherever possible in the administration of its public service program.

A Civic Service Organization

The United States Junior Chamber of Commerce is a civic service organization for young men between the ages of 21 and 35, inclusive. It is dedicated to two purposes: (1) Improvement and development of the community. (2) Improvement and development of its individual members to train themselves for business advancement and civic leadership. The U.S.J.C.C. is a federation of 2,000 local organizations, of which the Hartford Jaycee is one, 200 with affiliates in every state, the territories of Alaska and Hawaii, and 35 foreign countries.

The Hartford Junior Chamber, a relatively young group, was founded in 1943 and boasts a membership of 400.

Bantams Outlast Bates 11-9 on Mazurek's Hits; Wrinn Throttles Purple 3-2; Defense Brilliant

Triples by Yeomans And Mazurek Decide

Last Thursday, the Hilltopper baseball club eked out a nip and tuck triumph over a sloppy, but dangerous Bates nine. The final score was 12-9.

Trinity took an early lead in the first inning as they scored twice. The Bantams led 5-3 going into the fourth frame and then the roof fell in. Starter Jack Gallagher lost all sense of control and was forced to be relieved by Al Smith. By the time Smith had put out the fire, Bates had dented the platter five times and led 8-5.

Trin was not to be denied however, and quickly retaliated for six big markers and from this point on was never really pressed. Ed Yeomans whaled a prodigious triple against the left field exit gate knocking in two runs and then rode home on a solid single by Wally Novak. Trin then went on to score three more runs and sew up the fray.

The Blue and Gold bats were really active for the first time this season. Five triples, two by Mazurek, featured the extra base barrage. Yeomans, Gallagher, and Parsons also connected for three base clouts. All of the big clouts were instrumental in the run scoring which was a decisive factor in the final outcome.

TX Takes Early Lead in Softball; DKE Tops Psi U

The past week saw the intramural softball season get into full swing.

Theta Xi has been the most active and the most successful club to this date. Last Wednesday they slugged out a 21-18 victory in a closely contested, but loosely played game over Delta Psi. On Friday, pitching was the keynote in their 5-1 win over Northam. This puts their lead-leading record at 3-0.

The Dekes, champions for the last four years, opened with a 22-5 slaughtering of Psi Upsilon.

Delta Psi evened their record at 1-1, beating Jarvis North 8-1.

CHARLIE WRINN, THE RECENT BASKETBALL CAPTAIN, WHO IS DAN JESSEE'S No. 1 HURLER.

Novak Bats in One And Scores Another

Walking only two men in eleven innings, Charlie Wrinn hurled the Jesseemen to their third straight victory, as Williams fell 3 to 2. A large Williamstown crowd cheered on Mike Puffer, who went all the way for the Purple, only to lose in the 11th on two singles and an error.

Wrinn was strong during the whole afternoon, and if he had not walked one man in the seventh frame, the Bantams could have won the game in the regular nine innings. With no exceptions, he had excellent fielding support, especially by his outfield of Dave Crosier, Rick Parsons, and Ed Yeomans.

Trin took an early lead in the third when Bruno Chistolini doubled to deep center, driving in Wally Novak, who had singled. Williams tied it up in their half of the 4th on a pair of hits and a sacrifice. The score remained 1-1 until Trinity batted in its half of the seventh inning. Here Dave Crosier doubled, then after Yeomans popped out, Wally Novak singled to right, driving in Dave. A walk and two consecutive base knocks tied the score when Williams batted.

In the ninth, the Bantams loaded the bases with nobody out, but were unable to score, as Puffer showed his stuff. But finally in the 11th, Lou Magelaner singled, and Dave Crosier sent him to third, on his single. Wally Novak hit a grounder between short and third, both fielders tried for it and got in each other's way. The ball went into left field, and Magelaner raced home with the deciding tally. In the Purple's 11th, Dave Crosier made the play-of-the-week, with a diving catch of Roger Ames' liner to left.

Netmen Rout WPI In 1st Match, 9-0

Last Saturday, Roy Dath's varsity tennis squad successfully opened their season by white-washing Worcester Tech 9-0 on Trin's home courts. The win was especially gratifying to Coach Roy Dath as it was his inaugural match. Roy succeeds Lloyd MacDonald who was the team's mentor last year.

In winning the match impressively, the Dathmen did not lose a single set and only on two occasions did a Trinity man have to go an extra game to take his set.

Booth and Craig Star

In the six singles matches, Sophomore Bill Booth, playing in the number one position, edged Wetherhold 7-5 in the first set and whipped him 6-0 in the second set. Playing in the number two slot, another sophomore, Phil Craig, easily downed LaMare 6-2, 6-0. Captain Phil Mallon, in the number three spot, downed Hall 6-3, 6-1. Dave Hewson a junior, similarly defeated Bloom 5-7, 6-3, 6-1. In the final two, Bob Freeman won over Lovell 6-1, 6-4, while senior Roger Douglas gave Trinity a clean sweep of the singles with a 6-0, 7-5 win over Gregory.

Squash Captains Chosen Mason Award to Morphy

Mike Morphy and Dave Hewson, both seniors, have been elected Co-captains of next winter's squash team. Hewson was No. 2 man this year and a finalist in the Brainard squash tourney. Morphy was a finalist in the tourney last year, and by virtue of his performance, Coach Jesse put him in the No. 3 slot of this year's squad.

Morphy was also awarded the John A. Mason trophy. The trophy, initiated this year, is given annually to the most improved squash player.

Trackmen Gain Season's Second Win; Law, Saypalia Lead Team Over Mass.

Seeking their second win in as many starts, the Trinity track squad traveled to Amherst, Massachusetts to engage the Massachusetts Redmen. The final score of the meet was 68-57 for Coach Kurth and his forces.

Trin Sweeps Shot

Chuck Purdy opened the scoring for the Blue and Gold by outlegging teammate Bob Shea in the high hurdles for his third win of the season. His time was a very respectable 16.2 seconds. The 100 yd. dash followed and Bill Godfrey took the winner's honors with Don Law a close second. Godfrey broke the tape in 10.3 seconds.

In the mile, Massachusetts reigned supreme. Aldrich, Knapp, and Quigley all finished ahead of the Blue and Gold entrants. The winning time was 4.54 minutes. Trinity soon returned the favor to their opponents however, when they swept the shot put. Paul Schenker, Bill Saypalia, and Kaelberg were the Trinity men who finished first, second, and third. Shenker's winning put was 44' 10".

Mass Dominates Distances

The 440 yd. dash followed with Mass. continuing to shine in the distant events. Kelsey and MacInnis were first and second with Al Gancy notching third for Trin. The winner's time was 57.4 seconds. The two mile was next on the list and again the home squad swept the event. Aldrich was the victor in 11' 31".

Law Takes Lows

Don Law shined in the low hurdles as he ran away from the field in the time of 25.2 seconds. Capt. Purdy took second place with Stone of the Redmen placing third. The discus saw Trinity again sweep the field with Saypalia, Shenker, and Kaelberg finishing in that order. The winning distance was 119' 5".

The 880 was the next event and Aldrich and Seere finished one, two for Mass. Don Penfield garnered third for Trinity with Baldy Starr taking a strong fourth. The winning time was 2' 7". Don Law came back for his second win by taking the 220. His time was a fast 23.2 seconds.

Trin Sweeps Javelin

In the high jump and pole vault, Trin took a pair of seconds with Paul Thomas and Earl Isensee gaining the honors in that order. Trinity took its third sweep in the javelin when Saypalia, Woody Johnston, and Charlie Eberle outdistanced their adversaries. Saypalia won with a heave of 164' 3". The final event was the broad jump and Barous of Massachusetts was the victor with Bill Godfrey taking second place. Barous won with a jump of 20.7 inches.

Linkers Conquer Williams and A.I.C.; Burrill, Burt Pace Team on Greens

Having trampled over Springfield College 9 to 0 earlier in the week, Mitch Pappas's varsity golfers upset a sharp Williams squad, and outstroked an A.I.C. team in a triangular meet at the Springfield Country Club. The highly-touted Ephmen were set back 9 1-2 to 8 1-2, as John Burrill blazed the course with a 79. American International was defeated 10 1-2—7 1-2.

Burrill, Jack North, and Dick Stewart were all victorious, against the seasoned Williams team. Stewart did not finish until late in the afternoon, and as a result, it was his 3 points that decided the 18 hole meet.

Chuck Burt came through with some fine strokes on the final holes, to pace the squad against A.I.C. Burrill and Stewart stayed up with Burt to clinch the triumph. The team has won 3 straight meets on foreign courses, and they are heavy favorites to beat Wesleyan at Goodwin Park this Monday.

Frosh Trackmen Downed; Mass. Victorious 65-56

The University of Massachusetts freshman team defeated the Hilltop yearlings, 65-56, last Friday at Amherst. Top point getters for the Bantams were John Swett, who took firsts in the shot and discus, and George McCanless, who broke the tape in the 880 and placed second in the mile.

Swett heaved the shot 42 feet and tossed the javelin 115 feet, 8 inches. It was McCanless who ran a 4:42.1 mile for a second place, and a 2:05 half for his victory in that race.

Fred St. Jean and Dexter Smith took first and second in the javelin. Fred's winning toss was 160 feet, 5 inches. Trinity's only other blue ribbon came in the pole vault when Bob Franz leaped 5' 10".

Yale Jayvees Club Frosh Nine 8-1; Hitting is Main Defect in Defeat

By JOHN BERMAN

Lacrossemen Beaten Lunt Stars in Loss

Successful in only one of their first three starts, the fighting Trinity lacrosse team played host to Tufts last Saturday. The final score was 8 to 7 for the visitors who trailed throughout, but came back strong to win.

Trinity ripped off to a quick 3-0 lead and then blew it as fast as they gained it. Lunt and Higenbotham found the nets early for Trinity and Pete Carlough and Jerry Anthony added scores to give Trin a 4-4 tie at the half.

Trinity again took the lead in the third period, but again they threw it to the proverbial "winds." Lunt was the main factor in the Trin offense all day long and he was doing most of the work in the second half. Herb MacLea registered to put Trin in the lead at 7-6, in the third period, but as if it was a habit, the Blue and Gold gave up to late goals and Tufts had the victory safely tucked away.

On April 22, in weather more suitable for football than for baseball, Fred Booth's freshman nine bowed in their season's opener, 8-1, before the Yale Jayvees. Held to four singles, the Boothmen were only able to score a lone tally in the fourth via an error, fielder's choice, single, and another error. Don Shelly, from Merion, Pa., went eight innings for the Frosh yielding 12 hits, eight runs, and he struck out six New Haveners. George Cole finished up the ninth frame for the Boothmen.

Schnaitter Sets Pace

The big man for the Yale nine was Spence Schnaitter, star center on the basketball team. Schnaitter accounted for four runs with a triple and two singles. Charlie Sticka, Ray Aramini, Barry Plotts, and Bob Alexander were the only Trinity men to hit safely.

Undoubtedly the Frosh were handicapped by the fact that they hadn't had any outside practice. Confined to the Field House, their hitting was weak as shown by only four bingles in nine innings. However, their fielding was good, especially the fielding of Ed Hoyer and Gene Gallagher who promise to keep the left side of the infield well covered.

From Miami to Portland, Maine,
Or Frisco to D.C.,
You'll hear that old familiar phrase,
"It's Lucky Strike for me!"
Richard E. Golden
Emory University

So round, so firm, so fully packed,
They're easy on the draw.
A Lucky Strike for everyone —
It ought to be a law!
John F. Stone
University of Nebraska

Nothing-no, nothing-beats better taste

and LUCKIES
TASTE BETTER!
Cleaner, Fresher, Smoother!

Ask yourself this question: Why do I smoke?

You know, yourself, you smoke for enjoyment. And you get enjoyment only from the taste of a cigarette.

Luckies taste better—cleaner, fresher, smoother! Why? Luckies are made better to taste better. And, what's more, Luckies are made of fine tobacco. L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike Means Fine Tobacco.

So, for the thing you want most in a cigarette... for better taste—for the cleaner, fresher, smoother taste of Lucky Strike...

Be Happy-GO LUCKY!

Poor Cinderella lost her shoe, which her Prince Charming found.
Their joy would have been more complete
Had Luckies been around!
Josette Deutsch
Brooklyn College

Where's your jingle?

It's easier than you think to make $25 by writing a Lucky Strike jingle like those you see in this ad. Yes, we need jingles—and we pay $25 for every one we use! So send as many as you like to: Happy-Go-Lucky, P. O. Box 67, New York 46, N. Y.

year—"The Man Who Came to Dinner" will be presented in Alumni Hall.

Beach Parties

On Saturday beach parties and picnics will be the order of the day off-campus for some of the fraternities, while for those who remain here there will be two athletic events. Theta Xi members will travel to Stony Creek, while Alpha Theta's picnic will be held at Stanley Park in New Britain. A string band will play at the Delta Psi outside pavilion. At both Delta Kappa Epsilon and Alpha Chi Rho brothers will face dates in afternoon softball games. Continuing initiation procedures, Tau Alpha is to hold its chartering ceremony Saturday afternoon and a formal banquet in Hamlin dining hall at 7:00 P.M.

ment (and he knows it) lecturer and reader of the 1930 airwaves, who is stranded in the small town of Mesalia by a fractured hip. Much of the humor is derived from the clash of the worldly world of Whiteside with the unworldly one of Mesalia and the Bradlys, the unwilling hosts on whose doorstep the accident happens.

The Jesters' play promises to be a good one on the part of both performers and their dialogue.

In the doubles matches, it was the Dathmen again with Booth and Craig teaming up to down Wetherhold and LaMare 6-2, 6-0. Mallon and Hewson won over Lovell and Shivel 6-1, 6-2, with Freeman and Douglas finishing off a fine day's work with 6-1, 6-1 wins over Malas and Gregory.

Judging from their first appearance in team play, it looks like Roy Dath's young but proficient squad can look forward to a fine season's record.

tains the Coast Guard team in a game at 3:00 which will be preceded by a track meet with the boys from New London.

Following cocktail parties and formal dinners the Hartford Club will be the scene of the Senior Ball at which Claude Thornhill and his band are playing. Thornhill, a child prodigy who organized his first orchestra at the age of six and then went on to the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music and Curtis Institute spent many years arranging for Hal Kemp, Benny Goodman, Bing Crosby and others.

In 1940 he formed his own band only to be inducted into the Navy soon after. He has been recording for Victor and Columbia Recording Companies, and was selected by Look Magazine as band of the year recently. Among his outstanding engagements have been stands at the Statler Hotel in New York, the Edgewater Beach and Sherman Hotels in Chicago and the Shamrock in Houston. At intermission the Pipes will present their rendition of some old favorites.

Simultaneously the Freshman Spring Formal is to be held in the Old English Room of the Hotel Bond. Some of the Frosh are planning a hay ride after the dance. Center Jarvis will be open for the convenience of those men who are bringing women from out of town.

WILL THIS SUIT FIT YOU?

If you can make the grade, you can fly the latest, hottest, fanciest jobs in the air—and do it within one year.

IT TAKES a good, tough, serious guy to wear the gear of an Aviation Cadet. But if you can measure up, here's your chance to get the finest in aviation training—training that equips you to fly the most modern airplanes in the world and prepares you for responsible executive positions, both in military and commercial aviation.

It won't be easy! Training discipline for Aviation Cadets is rigid. You'll work hard, study hard, play hard—especially for the first few weeks. But when it's over, you'll be a pro—with a career ahead of you that will take you as far as you want to go. You graduate as a 2nd Lieutenant in the Air Force, with pay of $5,300.00 a year. And this is only the beginning—your opportunities for advancement are unlimited.

ARE YOU ELIGIBLE? To qualify as an Aviation Cadet, you must have completed at least two years of college. This is a minimum requirement—it's best if you stay in school and graduate! In addition, you must be between 19 and 26½ years, unmarried, and in good physical condition.

YOU CAN CHOOSE BETWEEN PILOT OR AIRCRAFT OBSERVER
If you choose to be an Aircraft Observer, your training will be in Navigation, Bombardment, Radar Operation or Aircraft Performance Engineering.

New Aviation Cadet Training Classes Begin Every Few Weeks!

HERE'S WHAT TO DO:

1. Take a transcript of your college credits and a copy of your birth certificate to your nearest Air Force Base or Recruiting Station. Fill out the application they give you.
2. If application is accepted, the Air Force will arrange for you to take a physical examination at government expense.

3. Next, you will be given a written and manual aptitude test.
4. If you pass your physical and other tests, you will be scheduled for an Aviation Cadet training class. The Selective Service Act allows you a four-month deferment while waiting class assignment.

Where to get more details:

Visit your nearest Air Force Base or Air Force Recruiting Officer. Or write to: Aviation Cadet, Headquarters, U. S. Air Force, Washington 25, D. C.
