THE JUNIOR CLASS OF
Trinity College
HARTFORD, CONNECTICUT
I T is our hope that those who turn these pages will recall the noble traditions of academic life; that past memories may inspire them in the future to achieve great place. We have not intended that this Ivy should be a mere compendium of fraternities, organizations, and societies; nor is it purely a literary or a humorous publication, although humor and literary qualities have their true places in the finished work. Poor and insignificant as our craftsmanship is, we trust that these pages will accurately depict another chapter in the history of Trinity.

Gaudeamus igitur,
Juvenes dum sumus;
Post jucundam juventutem,
Post molestam senectutem,
Nos habebit humus.

Vita nostra brevis est,
Brevi finietur,
Venit mors velociter,
Rapit nos atrociter,
Nemini parcetur.

Alma Mater floreat,
Quae nos educavit,
Caros et commilitones,
Dissitas in regiones
Sparsos congregavit.

The Glee Club

UNDER the direction of Professor A. Tillman Merritt, who began his duties last fall as head of the new Music Department, the Trinity Glee Club completed a successful season after appearing for the first time in history in the Intercollegiate Glee Club Contest, and later rendering three public concerts, all of which were well received in Hartford. The work of the chorus showed marked improvement over that of former seasons, as the club effectively interpreted a well chosen repertoire of classical and modern compositions.

At the sixth annual Intercollegiate Contest held by the New England College Glee Club Association last February, in the Bushnell Memorial, Trinity placed fourth, scoring but one point and a half behind Amherst, which took third place. Paul Holmes Twaddle, '31, of Rocky Hill, who was chosen student conductor for the occasion, directed the concert numbers, which included the Latin hymn, “Ad Trinitatem Sanctam” by Paul Parsons, and the prize song, rendered by each club, “Feating I Watch,” by Edward Elgar. According to the announcement of the judges, headed by Mr. Ralph L. Baldwin of Hartford, chairman, the Williams Club won first place, with Wesleyan a close second. Among the other colleges which were represented with Trinity were: Worcester Tech, Bowdoin, Massachusetts Tech, Boston University, the University of Vermont, Clarke University, and Middlebury College.

Following the Intercollegiate Contest, the Glee Club gave its first college concert on Saturday evening, March 21st, in Alumni Hall before a large and enthusiastic audience. The program, which included the compositions of the classical masters, as well as traditional folk-songs and modern works, was divided into five parts, three of which were rendered by the chorus. The club was assisted by William M. Welivar, '31, of Williamsport, Penn., who rendered two cello solos, “Sarabande,” composed by Carl Bohm, and the “Herbstblume,” by Popper. Thomas E. McDermott, '33, of Hartford, pianist, who accompanied the club, played two selections, the “Arabesque” of Debussy and “Gnomenreigen” by Franz Liszt. The selections of both assisting artists were well interpreted, showing good artistic ability. The program opened with a group of classical melodies by the Glee Club, and included “Now Let Every Tongue Adore Thee,” and “Jesu, Joy of Man’s Desiring,” by Bach, “Adoramus Te,” by Palestrina, and “Lo, How a Rose,” by Praetorius. The remaining song groups included “The Agincourt Song,” arranged by Willan, “In Silent Night,” by Brahms, “The Galway Piper,” and “Bonnie Dundee,” two traditional Scotch folk-songs arranged by Davissom.

At the request of the Young Men’s Christian Association of Hartford, the Glee Club participated in the annual meeting of the Christian World Relations Committee held at the Bushnell Memorial on the evening of March 26th. Following the speeches of His Excellency Chao Chu Wu, Chinese ambassador to the United States, and the Hon. Wilbur L. Cross, Governor of Connecticut, the Glee Club rendered a group of selected songs from the program of the earlier concert in Alumni Hall. The final concert of the year was presented on the following evening at Station WTIC, of the Travelers Insurance Company. This was the first time that the club had broadcasted over the radio, and Professor Merritt expressed his satisfaction over the resulting program. The chorus was again assisted by Welivar, celloist, and McDermott at the piano.

The Jesters

For the greater part of the Christmas term The Jesters engaged in the work of general reorganization, which included the complete revision of the constitution of the society. This work not only made administration easier, but allows for a wider range of achievement within the organization itself; Senior membership in the society may now be awarded for work in staging, and on scenic effects, as well as in acting, and in business administration.

The Jesters sponsored the production of the Jitney Players, of South Manchester, Conn., who appeared in Alumni Hall on October 30th, in "The Duenna," by Richard Brinsley Sheridan, before a small but appreciative audience. This marked the third appearance of the traveling actors, who traverse the entire East, reviving many of the dramas of the age of Garrick and Drury Lane Theater. In its sponsoring of such organizations, The Jesters not only makes it possible for the undergraduates to appreciate the drama, but it encourages the work of small dramatic groups. Such events are in direct line with the purpose of the organization.

Members of the Jesters were allowed the privilege of appearing as "supers" in the Metropolitan Opera Company’s production of "Tosca" at the Bushnell Memorial, November 25, 1930. It was an experience worth recording, because the famous Maria Jeritza sang the title role, and so intimate a glimpse of the star behind scenes and on stage is seldom afforded.

At the performances of the Ben Greet Players held on January 6th, at the Bushnell Memorial under the auspices of Trinity College, several members of The Jesters acted as ushers at the afternoon production of Shakespeare's "Macbeth," and at the evening presentation of "Everyman," a mediaeval morality play. After the evening performance, The Jesters were given the honor of acting as host to Sir Philip and his players at an informal supper held at the Delta Phi House.

Toward the end of the fall term, plans were made for a Jesters' production, and careful consideration was given to choosing a play so that adequate interpretation of female roles could be made by men from the student body. A committee composed of Messrs. Lauriston L. Scaife, "31, Denton D. Hall, "31, and J. Jack Sharkey, "33, was chosen to select a suitable play to be produced in the following spring. With the consent of all concerned, "The Pigeon," by John Galsworthy, was chosen.

Under the administration of William D. Guckenbuehler, president of The Jesters last term, tentative plans were drawn up for trials for the cast, but the final trials were held late in March under the auspices of Nathaniel B. Abbott, of Hartsdale, N. Y., who assumed the position of president shortly after mid-year examinations. The services of Mr. Robert Beyers, formerly coach of Dramatics at Hobart College in Geneva, New York, were secured for coaching the players, and a committee composed of Messrs. Beyers, Abbott, Hall and Guckenbuehler, were appointed to judge the trials for the cast.

A large group of able candidates appeared for the trials, and is an indication of a revived interest in dramatics to note that of six major parts in the plot, three have been awarded to new men in the society. The final date for the play has been set for May 16th, and the production will be presented in Alumni Hall, following the annual Senior Ball.

After three weeks of steady practice on the gridiron under Coach "Bill" Galvin, former Yale linesman, assisted by "Dave" Hayes and Harry Herbert, the 1930 Trinity football team led by co-captains Eugene A. Durand and Arthur D. Weinstein, opened the season with a 27 to 7 victory over New York Aggies, on the Trinity Field. At no time during the contest did the Blue and Gold show up well in line play, as the backfield took the greater part of the glory. The Aggies' offense was weak, and it was not until Coach Galvin put in the reserves in the third quarter, that the visitors scored their only touchdown. The Blue and Gold scored early in the first quarter, when Fontana carried the ball over twice after two fifty-yard runs down the field. Armstrong's brilliant broken-field runs, and Ray Bialeck's spectacular score on an intercepted pass were the features of the last period. Nelson and Pelaez starred for the New Yorkers—Pelaez in his twisting runs in scrimmage, and Nelson in his strong line plunging and defensive work.

Weakened by the absence of Weinstein and Durand, who sustained injuries in the Aggie contest, the varsity met disaster at the hands of Worcester Tech, on the latter's home field, by a final score of 19 to 6. The Tech men rolled up three touchdowns in the first half of the game, as Putnam, the flashy quarterback, carried the ball across the goal line on passes, and Asp, the Tech halfback, also scored. The Blue and Gold rallied in the last half, and Fontana scored the only touchdown on a short pass from Phippen, after a series of advances to the 18-yard line. The Trinity rally ended with the injury of Phippen, who was forced to leave the field in the last quarter. Defeat was due largely to the weakness of the varsity line, as few of the men, with the exception of Bockwinkel and Armstrong, showed up as well as in the Aggie game. The work of Phippen and Fontana in the backfield was outstanding.

With a revamped lineup, the thriller of the season came when Coach Galvin's varsity triumphed over the Conn. Aggie eleven on the Gardner Dow Field, at Storrs, in one of the most spectacular contests in the history of Trinity football. The regulars piled up 16 points. to the Aggies' 6 before the final whistle called short one of the hardest battles ever fought on the Storrs gridiron. The Trinity scoring began when “Hank” Phippen, who starred the game with a stiff ankle from the Worcester contest, dropped a 50-yard kick for the first three points. Bialeck gave Trinity the chance for its first touchdown, when he intercepted a pass from French, of the Aggies, and ran the ball to the 10-yard line. Fontana then carried the ball over in four smashes behind right guard. The spectacular event came when Disco intercepted a long pass from French to Stevens, in the last few minutes of the game, and ran from the 22-yard line, with the whole Trinity line-up acting as interference, to score the final touchdown. Although outwitted by the varsity, the Aggies played superb ball. Harger scored their only touchdown.

On the trip to Pennsylvania the following week the team was defeated by a slightly superior Haverford eleven. The game was a decided upset, as Trinity had been picked by the sporting fans to win. Trinity's only highlight of the game, which was played in a heavy gale, was a long pass to Lew Wadlow, who ran fifty yards for the only touchdown for the varsity. Haverford scored early in the second quarter when Logan, at quarterback, booted a 70-yard dropkick over the Trinity goal posts. Armstrong fumbled on the Blue and Gold goal line and after recovering the ball was tackled by Captain Conn of Haverford, thus giving Haverford a safety of two points. Pleasants, Haverford's fullback, intercepted a pass from Disco, and ran 90 yards for the final touchdown of the home team.

Little need be said about the defeat by Wesleyan by a score of 13 to 0, as a far from inferior Trinity team, fighting but exhausted, held down the Cardinal and Black until the last few minutes of play. Schlums and Tirrell smashed through the Blue and Gold line for successive gains, until the former succeeded in carrying the ball over for both touchdowns. This was the hardest line-bucking contest of the season, and it was not until the Trinity line gave way with the absence of Meier, who was injured, that the Middletown aggregation gained the upper hand. The defensive work of Geiger, Meier and Lew Wadlow was outstanding for Trinity. Schlums and Tirrell starred for Wesleyan.

In the final and best game of the season, a much favored Amherst team was deadlocked, 7 to 7, both scores being made in the last period of the contest. Outplayed in all but the first quarter, the Jeffmen failed to break the tie. Amherst scored first when Tener, the star fullback, intercepted a Trinity pass and raced fifty yards for a touchdown; Greenough made the kick good, and the Lord Jeffs led 7 to 0. In the last five minutes of the fourth quarter Champion blocked a punt by Tener and “Yaddie” Durand, who played his last game for the Blue and Gold, ran twenty yards for a touchdown. Phippen kicked the extra point, thus closing the game at an even score.

In tying Amherst, Trinity held at bay a team which was favored to win. The Trinity eleven under the leadership of Coach Galvin finished what might be termed as the most successful schedule in the history of football at Trinity for the past ten years.

Basketball

When compared to the two previous seasons, the record of the 1930-31 basketball team is unimpressive, but, because of the fact that Wesleyan was defeated, we can not call the season a failure. Due more to inexperience than to anything else, nine games were lost out of fifteen played, but many of these were by close scores. Captain Fleming and Glynn were the only veterans to report for practice in November, and around these two men Coach Oosting built his team. Fleming, Glynn and Captain-elect Golino were outstanding throughout the season, but the rest of the squad played erratic ball.

Cooper Union was defeated in the first game without difficulty, but in the second game Rhode Island State emerged victorious in an extremely loose contest at Kingston.

Johnnie Merriman, former Trinity baseball coach, brought a good team to Hartford from the Coast Guard Academy, but Trinity kept her record on the home floor unsmirched, winning without being threatened at any point during the game.

The game with Worcester Tech was disappointing, but was one of the most exciting of the year. Worcester clinched a victory with a goal from the floor in the final second of play to win by a score of 25 to 23.

Rensselaer Polytechnic came to Hartford on the week-end of the Junior Prom and in a fast game Trinity's string of victories on her home floor which had begun in 1928 was broken. Trinity, led by Glynn who scored 17 points for the Blue and Gold during the evening, waged a valiant fight against a faster and more accurate shooting team. R. P. I. was undoubtedly the best team to appear in Hartford during the winter, and their victory was well deserved.

Clark University of Worcester was easily defeated by a score of 42 to 26. This game was marked by the sharp shooting of Captain Fleming who scored 15 points and by a greatly improved passing attack.

This show of form was shortlived however, and Trinity was vastly outclassed by the Connecticut Aggies. Chubbuck and Darrow of the latter team proved to be too much for the varsity, who after a fast and promising start, launched an ineffectual attack.

After an unexpected defeat at the hands of Boston University, the Wesleyan game was not anticipated with much hope. Only the most enthusiastic backers of the team could prophesy anything other than defeat. The Trinity team displaying a brand of basketball which it did not show either before or after was never ousted from the lead. A stiff Wesleyan rally at the start of the second half was successfully combatted by Fleming and Golino. Fleming, Golino, and Andrus played at top form during the entire game and the other members of the squad who played made an excellent showing. It was the highlight of the season.

Pratt, with an unusually fine record, was defeated in New York. This was the only defeat administered to Pratt on her own floor. On the following night, however, Brooklyn Poly, won a listless game. This was the beginning of an unfortunate slump after which only one game was won. The New York Aggies were defeated in Hartford. M. A. C., Amherst, and Norwich all scored victories over the varsity.

The game at Amherst was what might be called a "heart-breaker." Trinity had a lead of eight points with about eight minutes left to play, when Amherst made a brilliant rally to score 17 points before the final gun was fired. During this brief period the varsity was able to score but twice, one goal and one foul.

After the close of the season, the lettermen elected Emanuel Golino to succeed Joseph Fleming as captain. Golino, who played a brilliant game throughout the season, will have a wealth of material to support him next year as only Fleming and Glynn are lost by graduation. In addition to the members of the 1930-31 squad who will return next year, much strong material for a good team will be furnished by the Junior Varsity team which had a successful season, having defeated Loomis, the Connecticut Aggie Freshmen, Kingswood, and the Hartford Boy’s Club.

The prospects for the 1930 baseball season seemed bright, with seven lettermen reporting to the newly-installed coach, Gilbert V. Wright, former star and captain of the Springfield College nine. However, a dearth of pitchers and a crowded and difficult schedule more than counteracted this advantage in experience.

The season began auspiciously for the varsity with the defeat of the Northeastern nine. Phippen drove out a home run in the ninth inning to break a 1 to 1 tie. The following game at Worcester Tech continued for thirteen innings before the Blue and Gold finally met defeat by a score of 8 to 7.

After dropping the next three contests, Trinity turned in a fine exhibition of fast ball by defeating Union College, at Schenectady, 8 to 4.

C. C. N. Y., although outhit by the varsity, proved too clever on the bases, and won by a score of 6 to 3.

The playing of the team gradually improved during the remaining five games, the excellent showing against an exceptionally fast Amherst team and the victory over Connecticut Aggies being most gratifying.

Adams pitched superb ball at all times, the defeats being due chiefly to erratic fielding. Adams, Armstrong, Phippen, and Bockwinkel were responsible for the majority of hits.

It is encouraging to note that five of the regulars, together with a large number of experienced recruits have reported to Coach Wright for the 1931 season. The team will be led by co-captains, Adams, '32 and Gooding, '31.

Track

The 1930 track season can not be called a success, no matter how we view it. The team had three meets, and all of these resulted in defeats for Trinity. Forty men reported to Coach Ray Oosting in the middle of March, among whom were many promising candidates. Some of these materialized. The team was fairly strong throughout the season in the running events, but failure must be attributed to a glaring weakness in the field events except for the broad jump where Captain-elect Welivar showed enough form to finish third in the New England Intercollegiates in May.

The first meet was on May 10th with Norwich University in Hartford. Norwich won by a score of 68 to 58, showing a decided superiority in the field events which was enough to give them the contest, although Strong, Welivar, and Lovering won in the javelin, broad jump and pole vault. Strong set a college record in the javelin. Captain Bill Nye took three first places in the running events and Carlton won the two-mile.

The Connecticut Aggies came to Hartford on the 20th of May to return to Storrs on the winning end of a 86 to 40 meet. The Aggies’ ace, Chubbuck, starred throughout, taking five first places—the 100-yard dash, both hurdle races, the discus, and the shot put. Nye won the 220-yard dash and the 440. The only other firsts that Trinity was able to gain were made by Welivar in the broad jump and Belden in the javelin.

On May 31st the Massachusetts Aggies came to Hartford and also emerged victorious, but on this occasion the score was much closer, M. A. C. making 67 to Trinity’s 59. Trinity outscored her opponents in the running events only to have the tables more than turned in the field events. Geiger, Nye, Birch, and Dignam piled up five firsts in the runs, but in the other half of the program only Strong and Spray in the javelin and discus were able to outclass their opponents.

Throughout the season Captain Nye, Strong, and Welivar were the only consistent winners on the Trinity team. Of these three only Welivar returns, as the others were graduated. Prospects for the 1931 season at the time of writing are largely problematical, and seem to rest upon the strength of the Freshman candidates.

In commencing the 1930 season with the assistance of two veterans, Ralph D. Britton, '31, and J. Sherwood Bissell, '31, both of whom piloted the team in 1928 and 1929, respectively, the schedule of the varsity tennis team was marked by upsets in the first four inter-collegiate matches. The Blue and Gold net men lost their first encounter when they were out-classed by a fast Worcester Tech team by a score of 5 to 1 in games.

Two more contests were lost by the varsity when a fast Williams team and an experienced aggregation from Wesleyan turned back the regulars, both scores being 9 to 0. Trinity showed up well, however, in the match against Rensselaer Polytech, although Coach Rudolph's men lost their fourth encounter 7 to 2.

In the New England Intercollegiate matches held in the latter part of May, the Blue and Gold showed up well as the doubles team placed in the quarter finals.

Led by Captain John E. S. Burke, '32, the varsity easily won from Manhattan College, taking every set in the singles and doubles of the match. With the fast and accurate playing of Trinity, Manhattan was unable to win more than three games out of each set.

Three days later, the team from Clark University went down to defeat under the heavy attack of the Blue and Gold which showed its most accurate contest of the season.

The last match of the season was lost to Springfield College by a final score of 4 to 2. Rainy weather prevented the playing of the doubles which might have changed the outcome for Trinity as the members of the squad improved in the doubles as the season progressed.

The fine showing during the latter half of the season and the return of four members of the 1930 team this year are good indications that the coming season of 1931 will be more successful.

The Athenaeum

The Athenaeum Society had during the college year 1930-31 a most successful season. The society's debating team under the direction of Dean Hood of the English Department and Professor Kleene of the Economics Department, won two debates and lost none. In defeating the team of Buffalo University, the Athenaeum won a more than creditable victory, as Buffalo had been victorious in eleven successive debates. The debating team of the Connecticut Agricultural College was defeated for the second time in two years.

The first intercollegiate debate of the year was held in Alumni Hall on the night of March 2nd with Buffalo University. The Athenaeum, represented by J. J. Sharkey, A. P. Harrison, and C. E. Jacobson, defended the negative of the following question: "Resolved, that the Several States Should Enact Legislation Providing for Compulsory Unemployment Insurance, to Which the Employee Shall Contribute." Jacobson proved to be the most effective speaker of the evening and due to his excellent work an exceedingly close contest was won.

On March 13th the debating team journeyed to Storrs, and defending the same side of the previous proposition, again won by a combination of skillful reasoning and excellent presentation.

A third debate to be held with the Connecticut College for Women was cancelled, due to the fact that a date suitable to both teams could not be agreed upon.

The society held weekly meetings throughout the year, at which the various members presented short reports upon subjects of current interest in the fields of economics, politics, and literature. From time to time various members of the faculty have addressed the club. This work has proved to be highly beneficial both because of the value of the subject matter presented, and because of the practice in public speaking and formal argument.

The Athenaeum Society has petitioned the national debating society of Tau Kappa Alpha for a charter. If this is obtained, those members of the society who have appeared in intercollegiate debates, will be automatically admitted.

The Trinity College Chapel

All Saints' Day, 1931, is the appointed time for the dedication of the new Trinity College Chapel, which now stands in its unfinished state as a memento of the religious zeal of past ages, when men, oppressed by servitude, expressed the Christian Faith in great cathedrals of stone. As the work progresses one cannot help realize that the influence of this new shrine will be far-reaching in the lives of Trinity men. Already the workmen and all connected with the building have shown great pride in their craftsmanship, and the work at present bespeaks the majestic beauty of the finished structure. Aside from the material aspect, this Chapel is the symbol of a spiritual life, which men of learning and understanding have realized as the primary source of a happy existence. We trust that future generations at Trinity will find inspiration and strength within its walls.

The grateful thanks of Trinity men we extend to William Gwinn Mather, 1877, who by his generosity and foresight has made possible this gift, which will indeed affect the life of Trinity through all ages.

The New Cook Dormitory

The new Cook Dormitory, upon which work was begun during the latter part of the past winter, was made possible by the funds left to the college by Mr. Charles W. Cook of Windsor, who died in 1912. The building of the dormitory has been necessitated by the greatly increased enrollment during the past years.

The dormitory, which occupies the southwest corner of the quadrangle which is rapidly taking form, was designed by McKimm, Mead, and White, of New York City. It follows the general form of the architecture of the rest of the college buildings, with certain changes which will tend to render the campus even more attractive.

The dormitory space is to be divided into sections in much the same manner as is Jarvis Hall, but with more accommodations for students desiring to live alone. In addition there is to be a large dining hall which will replace the present Commons.

The building of Cook Hall marks a progressive step in the growth of Trinity, and it is hoped that this event will encourage, in the future the erection of other much needed buildings, that Trinity may maintain her prestige among the small colleges of New England.

This last year in the history of the College has seen a certain amount of building on the Campus. The gymnasium unit has made a real contribution to the life of the students by ample provision for swimming and squash racquets; the beauty of the new Chapel is already apparent; the work on the new dormitories gives indication of the healthy growth of the College in size. It is a pleasure to see the ideal campus take form and substance.

A college represents opportunity. It is not the function of the college to educate young men; it should be said rather that a college should give young men a chance to educate themselves. Those who desire such an opportunity must show first that they qualify by previous education and evidence of character.

THE ACHIEVEMENT OF AN IDEAL

A YEARBOOK is more than a series of printed pages bound into a cover. It is the result of hours of anxious thought and patient, persistent effort. The staff of The Trinity Ivy have accepted a real responsibility, under the leadership of the Editor, Mr. C. Leslie Muenchinger, and the Business Manager, Mr. Hugh Campbell, they have produced a book of which they may well be proud. We feel sure that you who turn these pages and re-live the events of the year just concluded, will join us in congratulating them.

In our humble capacity as publishers, it has been a privilege to be associated with the production of this book. Perhaps we have in a small way caught some of the enthusiasm displayed by the staff itself, for in our hands the production of a yearbook becomes a very personal matter.

We are justly proud of the confidence placed in our ability to produce a book in keeping with the ideals of the staff and school which sponsor it. We earnestly hope that this feeling of confidence will persist, and that it will be our privilege to place the facilities of our organization at the service of the yearbook staff of Trinity College through successive years.
