Students Give Input for New President

-By Patricia Pierson

Student representatives to President
Search Committee met with students and faculty eliciting a diversity of concerns regarding the selection of Trinity's new president on December 8th. Committee members Barbara Scudder '80 and Hyland noted. Another member of the faculty echoed this attitude in stating, "I think it is fundamentally a mistake to look at this as a power process. The trustees legally and morally have the power to make the decision here...Students really have an effect. If you students can articulate issues, they will be listened to very carefully..." Because this is not the second presidential search committee which has assimilated more than merely requests into its ranks, committee members felt in crucial that students participate in this new opportunity. "It is a kind of pressures...one faction has not been included," that the trustees off that this is the kind of commitment that wants representation," Scudder and Sherr emphasized that the students' audience with the candidates in the spring will prove inf Framed in the final selection, with Scudder indicating, "...these days in Trinity are absolutely vital!" She later stated, "The more input we get from students would be the more well-rounded our decision is." Students present at the meeting Continued on Page 5

Convocation Celebrates Rev. King

-By John Claud

Trinity observed the celebration of Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr. on his first birthday since the least of the nation this year. A program honors Dr. King took place Monday, January 24, 4-6 in the Washington Room.

Martin Luther King, Jr. was celebrated as a national holiday on Monday, January 16. Because few students were on campus and school was not in session, the events surrounding the observance were limited.

Dr. Gail Wehle, Assistant Dean of the Faculty, said, "We weren't in session to celebrate the national holiday of the life of King in the city of Hartford. As a unified black student seeking (on January 16).

Dr. Scudder and Sherr outlined the need for students and faculty to organize meetings in the spring in a selection process would equlize equitable society.

The Board of Trustees, consisting of faculty members and student representatives, five members of the faculty in attendance, provided further insight into the nebulous selection process.

"We are not the committee who decides who the next president is," the Board of Trustees decided who the next president is. The bright side of this is the power of persuasion...we can persuade the trustees to vote for the president we favor," Hyland noted.

Scudder and Sherr outlined the need for students to look for minority candidates in the selection process. "But all minorities will be considered...the goal is to make that as even as possible...the want a collection of Trinity's new president on the students and faculty eliciting a diversity of concerns regarding the selection of Trinity's new president on December 8th. Committee members Barbara Scudder '80 and Hyland noted. Another member of the faculty echoed this attitude in stating, "I think it is fundamentally a mistake to look at this as a power process. The trustees legally and morally have the power to make the decision here...Students really have an effect. If you students can articulate issues, they will be listened to very carefully..."

Convocation Celebrates Rev. King

-By John Claud

Trinity observed the celebration of Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr. on his first birthday since the least of the nation this year. A program honors Dr. King took place Monday, January 24, 4-6 in the Washington Room.

Martin Luther King, Jr. was celebrated as a national holiday on Monday, January 16. Because few students were on campus and school was not in session, the events surrounding the observance were limited.

Dr. Gail Wehle, Assistant Dean of the Faculty, said, "We weren't in session to celebrate the national holiday of the life of King in the city of Hartford. As a unified black student seeking (on January 16).

Dr. Scudder and Sherr outlined the need for students and faculty to organize meetings in the spring in a selection process would equlize equitable society.

The Board of Trustees, consisting of faculty members and student representatives, five members of the faculty in attendance, provided further insight into the nebulous selection process.

"We are not the committee who decides who the next president is," the Board of Trustees decided who the next president is. The bright side of this is the power of persuasion...we can persuade the trustees to vote for the president we favor," Hyland noted.

Scudder and Sherr outlined the need for students to look for minority candidates in the selection process. "But all minorities will be considered...the goal is to make that as even as possible...the want a collection of Trinity's new president on the students and faculty eliciting a diversity of concerns regarding the selection of Trinity's new president on December 8th. Committee members Barbara Scudder '80 and Hyland noted. Another member of the faculty echoed this attitude in stating, "I think it is fundamentally a mistake to look at this as a power process. The trustees legally and morally have the power to make the decision here...Students really have an effect. If you students can articulate issues, they will be listened to very carefully..."

Convocation Celebrates Rev. King

-By John Claud

Trinity observed the celebration of Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr. on his first birthday since the least of the nation this year. A program honors Dr. King took place Monday, January 24, 4-6 in the Washington Room.

Martin Luther King, Jr. was celebrated as a national holiday on Monday, January 16. Because few students were on campus and school was not in session, the events surrounding the observance were limited.

Dr. Gail Wehle, Assistant Dean of the Faculty, said, "We weren't in session to celebrate the national holiday of the life of King in the city of Hartford. As a unified black student seeking (on January 16).

Dr. Scudder and Sherr outlined the need for students and faculty to organize meetings in the spring in a selection process would equlize equitable society.

The Board of Trustees, consisting of faculty members and student representatives, five members of the faculty in attendance, provided further insight into the nebulous selection process.

"We are not the committee who decides who the next president is," the Board of Trustees decided who the next president is. The bright side of this is the power of persuasion...we can persuade the trustees to vote for the president we favor," Hyland noted.

Scudder and Sherr outlined the need for students to look for minority candidates in the selection process. "But all minorities will be considered...the goal is to make that as even as possible...the want a collection of Trinity's new president on the students and faculty eliciting a diversity of concerns regarding the selection of Trinity's new president on December 8th. Committee members Barbara Scudder '80 and Hyland noted. Another member of the faculty echoed this attitude in stating, "I think it is fundamentally a mistake to look at this as a power process. The trustees legally and morally have the power to make the decision here...Students really have an effect. If you students can articulate issues, they will be listened to very carefully..."

Convocation Celebrates Rev. King

-By John Claud

Trinity observed the celebration of Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr. on his first birthday since the least of the nation this year. A program honors Dr. King took place Monday, January 24, 4-6 in the Washington Room.

Martin Luther King, Jr. was celebrated as a national holiday on Monday, January 16. Because few students were on campus and school was not in session, the events surrounding the observance were limited.

Dr. Gail Wehle, Assistant Dean of the Faculty, said, "We weren't in session to celebrate the national holiday of the life of King in the city of Hartford. As a unified black student seeking (on January 16).

Dr. Scudder and Sherr outlined the need for students and faculty to organize meetings in the spring in a selection process would equlize equitable society.

The Board of Trustees, consisting of faculty members and student representatives, five members of the faculty in attendance, provided further insight into the nebulous selection process.

"We are not the committee who decides who the next president is," the Board of Trustees decided who the next president is. The bright side of this is the power of persuasion...we can persuade the trustees to vote for the president we favor," Hyland noted.

Scudder and Sherr outlined the need for students to look for minority candidates in the selection process. "But all minorities will be considered...the goal is to make that as even as possible...the want a collection of Trinity's new president on the students and faculty eliciting a diversity of concerns regarding the selection of Trinity's new president on December 8th. Committee members Barbara Scudder '80 and Hyland noted. Another member of the faculty echoed this attitude in stating, "I think it is fundamentally a mistake to look at this as a power process. The trustees legally and morally have the power to make the decision here...Students really have an effect. If you students can articulate issues, they will be listened to very carefully..."

Convocation Celebrates Rev. King

-By John Claud

Trinity observed the celebration of Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr. on his first birthday since the least of the nation this year. A program honors Dr. King took place Monday, January 24, 4-6 in the Washington Room.

Martin Luther King, Jr. was celebrated as a national holiday on Monday, January 16. Because few students were on campus and school was not in session, the events surrounding the observance were limited.

Dr. Gail Wehle, Assistant Dean of the Faculty, said, "We weren't in session to celebrate the national holiday of the life of King in the city of Hartford. As a unified black student seeking (on January 16).

Dr. Scudder and Sherr outlined the need for students and faculty to organize meetings in the spring in a selection process would equlize equitable society.

The Board of Trustees, consisting of faculty members and student representatives, five members of the faculty in attendance, provided further insight into the nebulous selection process.

"We are not the committee who decides who the next president is," the Board of Trustees decided who the next president is. The bright side of this is the power of persuasion...we can persuade the trustees to vote for the president we favor," Hyland noted.

Scudder and Sherr outlined the need for students to look for minority candidates in the selection process. "But all minorities will be considered...the goal is to make that as even as possible...the want a collection of Trinity's new president on the students and faculty eliciting a diversity of concerns regarding the selection of Trinity's new president on December 8th. Committee members Barbara Scudder '80 and Hyland noted. Another member of the faculty echoed this attitude in stating, "I think it is fundamentally a mistake to look at this as a power process. The trustees legally and morally have the power to make the decision here...Students really have an effect. If you students can articulate issues, they will be listened to very carefully..."
Editorial

Uninformed About Fraternities

To Ms. Schroeder:

With respect to the "paintings of naked women" that you believe that your perception of these murals is obscured by their unmentionable association with fraternities. If these murals were painted by Koons or a minimalist, I would find them intolerable. By the way, grading to which fraternity these are linked is not of these individuals; members may be, but no more so than any other "black velvet collar" who is a fraternity member. Ms. Schroeder notes the civic contributions of fraternities, Sigma Nu and Psi Upsilon in particular, and acknowledges that her perception of fraternities has been formed by seeing on their walls murals of naked women. I believe that your opinion of fraternities is similar. A fraternity is composed of a group of individuals affiliated with the organization to see the area outside our main buildings, and therefore had no occasion to know that they were a part of a whole. It seems that only a minority of Trinity students are living up to the expectations of faculty, administration, and staff. They feel that they are in control of academic pursuits and socially beneficial activities. Many students agree with this generalization.

The presence of the students at these meetings served two important purposes. Students were able to contribute to decisions that would directly affect their lives. They could put forth their own ideas of what was practical solutions to the perceived problems. Moreover, they could contribute solutions that would not have occurred to the committee. Professor R. S. P. M. E. C. B. W. R. D. moves to introduce a resolution that has been thrust upon us. If you do not like it, this is your chance to influence it. The Search Committee (Barbara Scudder or Katie Sherr), and tell them what the issues that were brought to the committee and might very well influence a conclusion. Ms. Schroeder seems to think that parties are the focal point of fraternities. This is simply not true. Parties are just as much a part of college life as community service and sports. The presence of the students at these meetings served to inform the students of their predecessor. There were also more constructive pursuits and socially beneficial activities. Many students agree with this generalization.

To the Reader:

Lisa Schroeder's article entitled, "If the Time's Tide It" conveys an uninformed, and close-minded opinion about fraternities. She begins it, "When I think of fraternities, I think of those rows of huge, red-brick buildings. Neoprene leggings..." With this misinformed perception, Ms. Schroeder is unable to exhibit an open-mindedness to the consequences of the value that fraternities have for this college. If Barra dy, as a member of the Trinity community, she goes on to say that, in her opinion, fraternities are "revolting, disgusting and immature." However, she is an essential part of college life. In my opinion, nothing that is "revolting and disgusting immature." Moreover, they could contribute solutions that were not of these individuals; members may be, but no more so than any other "black velvet collar" who is a fraternity member. Ms. Schroeder notes the civic contributions of fraternities, Sigma Nu and Psi Upsilon in particular, and acknowledges that her perception of fraternities has been formed by seeing on their walls murals of naked women. I believe that your opinion of fraternities is similar. A fraternity is composed of a group of individuals affiliated with the organization to see the area outside our main buildings, and therefore had no occasion to know that they were a part of a whole. It seems that only a minority of Trinity students are living up to the expectations of faculty, administration, and staff. They feel that they are in control of academic pursuits and socially beneficial activities. Many students agree with this generalization.

To the Reader:

Lisa Schroeder's article entitled, "If the Time's Tide It" conveys an uninformed, and close-minded opinion about fraternities. She begins it, "When I think of fraternities, I think of those rows of huge, red-brick buildings. Neoprene leggings..." With this misinformed perception, Ms. Schroeder is unable to exhibit an open-mindedness to the consequences of the value that fraternities have for this college. If Barra dy, as a member of the Trinity community, she goes on to say that, in her opinion, fraternities are "revolting, disgusting and immature." However, she is an essential part of college life. In my opinion, nothing that is "revolting and disgusting immature." Moreover, they could contribute solutions that were not of these individuals; members may be, but no more so than any other "black velvet collar" who is a fraternity member. Ms. Schroeder notes the civic contributions of fraternities, Sigma Nu and Psi Upsilon in particular, and acknowledges that her perception of fraternities has been formed by seeing on their walls murals of naked women. I believe that your opinion of fraternities is similar. A fraternity is composed of a group of individuals affiliated with the organization to see the area outside our main buildings, and therefore had no occasion to know that they were a part of a whole. It seems that only a minority of Trinity students are living up to the expectations of faculty, administration, and staff. They feel that they are in control of academic pursuits and socially beneficial activities. Many students agree with this generalization.

To the Reader:

Lisa Schroeder's article entitled, "If the Time's Tide It" conveys an uninformed, and close-minded opinion about fraternities. She begins it, "When I think of fraternities, I think of those rows of huge, red-brick buildings. Neoprene leggings..." With this misinformed perception, Ms. Schroeder is unable to exhibit an open-mindedness to the consequences of the value that fraternities have for this college. If Barra dy, as a member of the Trinity community, she goes on to say that, in her opinion, fraternities are "revolting, disgusting and immature." However, she is an essential part of college life. In my opinion, nothing that is "revolting and disgusting immature." Moreover, they could contribute solutions that were not of these individuals; members may be, but no more so than any other "black velvet collar" who is a fraternity member. Ms. Schroeder notes the civic contributions of fraternities, Sigma Nu and Psi Upsilon in particular, and acknowledges that her perception of fraternities has been formed by seeing on their walls murals of naked women. I believe that your opinion of fraternities is similar. A fraternity is composed of a group of individuals affiliated with the organization to see the area outside our main buildings, and therefore had no occasion to know that they were a part of a whole. It seems that only a minority of Trinity students are living up to the expectations of faculty, administration, and staff. They feel that they are in control of academic pursuits and socially beneficial activities. Many students agree with this generalization.

To the Reader:

Lisa Schroeder's article entitled, "If the Time's Tide It" conveys an uninformed, and close-minded opinion about fraternities. She begins it, "When I think of fraternities, I think of those rows of huge, red-brick buildings. Neoprene leggings..." With this misinformed perception, Ms. Schroeder is unable to exhibit an open-mindedness to the consequences of the value that fraternities have for this college. If Barra dy, as a member of the Trinity community, she goes on to say that, in her opinion, fraternities are "revolting, disgusting and immature." However, she is an essential part of college life. In my opinion, nothing that is "revolting and disgusting immature." Moreover, they could contribute solutions that were not of these individuals; members may be, but no more so than any other "black velvet collar" who is a fraternity member. Ms. Schroeder notes the civic contributions of fraternities, Sigma Nu and Psi Upsilon in particular, and acknowledges that her perception of fraternities has been formed by seeing on their walls murals of naked women. I believe that your opinion of fraternities is similar. A fraternity is composed of a group of individuals affiliated with the organization to see the area outside our main buildings, and therefore had no occasion to know that they were a part of a whole. It seems that only a minority of Trinity students are living up to the expectations of faculty, administration, and staff. They feel that they are in control of academic pursuits and socially beneficial activities. Many students agree with this generalization.
Opinions

Can Be Dangerous

To the Editor:

Opinions are dangerous. If one happened to read Lisa Schroeder’s article..."If one happened to read Lisa Schroeder’s article..."If one happened to read Lisa Schroeder’s article..."If one happened to read Lisa Schroeder’s article..."If one happened to read Lisa Schroeder’s article..."

Tyranny of Majority

Rule Is Alive At Trinity

To the Trinity Community:

Majority rule is one of the key elements of American society. There are problems with it in that in a small step forward with the majority of the people, there is a step against..."If one happened to read Lisa Schroeder’s article..."If one happened to read Lisa Schroeder’s article..."If one happened to read Lisa Schroeder’s article..."If one happened to read Lisa Schroeder’s article..."If one happened to read Lisa Schroeder’s article..."

Trinity Papers Notice

To the students of Trinity:

This year we are also extending an invitation for submissions of design papers..."If one happened to read Lisa Schroeder’s article..."If one happened to read Lisa Schroeder’s article..."If one happened to read Lisa Schroeder’s article..."If one happened to read Lisa Schroeder’s article..."If one happened to read Lisa Schroeder’s article..."

The Trinity Tripod • January 24, 1989 • Page 3

Op-Ed

Pizzeria

N.Y. Style Pizza

Calzones

White Clam Pizza

Giant Submarines

Variety of Pastas

Chicago Style Pitted Tomato

Sheet Pan Party Pizza

Stromboli

Free Delivery. Call 248-3939
Concerns over a supposedly high number of break-ins on campus by members of the Committee on the Environment and Safety, a higher grading standards and more intensive class work were addressed by the committee for establishing a more demanding Student Government and a more academic atmosphere. Student activities were reported to be self-confidence building. Liz Hale, one of the student participants, offered exercises in the open forums at the end of last semester. The committee is researching the possibility of having computerized solutions, including solutions proposed by John Gillespie.

Reinforced interdisciplinary meetings and the First Year Forum of the Class of 1982 are seen by the committee as positive forces in helping to establish a more active educational environment. Member commits worry that freshmen enter college with enthusiasm and high expectations. They will be exposed to a more academic atmosphere and are expected to be expected to live up to adult standards and intelligence. They have to learn to question authority and to take intellectual risks both inside and outside of class.

Leadership Conference Success

-Johann Pulver, Assistant Dean of Students

Michael Tertes, gave students hints for creating strategy and planning for the Community Outreach Coordinator. Dean Pulver stressed that a good leader must be willing to listen to his peers.

At the end of the day-long conference, students were given a simulation exercise to put into practice the ideas they have learned. Violence was simulated, "It allowed us to use effective strategic planning within a limited time."

Dean Pulver attended a Leadership Conference two years ago. None was offered last year, and this year only a few students attended. She was excited by the wide range of topics and hoped to continue the tradition. Dean Pulver also attended a workshop for student leaders every year and has found it helpful.

Terry Martin, Head of the Department of Media Relations, on the importance of communications skills and how to get events publicized on campus.

The Area Coordinator of CRPC, Michael Tertes, gave students hints for creating strategy and planning for the Community Outreach Coordinator. The conference was on time and resource management. The conference was limited to a manageable group, promoting class discussions.

Loyd, the coordinator of the conference, emphasized that the conference would be beneficial to all students, residents and Leaders and Assistants.

Patrick Pulver, who was the simulation, "It allowed us to use effective strategic planning within a limited time."

Dean Pulver attended a Leadership Conference two years ago. None was offered last year, and this year only a few students attended. She was excited by the wide range of topics and hoped to continue the tradition. Dean Pulver also attended a workshop for student leaders every year and has found it helpful.

Terry Martin, Head of the Department of Media Relations, on the importance of communications skills and how to get events publicized on campus.

The Area Coordinator of CRPC, Michael Tertes, gave students hints for creating strategy and planning for the Community Outreach Coordinator. The conference was on time and resource management. The conference was limited to a manageable group, promoting class discussions.

Loyd, the coordinator of the conference, emphasized that the conference would be beneficial to all students, residents and Leaders and Assistants.

Patrick Pulver, who was the simulation, "It allowed us to use effective strategic planning within a limited time."

Leadership Conference Success

-Johann Pulver, Assistant Dean of Students

Michael Tertes, gave students hints for creating strategy and planning for the Community Outreach Coordinator. Dean Pulver stressed that a good leader must be willing to listen to his peers. A leader must be willing to give up his or her own ideas and support the group's ideas. The importance of the conference was summed up by Longboy, "A good leader teaches a better class."

Shuttle Links Trinity to a Downtown Destination

-Johann Pulver, Assistant Dean of Students

In an effort to facilitate student's interaction with the city, Brickman, the Hartford area, is being advertised for the first time. The event is being advertised for the first time. The event is being advertised for the first time. The event is being advertised for the first time.

Because of the schedule, it is also possible for students to visit other colleges or to continue their studies. The shuttle will run every Friday night through April 28, with the exception of March 24, and May 31, due to spring break. Dean Pulver also mentioned that the transportation plan would be reevaluated after the spring break.
But the political problems aside, the nation is facing the greatest economic crisis of all time. Never under the Somoza regime has probably been the source of the greatest headaches for the Sandinista regime. They reacted the only way they saw fit; they implemented anyone who presented a threat.

The United States is not the only one trying to displace a foreign power. The recent elections have put into office the Chinese supported Sandinistas and install a government in its death throes. Perhaps this is what Bush, as president, also intends to do. The precedent for this kind of action is set.

With the blessing and acceptance of the American voting public, George Bush is heralding his first few days of honeymoon with much fanfare. As he begins his administration, the critics attest that these only achievements in using the words of Bush's "new breeze" will blow, and whether its approach will be firmer, kinder, and gentler, or become simply a dry and distant nostrum of the past.

The pressure to raise taxes mounts without answers as the president's gargantuan deficit exists for the sake of war. Whether or not adviser may find difficult to define.

Possibly this is what Bush, as president, also intends to do. The precedent for this kind of action is set.
Trip

A one week trip to Costa Rica, a uniquely democratic little country in Central America, is being offered to a limited number of participants March 11-18.

The tour will be escorted by Dr. Barbara Lotito, Associate Professor of Spanish at the University of Connecticut at Hartford. Dr. Lotito has traveled extensively throughout Latin America and the Caribbean, leading tour groups to El Salvador, Peru, and the Dominican Republic. She has lectured internationally on cross-cultural communication and has served as a consultant to business and the public and private sector. She recently published Enseñando comunicación (Hijos de la Marea, 1988).

Costa Rica has for many years been a symbol of peace for the developing world with a Constitution that forbids a standing army and is a proud fact that there is over 90% literacy in its peaceful 150 year old democracy.

Included in the package price of $710 per person is roundtrip airfare, 5 nights accommodations at a 1st Class hotel in San Jose, 2 nights at the Arbolitta Hotel on the beach in Quepos, Roundtrip flights to Quepos, Free lunch, cruise, free admission to the Tripod.

MEETING

The next meeting of the Dean of Students Alcohol Task Force will be held on Thursday, January 26, 1989 at 4:30 p.m. in the Alumni Lounge. Please post this notice in the next issue of the Tripod.

EXHIBITS

"Early Atlases: 1500 to 1800" will be held through Jan. 27 in the Triennial Room, Watkinson Library. It will be open 8:30 am to 4:30 pm Monday through Friday and 9:30 am to 4:30 pm on Saturdays. Free admission.

"Lord Byron and Greece" will be held in the Audubon Room, Watkinson Library through Jan. 27. The exhibit will be open when the college is in session: weekdays from 8:30 am to 4:30 pm and on Saturdays from 9:30 am to 4:30 pm. Free admission.

JOBS

CAMPUS REPS NEEDED. Earn big commissions and free trips by selling Nassau/Paradise Island, Cancun, Mexico and ski trips to Vermont and Colorado. For more information call toll free 1-800-231-0113 or in Ct. (203) 967-3330.

Internships for the spring semester are still available in some state judicial Department offices in the Hartford area where several Trinity students are currently working. For interviews or for more information, call Rosanne Purtill, Coordinator of Volunteers, at 566-4350 or write to office of Adult Probation, 643 Maple Av., Hartford, 06114.

Leadership America, the major national leadership development opportunity for collegiate undergraduates, is seeking applicants for its third session this summer. Students who will complete the junior year of their undergraduates studies by June 5, 1989, are eligible to apply. The primary criterion for selection is that the student have an "outstanding potential for leadership." For more information contact Anne Lundberg, UEC, Internship Office, Seabury 42 A, Tel: 297-2383. Applications for this program must be returned in the campus representative no later than Jan. 30, 1989.

GENERAL

The Trinity Women’s Organization holds meetings every Wednesday at 4:30 pm in the Woman’s Center. All interested individuals are welcome to attend.

SPRING BREAK! Go to Nassau/Paradise Island from $299.00! Packages are also available! Organize a small group and earn a free trip. Call 1-800-231-0113 or (203) 967-3330.

---

The 4th Annual Bantam Ball

Saturday, Jan. 28th
8 p.m. - 1 a.m.
2nd Floor of Mather

Tickets:
- $5 per person
- $7 at the door

8 p.m. - 10 p.m.
Cash Bar
ID Required
$1.00 per drink

Sponsored by ORS, RC/A’s, TCAC

Entertainment:
- Betty Ann Cox on Piano
- Trinity Jazz Band
- Comedian Andy Andrews
- New York City Swing Band

WINTER WEEKEND CONCERT

Friday, January 27th
10 p.m. - 2 p.m.
$3.00 donation
Alternative Beverage Provided
ID Required

Tripod Writers Needed!!!

If you are interested in working for the Tripod staff this Spring, there will be an Open House in the Tripod office (basement of Jackson Hall) Thursday, January 26 at 7:00. Refreshments will be served.
Features
Do Squirrels Eat Pizza?

By Bill Charest
Recently Deposed Sports Editor

How was your break?

The question is everywhere. You can't help but hear it as you arrive at this question at least 407 times in the first four days after Holiday Break. It's inevitable.

I told a lot of thinking over break. I mean, really, it's 1989. It's been TEN YEARS since I was in seventh grade. It's about time that I start considering the larger questions of life. That is exactly what I did over break. It's about time that I started asking myself some inevitable questions.

As you probably already know, the world suffered a great loss on January 9, when Pat Sajak left Wheel of Fortune, and was replaced by Rolf Benirschke. Having been Sports Editor of this publication for the past four weeks, the results of which appear here.

Rolf WHO?

As you probably already know, the world suffered a great loss on January 9, when Pat Sajak left Wheel of Fortune, and was replaced by Rolf Benirschke. Having been Sports Editor of this publication for the past four weeks, the results of which appear here.

Rolf WHO?

As you probably already know, the world suffered a great loss on January 9, when Pat Sajak left Wheel of Fortune, and was replaced by Rolf Benirschke. Having been Sports Editor of this publication for the past four weeks, the results of which appear here.

Rolf WHO?

As you probably already know, the world suffered a great loss on January 9, when Pat Sajak left Wheel of Fortune, and was replaced by Rolf Benirschke. Having been Sports Editor of this publication for the past four weeks, the results of which appear here.

Rolf WHO?

As you probably already know, the world suffered a great loss on January 9, when Pat Sajak left Wheel of Fortune, and was replaced by Rolf Benirschke. Having been Sports Editor of this publication for the past four weeks, the results of which appear here.

Rolf WHO?

As you probably already know, the world suffered a great loss on January 9, when Pat Sajak left Wheel of Fortune, and was replaced by Rolf Benirschke. Having been Sports Editor of this publication for the past four weeks, the results of which appear here.

Rolf WHO?

As you probably already know, the world suffered a great loss on January 9, when Pat Sajak left Wheel of Fortune, and was replaced by Rolf Benirschke. Having been Sports Editor of this publication for the past four weeks, the results of which appear here.

Rolf WHO?

As you probably already know, the world suffered a great loss on January 9, when Pat Sajak left Wheel of Fortune, and was replaced by Rolf Benirschke. Having been Sports Editor of this publication for the past four weeks, the results of which appear here.

Rolf WHO?
CalendArt

Friday, February 3, 8:00 p.m.
“Dance Fest ’89”
Geofwth Theatre, Austin Arts Center

Presents the works of Evan Williams, Mary Barnett, and Patti O’Neal.

They are attempting to find a process best suited for present times and questions we ask ourselves and our society. The topics covered in the fifteen original plays include aid to foreign refugees, questions regarding masculinity and femininity, and the satirization of television. The Chrysalis Theatre has also produced
dance world music concert, and a performance by a feminist theatre group for Italy.

The Jesters will present “Flight from Meaning” on January 27 at the Austin Arts Center, at 8:00 p.m. This piece is an original production of the Chrysalis Theatre of Northampton, Mass.

“Flight from Meaning” is a storytelling theatre
piece with music that questions some of the ideals of the so-called indifferent ’80s. The group is comprised of 5 actors and musicians including writer-director
Andrea Hairston. The piece is inspired by West
African musical and theatrical traditions, covering a wide range of topics, including terrorists, AIDS, and Jehovah’s Witnesses.

The Chrysalis Theatre was founded to produce and
present social awareness with artistic integrity and excellence. The ensemble works with diverse groups
of people in order to maintain a diverse audience.

Jesters Meeting

Tuesday, January 24 (today)

Jesters is now accepting proposals for March performance dates.
For more information come to the meeting or contact Chris Anderson, Box 436. The deadline is January 31.

Four Sisters

Wednesday, January 25 6:30 p.m

THREE SISTERS III

Wednesday, January 25 12-6 pm

Student-Faculty Dance Concert

The Trinity Tripod • January 24, 1989

Flight from Meaning

The Jesters will present “Flight from Meaning” on January 27 at the Austin Arts Center, at 8:00 p.m. This piece is an original production of the Chrysalis Theatre of Northampton, Mass.

“Flight from Meaning” is a storytelling theatre
piece with music that questions some of the ideals of the so-called indifferent ’80s. The group is comprised of 5 actors and musicians including writer-director
Andrea Hairston. The piece is inspired by West
African musical and theatrical traditions, covering a wide range of topics, including terrorists, AIDS, and Jehovah’s Witnesses.

The Chrysalis Theatre was founded to produce and
present social awareness with artistic integrity and excellence. The ensemble works with diverse groups
of people in order to maintain a diverse audience.

They are attempting to find a process best suited for
present times and questions we ask ourselves and our society. The topics covered in the fifteen original plays
include aid to foreign refugees, questions regarding masculinity and femininity, and the satirization of television. The Chrysalis Theatre has also produced
dance world music concert, and a performance by a feminist theatre group for Italy.

The Jesters will present “Flight from Meaning” on January 27 at the Austin Arts Center, at 8:00 p.m. This piece is an original production of the Chrysalis Theatre of Northampton, Mass.

“Flight from Meaning” is a storytelling theatre
piece with music that questions some of the ideals of the so-called indifferent ’80s. The group is comprised of 5 actors and musicians including writer-director
Andrea Hairston. The piece is inspired by West
African musical and theatrical traditions, covering a wide range of topics, including terrorists, AIDS, and Jehovah’s Witnesses.

The Chrysalis Theatre was founded to produce and
present social awareness with artistic integrity and excellence. The ensemble works with diverse groups
of people in order to maintain a diverse audience.

They are attempting to find a process best suited for
present times and questions we ask ourselves and our society. The topics covered in the fifteen original plays
include aid to foreign refugees, questions regarding masculinity and femininity, and the satirization of television. The Chrysalis Theatre has also produced
dance world music concert, and a performance by a feminist theatre group for Italy.

The Jesters will present “Flight from Meaning” on January 27 at the Austin Arts Center, at 8:00 p.m. This piece is an original production of the Chrysalis Theatre of Northampton, Mass.

“Flight from Meaning” is a storytelling theatre
piece with music that questions some of the ideals of the so-called indifferent ’80s. The group is comprised of 5 actors and musicians including writer-director
Andrea Hairston. The piece is inspired by West
African musical and theatrical traditions, covering a wide range of topics, including terrorists, AIDS, and Jehovah’s Witnesses.

The Chrysalis Theatre was founded to produce and
present social awareness with artistic integrity and excellence. The ensemble works with diverse groups
of people in order to maintain a diverse audience.

They are attempting to find a process best suited for
present times and questions we ask ourselves and our society. The topics covered in the fifteen original plays
include aid to foreign refugees, questions regarding masculinity and femininity, and the satirization of television. The Chrysalis Theatre has also produced
dance world music concert, and a performance by a feminist theatre group for Italy.

The Jesters will present “Flight from Meaning” on January 27 at the Austin Arts Center, at 8:00 p.m. This piece is an original production of the Chrysalis Theatre of Northampton, Mass.

“Flight from Meaning” is a storytelling theatre
piece with music that questions some of the ideals of the so-called indifferent ’80s. The group is comprised of 5 actors and musicians including writer-director
Andrea Hairston. The piece is inspired by West
African musical and theatrical traditions, covering a wide range of topics, including terrorists, AIDS, and Jehovah’s Witnesses.

The Chrysalis Theatre was founded to produce and
present social awareness with artistic integrity and excellence. The ensemble works with diverse groups
of people in order to maintain a diverse audience.

They are attempting to find a process best suited for
present times and questions we ask ourselves and our society. The topics covered in the fifteen original plays
include aid to foreign refugees, questions regarding masculinity and femininity, and the satirization of television. The Chrysalis Theatre has also produced
dance world music concert, and a performance by a feminist theatre group for Italy.

The Jesters will present “Flight from Meaning” on January 27 at the Austin Arts Center, at 8:00 p.m. This piece is an original production of the Chrysalis Theatre of Northampton, Mass.

“Flight from Meaning” is a storytelling theatre
piece with music that questions some of the ideals of the so-called indifferent ’80s. The group is comprised of 5 actors and musicians including writer-director
Andrea Hairston. The piece is inspired by West
African musical and theatrical traditions, covering a wide range of topics, including terrorists, AIDS, and Jehovah’s Witnesses.

The Chrysalis Theatre was founded to produce and
present social awareness with artistic integrity and excellence. The ensemble works with diverse groups
of people in order to maintain a diverse audience.

They are attempting to find a process best suited for
present times and questions we ask ourselves and our society. The topics covered in the fifteen original plays
include aid to foreign refugees, questions regarding masculinity and femininity, and the satirization of television. The Chrysalis Theatre has also produced
dance world music concert, and a performance by a feminist theatre group for Italy.

The Jesters will present “Flight from Meaning” on January 27 at the Austin Arts Center, at 8:00 p.m. This piece is an original production of the Chrysalis Theatre of Northampton, Mass.

“Flight from Meaning” is a storytelling theatre
piece with music that questions some of the ideals of the so-called indifferent ’80s. The group is comprised of 5 actors and musicians including writer-director
Andrea Hairston. The piece is inspired by West
African musical and theatrical traditions, covering a wide range of topics, including terrorists, AIDS, and Jehovah’s Witnesses.

The Chrysalis Theatre was founded to produce and
present social awareness with artistic integrity and excellence. The ensemble works with diverse groups
of people in order to maintain a diverse audience.
Hip Hop '89 Top Ten Countdown

1. "Wrath of Kane" - Big Daddy Kane

2. "Caught Up" - Chub Rock

3. "Jack of Spades" - KRS 1

4. "Baseheads" (remix) - Public Enemy

5. "The Ruler's Back" - Slick Rick

6. "Ugly People Be Quiet" (remix) - Cash Money And Marvelous

7. "Step Up Front" - Positive K

8. "Gettin' Funky" - Kid N' Play

9. "The R" (remix) - Eric B And Rakim

10. "900 Number" - 45 King

Compiled by Hip Hop DJ's King Imperial and Matrix.
Sports

From the Cheap Seats by Eric Hamstronter

Thursday's Willy Wonker defeated Haverford College philadelphia, Pa. by a score of 37-12 last Thursday, Thursday, to move on to their third home victory in six games. On the Sunday, points three student-athletes won and ties, and won three matches by forfeit, to finish the tournament with a perfect 10-0 record in victory... Continued from Page 9

Men's Hoops Cont'd

Continued from Page 12

The key play was when "The Freezer" came in on fourth-and- tie, with 9 seconds left, and tied the score at 11-2, and 167 seconds later, he pushed the score to 16-2. The game was over before it started... Continued from Page 9

The key play was when "The Freezer" came in on fourth-and-tie, with 9 seconds left, and tied the score at 11-2, and 167 seconds later, he pushed the score to 16-2. The game was over before it started... Continued from Page 9

The key play was when "The Freezer" came in on fourth-and-tie, with 9 seconds left, and tied the score at 11-2, and 167 seconds later, he pushed the score to 16-2. The game was over before it started... Continued from Page 9

The key play was when "The Freezer" came in on fourth-and-tie, with 9 seconds left, and tied the score at 11-2, and 167 seconds later, he pushed the score to 16-2. The game was over before it started... Continued from Page 9

The key play was when "The Freezer" came in on fourth-and-tie, with 9 seconds left, and tied the score at 11-2, and 167 seconds later, he pushed the score to 16-2. The game was over before it started... Continued from Page 9

The key play was when "The Freezer" came in on fourth-and-tie, with 9 seconds left, and tied the score at 11-2, and 167 seconds later, he pushed the score to 16-2. The game was over before it started...
Trinity Hockey Scoring Leaders

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>GP</th>
<th>G</th>
<th>A</th>
<th>Pts</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>11</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>13</td>
<td>18</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>11</td>
<td>9</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>15</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>10</td>
<td>8</td>
<td>7</td>
<td>15</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>11</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>10</td>
<td>15</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>11</td>
<td>9</td>
<td>6</td>
<td>15</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Trinity Hockey Goalscoring Leaders

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Min.</th>
<th>Av. Pts.</th>
<th>GAA.</th>
<th>W-L</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Jeff Tuck</td>
<td>359</td>
<td>0.910</td>
<td>3-3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Steve Gorman</td>
<td>251</td>
<td>0.882</td>
<td>3-1</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Second Semester Hockey Results

Opponent
A.I.C. 8-7 ot
Iona 3-5
Bentley 5-4 ot
UConn 4-1
Amherst 1-5

Women's Basketball Scoring Leaders

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>GP</th>
<th>Avg.</th>
<th>Pts</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>2</td>
<td>16.5</td>
<td>33</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5</td>
<td>14.4</td>
<td>73</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Second Semester Women's Basketball Results

Opponent
Pine Manor 76-54
Wellesley 72-54

Liberty Bank Classic Basketball Tournament

All-Tournament Team
John Montesano, Trinity College
Derek Small, CCSM College
Faye Allender, Wesleyan
Chris Alexander, Wesleyan
Thad Weaver, ECSU

Most Valuable Player
Joe Reilly, Trinity College

Men's Basketball Scoring Leaders

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>PPG</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>John Moonhouse</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mike Stulbo</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Ted Lyon</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Glenn Kottz</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Joe Reilly</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Man Vaughs</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Second Semester Men's Basketball Results

Opponent
Trinity 93-49
Cass College 95-71
Wesleyan 67-65

Trinity Records held by Leanne LeBrun:
- Points in a Game, 36 (vs. Connecticut College, 1985-86)
- Points in a Season, 370 (1985-86)
- Points in a Career, 586 (still active)
- Season Scoring Average, 19.5 (1985-86)
- Career Scoring Average, 17.3 (still active)
- #2 in Rebounds in a Season, 223 (1987-88)
- #2 in Rebounds in a Career, 586 (still active)

Women's Basketball Scoring Leaders

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>GP</th>
<th>Avg.</th>
<th>Pts</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>2</td>
<td>16.5</td>
<td>33</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5</td>
<td>14.4</td>
<td>73</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Second Semester Women's Basketball Results

Opponent
Pine Manor 76-54
Wellesley 72-54

This Week in Sports

Jan. 24
- Men's Basketball vs. Wesleyan 8:00
- Indoor Track at Coast Guard 3:30
- Hockey at Framingham State 7:30
- Men's Squash vs. M.I.T. 7:00

Jan. 25
- Men's Squash vs. Yale 7:00
- Women's Basketball at Wesleyan 7:00
- Wrestling at M.I.T. 6:00

Jan. 26
- Women's Basketball at Nichols 4:00

Jan. 27
- Men's Squash vs. University of Rochester 8:00

Jan. 28
- Women's Basketball vs. Tufts 2:00
- Varsity Swimming vs. Brandeis 1:30
- Men's Squash vs. UPenn 2:00

Jan. 29
- Wrestling at Williams 1:00
- Volleyball at UConn 7:00

Jan. 30
- Wrestling at Bates and B.U. 5:00
- vs. W.N.E.C and Bridgewater 6:00

Jan. 31
- Fencing vs. UConn 7:30
- Indoor Track TBA 3:30

*Home games appear in boldface

Kegs

- 1/2 Keg Budweiser $40.00 tax included
- 1/2 Keg Busch $33.00 tax included

Large selection of liquor & wine at low prices

Kegs

- 1/2 Keg Schaeffer $28.00 tax included
- 1/2 Keg Milwaukee's Best $25.00 tax included

Tuesday is $3 Pitcher Night at The View
Icers Beat UConn, Fall to Lord Jeffs

- By Sean Dougherty

Ice Hockey is 7-4 on the season after beating UConn 4-1 (for only the second time in team history) and losing to Army for the second time this season, by a score of 5-1.

The same inconsistency that plagued the team last year, the second half of the season is following it into the second half of this season. The team is not playing well no team can beat them.

At no time was it an easy game. The players were upset about the freshman line. Despite a poor shooting performance, the team its first win over American International College in the two teams' last three meetings, the Bants scored 19 points in the second half and were able to light up the scoreboard for 93 points. The Bants shot a lowly 38%.

The Trinity College Women's Basketball Team ripped off two wins this weekend and set a new record for the most points scored in a game in a single season. The Bants led 74-39 with 12:14 remaining in the game as they sprinted to the win.

Despite a poor shooting performance, the team its first win over American International College in the two teams' last three meetings. The Bants scored 19 points in the second half and were able to light up the scoreboard for 93 points. The Bants shot a lowly 38%.

The Bants led 76-70 halftime. A string of 10 straight points and foul shots by the Crusaders, combined with several key fouls leading to defensive layups by the Bants kept it somewhat close. Trinity outscored St. Joseph's with three minutes left. The Bants would outscore the Crusaders 7-2 over the final 3 minutes.

The biggest lead at that point 48-32, as the Bants would outscore the Crusaders 7-2 over the final 3 minutes.

The Bants would outscore the Crusaders 7-2 over the final 3 minutes.

The biggest lead at that point 48-32, as the Bants would outscore the Crusaders 7-2 over the final 3 minutes.

The biggest lead at that point 48-32, as the Bants would outscore the Crusaders 7-2 over the final 3 minutes.

The biggest lead at that point 48-32, as the Bants would outscore the Crusaders 7-2 over the final 3 minutes.