James Michener
To Stump Here

OCT. 24—Pulitzer Prize-winning author James A. Michener, who is on a two-month book tour, began his western trip today.

WINNING GEM: Phil Kamemhi won the 1961 Ivy Open, which was a part of the 1961 Ivy Open, before going on to win the 1961 Ivy Open.

Mather Hall Dedicated: 300 Visitors Look On

The dedication ceremony of Mather Hall was held today. The hall was dedicated to the memory of John Mather, a former president of the college.

Editors
M. Thomas Said It All The Tripod's Position

Vol. 14 No. 7
Trinity College, Hartford, Conn.

OCT. 24—Pulitzer Prize-winning author James A. Michener arrived in Hartford today for a book tour of the eastern United States. Michener, who is known for his novels and non-fiction books, is on a two-month book tour of the United States.

Michener's visit to Hartford was part of his book tour, which is expected to last for two months. The author is scheduled to make stops in various cities throughout the eastern United States, including New York, Chicago, and Boston.

Michener is best known for his novels, including "Crown and Anchor," "The Covenant," and "Hawaii." He has also written several non-fiction books, including "The New World," a history of the Americas, and "The Flame Within," a memoir of his early life.

The dedication ceremony of Mather Hall was held today. The hall was dedicated to the memory of John Mather, a former president of the college. The ceremony was attended by 300 visitors, who included faculty, students, and alumni.

OCT. 24—Pulitzer Prize-winning author James A. Michener arrived in Hartford today for a book tour of the eastern United States. Michener, who is known for his novels and non-fiction books, is on a two-month book tour of the United States.

Michener's visit to Hartford was part of his book tour, which is expected to last for two months. The author is scheduled to make stops in various cities throughout the eastern United States, including New York, Chicago, and Boston.

Michener is best known for his novels, including "Crown and Anchor," "The Covenant," and "Hawaii." He has also written several non-fiction books, including "The New World," a history of the Americas, and "The Flame Within," a memoir of his early life.

The dedication ceremony of Mather Hall was held today. The hall was dedicated to the memory of John Mather, a former president of the college. The ceremony was attended by 300 visitors, who included faculty, students, and alumni.

OCT. 24—Pulitzer Prize-winning author James A. Michener arrived in Hartford today for a book tour of the eastern United States. Michener, who is known for his novels and non-fiction books, is on a two-month book tour of the United States.

Michener's visit to Hartford was part of his book tour, which is expected to last for two months. The author is scheduled to make stops in various cities throughout the eastern United States, including New York, Chicago, and Boston.

Michener is best known for his novels, including "Crown and Anchor," "The Covenant," and "Hawaii." He has also written several non-fiction books, including "The New World," a history of the Americas, and "The Flame Within," a memoir of his early life.

The dedication ceremony of Mather Hall was held today. The hall was dedicated to the memory of John Mather, a former president of the college. The ceremony was attended by 300 visitors, who included faculty, students, and alumni.

OCT. 24—Pulitzer Prize-winning author James A. Michener arrived in Hartford today for a book tour of the eastern United States. Michener, who is known for his novels and non-fiction books, is on a two-month book tour of the United States.

Michener's visit to Hartford was part of his book tour, which is expected to last for two months. The author is scheduled to make stops in various cities throughout the eastern United States, including New York, Chicago, and Boston.

Michener is best known for his novels, including "Crown and Anchor," "The Covenant," and "Hawaii." He has also written several non-fiction books, including "The New World," a history of the Americas, and "The Flame Within," a memoir of his early life.

The dedication ceremony of Mather Hall was held today. The hall was dedicated to the memory of John Mather, a former president of the college. The ceremony was attended by 300 visitors, who included faculty, students, and alumni.

OCT. 24—Pulitzer Prize-winning author James A. Michener arrived in Hartford today for a book tour of the eastern United States. Michener, who is known for his novels and non-fiction books, is on a two-month book tour of the United States.

Michener's visit to Hartford was part of his book tour, which is expected to last for two months. The author is scheduled to make stops in various cities throughout the eastern United States, including New York, Chicago, and Boston.

Michener is best known for his novels, including "Crown and Anchor," "The Covenant," and "Hawaii." He has also written several non-fiction books, including "The New World," a history of the Americas, and "The Flame Within," a memoir of his early life.

The dedication ceremony of Mather Hall was held today. The hall was dedicated to the memory of John Mather, a former president of the college. The ceremony was attended by 300 visitors, who included faculty, students, and alumni.
Task Of The Tripped

Due to the task of some students to last week's editorial endorsing Senator John F. Kennedy and his program to good ballet; although until throughiy satu-

Socialist Is Lauded

Though you may damn his Socialism, Norman Thomas, is the Socialist. He's not a power struggle, period, between the U.S. and

Touring Ballet Cries All The Way To The Bank

By WILLIAM ELLISON

In "Moon Reindeer" not the human sacrifices are the part of the girl. In other

"Aisle Say" by BILL SMITH

In the Ivy League Guide to New York, Davis is stated to have been involved in the welfare during the past few

Deke's 3rd Place Winner

The Socialist are not spon-

LAWTON, 1960, Entered as second class matter, postage paid at Hartford, Con-

...of a half-dozen upperclassmen whom some have been the insuing chase, Nilas kills two people, Ondine (good

Treaty of West Virginia and Arkan-

...of the girl. In other

Congressman, Government Departinsofar as the Reader's Digest

...be construed as attempting to speak for the entire is fun to read—and devote designed ballet in one act, ities, interchangeably, is so one excellence during the past few

Sleep Job.

...Potter is stated to have been involved in the welfare during the past few

10th Place Winner

Second, he proposed strengthening the II. N. Na-

Second, he proposed strengthening the II. N. Na-

David A. Wadhams '62

By BOSWELL STAFF

In last week's Tripod, an to your critical judgment on college affairs. This is not

...we cannot wage a limited war safely—•

...just before the seriousness of the crime. The Socialists

...just before the seriousness of the crime. The Socialists

...be, when he; lover

In "Moon Reindeer" not the human sacrifices are the part of the girl. In other

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover

...be, when he; lover
PRESENT JOB: Telephone Manager, Sioux City, Iowa

When John Hulse was a senior at the U. of South Dakota, he had his own set of "ifs" and "butts." He didn't have a clear idea of what he'd do after college. And he had no plans for his future. But he was determined to make the most of his college years.

One of his first assignments: streamlining operations. He was already doing a good job of it, but now he was tasked with taking it to the next level. His goal was to improve efficiency and reduce costs.

He spent hours analyzing data and refining processes. He worked closely with the team, collecting feedback and making adjustments. And he didn't stop there. He went on to develop new strategies and improve existing ones.

When he graduated, he was ready to take on any challenge. He was confident in his abilities and eager to prove himself. And he's doing just that, just like the man in the story.
Sophomore Standouts Spark Second ’60 Win

By A. ARCHBOLD PAPA
The Trinity Record

Fighting in the spirit of gridiron hero, John Wardlaw, who was killed in World War II, sophomore quarterback Mike Reese led the Bantams’ 10-1 victory against the Williams Ephmen on Saturday. Reese, who was named the college game’s most valuable player, had 171 yards on 24 rushes and five passes for 76 yards.

On this play the Diplomats lined up in their usual defensive formation, and Reese, who had run the ball successfully against Getlin, broke towards the middle of the 4-foot line. The Ephmen line was off balance, and Reese swept to the right, where he found plenty of room. The Bantams’ offensive backs were efficient as well, as the combination of Reese, Doug Anderson and Tomasko enabled the team to gain 159 yards rushing.

On the ensuing kickoff the Bantams’ guards blocked the Ephmen from getting the ball. The Bantams went in for a TD, but the conversion attempt failed, and Trinitians were ahead, 6-0.

In the second period the Bantams’ offense was again successful. After Trini got possession of the ball on their 40-yard line, Reese began a Liberty Bowl drive. Reese connected twice with Szymczyk, who had 50 yards on his two receptions. On the next play, Reese again threw to Szymczyk, who had 68 yards on the play. Szymczyk ran the ball into the end zone to make the score 13-0.

The game was blemished by later-game errors on the Bantams’ part. They were not playing-up to their potential.

The Bantams will travel to Albany on Friday to meet the Union Dutchmen.

For the columnists and the editors,comments must be in before Jan. 15.

Hartford National Bank and Trust Co.
600 Farmington Ave.
Hartford, Conn.

News Items

The College Bar-B Q Shop 1209 Broad St.
Hartford, Conn.

Belmont Record Shop
145 Washington St.
Hartford, Conn.

Connecticut Printers Incorporated
Hartford, Connecticut

Lucky Strike Presents:

Dear Dr. Frood:

Dear Dr. Frood: Don’t you agree that every college student between 18 and 25 is a Mara? Do they smoke more than you do? What do you think?

Dear Dr. Frood: I am puzzled by the Lucky Strike phrase "Winston " is the healthiest brand of all," which was supposed to appeal to the health awareness of the college student. I don’t buy it.
What do you think?

Dear Dr. Frood: My friend and I are trying to decide whether to smoke or not. We’ve heard both sides, but we’re not sure which way to go.
What do you think?

Dear Dr. Frood: What should I do about my parents, who are forcing me to stop smoking?
What do you think?

Dear Dr. Frood: I have been smoking for two years, and I don’t see why it’s so bad. What do you think?

Dear Dr. Frood: I am confused by the Lucky Strike slogan, "Thoughtful for generations used to tobacco. What do you think?"

Dear Dr. Frood: I am confused by the Lucky Strike slogan, "Forevermer. I find it confusing. What do you think?

Dear Dr. Frood: I am confused by the Lucky Strike slogan, "Forevermer. I find it confusing. What do you think?

Dear Dr. Frood: I am confused by the Lucky Strike slogan, "Forevermer. I find it confusing. What do you think?

Dear Dr. Frood: I am confused by the Lucky Strike slogan, "Forevermer. I find it confusing. What do you think?

Dear Dr. Frood: I am confused by the Lucky Strike slogan, "Forevermer. I find it confusing. What do you think?"