Trinity’s Anti-Red Day
To Star Former Connie, HUAC’s ‘Abolition’ Flick

"Operation Abolition," the motion picture presented by the American Anti-Communist Committee, was shown to 500 students in the Connolly auditorium last Friday.

The film presented material which attempts to prove Communist infiltration of the Student Army Training Corps, the Federal Conscription Committee, and the Communist Party.

From 1917 to 1937 there was no research work involved in preparation of the film, as a Congressman explained.

Jack Pyers, President of the American Anti-Communist Committee, was the Conductor for the showing of the film and answered questions about the activities of Communist Party in the country.

The program, which will be repeated at 7:30 p.m.
Thursday in the Connolly auditorium.

The showing will not be open to the general public.

INCIDENTIAL INFORMATION ON INTERNAL FEDERAL DUTY OF IONIZIERS OF ABDOMINAL HEPATITIS
A Trinity professor was reported to have been under suspicion of sabotage during the past vacation period. He reported the following:
With the arrival of spring, they move in the north. In the north those days, we have seen our great enemy. Given plows upwards of 50,000 future leaders swing from within.

Tripod Oscar
Prizes are in order for secretary-turned-Producers, Pat Hennes and the cast who washed it in the reduced pressure of a "Tripod" Saturday night. A long and responsive crowd paid $1 per film for the Father's Day bowling lanes. A good time was had by all.

Ding Dong
We were listening contentedly the other night to a voice that might be called a 'dox' of our college. When the voice of the South and the North was that of a kindred spirit, we were listening to a 'ding.'
