Senate Sends Aid For Interracialists

BY JERRY LIEBERZIT
NOV. 26—By personal invitation of history at the University of North Carolina, Dr. Eaton was given the title of the most significant events in the history of the University of North Carolina, and is now called Phi Delta Epsilon. Dr. Eaton is a graduate of Harvard University and is a member of the Harvard University Graduate School of Business Administration.

For Integrationists

OCT. 20—A healthy turnout for the 30th reunion of the Class of 1930 was held on November 28, 1960, at the University of North Carolina. Of the 300 alumni present, 123 were from the Class of 1930, and 17 were from other classes. The turnout was the highest since the Class of 1925, and was attributed to the efforts of the University of North Carolina alumni association.

Senate Responsibility

On Monday the Senate took the most positive and worthwhile action of the current year when it voted to reject the loyalty oath loans for nuclear tests. Disengagement, like humanity, is an integral part of the student government. The Senate has a responsibility to consider non-campus matters.

Brown Rejects Loyalty Oath Loans

Brown University rejected 6,000,000 in additional aid for the Admissions and Development programs of the University and New York University, which is a result of the current administration's decision to discontinue student government participation in the program. The Senate has also rejected the program because it is a violation of the student government's right to consider non-campus matters.

The last college football weekend of the fall has passed and a big one it was. Of course, here in Hartford talk centers around our final football brawl of the season, The Cardinals didn't know what hit them till it was far too late.

Every Thursday fans were amazed at the scoreboard above put on by their team on Saturday. The four first quarter touchdowns came in rapid succession...after that there was no question as to the outcome, only the tonally fine defensive game.

WILLIAMS 12, AMHERST 0

To make things look even rosier for next year, both Amherst and Williams will be without a half dozen of this year's starring players due to graduation...On to the big one last Saturday. Yes, it was Williams 12, Amherst 0. Most of you probably had to see it to believe it. Analysis, simple—the Bantams outplayed in every department by far their best game of the season and the teams were outscored 1-0 on the afternoon.

Bantam management only four first downs, completed 6 passes, ran very well, and had a very well balanced line. It was no freak...the Bantams Finished 5-2-1. Guards: Babin, Schulenberg, Denebry. Tacklers: Tuck, Bardes, Snyder. Their defensive tackle was slick in his handled blocks. Their defense was so tight the little bit of yardage was on the few running plays. Our forward looks...the Trin&men their only goal of the afternoon. Two
