Crossroads Leader To Speak On Africa

The founder and director of Presbyterian World Relief, Rev. James E. Robinson, will address the student body on "Opportunity and Challenge in the Crossroads of Civil War." The Rev. Mr. Robinson, of York, Pa., will also address the faculty at 9:30 a.m. in the Chemistry Auditorium.

History Remains Largest Major

Oct. 23-The University's English department faculty is the most popular major on campus with 554 students enrolled. This is a decrease from last year's total of 571 students as the English department lost 17 students this year. The new English major enrollment is the highest in the University's history.

The German department has the second largest number of students enrolled with 497. This is a decrease from the 527 students enrolled in the German department last year. The History department has the third largest number of students enrolled with 495. This is a decrease from the 522 students enrolled in the History department last year.

Other departments that have a large number of students enrolled include the Sociology department with 404 students, the Chemistry department with 384 students, and the Economics department with 375 students. The smallest number of students enrolled in a department is in the Philosophy department with 105 students.

Law of the Jungle May Prevail

In Shelters During Fallout Period

By Ronald Spencer

Trinity students have been spending more and more time in bunkers and shelters during the past few weeks. The University has ordered everyone to "leave the dormitories and go to the shelters for the protection of life." Students have been seen sleeping in the shelters at night and spending their days in the shelters. The shelters have become a temporary home for many students.

Trinity has one shelter on campus, according to this writer. The shelter is located in the basement of the University Memorial Building. It is large enough to accommodate 200 people and is equipped with food and water.

The shelters are being used by students from all over the country. The University has received many requests for shelter space from students who are attending the University but who do not have a place to stay.

The shelters are also being used by students who are attending the University for the first time. Many of these students are from other countries and are not familiar with the University's campus.

Mixer Masters Chaffee Girls

By Keith Watson

Oct. 23-For the second time this year, a mixer was held on the University campus. The mixer was held in the College of Architecture and was attended by 150 students.

The mixer was sponsored by the Student Council and was held in the College of Architecture. The mixer was well attended and was enjoyed by all who attended.

Ten Semi-Finalists Vie For College Bowl Seats

By Myron Rosenthal

Ten semi-finalists will compete for the College Bowl seats this year. The College Bowl is a national college bowl competition that is held each year. The competition is open to all college students and is sponsored by the National College Bowl Committee.

The semi-finalists will compete for the College Bowl seats in the University of Texas at Austin. The competition will be held on the campus of the University of Texas at Austin and will be broadcast live on television.

The College Bowl is a national college bowl competition that is held each year. The competition is open to all college students and is sponsored by the National College Bowl Committee.

The semi-finalists will compete for the College Bowl seats in the University of Texas at Austin. The competition will be held on the campus of the University of Texas at Austin and will be broadcast live on television.

The College Bowl is a national college bowl competition that is held each year. The competition is open to all college students and is sponsored by the National College Bowl Committee.

The semi-finalists will compete for the College Bowl seats in the University of Texas at Austin. The competition will be held on the campus of the University of Texas at Austin and will be broadcast live on television.
Art Show:

Watercolor Exhibition

Deemed Worth Seeing

By MALCOLM LLOYD

In Warren Lounge there is an entered show of watercolors. These pictures, which are exhibited, are from the collection of the New British Art Society and opened in partnership with the U.N. The show is a collection of the best works from some of the most noted British and American artists. Some of the stand-out pictures are the work of Bert Wallis, a noted painter, and a fellow member of the New British Art Society. The show is open to the public and is free of charge.

Letters To The Editor

Preconception

To the Editor:

I am not sure how to respond to Mr. Lorch's article. He seems to believe that the U.N. is a failure and that it should be dissolved. I believe that the U.N. is a necessary organization in the world. It is the only organization that can handle international problems.

Sincerely,

[Signature]

Editor Jailed...

(Continued from Page 1)

...the only way they can do it is by coordinating the efforts of the various nations in order to meet the problems. I agree with Mr. Lorch that the U.N. is failing to solve the problems. However, I believe that the U.N. is the only organization that can handle these problems.

Sincerely,

[Signature]

Editorial

To the Editor:

I would like to respond to Mr. Lorch's article. He seems to believe that the U.N. is a failure and that it should be dissolved. I believe that the U.N. is a necessary organization in the world. It is the only organization that can handle international problems.

Sincerely,

[Signature]

Other Notes

Also involved in the drafting of the U.N. charter was a number of other nations, including France, Great Britain, and the Soviet Union. However, the U.S. was the main force in determining the charter.

Bill Bushnell, first-nighter complete

Formal Attire

At only $59.95

Entire Outfit Included...

Smart natural shouldered jacket with regimental stripes on the sleeve. A real delight in delicatesse treats.

"A REAL DELIGHT IN DELICATESSEN TREATS"
Getting Back to College

First-year men, come on. You've been here long enough to have learned something about the kinds of questions that really need to be stockpiled and answered.

First, girls are not just going to fall into your lap. Every girl in the world is counting, most likely, the exact number of guys who have come on too strong. So, first of all, you had better decide if you want to see the campus; you are going to have to do some thinking to decide how you are going to approach what this campus is offering.

Second, you need to learn to relax, or at least seem to. Certain girls find it hard to be around men who are nervous or anxious. It is impossible to be successful in college if you aren't able to be a good person. A healthy, active, intelligent man is not a liability but a valuable asset.

Third, you had better take care of yourself. It is not easy to get a job in the summer, guys, and you are probably going to have to work at it. A lot of people make the mistake of thinking that they can do anything they want without working for it. This is a costly mistake. It is better to start early and take care of yourself. You are not going to be able to do anything if you don't take care of yourself.

Fourth, you need to learn to be a good person. This is not just a matter of being nice to people, but of being honest and fair. It is not easy to be a good person, but you can't do anything else. You are not going to be able to do anything if you don't take care of yourself.
Second Half Surge Squashes Colby, 23-16; Bantams Still Among Undefeated Elevens

Sideline Splinters

by steve perreault

Our football team has a complex. For some bizarre, plausible reason they feel that in order to win they must beat the opposing team on every single play. This is a problem that they will have to deal with on the field. The solutions to their problems are hidden within their own team. The solutions lie in the hands of the players themselves. This is an issue that they must address in order to succeed.

Second-Half Defense

Taylor’s long third-down pass to John Simmons, which set up the scoring drive, the fourth down play on the Middlebury line. Carl Lamberg’s final plunge into the end zone with a mere minute showing on the clock—every one of them a ball.

The running tams were pushed around rather freely. The running game was a disappointment. The Bantams were not able to control the game at all.

Taylor’s long pass to John Simmons, one of the key plays in the game, enabled the Bantams to take the lead. Then, like the Yankees, with their two-man defense, they were able to put the game out of reach.

Amherst will tell the story. Perhaps a possibility of an undefeated season for us? Perhaps.

Bantams came from behind to win, 19-16. The Bantams’ 14 first downs. His punt was blown out of bounds.

For the fourth time in as many games, a Bantam scored in the third quarter. Taylor found Winner in the end zone, after taking a handoff and running over the middle to tie the game.

The Bantams opened the scoring against Tufts on the 12. Campbell went down to his knees to call the play.

Our Bantams should be ready to shod their feet for the final game of the season. That rigorous schedule will help.

The Bantams are the top game of the fall in New England football.

Our Bantams should be ready to shod their feet for the final game of the season. That rigorous schedule will help.

Our Bantams should be ready to shod their feet for the final game of the season. That rigorous schedule will help.