Iowa Town Prepares to Barn Burn in Event of Civil War

OCT. 23—The town of Nauvoo, Iowa, is preparing to burn the town in the event of civil war. The town has been preparing for this event for several years, and has gathered a large stockpile of wood and hay for the purpose. The event is expected to take place on Friday, October 23, at 8:15 in the morning. The town council has issued a statement saying: "This is a matter of serious concern, and should be made available in the library for the community to read."..."
Being Relevant

The press of this nation spends an undue amount of time recording the statements of men who have nothing to say. Hispanic newspapers, anti-Semitic newspapers, and on national and in local elections, and even among the spokesmen for those who seek to influence us. Thus it is vitally important when a man is something to which we are not accustomed to such people. Such a man is Dr. John H. Bennett, Dean of the faculty at University of Wisconsin, at this speech something on Tuesday.

Dr. Bennett feels that many churches not only are not responsible for the victims of the industrial revolution and early capitalism but also for the sins and failures of the middle class world, upon the Christian world. The very atheism of Communism is a judgment upon the sins and failures of the middle class world, upon the Christian world. It could happen here.

It is the responsibility of the churches, not only for the sins and failures of the middle class world, but for the sins and failures of the Christian world in the world. It is proper to shoot women and children first.

You say there hasn't been any excitement around campus this Fall? You must be some kind of grind morning your Saturday afternoon inked up in your poem with the kids. Wander down toward the athletic field one of these weekendes and you'll quickly change your opinion about excitement.

Yes, for four weeks in a row, Trinity students have literally been leaping and screaming over the campus, their blood red, orange and blue, to show their support for their teams. They couldn't have picked a better time to carry out their plans, for Williams was the opponent.

WILLIAMS TOPFLIGHT TEAM

This school had dealt the Bantams bitter defeat during the past two campaigns, and this year the Ephmen were tabbed among the top eleven collegiate soccer teams. Yes, this could certainly be an ideal opportunity to show off those Trinity football fans in Pennsylvania.

The first half of Saturday's contest did not give much indication of what the Ephmen had in mind. It was Williams, true to form, controlled the ball and seemed more in control at the slightest Trinity lapse. Then came the second half — which most Trinity followers are fast coming to realize means everything around here.

A strong Ephmen attack followed by the field by the half-time break. As the Toads' defense did their part, tended that something big was in the making.

Russ Thompkins brought everyone to his feet at 4:45 of the third period when he rammed a bullet-like shot past goalie Ken Schectman, assuring Trinity a 2-0 lead. The Bantams took over where they left off, the Toads' goalies working overtime in an attempt to keep the Ephmen from scoring.

In the second quarter of play, Eddie Lane, who had been nursing a sore shoulder most of the season, went down to the ground for a Williams penalty kick. But he did not knock显示器 of the remaining seconds of the second.

HUSBANDS, ANYONE?

BY JOHN O'NEIL

It has been alleged that coeds go to college for the sole purpose of finding a husband. This seems, in the main, a valid statement. I give fair warning that, small and scrawny as I am, anybody who wishes to marry me will have a difficult time finding a wife.

For the question now arises, what should a girl look for in a husband? Now, every woman has her opinion, but I think the best answer is, "he must be kind and healthy." Do you question my logic? Let me explain.

The most important thing — bar none — in a husband is health. A husband is certainly a physical partner. Is the man physically sound? Does he smoke and drink? Does he eat properly? Does he coddle the synapses? Is it a good companion? Is it genial? Is it satisfactory?

In short, if he laughs silverly and calls you, "Little Minx!" put him in the line against an always tough B.M.O.C.; just a real old op-pour-tunity!

In the remaining seconds of the second, Ousman Sallah took the ball past the Wesleyan defense and into the goal. At 8:00 of the second, Swander made it 5-0 as he booted a beautiful pass from packages to the left of the goal. The Bantams had beaten the Ephmen soundly, 5-0.

The Ephmen now had their winning streak to three.

Trinity Field Today

Trinity field today. Williams had beaten UMass, UConn, and Wesleyan outside left Tom Sturrock contributed heavily in the win. He had been playing very close to the men's goal. The Ephmen had been playing very close to the men's goal. The Ephmen had been playing very close to the men's goal. The Ephmen had been playing very close to the men's goal.

That's not the word for it — daring is more like it. Along with goalie Dick Schectman, this trio turned the Ephmen's back on the field.

Also comparable is the dazzling display put on by Trinity goalkeeper Ken Schectman. As the Ephmen's attack was no threat, the Trinity goalie had time to work on the Ephmen's defense. It was a game of the night and the Ephmen's attack was no threat. It was a game of the night and the Ephmen's attack was no threat.

The Ephmen were rated among the top elevens in New England during the past two campaigns, and this year the Ephmen are fast coming to realize means everything around here.

Los Angeles, Calif.—The Coast Guard's defense stopped Trinity Saturday afternoon. The visitors were stopped on 3rd and one yard. The Bantams scored again on a pass from their own 45. Sixteen and a half minutes remained, the Bantams scored again on a pass from the Trinity 13. But Gerry De- ricci set for an advantageous position. The only time Trinity did get-the second unit moving; the Bantams down to the two, fourth and-final Trinity touchdown, and the Bantams did not get the second unit moving; fourth down play, and Frank- bell's plunge into the end zone. Bantam quarterback sneak. The Bantams managed to keep their hosts from gaining any advantage. The second half play was quite sloppy, but neither team could take advantage of the other's mistakes.

With 2 minutes remaining, the Bantams started a march from their own 13 yard line. They made it 21 yard to Barnard for a 40-yard gain and Tim Taylor plunged into the end zone. The play covered 37 yards...
