Political Science Club Attends
Mock UN Session In Montreal
BY VINCENT OSOWECKI
FEB. 19—Seven delegates from the Trinity Political Science Club experimented in U.N. procedure on questions concerning U.N. instances, Berlin, Angola, and the credentials of China at the University of Montreal, United Nations this week.
Trinity represented Ireland and Indonesia—two of the 102 counties having delegations at U.N.
Starr Marcus (delegation lead-ter), Tom Knox, Dick Schiel, and Dean Sturman, attended in the General Assembly and in the Security Council. Club members were: Sean Seid, Dick Shiro, and Robert C. Miller, representing Ireland's delegation in the General Assembly.

The University Model United Nations functions with a Security Council, a General Assembly, and a Disarmament Council facing the U.N.
However, most of the three-day period was spent in actual performance of U.N. procedure.
To conserve time, U.N. limited speeches to three minutes and other provisions of the agenda signatures of 20 nations before submission to the Secretary General.

Ireland's delegation proposed to hold classes and to keep the school open in heaviest of this year's storms. "We do not propose to grant independence to any area of a similar resolution prepared by Ghana. In a further dissemination of the knowledge of nuclear weapons, we see no stronger resolutions by the major powers.
Indonesia's Resolutions
Similarly, Indonesia proposed that all disarmament measures deedowed of all foreign military bases in the area of the Sen-tate. Both failed. The first was withheld and never received attention in the General Assembly. The sec-second, however, gained the signatures of all 16 nations, enough to place it before the chair, but during the first meeting of the General Assembly failed to be accepted. It was a financial resolution proposed by Mau-riatana, Japan, and Dutch supported by the delegation in the U.N.
BECAUSE OF this decision, the first General Assembly meeting gave impetus to the Public Debate only accomplishment being the adoption of the agenda for the four speaker's papers.

Snow, Yes
Classes, Yes

BY JERRY LIEBOWITZ
The north wind did blow, and we shall have snow, and what poor Violets can do there.
According to President Jacobs, they will do nothing which our proggrammers have not done—
or at least they shouldn't.
But the Resident-Appraiser that plowed through the soccer field, the freezes, the wet level at Northam Towers, halls, and the overabundance of students that caused us to see how much we have been doing—
or at least that shouldn't.
STUDENTS TRUDGE to classes in a

(Continued from Page 1) We asked the Board of Trustees to take immediate action to eliminate any discriminatory clauses maintained presently by the college in its by-laws. To be the most important thing the present Senate did in terms of campus action, it faced this issue as a detriment to Trinity College's standing. McNulty stated he was pleased we told the Trustees that Trinity did not in the past act, we would have acted.

Commenting on the strength of the Senate's proposal, McNulty stated, "We told the Trustees what we would like to see done."

Face Discrimination

"It's unfortunate," he said, "that Trinity did not in the past face the discrimination issue as no many colleges across the country did a decade ago." We attacked many colleges across the country "that Trinity did not in the past face this issue as a detriment to Trinity College. Even if the SPC had not acted, we would have acted."

Fencers Defeat Crusaders, 23-4

February 13 — Trinity's fencing team foiled an inexperienced Holy Cross squad, 23-4, this afternoon for its fourth victory in five matches.

The Bantams opened up with twelve straight victories for its longest winning streak of the season. Jikes it so long as the Know isn't trouble. He also remembered Hartford had caused him some trouble. He has long been regarded as a force in the fencing world.

The streak still intact, the fools again occupied the fencing studio, the Crusaders, 23-4, once again. Paul Miele was substituted in for Drate but he was defeated as George Tisdale was beaten. Steve Yoston won his first bout of the meet to end the second round.

Three inexperienced foilmen were substituted in the third round. Mike Dols won but Calvin Dull was defeated. Then Garry Perry, who shows a great deal of promise as a fencer, triumphed a more experienced Crusader, leaving the foilmen with an 8-1 record for the day.

Co-Captain Chase then made a winning debut as a sabre fencer. He has long been regarded as a top espaceman, but there was doubt as to his ability to switch to sabre.

Rand made up for his defeat in the previous round by winning. Dave Horstick was then substituted in for Drate but he was defeated 5-0, leaving sabre with a 7-2 record for the meet.

In the last epee round Tisdale again won by a shut-out, and Yeaton gained his second victory. Bob Friedenreifer, substituting for Talley, won 5-3. This gave the Crusaders, 23-4, their third straight victory. Three inexperienced Crusader, the Crimson-fencers, after their first bouts. In sabre, Ray Miele gained by Bill Chase, Kirby Talley and Robert Chang, and Harry Pratt, all won epee.

Mount before and camc on time. I didn't make it very nicely—with some interest. I'm well aware, 'Hookshot,' that you scored 48 points against State. Unfortunately, you scored only 46 on your math exam....

General Assembly approved a U. S. resolution (vote: 61-13) to establish a commission to determine the political status of territories whose condition of self-government is disputed and reject the Cuban proposal to seat Communist China (25-43-10).

The Security Council discussed the question of Angola, Portugal, invited to sit with the Council, denounced the U.A.R. resolution to condemn her dealings in Angola and boycotted the proceedings. No decision was reached for the day.

Despite their fine efforts, and an 11 point performance by Swander, the Bantams could not make a game of it because of their poor defense.

Frosh Record Falls to 3-8; 17 For Steele, Gish, Morisse

FEB. 13—Despite the fact that they registered their highest point total of the season, the Trinity frosh dropped their eighth decision against three wins tonight to-night to St. Thomas Seemay, 85-73.

Dan Swander scored the Bantams first nine points, which prevented St. Thomas from an early runaway. Then, at 5:13, Ron Dole and Bill Gish gag hot, but the score remained 8-1 for the frosh.

Last year the Bantams beat Holy Cross 141-61 after trouncing them 21.6 the year before. Holy Cross' loss to Trinity leaves them with a 0-3 record, both other losses coming from Brandeis.

The Bantam fencers travel to Harvard next Tuesday. But unlike the Crusaders, the Crimson-fencers are a whole or so above the Bantams. Trinity has never beaten Harvard.

Trinity then experienced a ten minute cold spell, as St. Thomas superior rebounding gave them easy shots and a 48-27 halftime lead. In the second half, the frosh pulled to within seven points three times, but good ball-handling and shooting by St. Thomas prevented them from getting any closer.

Frosh, Gish, and Bob Morisse all hit in double figures in the second half, and they each wound up with 17 points. The frosh boys are known for their hustle and their basketball skills.

Rochester Downs Bantams
With Second Period Spree

Feb. 13 — Trinity lost its fourth game of the 61-62 season tonight to a well-organized Rochester team. Using screens and picks, the Yellow Jackets sprung their six-foot captain Mike Berger free for 35 points in beating the Bantams 85-64.

Berger, who made 14 out of 20 from the floor, established a new Rochester career record of 1014 points, surpassing the old record of 1006 set by 1959 graduate Bill Yantz. Bill Boothby added 19 for the visitors, who are now 12-3.

The Bantams, minus John Norcross and Daryle Uphoff, were led by Barry Leghorn with 19. Brian Brooks had 17, and Bob Brandenburg had 14 as the home forces slipped to a 9-4 mark.

Cambridge, Mass., Feb. 10 — Hampered by the absence of star Don Mills, the Trinity Squash team continued its losing ways with an 8-1 beating by Massachusetts Institute of Technology. George Steinmuller, playing in the 5th position, grabbed the Bantams only victory with a 12-13, 15-13, 13-15, 15-4, and 16-14 decision over Mihalts of the Engineers.

Amherst, Mass., Feb. 14 — Don Mills was the only Trinity man to win a game and a match against Amherst, as the Bantams continued their losing ways. Mills defeated Dudley Lyons 15-15, 15-13, 15-15, and 15-9 in recording his fifth victory against a lone defeat.

The Squash team will attempt to break their losing streak in matches against Army on Friday and Fordham on Saturday. Both are home matches.

The Freshman Squash team gained some consolation as they defeated the young Lord Zeus 4-3. Paul Zimmerman, Bill Brigham, John Clement, and Skip Lynch gained the triumphs.
