Jacobs Reports Good Year: Hugh Campbell
Alumni Trustee

In his recent report to the annual Alumni Meeting, President Albert A. Jacobs stated that the College is functioning effectively and that it had succeeded in overcoming the difficult transition period between its three presidents and four presidents. The staff of Dr. Alfred W. Harris, '34, has won the President's Award for the least number of students. The College has been rated as the best in the country in several fields, including English, history, and mathematics.

Fonfante Gives Gold Commemorative Collar

President G. Keith Fonfante, '45, presented the College with a gold commemorative collage of its bicentennial. The collage was designed by Mr. Fonfante and Professor Gordon H. Clem of Auburn, Mass., and is composed of several gold plaques, each representing a different aspect of the College's history.

McCook Trophy

Mr. Donald E. Large, '28, told the Class of 1953 that the College has been named the President's Trophy for its outstanding service on two occasions. Mr. Large will continue to serve as President, but in his new office he will have broader authority.

Win Faulkner recited the Class History and suggested that the College should be named the President's Trophy for its outstanding service on two occasions. Mr. Large will continue to serve as President, but in his new office he will have broader authority.

The Class of 1918 made a colored showing in the Reunion Parade as it marched from the main campus to the Field House for the Alumni Luncheon. Later in the afternoon, the Juniors' Class of 1953 and the Seniors' Class of 1954 met for the annual Alumni Luncheon. Mr. Large gave the Welcome, Ray Moskow and Joe Faust presented the George McCook Trophy, and the Class of 1954 presented Bill Goralski as the most outstanding senior.

In his Commencement address, Mr. Large urged the need for greater understanding between the various sections of the American economy. He declared that individual freedom and its economic system are in danger, and for the welfare and strength of the nation, the individual must overcome the "personalists" and "elitists" who would destroy the individual's idealism, courage, integrity, and personal satisfaction.

The College is functioning effectively, and the students have been rated as the best in the country in several fields. The Class of 1918 made a colored showing in the Reunion Parade as it marched from the main campus to the Field House for the Alumni Luncheon. Mr. Large gave the Welcome, Ray Moskow and Joe Faust presented the George McCook Trophy, and the Class of 1954 presented Bill Goralski as the most outstanding senior.
Greetings from the Alumni Magazinc

Mr. and Mrs. Karl W. Hallden, "’46, have been awarded a Fellowship of two years in France to study the works of Victor Hugo in Lyons, France, for 1934-1935. He received his law degree from the University of Oregon in 1934.

Cheapest Wins Fullbright Dr. Clifford C. Cheperuk, ’46, has been awarded a Fullbright Fellowship to study the works of Victor Hugo in Lyons, France, for 1934-1935. He received his law degree from the University of Oregon in 1934.

Cheapest Wins Fullbright Dr. Clifford C. Cheperuk, ’46, has been awarded a Fullbright Fellowship to study the works of Victor Hugo in Lyons, France, for 1934-1935. He received his law degree from the University of Oregon in 1934.

Cheapest Wins Fullbright Dr. Clifford C. Cheperuk, ’46, has been awarded a Fullbright Fellowship to study the works of Victor Hugo in Lyons, France, for 1934-1935. He received his law degree from the University of Oregon in 1934.

Cheapest Wins Fullbright Dr. Clifford C. Cheperuk, ’46, has been awarded a Fullbright Fellowship to study the works of Victor Hugo in Lyons, France, for 1934-1935. He received his law degree from the University of Oregon in 1934.