Alumni to Welcome Dr. Jacobs
On Reunion Weekend, June 5-7

Final details are being prepared for the big alumni reunion to welcome President Albert C. Jacobs at the 17th Commencement weekend June 5-7. The events for the weekend will be held on the Old Campus and will include a special service of thanksgiving in the University Chapel and dedication of the new library. Joining Dr. Jacobs in the dedication ceremonies will be President Donald W. Tooke of Wesleyan University, President Bruce W. Ornstein of the University of Pennsylvania, and President Owen D. Young of the General Electric Company.

Feeling space constraints at Yale on June 7, 1858, President Elijah S. Condict, determined to make the best of the situation, planned a gala weekend for reunion and non-reunion classes, and was all to return "near the Eells to meet the new President and the campus with its new buildings."

Reunions will commence at thirty-six on Friday, June 5, when overflow registrants are entertained on cloverdale, the football field. Once again we welcome, New Haven's finest, Kendall and Company of Flitchburg, Macon, who will be served in abundance.

Reunions will commence at thirty-six on Friday, June 5, when overflow registrants are entertained on cloverdale, the football field. Once again we welcome, New Haven's finest, Kendall and Company of Flitchburg, Macon, who will be served in abundance.

Reunions will commence at thirty-six on Friday, June 5, when overflow registrants are entertained on cloverdale, the football field. Once again we welcome, New Haven's finest, Kendall and Company of Flitchburg, Macon, who will be served in abundance.

Reunions will commence at thirty-six on Friday, June 5, when overflow registrants are entertained on cloverdale, the football field. Once again we welcome, New Haven's finest, Kendall and Company of Flitchburg, Macon, who will be served in abundance.

Reunions will commence at thirty-six on Friday, June 5, when overflow registrants are entertained on cloverdale, the football field. Once again we welcome, New Haven's finest, Kendall and Company of Flitchburg, Macon, who will be served in abundance.

Reunions will commence at thirty-six on Friday, June 5, when overflow registrants are entertained on cloverdale, the football field. Once again we welcome, New Haven's finest, Kendall and Company of Flitchburg, Macon, who will be served in abundance.
1940 CHARLES HARKER is working on a new book on food and health. He has made many speeches on this topic in the last few years and has been active in the formation of a group of professional educators to fight against the spread of the return to the summertime. CHARLES M. COLE, of the United States Air Force, has been engaged in this work and is now responsible for the work of the United States Air Force in this field.

1940 WALTER HOFF, the former University secretary, has been elected life member of the Massachusetts Medical Society. He is serving his fourth term as State Senator. WALTER HOFF has been a member of the Massachusetts Medical Society and a member of the Berkshire Medical Society. He is also a member of the American Medical Association, the American Podiatric Medical Association, and the American Medical Association of Massachusetts. WALTER HOFF has been an active member of the Berkshire Medical Society and a member of the American Podiatric Medical Association.

1940 GEORGE A. WHIPPLE, of the New York Times, has been elected a member of the New York City Board of Aldermen. He is a member of the New York City Board of Education and a member of the New York City Board of Health.

1940 CHARLES HOFFMAN, of the New York Herald Tribune, has been elected a member of the New York City Board of Aldermen. He is a member of the New York City Board of Education and a member of the New York City Board of Health.

1940 ROBERT W. CARTER, of the New York Times, has been elected a member of the New York City Board of Aldermen. He is a member of the New York City Board of Education and a member of the New York City Board of Health.

1940 JOHN W. SMITH, of the New York Times, has been elected a member of the New York City Board of Aldermen. He is a member of the New York City Board of Education and a member of the New York City Board of Health.

1940 CHARLES HOFFMAN, of the New York Herald Tribune, has been elected a member of the New York City Board of Aldermen. He is a member of the New York City Board of Education and a member of the New York City Board of Health.

1940 ROBERT W. CARTER, of the New York Times, has been elected a member of the New York City Board of Aldermen. He is a member of the New York City Board of Education and a member of the New York City Board of Health.
1943

Secretary—John Boze, Jr., 50 State St., Hartford.

CHARLIE JONES joined the Reader's Digest Educational Services upon returning from the service. He has been a member of the WITCH will bring his family to Chey

Camp. Ron was the third son of Charles and Ethel Roberts, and is the brother of the late Dr. John Roberts, Jr. who is the son of the original Roderick Roberts. He is now the general manager of the Seven Sisters Film Company in California.

R. W. BROOK CUDDO is a television executive in the New York City area. He has served as an assistant to the late Tom ASHTON in many of the big movies in the industry.

MOOSE Offloe, in Philadelphia, has been the business manager of the Philadelphia newspaper for the past 25 years. He is the founder of the Philadelphia Athletic Club and is a past president of the Greater Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce.

II

1944

Secretary—Andrew Monahan, 115 Copley St., Waltham, Mass.

WILLIS ADAMS is a survivor of military service in the Pacific Ocean Theater. He is married and has a daughter, Lisa, age 2. He is now working as a pilot in Washington, D.C.

BILL WALTNER is an electronics engineer in the Washington area. He is married and has two children, John, 7, and Mary, 5.

J. R. COOK is a survivor of military service in the Pacific Ocean Theater. He is married and has two children, John, 7, and Mary, 5.

BILL GRAVES is a survivor of military service in the Pacific Ocean Theater. He is married and has two children, John, 7, and Mary, 5.

BILL HATCH is a survivor of military service in the Pacific Ocean Theater. He is married and has two children, John, 7, and Mary, 5.

MILITARY TRAINING GROUP at Fort Bragg, California.

1945

Secretary—Bob Hartzler, 370 High St., New Haven, Conn.

BILLY JOHNSON is married to Miss Elizabeth A. Blake of New York City and is working for his Ford car sales at the Blake Ford Motor Company in New York City.

STEVE BRADLEY is a survivor of military service in the Pacific Ocean Theater. He is married and has two children, John, 7, and Mary, 5.

BILL HATCH is a survivor of military service in the Pacific Ocean Theater. He is married and has two children, John, 7, and Mary, 5.

MOOSE HUTCHINS reports the birth of his child, Rebecca, on October 15, 1944.

BILLY JOHNSON is married to Miss Elizabeth A. Blake of New York City and is working for his Ford car sales at the Blake Ford Motor Company in New York City.

315 Pine Ave., Cincinnati, Ohio.

A. R. NIXON is a survivor of military service in the Pacific Ocean Theater. He is married and has two children, John, 7, and Mary, 5.

A. R. NIXON is a survivor of military service in the Pacific Ocean Theater. He is married and has two children, John, 7, and Mary, 5.

A. R. NIXON is a survivor of military service in the Pacific Ocean Theater. He is married and has two children, John, 7, and Mary, 5.

A. R. NIXON is a survivor of military service in the Pacific Ocean Theater. He is married and has two children, John, 7, and Mary, 5.

A. R. NIXON is a survivor of military service in the Pacific Ocean Theater. He is married and has two children, John, 7, and Mary, 5.

A. R. NIXON is a survivor of military service in the Pacific Ocean Theater. He is married and has two children, John, 7, and Mary, 5.

A. R. NIXON is a survivor of military service in the Pacific Ocean Theater. He is married and has two children, John, 7, and Mary, 5.

A. R. NIXON is a survivor of military service in the Pacific Ocean Theater. He is married and has two children, John, 7, and Mary, 5.

A. R. NIXON is a survivor of military service in the Pacific Ocean Theater. He is married and has two children, John, 7, and Mary, 5.

A. R. NIXON is a survivor of military service in the Pacific Ocean Theater. He is married and has two children, John, 7, and Mary, 5.

A. R. NIXON is a survivor of military service in the Pacific Ocean Theater. He is married and has two children, John, 7, and Mary, 5.

A. R. NIXON is a survivor of military service in the Pacific Ocean Theater. He is married and has two children, John, 7, and Mary, 5.

A. R. NIXON is a survivor of military service in the Pacific Ocean Theater. He is married and has two children, John, 7, and Mary, 5.

A. R. NIXON is a survivor of military service in the Pacific Ocean Theater. He is married and has two children, John, 7, and Mary, 5.

A. R. NIXON is a survivor of military service in the Pacific Ocean Theater. He is married and has two children, John, 7, and Mary, 5.

A. R. NIXON is a survivor of military service in the Pacific Ocean Theater. He is married and has two children, John, 7, and Mary, 5.
Neurology

THOMAS TERTIUS NOBLE

Dr. T. Terrius Noble, eminent connoisseur of church music, New York City, died at his home in Rockport, Massachusetts, on May 2, 1939, at the age of 71, two months before his 72nd birthday. This occasion, the 72nd birthday of the day, Dr. Noble was the senior of the 72 who formed the Montel Music Society of Fly, England and America.

Born in Bath, England, the son of a banker, Mr. Noble learned the Yule and Pagodas of Bath while a young boy. When he was 16 years old he entered Trinity College, New York, and immediately displayed the well-known “South of the Border” and “Fierce Righteous” in his form of life.

Dr. Noble came to St. Thomas’ in 1912 and remained until 1917. During his tenure there he trained hundreds of singers and soloists. Among his pupils were Nathaniel Abbott, ‘33; William Howard G.’, and George O’Charley, ’37, and Chaldean, ’38, who are now on the faculty of Trinity College.

Dr. Noble’s career at Trinity is a story of devotion and dedication.

In 1892 he became organist at Ely and in 1911 he assumed the duties of the cathedral organist. He received his Master of Arts degree from Trinity College in 1899 and was named librarian of the library. He retained his interest in the service of New Haven as an administrator of the American Library Association.

In 1910 Trinity awarded him the honorary degree of Doctor of Music, an honor given by the Archbishop of Canterbury for the first time to a person outside the British Isles. On his return home Dr. Noble dedicated it to Trinity College. He helped plan the campus and played the first recital when it was completed in 1913. Dr. Noble brought the St. Thomas choir school in rented quarters to Trinity College and supervised the building of the college chapel.

Dr. Noble was the senior of the 72 who formed the Montel Music Society of Fly, England and America.

Dr. Noble’s career at Trinity is a story of devotion and dedication.

In 1892 he became organist at Ely and in 1911 he assumed the duties of the cathedral organist. He received his Master of Arts degree from Trinity College in 1899 and was named librarian of the library. He retained his interest in the service of New Haven as an administrator of the American Library Association.

In 1910 Trinity awarded him the honorary degree of Doctor of Music, an honor given by the Archbishop of Canterbury for the first time to a person outside the British Isles. On his return home Dr. Noble dedicated it to Trinity College. He helped plan the campus and played the first recital when it was completed in 1913. Dr. Noble brought the St. Thomas choir school in rented quarters to Trinity College and supervised the building of the college chapel.

Dr. Noble was the senior of the 72 who formed the Montel Music Society of Fly, England and America.

Dr. Noble’s career at Trinity is a story of devotion and dedication.

In 1892 he became organist at Ely and in 1911 he assumed the duties of the cathedral organist. He received his Master of Arts degree from Trinity College in 1899 and was named librarian of the library. He retained his interest in the service of New Haven as an administrator of the American Library Association.

In 1910 Trinity awarded him the honorary degree of Doctor of Music, an honor given by the Archbishop of Canterbury for the first time to a person outside the British Isles. On his return home Dr. Noble dedicated it to Trinity College. He helped plan the campus and played the first recital when it was completed in 1913. Dr. Noble brought the St. Thomas choir school in rented quarters to Trinity College and supervised the building of the college chapel.

Dr. Noble was the senior of the 72 who formed the Montel Music Society of Fly, England and America.

Dr. Noble’s career at Trinity is a story of devotion and dedication.

In 1892 he became organist at Ely and in 1911 he assumed the duties of the cathedral organist. He received his Master of Arts degree from Trinity College in 1899 and was named librarian of the library. He retained his interest in the service of New Haven as an administrator of the American Library Association.

In 1910 Trinity awarded him the honorary degree of Doctor of Music, an honor given by the Archbishop of Canterbury for the first time to a person outside the British Isles. On his return home Dr. Noble dedicated it to Trinity College. He helped plan the campus and played the first recital when it was completed in 1913. Dr. Noble brought the St. Thomas choir school in rented quarters to Trinity College and supervised the building of the college chapel.

Dr. Noble was the senior of the 72 who formed the Montel Music Society of Fly, England and America.

Dr. Noble’s career at Trinity is a story of devotion and dedication.

In 1892 he became organist at Ely and in 1911 he assumed the duties of the cathedral organist. He received his Master of Arts degree from Trinity College in 1899 and was named librarian of the library. He retained his interest in the service of New Haven as an administrator of the American Library Association.

In 1910 Trinity awarded him the honorary degree of Doctor of Music, an honor given by the Archbishop of Canterbury for the first time to a person outside the British Isles. On his return home Dr. Noble dedicated it to Trinity College. He helped plan the campus and played the first recital when it was completed in 1913. Dr. Noble brought the St. Thomas choir school in rented quarters to Trinity College and supervised the building of the college chapel.

Dr. Noble was the senior of the 72 who formed the Montel Music Society of Fly, England and America.

Dr. Noble’s career at Trinity is a story of devotion and dedication.

In 1892 he became organist at Ely and in 1911 he assumed the duties of the cathedral organist. He received his Master of Arts degree from Trinity College in 1899 and was named librarian of the library. He retained his interest in the service of New Haven as an administrator of the American Library Association.

In 1910 Trinity awarded him the honorary degree of Doctor of Music, an honor given by the Archbishop of Canterbury for the first time to a person outside the British Isles. On his return home Dr. Noble dedicated it to Trinity College. He helped plan the campus and played the first recital when it was completed in 1913. Dr. Noble brought the St. Thomas choir school in rented quarters to Trinity College and supervised the building of the college chapel.

Dr. Noble was the senior of the 72 who formed the Montel Music Society of Fly, England and America.

Dr. Noble’s career at Trinity is a story of devotion and dedication.

In 1892 he became organist at Ely and in 1911 he assumed the duties of the cathedral organist. He received his Master of Arts degree from Trinity College in 1899 and was named librarian of the library. He retained his interest in the service of New Haven as an administrator of the American Library Association.

In 1910 Trinity awarded him the honorary degree of Doctor of Music, an honor given by the Archbishop of Canterbury for the first time to a person outside the British Isles. On his return home Dr. Noble dedicated it to Trinity College. He helped plan the campus and played the first recital when it was completed in 1913. Dr. Noble brought the St. Thomas choir school in rented quarters to Trinity College and supervised the building of the college chapel.

Dr. Noble was the senior of the 72 who formed the Montel Music Society of Fly, England and America.

Dr. Noble’s career at Trinity is a story of devotion and dedication.

In 1892 he became organist at Ely and in 1911 he assumed the duties of the cathedral organist. He received his Master of Arts degree from Trinity College in 1899 and was named librarian of the library. He retained his interest in the service of New Haven as an administrator of the American Library Association.

In 1910 Trinity awarded him the honorary degree of Doctor of Music, an honor given by the Archbishop of Canterbury for the first time to a person outside the British Isles. On his return home Dr. Noble dedicated it to Trinity College. He helped plan the campus and played the first recital when it was completed in 1913. Dr. Noble brought the St. Thomas choir school in rented quarters to Trinity College and supervised the building of the college chapel.

Dr. Noble was the senior of the 72 who formed the Montel Music Society of Fly, England and America.

Dr. Noble’s career at Trinity is a story of devotion and dedication.

In 1892 he became organist at Ely and in 1911 he assumed the duties of the cathedral organist. He received his Master of Arts degree from Trinity College in 1899 and was named librarian of the library. He retained his interest in the service of New Haven as an administrator of the American Library Association.

In 1910 Trinity awarded him the honorary degree of Doctor of Music, an honor given by the Archbishop of Canterbury for the first time to a person outside the British Isles. On his return home Dr. Noble dedicated it to Trinity College. He helped plan the campus and played the first recital when it was completed in 1913. Dr. Noble brought the St. Thomas choir school in rented quarters to Trinity College and supervised the building of the college chapel.

Dr. Noble was the senior of the 72 who formed the Montel Music Society of Fly, England and America.

Dr. Noble’s career at Trinity is a story of devotion and dedication.

In 1892 he became organist at Ely and in 1911 he assumed the duties of the cathedral organist. He received his Master of Arts degree from Trinity College in 1899 and was named librarian of the library. He retained his interest in the service of New Haven as an administrator of the American Library Association.

In 1910 Trinity awarded him the honorary degree of Doctor of Music, an honor given by the Archbishop of Canterbury for the first time to a person outside the British Isles. On his return home Dr. Noble dedicated it to Trinity College. He helped plan the campus and played the first recital when it was completed in 1913. Dr. Noble brought the St. Thomas choir school in rented quarters to Trinity College and supervised the building of the college chapel.

Dr. Noble was the senior of the 72 who formed the Montel Music Society of Fly, England and America.

Dr. Noble’s career at Trinity is a story of devotion and dedication.

In 1892 he became organist at Ely and in 1911 he assumed the duties of the cathedral organist. He received his Master of Arts degree from Trinity College in 1899 and was named librarian of the library. He retained his interest in the service of New Haven as an administrator of the American Library Association.

In 1910 Trinity awarded him the honorary degree of Doctor of Music, an honor given by the Archbishop of Canterbury for the first time to a person outside the British Isles. On his return home Dr. Noble dedicated it to Trinity College. He helped plan the campus and played the first recital when it was completed in 1913. Dr. Noble brought the St. Thomas choir school in rented quarters to Trinity College and supervised the building of the college chapel.

Dr. Noble was the senior of the 72 who formed the Montel Music Society of Fly, England and America.

Dr. Noble’s career at Trinity is a story of devotion and dedication.

In 1892 he became organist at Ely and in 1911 he assumed the duties of the cathedral organist. He received his Master of Arts degree from Trinity College in 1899 and was named librarian of the library. He retained his interest in the service of New Haven as an administrator of the American Library Association.

In 1910 Trinity awarded him the honorary degree of Doctor of Music, an honor given by the Archbishop of Canterbury for the first time to a person outside the British Isles. On his return home Dr. Noble dedicated it to Trinity College. He helped plan the campus and played the first recital when it was completed in 1913. Dr. Noble brought the St. Thomas choir school in rented quarters to Trinity College and supervised the building of the college chapel. 