Alumni to Welcome Dr. Jacobs
On Reunion Weekend, June 5-7

Final details are being prepared for the big alumni gathering welcome to President Albert C. Jacobs at the 117th Commencement weekend June 5-7. The Reunion Committee, chaired by Mr. George Donnelly, '98, and his committee, led by Mr. John Pleas, '76, is planning a gala weekend for reunion and non-reunion classes, and says all to return.

The weekend begins with a reception at the Hotel Church Hill on Friday night. The New England club will host the reception for the benefit of the class from the New England states. The reception begins at 8 p.m. and will continue until the end of the evening. The menu will consist of a buffet dinner, followed by a social hour. The entertainment will be provided by the university band, and a dance will follow. The event is open to all alumni and friends of the College.

On Saturday, the College will host a series of events, including a keynote address by President Jacobs, which will be held in the College's largest auditorium. The address will be followed by a question and answer session with the President. The address will begin at 10 a.m. and will continue until 11 a.m. The event is open to all alumni and friends of the College.

On Sunday, the College will host a series of events, including a breakfast for alumni and friends of the College, which will be held in the College's largest dining hall. The breakfast will begin at 8 a.m. and will continue until 10 a.m. The event is open to all alumni and friends of the College.

In addition, the College will host a series of workshops and seminars, which will be held in various locations on campus. The workshops and seminars will cover a variety of topics, including leadership, entrepreneurship, and sustainable development. The workshops and seminars will begin at 9 a.m. and will continue until 4 p.m. The event is open to all alumni and friends of the College.

In conclusion, the College is excited to welcome President Albert C. Jacobs to the campus for the 117th Commencement weekend. The College is looking forward to a weekend filled with events, activities, and opportunities for alumni and friends to reconnect and celebrate the College's rich history and accomplishments.
