advertising writer. He still does a small amount of free lance writing concentrating mostly on baseball articles. He and his wife have two children. Louis, 16, a junior at Newton High School, and Donna, 13, a junior at the Met. His hobbies are fishing and hunting. He is known as a loyal fan of the Red Sox and the Boston Bruins.

JOHN W. HOFF is secretary of the Boston Chapter of the American Advertising Federation. He is currently an advertising writer in the Boston area and is a member of the Board of Directors of the New England chapter of the Federation.

COMMITTEE OF 50 MEMBERS

The Committee of 50 is an organization of advertising men who have held the positions of national chairman, president, or executive director of the American Advertising Federation. The purpose of the Committee of 50 is to provide guidance and advice to the Federation's leadership.

In recent years, the Committee of 50 has become one of the most active and influential groups within the Federation. It is composed of the past presidents and chairmen of the Federation, and its members are known for their expertise in the field of advertising.

The Committee meets on a regular basis to discuss the state of the industry and to plan for the future. Its members are committed to promoting the growth and development of advertising, and they are often called upon to provide guidance and advice to the Federation's leadership.

The Committee of 50 is an important resource for the Federation, and its members are respected throughout the industry for their knowledge and experience.
