Seniors Have Full Schedule; 206 Receive Baccalaureate

Two hundred and sixteen members of the Class of 1954 received their Diplomas at Commencement Exercises held in the Trinity College Quadrangle on June 11. Twenty members of the masters class were also presented with the degrees of Master of Science.

Representing 18 different states and American possessions, the Class of 1954 includes 158 receiving arms degrees and 48 receiving arts degrees. A record number of seniors participated in the pre-commencement activities, including midnight strolls on the campus for Trinity's 128th Commencement.

Jazz Loud, Lively

A fine jazz band rode out the first night 1954, 22 were graduated with honors, 19 of whom were presented with the degree of Bachelor of Science in Engineering. Twenty members of the masters class were also presented with the degrees of Master of Science.

Between the 1925 and 1929, 38 other members of the class attended the annual meeting of the Alumni Neighborhood. The prize for the alumnus returning after 25 years and more is $62,450.19, or twice the total of $176,000 in gifts received during the past year. The election of Joseph Campbell of New York, director of the National Republican Committee, heads a slate of five retiring officers. Mr. Campbell was named vice president in charge of the Development and Finance Committee.

The budget for the coming year it was noted, has been drawn up under the highly competent leadership of Sidney D. Pinney '18 of New York City as secretary.

Ogilvy Brothers Return

The Ogilvy brothers returned to the Chapel Bell by Bishops, who class as amounted to children, for the Holy Communion Service on Sunday morning. The Rev. Lang C. Ogilvy, Suffragan Bishop of the Philippine Islands, conducted the service assisted by his brother Albert. Mr. Ogilvy, Trinity Parish, Hartford, three days later, joined the Bishop for his annual visit to the College.

Jazz Loud, Lively

A jazz band rode out the first night 1954, 22 were graduated with honors, 19 of whom were presented with the degree of Bachelor of Science in Engineering. Twenty members of the masters class were also presented with the degrees of Master of Science.

Between the 1925 and 1929, 38 other members of the class attended the annual meeting of the Alumni Neighborhood. The prize for the alumnus returning after 25 years and more is $62,450.19, or twice the total of $176,000 in gifts received during the past year. The election of Joseph Campbell of New York, director of the National Republican Committee, heads a slate of five retiring officers. Mr. Campbell was named vice president in charge of the Development and Finance Committee.

The budget for the coming year it was noted, has been drawn up under the highly competent leadership of Sidney D. Pinney '18 of New York City as secretary.

Ogilvy Brothers Return

The Ogilvy brothers returned to the Chapel Bell by Bishops, who class as amounted to children, for the Holy Communion Service on Sunday morning. The Rev. Lang C. Ogilvy, Suffragan Bishop of the Philippine Islands, conducted the service assisted by his brother Albert. Mr. Ogilvy, Trinity Parish, Hartford, three days later, joined the Bishop for his annual visit to the College.

Jazz Loud, Lively

A jazz band rode out the first night 1954, 22 were graduated with honors, 19 of whom were presented with the degree of Bachelor of Science in Engineering. Twenty members of the masters class were also presented with the degrees of Master of Science.

Between the 1925 and 1929, 38 other members of the class attended the annual meeting of the Alumni Neighborhood. The prize for the alumnus returning after 25 years and more is $62,450.19, or twice the total of $176,000 in gifts received during the past year. The election of Joseph Campbell of New York, director of the National Republican Committee, heads a slate of five retiring officers. Mr. Campbell was named vice president in charge of the Development and Finance Committee.

The budget for the coming year it was noted, has been drawn up under the highly competent leadership of Sidney D. Pinney '18 of New York City as secretary.

Ogilvy Brothers Return

The Ogilvy brothers returned to the Chapel Bell by Bishops, who class as amounted to children, for the Holy Communion Service on Sunday morning. The Rev. Lang C. Ogilvy, Suffragan Bishop of the Philippine Islands, conducted the service assisted by his brother Albert. Mr. Ogilvy, Trinity Parish, Hartford, three days later, joined the Bishop for his annual visit to the College.

Jazz Loud, Lively

A jazz band rode out the first night 1954, 22 were graduated with honors, 19 of whom were presented with the degree of Bachelor of Science in Engineering. Twenty members of the masters class were also presented with the degrees of Master of Science.

Between the 1925 and 1929, 38 other members of the class attended the annual meeting of the Alumni Neighborhood. The prize for the alumnus returning after 25 years and more is $62,450.19, or twice the total of $176,000 in gifts received during the past year. The election of Joseph Campbell of New York, director of the National Republican Committee, heads a slate of five retiring officers. Mr. Campbell was named vice president in charge of the Development and Finance Committee.

The budget for the coming year it was noted, has been drawn up under the highly competent leadership of Sidney D. Pinney '18 of New York City as secretary.
The Ogilby family, above, at the Baccalaureate Service: left to right, Alexander, Ruth (Mrs. Leonard), Bishop Lyman, Mrs. Prexy, and Peter. Below, "Pete" Carlough, soccer All-American and senior class president, receives the George Sheldon McCook award from Judge Philip McCook.

Honorary degree and citation medal recipients, above, were, from left to right, George C. Capen, alumni medal; Lewis G. Harriman, Ph.D., Doctor of Laws; President Jacobs; the Rev. George D. Breckinridge, Ph.D., Doctor of Divinity; the Rt. Rev. Lyman C. Ogilby, Doctor of Divinity; Robert D. Miller, alumni medal; Raymond J. Weiss, Doctor of Science; Frank D. Ashburn, Doctor of Humane Letters; Walter P. Proctor, Doctor of Humane Letters; and Julius Gresham Jr., Doctor of Laws.

Cadet Corps Commander Ronald Sturz, above, is "pinned" with his new second lieutenant's bars by his mother and wife. Below, second generation degree candidate Jerry Silverberg touches the Commencement Book as he receives his degree from President Jacobs. His father, Ben Silverberg, was among the graduates of the first Class of 1919.

Commencement
New Alumni Secretary John Butler, above, samples clam broth (?) at the clambake with friends. Below, Everett Barnes '19, of Beverly Hills, Calif., right, receives award as alumnus who traveled the farthest distance to the reunion. Making award is new Alumni President Russell Johnston '74, left.

Pictures at left, top to bottom:
Top: The Reunion Parade.
Part of the crowd of 700 at the alumni luncheon.
The 25th Anniversary Class of 1929 at their Reunion Dinner at the Heublein.
The Class of 1934 on the lawn in front of their Jarvis Headquarters.
Winners of the Board of Fellows Bowl for the best showing, the Class of 1919.
The 10th Reunion Cake of the Class of 1919 and bearers in the Alumni Parade.

Below: The Class of 1939 in the Reunion Parade.
Lower right: Scene at the tennis exhibition by Billy Talbert and Jerry DeWitt.
Pres. Jacobs, Bishop Ogilby, Give Addresses

The lastly true to the principles in which your college was founded, President Albert C. Jacobs charged the 128th graduating class of Trinity College in his Commencement Address. "In the history of the college we find little that was not true to the principles in which your college was founded," Jacobs said, "with the exception of the admission of women to the program for this year." He added that "the admission of women to the program for this year is a matter of great importance, and I congratulate those who have been chosen to participate in this program."

Since his first full year at the College, Dr. Jacobs spoke on "Trinity's Moment and Millennium," the year-round calendar initiatives developed in an appreciation of the developments on the collegiate level on which Trinity has been a part of. In the years to come, we will have to trust that, the tradition is that "of making the best of a bad situation," and that "we are all building on the model," and that "we are all building on the right track." We must not be bound as a community for works that we see in the work we have done, but we see in the work we have done, and we see in the work we have done, and we see in the work we have done."

Two alumni, among whom leaders in business, the arts, science, and industry who received honorary degrees from Trinity College, were honored at the 128th Commencement. The recipients included:

- Lewis S. Grossman, President of General Electric
- Joshua A. B. Wiener, Chairman of the Board of Directors of IBM

Honorary Degrees Awarded Seven; Two Are Alumni

The following are the honorary degree recipients, as announced by President Albert C. Jacobs of Trinity College:

- Lewis S. Grossman, President of General Electric
- Joshua A. B. Wiener, Chairman of the Board of Directors of IBM

Honorary Degrees Awarded Seven; Two Are Alumni

Howard G. Stein, President of the College, presented the honorary degrees to the recipients.

Spring Sports Teams Post Fine Record; Tennis, Golf, and Yearlong Nine Star

Highlighted by victory in each of the three sports this year, Trinity College's spring sports season was a success. The men's tennis team won the New England Championship, and the women's golf team took second place in the Northeastern Conference. The nine-man team in the Yearlong Nine Star competition also came in second.

Student Magazine Opens Subscriptions

Emanuel Frome, faculty advisor to the Student Magazine, announced that the magazine will publish articles about student life, campus events, and other topics of interest to the student body. The magazine will be distributed to all students and will be available for purchase in the college bookstore.

Spring Sports Teams Post Fine Record; Tennis, Golf, and Yearlong Nine Star

Highlighted by victory in each of the three sports this year, Trinity College's spring sports season was a success. The men's tennis team won the New England Championship, and the women's golf team took second place in the Northeastern Conference. The nine-man team in the Yearlong Nine Star competition also came in second.

Student Magazine Opens Subscriptions

Emanuel Frome, faculty advisor to the Student Magazine, announced that the magazine will publish articles about student life, campus events, and other topics of interest to the student body. The magazine will be distributed to all students and will be available for purchase in the college bookstore.

Spring Sports Teams Post Fine Record; Tennis, Golf, and Yearlong Nine Star

Highlighted by victory in each of the three sports this year, Trinity College's spring sports season was a success. The men's tennis team won the New England Championship, and the women's golf team took second place in the Northeastern Conference. The nine-man team in the Yearlong Nine Star competition also came in second.

Student Magazine Opens Subscriptions

Emanuel Frome, faculty advisor to the Student Magazine, announced that the magazine will publish articles about student life, campus events, and other topics of interest to the student body. The magazine will be distributed to all students and will be available for purchase in the college bookstore.