Tradition Marks 149th Commencement

Three Trustee Changes Approved By Board

The Board of Trustees at its Commencement Weekend meeting made a term trustee a charter trustee and approved selection of two new trustees.

William R. Peelle '44 of West Hartford, who had been a term trustee, was elected a charter trustee. Brenton W. Harries '50 of Westfield, New Jersey, was elected term trustee for an eight year term and Thomas C. DePatie '52 of Ridgewood, New Jersey, was made alumni trustee for a six year term.

Peelle, who served as an officer in the Coast Guard Reserve, served Trinity as assistant director of admissions, director of admissions, freshman advisor, assistant alumni secretary and alumni secretary.

In 1955, he joined the Wilcox-Crittenden Division of North and Judd Manufacturing Company in Middle­town, where he functioned as an office manager and was involved in labor relations and market research. In 1957, he joined Arrow-Hart, Inc., now a division of Crouse-Hinds, Inc., in Hartford. Now vice president, he also handled industrial relations for the company and served as assistant to the general superintendent prior to being named to his present post in 1966.

Active in community and civic activities, he was a member of the alumni executive committee from 1957 to 1961, vice president of the alumni association from 1962 to 1963, member of the board of fellows from 1963 to 1969 (and co-chairman from 1968 to 1969) and chairman of the annual alumni fund from 1965 to 1966. He received the College's alumni medal in 1969.

Peelle is chairman of the major gifts committee for Trinity's $12 million national fund raising campaign.

Harries received an M.B.A. degree from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania after receiving his degree from Trinity. Following service as a naval officer, he attended Columbia University Law School.

In 1955, he joined the Blue List Publishing Company. In 1963, at the time of a merger with Standard & Poor's, he was vice president and general manager. Elected president of the Blue List in 1966, he was named a director of Standard & Poor's. In 1967, he was elected vice president of a newly formed Bond and Data Services Division and was appointed to the Executive Committee. In 1968, he was appointed group vice president. He was elected president and chief executive officer of Standard & Poor's Corporation on January 1, 1973. He is a past president of the Trinity College Alumni Association and received the alumni medal in 1970. He is currently a member of the major gifts committee for Trinity's $12 million national fund raising campaign.

DePatie is a graduate of the Loomis School and after leaving Trinity, took courses at the Harvard Business School. He joined I.B.M. and has been data processing marketing representative, an instructor in a sales school, marketing manager and national account manager. He is currently senior marketing manager of the data processing division of I.B.M.

From 1968 to 1970, he was on the executive committee of the National Alumni Association. A past member of the executive committee of the Trinity Club of Hartford, he was Baltimore area chairman for the Ford Challenge Campaign. A class agent for the Loomis School and presently the school's New Jersey telethon chairman, he is a member of the Kiwanis Club in Baltimore.

The 149th Commencement of the College on Sunday, May 25 had the traditional flavor and the 391 members of the Class of 1975 seemed to enjoy it all thoroughly. It was a chilly, cloudy day but, with no forecast of rain, the ceremonies were held 'neath the elms and an estimated 3,000 parents, relatives and friends snapped thousands of photographs of the colorful procession, the graduates, the Foot Guard Band and everything else in sight.

The graduating class included 216 men and 175 women. Bachelor of Arts degrees were awarded to 296 and 95 others received Bachelor of Science degrees.

Four who received bachelor of science degrees in engineering were also to receive Master's Degrees from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute.

Master's degrees were awarded to 79 candidates, 40 men and 39 women, six of whom were Trinity graduates. Seventy-six received Master of Arts degrees and three, Master of Science degrees.

In his charge to the Class of 1975, President Lockwood said, in part: "A Trinity education should have cultivated in you who graduate today the brashness to question the conventional wisdom of our society. But it also should have fostered a habit of skepticism which will enable you to resist simplistic solutions to the domestic and foreign problems which the nation confronts. In other words, I trust that during your years at Trinity you have developed the intellectual acuity to distinguish shadow from substance, ideas from mere ideology."
President's Charge To The Class of 1975

This is the year in which we begin the celebration of our Bicentennial as a nation. It is also the year in which we face fundamental questions about the role of the United States in the world arena beset by dramatic changes. We should be conscious of the relationship between the two.

The American Revolution was both brash and restrained. Speaking with the provincialism of a New Englander, I am always struck by the arrogance of a good thing. That the sons of their fellow rebels succeeded is a chastening reminder to the odds-makers. But that they were restrained in their search for a better commonwealth may be even more worth noting. In a way it was a revolution colored by academic qualifiers. The Founding Fathers distrusted the apocalyptic; they knew there was no simple way to insure freedom for themselves and posterity.

Irving Kristol put his finger on this crucial quality of our War for Independence when he wrote: "Enthusiasm there was, but this enthusiasm was tempered by doubt, introspection, anxiety and skepticism." Behind the brashness of rebellion lay a willingness to go forward, not an unthinking passion for certitude.

Yale Walpole enterprise and you made substantial contributions to Boswell and Cowper studies. At Pembroke College, Cambridge, you won the prize for the inclusion of authors who attest to the brilliance of your academic achievement and promise. Calling our fringes intact, you are the curator of English and American literature at the University Library. A Guggenheim and Bollingen Foundation Fellow, your abilities were recognized at a remarkably early age when you became director of the Pierpont Morgan Library in 1969, a post to which you brought the authority and sound learning. I have the privilege to present a distinguished Michigander, collector, curator, connoisseur, and man-of-letters.

THE RIGHT REVEREND KENNETH J. WOOLLCOMBE - A student at both Oxford and Cambridge, you returned to your own college, St. John's, Oxford, as Chaplain, tutor and fellow. Your achievements as a scholar of the life and thought of the early church, of the types of theologies of the New Testament and your lexicographical contributions to Patristic research as well as your ability to instruct a large and varied body of men, led to your appointment to serve in this country at the General Theological Seminary. Here you are a lively participant in theological discussion and in the education of many who minister and teach in the United States. But you are also a summation of the cause of education and the Church took you from this country to the rigors of Scotland. Now you have returned to Oxford as the Bishop of a great diocese and of the oldest university of the English-speaking world. As a man of the Academy and the Church which you served both well in several parts of the world. Now you also serve your country on the Bench of Bishops of the Convocation of the House of Lords. For the example of scholarship and a care of persons as well as the care of many churches, I have the honor to present.

The transition to academic concerns is both obvious and irresistible. A Trinity education should have cultivated the capability to resist simplistic solutions to the domestic and foreign problems which the nation and the world confront. I have the trust that during your years at Trinity you have developed the intellectual acuity to distinguish shadow from substance, ideas from ideology. As we celebrate the Bicentennial, it is fitting to recall that our revolution on behalf of freedom was not "professors' Kristol's work is informed by to a degree never approximated since, and perhaps never approximated before." The educated mind, not dogma, may have made all the difference then. It could make all the difference in the future. For we once again face an urgent need for reasoned reappraisal.

The withdrawal of the United States from Vietnam ends an era in our relationship with the rest of the world. We will become involved with Asia, but with other powers throughout the world. As we enter a new era, we shall need all the mind — all the intelligence and interest that will bring to the task of finding an appropriate and worthy role for this country in global affairs.

In this way you also make a vision of the dignity of the individual. For how we define human dignity will distinguish how we respond to others and how we regard ourselves. I can only share the Faculty's hope that your undergraduate education has started you on a productive and fruitful journey in fitting those values which imbue life with meaning.

Responsible experience may be the best guides in this quest; but it may also require another quality which we call faith. Each of us has a different fix on that ineffable quality. As for myself, I have always liked the description which Dag Hammarskjold gave at a time when international peace was a luxury, not a possibility: "I am one of those who has had the will to learn, to know, and called a star a brother."

As you graduate today, I congratulate you, on behalf of those who have taught you, the faculty and their knowledge to Trinity, I extend you best wishes for the years ahead.

TRINITY REPORTER

June, 1975

Vol. 5, No. 7

Issued seven times a year in September, October, November, December, January, February, March / April, May and June.

Published by the Office of Public Information, Trinity College, Hartford, Conn. 06106. Second class postage paid at Hartford, Connecticut.

THE REPORTER is mailed to students, faculty and staff of Trinity. Copies are available to students.

Letters for publication must be no longer than 200 words and signed. The printing of any letter is at the discretion of the Editor and may be edited for brevity.

Editor, L. Barton Wilson '73; Associate Editor, James F. Wilman; Assistant Editor, Susan Kelly; Production Information, Daniel F. Russo '73; Photographer, David R. Lowe; Assistant Alumni Director, Kathleen L. Frederick '71.
THE WHITE HOUSE SENIOR PROM FOR SUSAN FORD was attended by several Trinity graduates, but they weren't there as guests. The Outerspace Band, a country-rock group formed by three undergraduates in 1968, now has nine Trinity alumni working in various capacities. It played at the prom and its members hope that the widespread publicity given the group will help it negotiate a record contract. Above, from left: John B. Moses '72, David H. Robinson '72, Kirk A. Kubichek '72, Eliot W. Osborne '71 and John T. Koehler '72. Others who work with the band as equipment and business managers are Donald H. Pugh, Jr., '71, Richard P. Sieger '73, Eric S. Weiss '71 and Arthur H. Adams '72.

12th Annual Cape Cod Picnic Set For Aug. 11
The 12th annual Cape Cod picnic will be held on Monday, August 11 at the John Masons' in West Chatham. If you plan to be on the Cape during that period and have not received an invitation in past years, write or call the Alumni Office, (203) 527-3151.

THE CLASS OF 1925 JOINS THE "IMMORTALS" — Returning for their 50th Reunion over Commencement Weekend, the Class of 1925 demonstrated their youth, exuberance and endurance. Posing on the Quad are, left to right, back row: Nels Valerius, Al Jepson, Ray Montgomery, Dave Hadlow, Al Birch, Jack Aliley, Taylor Stone and Sam Wilcox; front row: Ildudre Geeter, Moses Lischer, Frank Thorburn, Ken Smith and Jim Sbrocco. Present for the festivities but absent when the photo was taken were: Bill Goodridge, George Malcolm-Smith, Maxwell Phelps and Nick Samponaro. The Class of 1925 was formally inducted into the Immortals at their 20th annual dinner of the organization the Friday night before Commencement. A record turnout of 140 alumni, spouses and College administrators attended the event. The alumus traveling the longest distance was Frank Thorburn '25, who came from South Dakota, and Paul Butterworth '09 represented the oldest class present.

Freshman Seminar Program
By J. Bard McNulty

The fifteen freshmen sitting on the living room rug in front of the fireplace were watching a succession of slides on the screen. "And that," said Polly Morton as she switched off the projector, "is the way they looked to a traditional portrait painter in the middle 1800's."

Someone turned on the room lights and the students — seven men and eight women — began chatting about the pictures. Polly's nostalgic slide show had followed a "nostalgic" dinner prepared by Vivi Dunkel and cooked with an assist from my wife in our kitchen. As we ate, Vivi had talked about the social graces of yesteryear.

The students were all participants in Trinity's Freshman Seminar Program. The fifteen in my living room had elected to look into the general topic of "Nostalgia," and the meal and slide show were two of the projects designed and executed by students in completion of the requirements.

In the fall of 1974 Trinity offered entering freshmen a choice of 33 seminars on such topics as "America and the Middle East," "Dominance, and Freedom," "Approaches to Japanese History," "Exploring the Earth and Other Places," and "Feminist Mythmaking." The seminar program is popular with freshmen; 94 percent of the freshmen in the 1974 fall term signed up for seminars, although not required to do so. The seminars appeal because they allow students and instructors to explore subjects of mutual interest which are not included among the courses regularly listed in the college catalogue under the various departments.

A seminar is not simply another name for a small class. The faculty member offering a seminar does not so much "teach a subject" as join his students in an exploration. The term seminar itself is a German word derived from the Latin semen, seed. Some of the most exciting early seminars were held in German universities in the last century where archaeologists who had been digging in the ruins of ancient Greece and the Middle East met to compare notes. The archaeologists shared common interests and generally understood one another's research problems; but their experiences were not all alike in detail as different as the arts and cultures and climates found at their various "digs." These seminars proved so useful to the participants that their pattern has been copied in universities all over the world.

In my "Nostalgia" seminar the students shared the common interest of digging into things that interested them in the American past. David Kilroy wanted to look into American music and to explain the nostalgia of many college students for the "Big Band" sound of the 1930's as well as for the romance of Scott Joplin, and in fact for all the music of yesteryear. Thom wanted to look into nostalgic styles of American architecture — the house he lives in, the paintings of "Classical Revival" and "Neo-Gothic." Bob Phelps, an ardent stamp collector, prepared a slide show in which he projected famous.business blots and commemorative stamps on a screen and explained the various scenes depicting early explorations, the opening of the "West," and so on. Margaret Rubino interviewed a number of women born before 1900, inquiring into their views on women's roles, co-ed dormitories in colleges, and a wide range of subjects. They thought better of the behavior of today's youth than one might suppose.

While these and other investigations were going on, the group as a whole began to close in on the nature of nostalgia. It is, said one student, "a yearning for those peanut-butter and marshmallow-fluff sandwiches of school days? Or does it play a much more philosophical role in our culture? Perhaps throwing light on the persistent image in our Judeo-Christian culture of a paradise forever lost?"

The group read Mark Twain's anti-nostalgic novel "A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court," then visited Mark Twain's Hartford home and the home of his next-door neighbor, Harriet Beecher Stowe, whose "Uncle Tom's Cabin" they also read. Among several other books they studied was Daniel Boorstin's "The Americans: The Democratic Experience," and read about the time of the Civil War to the present.

A pleasant and interesting feature of the program was a visit to Old Sturbridge Village, the Good-speed Opera House, the New Britain Museum of American Art, among other places. Students who were also members of a college station wagon, the students came to know one another in an informal way quite different from the class experience. The occasional dinners at my house also helped students get to know each other and their seminar leaders.

I say "leaders" because there were two of us. Emily Barron, a senior majoring in American Studies, was my Teaching Assistant. Emily was greatly liked and respected by the freshmen, who turned to her for counsel on all manner of topics, personal as well as academic. At seminar meetings she helped conduct discussions, and on our field trips she drove one of the cars. After the seminar ended in December the freshmen, reluctant to let their friendly group simply stop, got together late one evening just before Christmas to chat and eat snacks in Emily's room in the high-rise dormitory on Vernon Street.

One of the requirements of the seminar was a weekly paper from each student. The papers came in every Tuesday. Emily and I agreed at the outset that it would be best if the papers were corrected and returned to the writers at the very next seminar meeting, that is, on Thursday. She and I read the papers, and with her help we were able to have the papers back in their writers' hands by Monday. The papers were, as a rule, discussed at the Thursday meetings.

At the very last seminar meeting in December all freshmen participating in the seminar program at Trinity were asked to give an anonymous evaluation of the seminar program and to suggest changes. Among many of their comments are two which seem to me to help explain the continuing popularity of the seminar program. One student wrote, "It was very demanding which I liked." Another wrote, "The seminar has helped me feel very welcome at Trinity."

Dr. J. Bard McNulty, Class of 1938, is the James J. Goodwin Professor of English at Trinity.
Hansen To Head Alumni Office

Gerald J. Hansen, Jr. ’51 has been named director of alumni relations at the College. Miss Kathleen Frederick ’71, who has served as assistant director for the past year and a half, has been appointed assistant to President Lockwood.

Following his graduation from Trinity, Hansen attended the University of Pennsylvania Graduate School and, in 1952 graduated from the Naval Officers Candidate School and served in the Korean War. From 1957-1972, he was vice president of E. & G. J. Hansen, Inc. where he was also a member of the board of directors.

He has been active in community affairs in the Philadelphia area and was a member of the vestry of Christopher's Church in Gladwyne, Pa. He has been involved in many activities for the College. He was president of the Philadelphia Alumni Association, served as a vice president and member of the Executive Committee of the National Alumni Association and as a member of the Board of Fellows. In recognition of his many services to the College, he was presented a 150th Anniversary Award in 1973.

In addition to his activities as director of alumni relations, Hansen will work closely with the Office of Career Counseling in an effort to involve alumni in helping to identify employment opportunities which might exist for other alumni.

Hansen, his wife and their four children will move to the Hartford area later this Summer.

President Lockwood and Dr. George B. Cooper, secretary of the College, were guests at a dinner meeting held on February 18 at the Gwinn Estate by the Cleveland area alumni association. Bill Sullivan ’61 was host.

On February 20, Dr. and Mrs. John H. Wulsin, parents of Rosamond R. Wulsin ’78, hosted a dinner party in their home for President Lockwood and Dr. Cooper. Co-host was Richard P. Hall ’60. About 40 alumni, parents and friends of the College from the Cincinnati area attended.

The following night, Fred Sargent ’66 welcomed representatives of the College to Pittsburgh with a reception at the Duquesne Club.

In March, President Lockwood and Kathy Frederick, assistant director of alumni relations, visited alumni clubs on the West Coast. Their first stop was on March 9 in Los Angeles, where 30 alumni dined at the Gates of Spain Restaurant, which overlooks the ocean. After dinner, the group enjoyed a musical revue at the Mayfair Music Hall.

On March 11, the largest group of alumni to date from the San Diego area gathered at the San Diego Yacht Club for a dinner meeting. Host was William Pollock ’53.

On April 14, alumni and parents from the Pioneer Valley area in Massachusetts gathered at the Colony Club in Springfield. Cocktails and dinner were followed by a slide show presentation by Dr. Robert Oxnam of the History Department on his recent trip to mainland China. Host for the evening was Brad Cogswell ’48.

The inn of the Four Falls was the setting for the annual dinner of the Trinity Club of Philadelphia. Dr. George Cooper addressed parents and alumni at this gathering, which was hosted by Joseph Cohn ’61. Next year's president will be George Graham ’59.

Pedemonti

1960 Graduate

Named Treasurer

Robert A. Pedemonti, comptroller and budget director at the College since July 1, 1974 has been promoted to treasurer. He will retain his title of comptroller.

Pedemonti was graduated Phi Beta Kappa from Trinity in 1960 and was awarded an M.A. from the College in 1971.

A former finance director for the Town of North Haven, Conn., and town treasurer of Enfield, Conn., he also spent five years with the General Electric Company in Pittsfield, Mass., in various financial administrative posts.

A member of the Advisory Board for the Salvation Army, Pedemonti has served as executive director of the Connecticut Chapter of the American Society for Public Administrators; and as a member of the Better Business Bureau Advisory Board.

Alumni Tour

To Madrid

In October

The next alumni tour will be to Madrid, Spain, from October 27 to November 3, 1975.

The price of $379 includes round-trip air transportation via TWA from Bradley International to Madrid, six nights at the centrally-located Florida Norte Hotel, continental breakfast daily, two parties, sightseeing tours and much more.

The tour will include a trip down some of Madrid’s major avenues or “avenidas.” Stops will include the elaborate 17th century Royal Palace, the Prado (one of the world’s greatest art museums) and an evening visit to a gypsy club.

There will also be a drive along Puerta del Sol, the heart of Madrid’s shopping and nightlife area.

Tour members will have an opportunity to shop for bargains. Tour discounts have been arranged at many major stores for those interested in items such as suede coats, leather bags, lace mantilla or ceramic pieces.

Tours can also be arranged to Toledo, the Alcazar, Escorial and the Valley of the Fallen, Lisbon, the Costa del Sol or even Tangier in North Africa.

All reservations must be received by August 1. For a full color brochure and further information, write or call the Alumni Office (203) 527-3151 Ext. 214.

26th Annual Summer Carillon Concert Series

June 25 SUZANNE GATES ’75
Former Master Carillonneur, The Trinity College Guild

July 2 ROBERT B. GROGAN
The National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception
Washington, D.C.

July 9 LEEN ’T HART
Director of The Netherlands Carillon School

July 16 JAMES R. LAWSON
Riverside Church, New York City

July 23 GEORGE F. MAIR
Smith College, Northampton, Massachusetts

July 30 R. HUDSON LIND
University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Michigan

August 6 DONALD L. HAND
Former Carillonneur, Duke University

August 13 ROBERT LODINE
St. Chrysostom’s Church and University Carillonneur of Rockefeller Memorial Chapel, University of Chicago

August 20 DIONISIO LIND
Former Carillonneur, St. Martin’s Episcopal Church
New York City

August 27 RICHARD M. WATSON
Director, Cast Bell Carillon and Chime Division, I.T. Verdin Co., Cincinnati, Ohio

All recitals will begin at 7:00 p.m. and will be followed by a guided tour of the Chapel.

Nationwide Alumni Meetings
SOLVING THE ENERGY CRISIS AT TRINITY COLLEGE:搬到图书馆
By Thomas D. Lips

Recently the vice president of the College and the dean of the faculty were asked a seemingly simple question: During which months does Trinity College incur its largest costs for energy? Certainly Vice President Thomas A. Smith and Dean Edwin P. Nye possessed the experience and expertise to respond correctly, the former having served the College for nearly two decades and the latter being an engineer by training. And their collective, confident answer—"the months of November and February"—seemed unassailable. Their reasoning was sound: The peak energy months would have to be during the colder part of the year and, unlike December and January, which are interrupted by the holidays during which many buildings are closed and heating levels dropped, November and February are both uninterrupted and cold.

The correct answer? Of course not! Much to the embarrassment of the resident experts, the peak months of energy use are—surprisingly—July and September. Yes, July, when the campus is dormant save for administrators and a handful of faculty and summer students, and September, when the days are long and the nights generally heatless.

The lesson here bears mentioning. While colleges as well as business, industry, and homeowners struggle to reduce energy consumption and minimize the exorbitant rises in utility costs, there is much one has to learn similar woes. Yale University will use 1972 DAVIS, 1971 DAVID M. While colleges as well as business, next year and must rely solely on oil—Always reduce energy consumption and the correct answer?

What the Vice President and Dean of Faculty—certainly most others—failed to consider is that air conditioning in July and August are both uninterrupted and costly. The peak energy months should have been July and August. The peak energy months would have to be during the colder part of the year and, unlike December and January, which are interrupted by the holidays during which many buildings are closed and heating levels dropped, November and February are both uninterrupted and cold.

The correct answer? Of course not! Much to the embarrassment of the resident experts, the peak months of energy use are—surprisingly—July and September. Yes, July, when the campus is dormant save for administrators and a handful of faculty and summer students, and September, when the days are long and the nights generally heatless.

The lesson here bears mentioning. While colleges as well as business, industry, and homeowners struggle to reduce energy consumption and minimize the exorbitant rises in utility costs, there is much one has to learn similar woes. Yale University will use 1972 DAVIS, 1971 DAVID M. O'BRIEN is now living at Illinois Avenue, St. Louis, Missouri, and is affiliated with the Manchester Industrial Council.

Notes

1965 Dr. and Mrs. PHILIP GEETTER, son, Todd, Mrs. ISABEL M. GEETTER, daughter, Deborah Lynn, February 6, 1975 Mr. and Mrs. RICHARD GOLDSMITH, daughter, Judith, June 27, 1975 Mr. and Mrs. RICHARD GOLDSMITH, son, John, December 13, 1975 Mr. and Mrs. FRANK BERGER, daughter, Jenny, June 7, 1974 Mr. and Mrs. ROBERT BAKER, daughter, Suzanne, February 12, 1975 Mr. and Mrs. NEIL REIT, son, Christopher G., February 21, 1975 Mr. and Mrs. NEIL REIT, daughter, Elizabeth, March 29, 1975 Mr. and Mrs. STEPHEN LARSEN, daughter, Stephanie, May 17, 1975 Mr. and Mrs. JAY DAVIS, son, Jason, September 7, 1974

CLARENCE HAHN says that at the age of 97 he is still able to run the house and work in the garden. He reports that his son, Robert, is a distinguished engineer.

The Rev. Paul H. Barbour, D.D.
14 High St.
Farmington, CT 06032

BILL BUCHANAN is now living at Madison House, 123 South Illinois Avenue, Atlantic City, New Jersey 08401. He has six great grandchildren, ages 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, and 10.

George C. Capen
87 Walbridge Rd.
West Hartford, CT 06119

Making headlines in Manchester, New Hampshire, is BILL McFLOYD, a director and former president of Amoskeag Industries, and a member of the Manchester Industrial Council for the past 25 years. He has played a leading role in the industrial diversification of Manchester. Bill, who lost his wife in 1972 after 58 years of happy married life, has a... daughter, four grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. He says that of the six who returned to baseball from football last year, he is the last.

NELSON BREED spent 26 days on the Royal Viking Sea, starting from Fort Lauderdale, Florida through the Panama Canal and up to Acapulco and then to New Zealand, having spent 28 days fishing for trout and salmon.

Mr. Kenneth B. Case
1200 Main St.
Springfield, MA 01103

Mr. William B. Pressey
6 Parkway
Hanover, NH 03755

THEODORE PECK of Falls Church, Virginia and his wife, Ruth, again combined his College School alumni day with the Immortals Dinner — this year his 60th anniversary. This gave the Pecks a week between alumni days visiting Connecticut family and friends.

Mr. Erhardt C. Schmit
41 Mill Rock Road
New Haven, CT 06511

You saw the obituary notice on the passing of Virginia Johnson, who was also a Virginia Johnson in the "In Memory" section of the last Reporter. Charles certainly had a most distinguished career and I trust his family will remember Virginia's spirit and wishes we had had him with us in 1916.

Mr. Lipp Phister
148 Forest Lane
CT 06755

Interested in seeing photos and hearing the news that FRANK LAMBERT's broken hip has healed quickly and that he would be happy to get a letter from his friends, particularly Trinity 1919ers. I have written him and Barbara Lambert and hope you will also write.

Address correspondence to Mr. Frank Lambert at 31 Park Road, Sea Cliff, L.I., New York 11597.

Mr. J. D. Thompson
117 Grenlawn Avenue
Washington, D.C.

On the advice of Dr. Michael Farber, my wife, Mary Smith, D.M.D., and I have been able to take sabbatical leave in Texas and are glad to be in Portland. Graduate courses in Joyce and Matisse and Toulouse-Lautrec will be taken this fall.

Mr. George C. Graft
10 Pequot Ave.
New Canaan, CT 06840

LIPHY PHISTER could not attend the Immortals Dinner again this year (last year he was just emerging from three weeks in a hospital with his leg in full cast after having taken a header over the handlebars of a bicycle) as he and Lucie were getting ready to tour Scotland.

J. D. THOMPSON, GEORGE MACKIE '31 and DON VIERING '42 completed another year in the class of 1922. Much of their time was spent at home in New York.
is married to The Rev. Charles Rowins, assistant chaplain at Kent School (Connecti­cut), and they have two children. Son, Timothy is rector, Christ Church, Quaker Fork, Kentucky, and daughter, Grace Margaret, has completed her freshman year at the University of Maine School of Nursing.

Mr. Robert M. Kelly 185 Kenyon Street Hartford, CT 06101

ED LEHAN and his wife, Evelyn, recently stopped off for an overnight visit with GEORGE and Anne LEPAR at their home in Brownington, Vermont. Ed was on his way back to East Hartford from his winter home in Florida. Mr. LEPAR is owner of the electrical services for the electrical products group of AMP, Inc. in Alexandria, Virginia.

Mr. Herbert R. Bland
R.C. Knox & Co.
P.O. Box 936
Hartford, CT 06101

BILL WOLF, who teaches at the Episcopal Divinity School in Cambridge, Massachu­setts, has just had "Thoreau: Mystic, Proph­et, Ecologist" published by Pilgrim Press. In his preface he attributes his interest in Thoreau to the late Professor Odell Shepard under whom he studied at Trinity.

Mr. Frank A. Kelly, Jr.
21 Forest Drive
Cromwell, CT 06416

Mr. Charles M. Towne
210 Tinton Hill Rd.
West Simsbury, CT 06092

Mr. Donald Wood
91 American Row
Phoenix, WA 85021

Mr. John J. Boney
McCook, Kenton and Bone 50 State St.
Hartford, CT 06103

George MUNSEL has left the industrial world of engineering management for the organic farm homesteading type of life in Maine and feels it has greatly helped his three sons. Dave says it is a most rewarding asset to almost any team like their Dad was!

Mr. James R. Glancio, Jr.
5822 Georgetown Pike
McLean, VA 22102

STEVE CASEY has become president of Data Sound Company, Inc., New York City, manufacturer and distributor of magnetic ses and magnetic film for computer use and motion picture sound production. He has a married son who practices his interest in Shipman and Goodwin in Hartford.

Barry Rau has moved from Williams East Company, New York City, where he functioned as media coordinator for the Colgate-Palmolive Company, to McCann-Erickson, Inc., as media planning and budget manager.

BOB WOOD, vice president of the John E. Brown Co. in Lexington, Massachusetts, writes that all six of his children are or are in the process. Bob says he is looking forward to his 25th reunion.

Arthur WILLS moved from Florida to Farmington, Connecticut and is general manager of the Scarsdale Golf Club, Hartsdale, New York.

EDWARD Albee has won his second Pulitzer Prize for his play "Seascape". He last won the drama award in 1965 for "A Delicate Balance".

Mr. John F. Klingler
14 Stanhope Gardens
West Hartford, CT 06119

CLIFF STARK reports his oldest son, Jeffrey, graduates from Woodstock Academy and will enter Highgate School in Vermont, New York, where he will major in music education. Jeffrey is an honor student. Cliff says that his popularity among peers of his sons, ages 7 to 18, are great soccer players like their Dad was! Douglas, 16 to 17, is particularly good and would be an asset to almost any team and should be really good as a pitcher - if he can learn to throw.

Craig Ludow is now a senior analyst, church and religious organizations coverage, American World Airways, New York City. His daughter, Abigail, age 14, is studying the harp and he has another daughter, Kelly, age 3.

The Rev. LEONEL MITCHELL is the assistant rector at St. Paul's Church. After Ron and his wife, Beth, returned from a meeting at the Maxwell Club of Philadelphia he is a charter member, and that he was looking forward to his 60th reunion.

Mr. Edward A. Montgomery, Jr.
16 Stanhope Gardens
London, S.W. 7, England

Kim SHAH has been made manpower counselor with Arthur D. Little, Inc., Cambridge, Massachusetts and is most concerned with plant location and job openings. Kim has had time in Massachusetts with his wife, Sandy, and three children in Washington, D.C. and in Rome.

Don Scott reports he saw Ron KINNEY and his wife, June, at the Gallup, after Ron and his wife, Beth, returned from a meeting at the Maxwell Club of Philadelphia which he is a charter member, and that he was looking forward to his 60th reunion. Don says a stout heart and self discipline have paid off for this great gentleman.

Mr. Edward A. Montgomery, Jr.
16 Stanhope Gardens
London, S.W. 7, England

Mr. Paul A. Mortell
508 Stratfield Rd.
Fairfield, Ct. 06430

Paul MORTELL reports his son, Bennett, is Trinity, Class of '77 and his other son, Porter, is Brown University, Class of '78. Paul has been appointed vice president for New England operations of the Association of the Gunnery School, Washington, D.C.

The Connecticut General Assembly has approved a third four year term for HENRY SMITH, as state auditor.

Lee SMITH is on a three year assignment in Paris as manager of GSO production for IBM. His address is 6 rue Vineuzie, 75006 Paris, France.

Mr. Theodore T. Tani
Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Co.
Amaryllis Row
Hartford, CT 06103

Dick HENNIGAR has been elected dean of the Central Worcester Deanery (14 parishes) in the Diocese of Western Massachusetts. Dick has been Rector of St. John's, Worcester, Massachusetts for 11 years.

Mr. E. Wade Close, Jr.
230 Hunter Street
Lakeland, Florida 33510

Mr. Geoffrey C. Stock, Delacorte Mutual Mortgage Co.
Rye, New York 10580

Mr. John F. Klingler
14 Stanhope Gardens
West Hartford, CT 06119
Mr. Paul S. Campion
4 Red Oak Dr.
Rye, New York 10801

Paul Mills became a world traveler last summer when he took a three-month study-tour sponsored by Spelman College, Atlanta, Georgia. Going by way of London, Frankfurt, Istanbul, Beirut, Tehran, he saw snake charmers, weavers, sweepers and first sermon, swam in the Bay of Bengal and funeral pyres of the dead along the Ganges, circle the globe.

Mr. Del A. Shives
53 Norwalk Street
Millbrook, NY 12546

WALT ZELLEY, rector of St. Luke's Episcopal Church, Metuchen, New Jersey, has his S.T.M degree in pastoral counseling from New York Theological Seminary and is presently in a Ph.D. program in clinical psychology at New York University. For Social Research in Manhattan, Walt has a continuing interest in the psychology of the church, and his goal is to set up a multi-disciplinary treatment and retreat center for families of alcoholics.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Judge
11 School St.
Simsbury, Connecticut.

George and Lynne Lynch were Hartford Golf Club champions of the mixed doubles tennis tournament.

Mr. Bernard Lipkind
8 Union Ave. E-5
Norwalk, CT 06851

GEORGE WOLL was the speaker for the Trinity's annual Business, Industry and Government dinner held in March. Continuing his usual interest in economic affairs, Woll was the Potter Fellow at Indiana University in early April.

Mr. Malcolm Rithard
Boston Medical Center, Boston, Massachusetts.

MALCOLM ROTHBARD has been promoted to assistant chief of obstetrics and gynecology at the New York Hospital in New York City.

Mr. Donald P. Davis
Board of Regents of the University of California, Berkeley.

DONALD DAVIS is professor of surgery (plastic) and director of hand surgery at The New York Hospital, Cornell University, Medical Center. In addition, he has just opened his own private practice of cosmetic plastic surgery and surgery of the hand at 525 E. 68th Street in New York City.

Mr. John W. Norton
150 Katherine Street
San Antonio, TX 78209

John Witherington, who is personnel manager of Ramber's (division of R.H. Macy & Co., Inc.), isMin. John. John also has a daughter, Kristy.

Mr. Jeff Chandler
1391 Lakeview
San Antonio, TX 78209

JEFF CHANDOR is trust investment officer of Midlantic National Bank, Morristown, New Jersey. He and his wife live in Sunnybrook, Basking Ridge, New Jersey, and have two children, Heather, age 5, and Jeffrey, age 15.

Mr. John L. Sollars
620 South Orange Ave.
Burlington, N.J.

KIAU LOI is a member of the Naval Reserve, has been designated as an aviation reserve officer, and is serving as a combat crew member of the Navy's F-14 aircraft. Kiau is trying to rent his house in Lakewvie for July and August while he is on a business trip to Hawaii.

Mr. Chris Coghill
20 Rowland Street
Somerville, MA 02144

CHRIS COGHLIN has been promoted to assistant vice president of Advance Mortgage Corporation, a subsidiary of Citicorp. The company is in mortgage banking and Christian will manage the single family residential, second mortgage, mobile homes and insurance divisions.

Mr. William Fish
150 Katherine Street
San Antonio, TX 78209

KEN FISH is an independent consultant with the Rhode Island State Department of Education. He evaluates innovative programs and writes articles for educational journals. BRADIZON is a producer for Harrison Productions, a New York based TV commercial film and video tape production house. He is also involved in the creation and shooting of 24 short pieces of fiction published and three short novels, including his bestseller in the Nebula Award for best novelette for 1976 (published in English), and is executive director of the WPVB (professional writers and studio guild). Charles and his wife are expecting their first child in November.

Mr. Timothy F. Leischel
421 Main Street
Somerville, MA 02144

DICK ULRICH has opened practice in Wellesley, Massachusetts following a two year program at Boston University School of Graduate Dentistry, specializing in orthodontics. He has two children, Kristin, age 6, and Michael, age 12.

Mr. R. W. Shenk
720 Prospect Rd.
Oakland, California 94608

WILBUR SHENK, who has been with Owens-Corning Fiberglas Corporation since 1964, has been named manager of Owens-Corning Fiberglas in the United Kingdom, Owens-Corning Fiberglas Europe. He will be located in Brussels, Belgium.

Mr. Heindl of the new state government administration, a relative of the English house of Heindl, based in San Francisco.

Mr. Robert C. Langen
2 Sachems Trail
Somerville, MA 02144

Mike Fielder and his wife, Stacy married June 9, 1974, have moved to a new home in New York City. Bill DeCOLIYING is now headmaster of the St. Croix Country Day School in Christiansted, St. Croix, U.S. Virgin Islands, and visited numerous other cities in India. While there, he saw snake charmers, weavers, beggars, attended ritualistic weddings, saw funeral pyres of the dead along the Ganges, visited the spot where Buddha preached his first sermon, swam in the Bay of Bengal and saw several dance returns. His home return was by way of Hong Kong, Hong Kong, Tokyo and Fairbanks, which enabled him to circle the globe.

Mr. Arthur J. Judge
11 School St.
Simsbury, Connecticut.

Karl Scheibe is a professor and chairman of the psychology department at Wesleyan University, Middletown, Connecticut. He directs review panels in Washington for the National Science Foundation Science Faculty Fellowship Program.

Mr. Dave Merrifield
15 Church Street
Apr. 12, 1975

DAVE MERRIFIELD has a new home in Saratoga Springs, New York, where he and his family live. He says "it's a great place to raise children and there aren't many serializing a tractor (from a helicopter) in gauche". The family also loves the Saratoga Shire, the Circus, all summer with the Barreli Show, Wisconsin Dells, Wisconsin, and then a fall tour in Vermont.

Mr. After seven years as an attorney general for Massachusetts, Howard Mayo has joined the firm of Chapin, Barzun, and Canner, 24 Federal Street, Boston, Massachusetts, in private law practice.

Mr. Chandler Biegel
421 Main Street
Somerville, MA 02144

Chandler Biegelow had a good turn-out at an exhibition of his recent paintings in his Chelsea studio in New York City.

Mr. Robert C. Langen
2 Sachems Trail
Somerville, MA 02144

Mike Fielder and his wife, Stacy married June 9, 1974, have moved to a new home in New York City. Bill DeCOLIYING is now headmaster of the St. Croix Country Day School in Christiansted, St. Croix, U.S. Virgin Islands, and visited numerous other cities in India. While there, he saw snake charmers, weavers, beggars, attended ritualistic weddings, saw funeral pyres of the dead along the Ganges, visited the spot where Buddha preached his first sermon, swam in the Bay of Bengal and saw several dance returns. His home return was by way of Hong Kong, Hong Kong, Tokyo and Fairbanks, which enabled him to circle the globe.

Mr. Robert C. Langen
2 Sachems Trail
Somerville, MA 02144

Mike Fielder and his wife, Stacy married June 9, 1974, have moved to a new home in New York City. Bill DeCOLIYING is now headmaster of the St. Croix Country Day School in Christiansted, St. Croix, U.S. Virgin Islands, and visited numerous other cities in India. While there, he saw snake charmers, weavers, beggars, attended ritualistic weddings, saw funeral pyres of the dead along the Ganges, visited the spot where Buddha preached his first sermon, swam in the Bay of Bengal and saw several dance returns. His home return was by way of Hong Kong, Hong Kong, Tokyo and Fairbanks, which enabled him to circle the globe.

Mr. Robert C. Langen
2 Sachems Trail
Somerville, MA 02144

Mike Fielder and his wife, Stacy married June 9, 1974, have moved to a new home in New York City. Bill DeCOLIYING is now headmaster of the St. Croix Country Day School in Christiansted, St. Croix, U.S. Virgin Islands, and visited numerous other cities in India. While there, he saw snake charmers, weavers, beggars, attended ritualistic weddings, saw funeral pyres of the dead along the Ganges, visited the spot where Buddha preached his first sermon, swam in the Bay of Bengal and saw several dance returns. His home return was by way of Hong Kong, Hong Kong, Tokyo and Fairbanks, which enabled him to circle the globe.
The only card I got was a newspaper clipping from the "New Haven Register" announcing that the Allen Company, New York City, had hired a new manager named research and planning officer of the Banking Center of Watertown, Connecticut. He is 23 years old and has been an intern in its customer service division and was later promoted to administrative assistant in methods, planning and training and then to senior systems analyst. Congratulations, Howie.

Recently while playing squash on a business trip to Columbus, Ohio, Mike Fass took a spill and injured his Achilles' tendon. Returning to LA for an operation on June 1, he is rather hobbling around with only 23 to Barbara Keiter of the Silverlake district of Los Angeles and have a spare bedroom for guests. Bob keeps busy on the West Coast producing them.

Several months ago at a Los Angeles area alumni dinner attended by President Lockwood of Tufts, the speaker was Bob Dobbins, the senior planning officer with a local community for several years. By now BILL BUSH should have graduated from the Yale School of Medicine. He will continue at Yale for a residency in pathology. After two agonizing years preparing for an oral examination in his Ph.D program at Harvard, MIKE JIMENEZ is now working towards his dissertation on rural rebellions in 20th century Colombia. He also teaches in the department of history and literature at Harvard. His wife, Pamela, is teaching film at the University of Connecticut in Storrs.

Along with his residency in obstetrics and gynecology at the Bicentennial celebration in San Francisco, Mr. Joseph Martinez was later promoted to administrative assistant in methods, planning and training and then to senior systems analyst. Congratulations, Howie.

Well that's all the news I've got. As I've said before, without cards, newsgroups, tele­phone calls, whatever, there can be no column.

Mr. Peter N. Campbell 37 Scott Blvd., Apt. 4-A Decatur, GA 30033

ROY PINGEL has been working for the past two years for the New York City Planning Commission. Fow, New York has been attached to the planning office and works with a local community for several years. By now BILL BUSH should have graduated from the Yale School of Medicine. He will continue at Yale for a residency in pathology. After two agonizing years preparing for an oral examination in his Ph.D program at Harvard, MIKE JIMENEZ is now working towards his dissertation on rural rebellions in 20th century Colombia. He also teaches in the department of history and literature at Harvard. His wife, Pamela, is teaching film at the University of Connecticut in Storrs.

Along with his residency in obstetrics and gynecology at the Bicentennial celebration in San Francisco, Mr. Joseph Martinez was later promoted to administrative assistant in methods, planning and training and then to senior systems analyst. Congratulations, Howie.

Well that's all the news I've got. As I've said before, without cards, newsgroups, tele­phone calls, whatever, there can be no column.

Mr. Peter N. Campbell 37 Scott Blvd., Apt. 4-A Decatur, GA 30033

ROY PINGEL has been working for the past two years for the New York City Planning Commission. Fow, New York has been attached to the planning office and works with a local community for several years. By now BILL BUSH should have graduated from the Yale School of Medicine. He will continue at Yale for a residency in pathology. After two agonizing years preparing for an oral examination in his Ph.D program at Harvard, MIKE JIMENEZ is now working towards his dissertation on rural rebellions in 20th century Colombia. He also teaches in the department of history and literature at Harvard. His wife, Pamela, is teaching film at the University of Connecticut in Storrs.

Along with his residency in obstetrics and gynecology at the Bicentennial celebration in San Francisco, Mr. Joseph Martinez was later promoted to administrative assistant in methods, planning and training and then to senior systems analyst. Congratulations, Howie.

Well that's all the news I've got. As I've said before, without cards, newsgroups, tele­phone calls, whatever, there can be no column.

Mr. Peter N. Campbell 37 Scott Blvd., Apt. 4-A Decatur, GA 30033

ROY PINGEL has been working for the past two years for the New York City Planning Commission. Fow, New York has been attached to the planning office and works with a local community for several years. By now BILL BUSH should have graduated from the Yale School of Medicine. He will continue at Yale for a residency in pathology. After two agonizing years preparing for an oral examination in his Ph.D program at Harvard, MIKE JIMENEZ is now working towards his dissertation on rural rebellions in 20th century Colombia. He also teaches in the department of history and literature at Harvard. His wife, Pamela, is teaching film at the University of Connecticut in Storrs.

Along with his residency in obstetrics and gynecology at the Bicentennial celebration in San Francisco, Mr. Joseph Martinez was later promoted to administrative assistant in methods, planning and training and then to senior systems analyst. Congratulations, Howie.

Well that's all the news I've got. As I've said before, without cards, newsgroups, tele­phone calls, whatever, there can be no column.

Mr. Peter N. Campbell 37 Scott Blvd., Apt. 4-A Decatur, GA 30033

ROY PINGEL has been working for the past two years for the New York City Planning Commission. Fow, New York has been attached to the planning office and works with a local community for several years. By now BILL BUSH should have graduated from the Yale School of Medicine. He will continue at Yale for a residency in pathology. After two agonizing years preparing for an oral examination in his Ph.D program at Harvard, MIKE JIMENEZ is now working towards his dissertation on rural rebellions in 20th century Colombia. He also teaches in the department of history and literature at Harvard. His wife, Pamela, is teaching film at the University of Connecticut in Storrs.

Along with his residency in obstetrics and gynecology at the Bicentennial celebration in San Francisco, Mr. Joseph Martinez was later promoted to administrative assistant in methods, planning and training and then to senior systems analyst. Congratulations, Howie.

Well that's all the news I've got. As I've said before, without cards, newsgroups, tele­phone calls, whatever, there can be no column.

Mr. Peter N. Campbell 37 Scott Blvd., Apt. 4-A Decatur, GA 30033

ROY PINGEL has been working for the past two years for the New York City Planning Commission. Fow, New York has been attached to the planning office and works with a local community for several years. By now BILL BUSH should have graduated from the Yale School of Medicine. He will continue at Yale for a residency in pathology. After two agonizing years preparing for an oral examination in his Ph.D program at Harvard, MIKE JIMENEZ is now working towards his dissertation on rural rebellions in 20th century Colombia. He also teaches in the department of history and literature at Harvard. His wife, Pamela, is teaching film at the University of Connecticut in Storrs.

Along with his residency in obstetrics and gynecology at the Bicentennial celebration in San Francisco, Mr. Joseph Martinez was later promoted to administrative assistant in methods, planning and training and then to senior systems analyst. Congratulations, Howie.

Well that's all the news I've got. As I've said before, without cards, newsgroups, tele­phone calls, whatever, there can be no column.

Mr. Peter N. Campbell 37 Scott Blvd., Apt. 4-A Decatur, GA 30033

ROY PINGEL has been working for the past two years for the New York City Planning Commission. Fow, New York has been attached to the planning office and works with a local community for several years. By now BILL BUSH should have graduated from the Yale School of Medicine. He will continue at Yale for a residency in pathology. After two agonizing years preparing for an oral examination in his Ph.D program at Harvard, MIKE JIMENEZ is now working towards his dissertation on rural rebellions in 20th century Colombia. He also teaches in the department of history and literature at Harvard. His wife, Pamela, is teaching film at the University of Connecticut in Storrs.

Along with his residency in obstetrics and gynecology at the Bicentennial celebration in San Francisco, Mr. Joseph Martinez was later promoted to administrative assistant in methods, planning and training and then to senior systems analyst. Congratulations, Howie.

Well that's all the news I've got. As I've said before, without cards, newsgroups, tele­phone calls, whatever, there can be no column.

Mr. Peter N. Campbell 37 Scott Blvd., Apt. 4-A Decatur, GA 30033

ROY PINGEL has been working for the past two years for the New York City Planning Commission. Fow, New York has been attached to the planning office and works with a local community for several years. By now BILL BUSH should have graduated from the Yale School of Medicine. He will continue at Yale for a residency in pathology. After two agonizing years preparing for an oral examination in his Ph.D program at Harvard, MIKE JIMENEZ is now working towards his dissertation on rural rebellions in 20th century Colombia. He also teaches in the department of history and literature at Harvard. His wife, Pamela, is teaching film at the University of Connecticut in Storrs.

Along with his residency in obstetrics and gynecology at the Bicentennial celebration in San Francisco, Mr. Joseph Martinez was later promoted to administrative assistant in methods, planning and training and then to senior systems analyst. Congratulations, Howie.

Well that's all the news I've got. As I've said before, without cards, newsgroups, tele­phone calls, whatever, there can be no column.

Mr. Peter N. Campbell 37 Scott Blvd., Apt. 4-A Decatur, GA 30033

ROY PINGEL has been working for the past two years for the New York City Planning Commission. Fow, New York has been attached to the planning office and works with a local community for several years. By now BILL BUSH should have graduated from the Yale School of Medicine. He will continue at Yale for a residency in pathology. After two agonizing years preparing for an oral examination in his Ph.D program at Harvard, MIKE JIMENEZ is now working towards his dissertation on rural rebellions in 20th century Colombia. He also teaches in the department of history and literature at Harvard. His wife, Pamela, is teaching film at the University of Connecticut in Storrs.

Along with his residency in obstetrics and gynecology at the Bicentennial celebration in San Francisco, Mr. Joseph Martinez was later promoted to administrative assistant in methods, planning and training and then to senior systems analyst. Congratulations, Howie.

Well that's all the news I've got. As I've said before, without cards, newsgroups, tele­phone calls, whatever, there can be no column.

Mr. Peter N. Campbell 37 Scott Blvd., Apt. 4-A Decatur, GA 30033

ROY PINGEL has been working for the past two years for the New York City Planning Commission. Fow, New York has been attached to the planning office and works with a local community for several years. By now BILL BUSH should have graduated from the Yale School of Medicine. He will continue at Yale for a residency in pathology. After two agonizing years preparing for an oral examination in his Ph.D program at Harvard, MIKE JIMENEZ is now working towards his dissertation on rural rebellions in 20th century Colombia. He also teaches in the department of history and literature at Harvard. His wife, Pamela, is teaching film at the University of Connecticut in Storrs.

Along with his residency in obstetrics and gynecology at the Bicentennial celebration in San Francisco, Mr. Joseph Martinez was later promoted to administrative assistant in methods, planning and training and then to senior systems analyst. Congratulations, Howie.
March and April brought a great deal of news from the Class of 74. FRED FRAPPIER represents the next generation of the Theological Seminary and will enter the Master of Divinity program there in September. TERRY MARIS is a new contributor to The Telegraph, a local American newspaper, the Daily American, in Roxbury, Connecticut. He is working as a desk editor and doing some reporting. Give her a call if you’re in Rome. Cathy says it’s always good to see a face from the past! Her address is Via Perugia, Pa. Di Pietro 63/A, 7 Rome.

GENE COWEY and wife and nine-month-old daughter LUCY recently moved to 9540 S. VIPER BOB ROSENBERG and ZEG GEC, Thanks. Marce, for giving the gang an excuse to get together for emotionally disturbed children which flourished at the Norwich (Conn.) Hospital.

1953 BARNARD SELIGMANN has been appointed associate dean of the School of Medicine at the Pace University, New York City.

1949 JOAN PARISSON, his eldest son is finishing his freshman year at Columbia. After traveling for the past 14 years ex- amining insurance companies all over the United States, MERV KRAWCZYK has received the Arvika Life Insurance Company’s recognition as the top salesperson in Zone 3, NAIC, State of Alabama to par- ticipate in that company’s quadrennial examination. She is looking forward to a lot of golfing at the Wampango Golf Club, West Palm Beach, Florida. She and her family own a cabin in the mountains, a traditional and semi-abstractive manner and many commis- sions are the murals at Renbrook School, an insurance agency, and New York Law School.

1959 CHARLES FERGUSON, artist and director of New Britain (Connecticut) Museum of American Art. He is hir ed in March at Gallery 24, CPTV in Hartford. He is married to the former Margaret Fergusonly on Fishers Island, New York and co-owner of the Grant Mill Art Gallery in Farmington, Connecticut. Both a traditional and semi-abstract manner and many commis- sions are the murals at Renbrook School, an insurance agency, and New York Law School.

1963 LOIS MACBAIN received the Golden Knight Award from the Anita organization for being an outstanding journalist in the medical profession.

1964 RICHARDSON MINER is assistant to the president of the University of Vermont. He is also president of the board of directors for the Porter Medi- cal Center, Inc. and serves as assistant to the Mayor of the Town of Williston.

1966 DONALD K. COWEY is assistant professor of English and head of the English and Afro-American Studies Department.

1968 MIKE RONDON is branch manager for the Meridian Brokerage Corporation, an insurance agency, and New York Law School.

1969 BRUCE FOX is assistant principal at the Valley School, Terryville, Connecticut. MARGARET McGOVERN is industri­ ous, pre-licensing in the architectural field and teaching political science at Northeastern University.

1971 PAT SHINNON has been teaching at Simsbury (Conn.) High School since September of 1972 along with BILL GORALSKI ’72. She and her husband and their three children live in Simsb­ y, on.

1973 NICK DeCARE is a foreign benefits specialist for Bristol Myers of New York City.

1978 RICHARD SELLENS has completed his sixth year as a medical student at the University of Connecticut. The Rev. CHARLES O. BLANCHARD, a Uni­ versity minister in Meriden (Conn.) St. Vincent de Paul Parish, was guest speaker this Spring at the St. Vincent de Paul Parish in Madison, Conn.

1979 HAROLD BEAUPRE teaches at Classi­ cal High School in Springfield, Mass. He serves the Town of Springfield as the chair of the negotiating committee, personnel board, and is chairman of the economic development commission. The Rev. ROGER WILLIAMSON, former pastor of the First United Methodist Church in Farmington, and dean of the Hartford Deansery since 1973, has left the Diocese to become dean of Christ Church Cathedral, Kamloops, Deo­ nse of Western Michigan.

1980 ROGER SHERMAN is assistant bio­ metrics research scientist at the New England Department of Mental Hygiene. He is a Ph.D. candidate in sociology and social work at Columbia University. DRYDEN CLARK was married to Bobbi Philips on July 27, 1974.

1974 KIRK SELIGMAN, who teaches English at Hall High School in West Hartford, has had his poems published in Aspen Leaves, Poet Lore, and has also been listed in the International Who’s Who in Poetry.

DEBRA PELUSI took a group of Latin students to Rome and the American Classical League Tour sponsored by George Washington University last March and April.

HONORARY

JOHN M. K. DAVIS, who leads a busy pro­ fessional life as head of Market Research of Avon, Connecticut, has found time to engage in volunteer and charitable work. He recently chaired a cation in the National Volunteer Awards selection, a contest which is spon­ sored by the National Center for Voluntary Action.

WILLIAM LEWIS, a scholar and author­ ity on Horace Walpole, was awarded the Benjamin Franklin Gold Medal for 1975 by the Royal Society of Arts. He is best known for his translation and editing of the Yale edition of Horace Walpole’s correspondence, contributions to and editing of the Yale edition of the 18th century.

Recent Bequests and Memorial Gifts

Trinity acknowledges with a deep sense of loss the passing of alumni and other friends of the College. It seems appropriate to list the bequests and memorial gifts which have been made to honor them.

A gift of $500 for the Alumni Fund in memory of the Rev. Charles N. Shepard ’91.

A gift of $1,000 for the Alumni Fund in memory of Edgar F. Waterman ’88, Hon. ’58, former Treasurer and Trustee of the College.

An additional amount of $33,820.96 for general purposes from the estate of Edmund S. Carr ’05, bringing the total bequest to $36,033.82.

An additional amount of $378.70 for general purposes from the estate of Clifton C. Brainerd ’06, bringing the total bequest to $4,500.

A gift of $500 for the scholarship fund in memory of B. Floyd Turner ’10, bringing this fund to $4,500.

A bequest of $24,945 from the estate of Jerome P. Webster, M.D., ’10, Hon. ’88, former Trustee of the College.

An additional amount of $107,991.61 from the estate of Clarence J. Penn ’12, bringing the total bequest to $122,677.84, one third for a scholarship fund, one third for the Library and one third for general purposes.

A bequest of $10,124.14 for general purposes from the estate of Harry Wessels ’12.

A gift of $1,000 for the Alumni Fund in memory of Chester D. Thompson ’15.

A gift of $1,000 for the Alumni Fund in memory of Charles W. Wilkinson ’15.

A gift of $500 for the Alumni Fund in memory of Sydney D. Pinney ’78.

An additional amount of $22,674.46 for general purposes from the estate of Reginald H. Ellis ’24, bringing the total bequest to $24,674.86.

A gift of $5,000 for the Alumni Fund in memory of William H. Merchant, Jr. ’75.

An additional amount of $2,674.46 for general purposes from the estate of John H. Ellis ’25, bringing the total bequest to $4,748.86.

A gift of $500 for the scholarship fund in memory of The Rev. Flavel Sweeten Luther, former President of the College, bringing this fund to $1,500.

A gift of $750 for the lecture fund in memory of Prof. Blanchard W. Means.

Gifts totaling more than $50,668.20 for general purposes from the estate of Clifton M. Bostocke, former Vice President for Financial Affairs and Treasurer of the College.

An additional amount of $50,668.20 for general purposes from the estate of Mrs. Newton C. Brainerd, bringing the total bequest to $606,139.05.

Gifts have also been received in memory of the following alumni and friends:

Joseph W. Standfield ’20
Frederic L. Bradley ’21
Warren A. Hough ’24
Thomas C. Carey, M.D. ’25
Edward L. Sivillan ’23
Mitchell F. Peltte ’26
Harry Tullis ’28
Samuel S.ui, ’01
E. Sigmund LeVenn, M.D. ’33
Gordon B. Silver, M.D. ’33
Edward L. Sivillan ’23
Samuel C. Cane, Jr. ’34
William S. McCormick ’34
Dr. James J. Bennett ’35
William F. Bole ’38
William F. Bole, M.D. ’34
Charles J. Paul ’31
Earl E. Sproule, Jr. ’32
John O. Prestwood, Jr. ’34
Charles Z. Greenbaum ’71
Prof. Haroutune M. Dadarian
Prof. Ralph M. Williams
Mr. John Corcoran
Mrs. Benjamin Silverberg
GOODWIN BATTENSON BACH, HON. MA 1931

Goodwin Batterson Bach, a classical scholar and former business executive who advocated Latin in modern times, died May 4 at the University of Connecticut Medical Center at the age of 80.

Mr. Bach, 80, was a former Head of Central Services at Wesleyan University, where he was a member of the Class of 1924 at Wesleyan University.

Before joining Trinity, he was assistant advertising manager for Aet.

Mr. Root's father was a member of the Class of 1907 and his mother was a member of the Class of 1908.

Former Head of Central Services investment business. 'Master's degree from Trinity in 1945. Pelieu of England, Mrs. Samuel Root of Durrant Beach; four daughters, Mrs. Claude

PAUL MAXON, JR.

Paul Maxon, founder and partner in the Maxon Bros., real estate firm in Grosse Point Farms, Michigan, died February 16. He was survived by his wife, Mrs. Madeline Williams Maxon; his son, William; and four grand¬

CHILDREN

DAUGHTERS

Wesleyan University. Former Head of Central Services

She was a native of Middletown, a member of the Class of 1928, and served two years with the Army Air Corps overseas and received the Distinguished Service Cross.

For over 20 years he worked as an economist for the Department of State’s Divisions of Economic Cooperation and the Division of Commercial Policy in the Office of the United States Information Agency and the McCormick Investment Company, and the McCormick Investment Company, both in Salt Lake City.

A native of Bloomfield, Connecticut, died March 4 in New Haven. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Grace Smith.

His son, William, was a graduate of Cairo Union High School, and his daughter, Mrs. Theodore Strenstrom, and his sister, Mrs. Theodore Strenstrom, were both members of the Class of 1942.

A native of Gloucester, Rhode Island, Mr. Root attended Trinity briefly in 1945. He also studied at Holy Cross and Notre Dame University, where he attained the rank of captain. He was a member of the Class of 1945.

Michael A. Reinsel, 1971

Michael W. Reinsel died February 9 in Wyomissing, Pennsylvania. He was a graduate of the Class of 1937 at Lebanon Valley College. He was married to Bernice Land, a member of the Class of 1937.

RAYMOND JOHN ZAK, 1950

Raymond John Zak, a Hartford dentist for 27 years, died March 20 in Hartford Hospital. He was 53.

An area native, he graduated from Bulkeley High School. He was a graduate of Trinity College in 1928, and left college to serve in the U.S. Army, where he was a member of the Class of 1940. He was awarded his B.S. from Trinity in 1940. He later received his medical degree from the University of Pennsylvania in 1949.

A World War II army veteran, Mr. Morrissey was elected to the Town Council of West Hartford in 1946 and served on the Board of Selectmen, the Town Council of West Hartford, and the United States Naval Reserve.

For many years, he was employed by the Rockwell Standard Corporation in Ohio. At the time of his death, he was manager with Rockwell Standard in Detroit.

A native of New York City, he attended Trinity as a member of the Class of 1919. He was employed as assistant secretary and assistant treasurer of the Hartford Insurance and Manufacturing Company in Newington, Connecticut.

A graduate of the Trinity School in Hartford, Mr. Morrissey attended Trinity University before coming to Trinity in 1941. He was a member of Delta Phi, the soccer team, the Brownell Club and WRTIC. From 1941 to 1944, he was employed by the United States Naval Reserve.

He was the son of the late Charles C. Bach and the former Mary C. Battenon, one of the founders of the Hartford Art School.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Edith Durrant Beach; four daughters, Mrs. Claude Pfeil of England, Mrs. Samuel Root of Jacksonville, Florida, Mrs. Calvin Thompson of Mt. Kisco, New York, and Mrs. William C. Beatty of Middletown, Conn.; and 16 grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

MAURICE C. MARSHALL, 1940

A veteran of World War II and the Korean conflict, Mr. Prior was a member of the Austin Arts Center Steering Committee. He was elected an alumni trustee in 1962 and served on the Board until 1968.

HERBERT J. GOODRICH, 1916

The Rev. Herbert J. Goodrich, a retired Methodist clergyman, died January 28 in Stamford, New York. Surviving him are his wife, Mrs. Caroline Hickox Goodrich, a sister, Mrs. Clarence Field; and a brother, John.

A graduate of Cairo Union School in New York, The Rev. Mr. Goodrich received his B.A. degree from Union Theological Seminary, New York City in 1916, and his A.B. degree from New York University, Columbia and Syracuse.

In 1928, he was ordained a priest and, in subsequent years, served as priest at St. Mark's Church, Philmont, New York; Christ Church in Walton, New York; Chapel of the Redeemer in Yonkers; and St. Margaret's Church, Staatsburg, New York. He also served as vicar of the Episcopal Church at the Rockwood Masion Ave.

A member of the Masonic Club, Masonic Lodge, Philmont, and the Sons of the American Revolution, New York City.

AUSTIN ALPHONSO LARWELL, 1926

A native of New York City, he majored in English and was a member of the Class of 1934. He was a World War I veteran, Mr. Maxon founded Maxon Bros. in 1928 with his late brother, Paul Maxon. The firm became the largest real estate company in the Detroit area.

He was a member of the Class of 1934. He was an artist by avocation, Mr. Maxon was a philatelist and a member of the American Philatelic Society. He has been a member of the American Philatelic Society since 1930.

He was married in 1929 to Olive Brownell, a daughter of Eben Brownell and Curtis. He pursued his academic career only after retiring from the insurance and investment business.

She was the daughter of John and Elizabeth Hickey, and the sister of Edward and Edward Jr.

During his tenure at Trinity, he launched a campaign testing the validity of the act, which was supported by the American Medical Association and the American Academy of Diplomats. He retired from medical practice in 1960.

He was a member of the Hartford Golf Club, the Masons, the Christ Church Cathedra and the Old Guard of West Hartford.

A member of the English classical organization made up largely of professors and school headmasters in England. He also attended the first Congress for Living Latin in Avignon, France, where he delivered an address in Latin, and he later spoke at congresses in Lyon, Strasbourg and Rome.

He was a native of Middletown, a member of the Class of 1933. He later received his medical degree from the University of Pennsylvania in 1949. He also studied at New York University, Columbia and Syracuse.

A graduate of Harvard College he held honorary degrees from Wesleyan University, the University of Hartford and the University of Leeds in addition to the honorary degree awarded him by Trinity in 1931.

He was married to Irene Bollman Kunkel and a son, William.

A native of New York City, Mr. Dennis was a member of the Class of 1913 With the exception of World War II, he was a member of the Class of 1913. He was a member of the Class of 1913. He was a member of the Class of 1913. He was a member of the Class of 1913. He was a member of the Class of 1913.

A native of Middletown, he was a graduate of Trinity as a member of the Class of 1933. He was a World War I veteran, Mr. Maxon founded Maxon Bros. in 1928 with his late brother, Paul Maxon. The firm became the largest real estate company in the Detroit area.

A native of New York City, he majored in English and was a member of the Class of 1934. He was a World War I veteran, Mr. Maxon founded Maxon Bros. in 1928 with his late brother, Paul Maxon. The firm became the largest real estate company in the Detroit area.

A native of New York City, he majored in English and was a member of the Class of 1934. He was a World War I veteran, Mr. Maxon founded Maxon Bros. in 1928 with his late brother, Paul Maxon. The firm became the largest real estate company in the Detroit area.

A native of New York City, he majored in English and was a member of the Class of 1934. He was a World War I veteran, Mr. Maxon founded Maxon Bros. in 1928 with his late brother, Paul Maxon. The firm became the largest real estate company in the Detroit area.

A native of New York City, he majored in English and was a member of the Class of 1934. He was a World War I veteran, Mr. Maxon founded Maxon Bros. in 1928 with his late brother, Paul Maxon. The firm became the largest real estate company in the Detroit area.

A native of New York City, he majored in English and was a member of the Class of 1934. He was a World War I veteran, Mr. Maxon founded Maxon Bros. in 1928 with his late brother, Paul Maxon. The firm became the largest real estate company in the Detroit area.

A native of New York City, he majored in English and was a member of the Class of 1934. He was a World War I veteran, Mr. Maxon founded Maxon Bros. in 1928 with his late brother, Paul Maxon. The firm became the largest real estate company in the Detroit area.

A native of New York City, he majored in English and was a member of the Class of 1934. He was a World War I veteran, Mr. Maxon founded Maxon Bros. in 1928 with his late brother, Paul Maxon. The firm became the largest real estate company in the Detroit area.
The 1975 crew had a successful season with the three major boats, varsity heavyweight, varsity lightweight and freshman lightweight, compiling 73 wins as against 20 losses. The entire program this spring included 60 men and six eights for most of the season. Five eights, a four and two pairs went to the Dad Vail Regatta, the small college national rowing championship in Philadelphia. A varsity four and freshman four competed in the IRA, Intercollegiate Rowing Association, championship in Syracuse for University level competition.

The varsity heavyweight crew had a 9-1 record in the regular season. They defeated the University of Pennsylvania in the Mason-D Downs Cup, March 29, and UMass, April 5. In the Emerson Cup, April 12, Trinity lost to Coast Guard by one length, their only regular season loss, but beat Conn. College and Wesleyan, April 19, the Bantams, rowing at Princeton, April 12. At Princeton St. Josephs, Georgetown and Drexel and then at William's, May 3, defeated Marist and Wesleyan.

At the Dad Vail, the varsity finished 5th of 26. They won both of their preliminary heats and finished 5th in the final. Coast Guard won in 5:44.4 and UMass. Ithaca, 5:44.6 and Trinity were all within 2.2 seconds less than half a length of each other.

At the IRA, the varsity four with cox finished 4th of 11. In the final, Oregon State won in 6:35, Boston University 6:40, Wisconsin 6:42 and Trinity 6:49. The varsity two with cox finished 16th of 22 at the Vail. The lights defeated U.R.I. at the Mason Downs Regatta and W.P.I. at Worcester and then defeated Coast Guard, Conn. College and Wesleyan at the Emerson Cup. Rowing at Princeton they beat Drexel and Georgetown. They finished third at Williams behind Wesleyan and Marist, defeating Williams and the Trinity IV.

The freshman heavyweight crew was 9-1 in the Vail and finished 2nd of 17 in Philadelphia. They opened their collegiate rowing career by defeating U.R.I. at the Mason Cup. They lost to UMass, April 5, their only regular season loss, and beat Coast Guard and Wesleyan at the Emerson Cup. After the Emerson, they beat St. Josephs, Georgetown and Drexel. Williams, Marist and Wesleyan and lost to the Bantams, April 12.

At the Vail the freshmen won both of their qualifying heats. In the final, they lost to Florida Institute of Technology 5:53.5 by four seconds (1/2 of a length) but finishing second to defeat Marietta, Ithaca, St. Josephs.

The 1975 crew had a successful season with the three major boats, varsity heavyweight, varsity lightweight and freshman lightweight, compiling 73 wins as against 20 losses. The entire program this spring included 60 men and six eights for most of the season. Five eights, a four and two pairs went to the Dad Vail Regatta, the small college national rowing championship in Philadelphia. A varsity four and freshman four competed in the IRA, Intercollegiate Rowing Association, championship in Syracuse for University level competition.

The varsity heavyweight crew had a 9-1 record in the regular season. They defeated the University of Pennsylvania in the Mason-D Downs Cup, March 29, and UMass, April 5. In the Emerson Cup, April 12, Trinity lost to Coast Guard by one length, their only regular season loss, but beat Conn. College and Wesleyan, April 19, the Bantams, rowing at Princeton, April 12. At Princeton St. Josephs, Georgetown and Drexel and then at William's, May 3, defeated Marist and Wesleyan.

At the Dad Vail, the varsity finished 5th of 26. They won both of their preliminary heats and finished 5th in the final. Coast Guard won in 5:44.4 and UMass. Ithaca, 5:44.6 and Trinity were all within 2.2 seconds less than half a length of each other.

At the IRA, the varsity four with cox finished 4th of 11. In the final, Oregon State won in 6:35, Boston University 6:40, Wisconsin 6:42 and Trinity 6:49. The varsity two with cox finished 16th of 22 at the Vail. The lights defeated U.R.I. at the Mason Downs Regatta and W.P.I. at Worcester and then defeated Coast Guard, Conn. College and Wesleyan at the Emerson Cup. Rowing at Princeton they beat Drexel and Georgetown. They finished third at Williams behind Wesleyan and Marist, defeating Williams and the Trinity IV.

The freshman heavyweight crew was 9-1 in the Vail and finished 2nd of 17 in Philadelphia. They opened their collegiate rowing career by defeating U.R.I. at the Mason Cup. They lost to UMass, April 5, their only regular season loss, and beat Coast Guard and Wesleyan at the Emerson Cup. After the Emerson, they beat St. Josephs, Georgetown and Drexel. Williams, Marist and Wesleyan and lost to the Bantams, April 12.

At the Vail the freshmen won both of their qualifying heats. In the final, they lost to Florida Institute of Technology 5:53.5 by four seconds (1/2 of a length) but finishing second to defeat Marietta, Ithaca, St. Josephs.

The 1975 crew had a successful season with the three major boats, varsity heavyweight, varsity lightweight and freshman lightweight, compiling 73 wins as against 20 losses. The entire program this spring included 60 men and six eights for most of the season. Five eights, a four and two pairs went to the Dad Vail Regatta, the small college national rowing championship in Philadelphia. A varsity four and freshman four competed in the IRA, Intercollegiate Rowing Association, championship in Syracuse for University level competition.

The varsity heavyweight crew had a 9-1 record in the regular season. They defeated the University of Pennsylvania in the Mason-D Downs Cup, March 29, and UMass, April 5. In the Emerson Cup, April 12, Trinity lost to Coast Guard by one length, their only regular season loss, but beat Conn. College and Wesleyan, April 19, the Bantams, rowing at Princeton, April 12. At Princeton St. Josephs, Georgetown and Drexel and then at William's, May 3, defeated Marist and Wesleyan.

At the Dad Vail, the varsity finished 5th of 26. They won both of their preliminary heats and finished 5th in the final. Coast Guard won in 5:44.4 and UMass. Ithaca, 5:44.6 and Trinity were all within 2.2 seconds less than half a length of each other.

At the IRA, the varsity four with cox finished 4th of 11. In the final, Oregon State won in 6:35, Boston University 6:40, Wisconsin 6:42 and Trinity 6:49. The varsity two with cox finished 16th of 22 at the Vail. The lights defeated U.R.I. at the Mason Downs Regatta and W.P.I. at Worcester and then defeated Coast Guard, Conn. College and Wesleyan at the Emerson Cup. Rowing at Princeton they beat Drexel and Georgetown. They finished third at Williams behind Wesleyan and Marist, defeating Williams and the Trinity IV.

The freshman heavyweight crew was 9-1 in the Vail and finished 2nd of 17 in Philadelphia. They opened their collegiate rowing career by defeating U.R.I. at the Mason Cup. They lost to UMass, April 5, their only regular season loss, and beat Coast Guard and Wesleyan at the Emerson Cup. After the Emerson, they beat St. Josephs, Georgetown and Drexel. Williams, Marist and Wesleyan and lost to the Bantams, April 12.

At the Vail the freshmen won both of their qualifying heats. In the final, they lost to Florida Institute of Technology 5:53.5 by four seconds (1/2 of a length) but finishing second to defeat Marietta, Ithaca, St. Josephs.