Record Turnout At Reunion

A record breaking number of alumni descended on the Trinity campus on November 14 for the annual three-day Reunion-Homecoming Weekend. Director of Alumni Relations Jerry Hansen estimates that about 1,000 attended the various events, traveling from about 25 states and Canada.

The reunion featured some 15 events, including art exhibits, an organ recital, a slide show presentation by President Lockwood, luncheon, reception, dinner and dancing. The Student Theater Arts production of Saroyan's "The Time of Your Life" was presented twice and professor Louis collaborating on a Bicentennial Symposium exploring the causes and consequences of the revolution. Alumni, classmates and friends were seated to listen to speakers who had not attended the annual weekend for some time.

No polls were taken but many faculty members commented on the larger-than-usual number of alumni visiting their class discussions and many reunion "regulars" were delighted to see friends who had not attended the annual weekend for some years.

The buffet luncheon in the Field House was supposed to be a sit-down affair but at any given time as many people were grouping and talking in the aisles or in transit to another table as were seated. One alumna was overheard to say that it reminded her of Times Square on New Year's Eve. About 35 alumni were expected, on the basis of past experience, to attend the symposium on the American Revolution but more than 60 appeared, which so energized the panelists that the session ran overtime.

The traditional warm-up for the game was staged again by Coach Don Miller at the Trinity Club of Hartford smoker on Friday evening. An overflow crowd watched film clips of the 1949 Trinity-Wesleyan game, narrated by Roger Hall, 30, captain of the Band's undefeated team.

A homecoming crowd of more than 6,000 watched Wesleyan edge out the Bantams in a hard-fought 14-11 game. It was a perfect football day and many alumni came prepared to enjoy it to the fullest. The parking lots were jammed with couples opening picnic baskets and uncooking. The Marching Kazoo Band played a halftime and a gaudy, bewigged student leaped out of a huge cake lettered "Happy Birthday, U.S.A." to enthusiastic applause. With characteristic deadpan humor the title of Homecoming Queen was bestowed on a dog whose qualifications were not immediately apparent.

The postgame reception held in the Austin Arts Center soon overflowed to the foyer and hallways and the sculpture exhibit of Norman Carberg was jammed.

The annual homecoming dinner this year was held in beautiful downtown Hartford at the Sheraton-Hartford. With admirable foresight in view of the parking problem caused by a large antique show and a professional hockey game in the adjacent Civic Center, free bus service was provided to and from the campus throughout the postgame-postdinner period. About 400 alumni attended the dinner, applauded the awards (see article), listened to the Trinity Pipes and stayed for dancing.

Of all the happenings on the campus during the weekend only one was sparsely attended and, in view of its implications for future enrollment, the Admissions Office has been notified. Hardly anyone used the free babysitting service.

Large Grant Awarded

To Watkinson Library

The Hartford Foundation for Public Giving has awarded a grant of $70,000 to the College to assist in the expansion of the Watkinson Library, one of America's first free, public research and reference libraries.

New quarters for the Watkinson Library are part of a $2.5 million planned expansion of The Trinity College Library, which has housed the Watkinson collection since 1932. The grant from the Hartford Foundation for Public Giving will provide shelving for 300,000 volumes in the expanded stack area. In 1936, when the Hartford Foundation made its first grant, it contributed the entire year's income — $982.52 — to assist The Watkinson Library.

Used by scholars from around the world, the Watkinson Library holds important bibliographical and reference works, many American and European periodicals of the 18th and 19th centuries, and publications of many learned societies. It has special collections in early voyages and travel, folklore, witchcraft and demonology, and the Civil War.
Nearly 1,200 Attend Parents Rainy, Event-Filled Weekend

As the Hartford newspaper put it, "Despite the rain, there were lots of smiling faces" at Parents Weekend, Oct. 10-13, 1975. While the weather could have been better, it was the largest gathering since the Parents Association began 21 years ago.

Friday evening 100 parents, their sons and daughters, attended a banquet at which Association President Arthur M. Lewis officiated as toastmaster. Trinity President Lockwood, speaking on "Liberal Arts and the Pursuit of Happiness," was chaired by Northam Professor of History and Alumnae of the College, Dr. George B. Cooper. The panel consisted of Dr. Andrea Bianchini, Modern Languages; Christopher J. Shinkman, director of career counseling; Ruth E. Veal '76, chemistry major; John R. Orrick, Jr., economics major; Eric F. Samuelson '77, history major.

At noon, 1,100 parents, students, faculty and staff slouched the puddles to attend the buffet luncheon in the field house. Some parents and students braved the rain later to watch the Trinity-R.P.I. football game. Throughout the day, many other athletic events took place: women's crew and tennis with Tufts and Brandeis; football; volleyball; basketball; tennis and varsity soccer—all in intermittent rain.

Cathedral of St. John the Divine, New York City, who has a daughter in the Class of 1978. The Concert Choir sang accompanied by the Brass Ensemble. Later, President and Mrs. Lockwood held an "open house" coffee for parents and their students. This was the first time rain has fallen on Parents Weekend in the last seven years. Planning for next year has already begun with the smart money betting on clear skies.

BUFFET LUNCHEON with a fall harvest motif attracted 1,100 parents, students, faculty and staff prior to attending the R.P.I. game, women's crew, tennis with Tufts and varsity soccer— all in intermittent rain.

The number of requests for copies of President Lockwood’s statement has been so substantial that widespread distribution is indicated. Printed副本 are available at his cost. Only copies of those marked "self" are authorized to be composed in the absence of the President — "The Arts, The Pursuit of Happiness, And a Job"

I have long felt that these occasions call for some frank views, not a bumbling rumination on the fall colors. Let me discuss this job situation.

Obviously the situation for college graduates is getting better. As the data in the statement indicates, the job situation for graduates has improved. We are already beginning to see a drop in the unemployment rate. The statement stresses the importance of this drop, and it is likely that this trend will continue.

The evidence is not yet persuasive that we have reached the point where we can begin to relax. The unemployment rate is still high, and it is possible that it may increase again in the future. Therefore, one of the first replies to those who argue that we should cut back on education is, "We just do not know what may happen in the future."

My guess is that most psychologists would say that the situation is more complex than this, and that we need to consider the long-term implications of our educational policies. They would argue that we need to prepare students for the future, and that we need to help them develop the skills and knowledge that they will need to succeed in the job market.

The basic goal of liberal arts education is to prepare students for the future, and to help them develop the skills and knowledge that they will need to succeed in the job market. This is not just a matter of getting a job, but of helping students to develop the skills and knowledge that they will need to succeed in their careers.

I have long been a believer in the importance of liberal arts education, and I believe that we need to continue to support it. The statement makes a strong case for the importance of liberal arts education, and I believe that we need to continue to support it.

ANNUAL GIVING REPORT

July 1, 1974 to June 30, 1975

Another Successful Year

Once again I am pleased and proud to report a successful year in our Annual Giving Campaign. For the fiscal year ending June 30, unrestricted gifts from Alumni, Parents, Business and Industry Associates and Friends totaled $500,675. Thus, our 1974-75 Annual Giving campaign became the third consecutive year that annual gifts for the budgeted programs of the College exceeded a half-million dollars.

In addition, restricted gifts from other sources totaled $1,672,268, putting the grand total of gifts to the College at $2,172,943.

Our success is due to the credit of each person who contributed, and of those volunteers who gave their time and energy to this campaign. The College is especially grateful to the chairmen of this campaign, Don Viering, Scotty Stewart, Jack Davis, and Ted Tarsi.

Certainly, a generous spirit has prevailed, and continues to prevail as we seek, for a fourth year, to raise $500,000 or more from Annual Gifts for the budgeted programs of the College. That prevailing spirit was clearly expressed in many notes which came to us from contributors. One donor wrote, "I continue to be proud of my association with the College and will continue to support it as I can." A second, a recent graduate, said, "I would like to extend my personal, heartfelt thanks to Trinity College for an educational opportunity that I don't think I would have obtained anywhere else. I wish I could donate more, and when I can, I will."

So many gifts to Trinity do, indeed, come from the heart, and I hope our contributors know they are meeting vital educational needs of this College. It is encouraging to learn that our College continues to inspire pride, respect, and affection.

Corporate Contributors of Matching Gifts

The College received more than $45,000 in corporate matching funds in 1974-75, as a result of annual gifts from alumni, parents, and friends. Companies with matching gift programs will make a contribution to Trinity equal to, and sometimes greater than, contributions made by their employees to the College. As a general rule, contributions by alumni to the Alumni Fund or the Campaign for Trinity Values are eligible for corporate matching gifts. The result of this total, $57,974, is an additional $4,893.34 matched gifts to The Parent Fund, and $3,974.31 matched gifts to The Friends Fund of Trinity.

For 1974-75, the largest corporate matching gift, the matching of a single alumni, was $3,750. The smallest matching gift received was $5.

According to President Lockwood, "corporate matching gifts are already an important factor in our ability to reach our Annual Giving goals, and we are grateful to the companies who contributed, as well as to those whose local offices forwarded payments to the people who took the initiative to see that their personal gifts were matched.

"Through corporate matching gift programs, donors literally have the opportunity to double 'their dollars to Trinity. It is my hope that information will be made available of these special giving programs."

TRINITY UNIVERSITY June 1976
FOOTBALL

It was a good year, but a disappointing one for the varsity (football) team as they gridders crested the .500 mark with two games remaining in the season and then dropped both of those contests in close battles with Amherst (20-17) and Wesleyan (14-11) to finish the season with a 4-3-1 mark.

Trinity took to the road for its opener against Williams seeking to avenge its only loss of the previous fall. The Ephs outranged the Bantams in total yardage 388-130 but an alert Trinity defense, led by linebackers George Niland, George Noland, forced Williams to turn the ball over in critical situations and the game ended in a 3-3 deadlock.

Bantam kicking specialist Mike Maus had an outstanding afternoon as he not only provided Trinity with its only points of the day but also punished the Bants out of trouble 10 times, averaging .9 yards per kick.

The Bantams journeyed to Maine the following weekend where they exhibited some offense as well as defensive prowess in defeating Bates 24-17. Trinity jumped to an early 14-0 first quarter lead behind the power running of fullback Pat Hefnerman but Bates came back to knot the score at 14 apiece by halftime. The Bantam defense once again provided the spark for victory as sophomore Karl Hebts postoed three (-3) yards per kick.

Returning to Hartford, Trinity met its first defeat of the year against R.P.I. This time Trinity turnovers proved costly as the Engineers converted two Trinity fumbles into touchdowns. A comeback effort by Trinity fell short as the final gun sounded with the score 13-9 in favor of R.P.I.

Trinity sloshed its way to a 1-0 shutout over Colby on a field whose surface bore a strong resemblance to that of Trowbridge Pool. Junior Mike Leverone, starting at middle guard for the injured Vic Novak, recovered two fumbles to lead the Bantam defense which held the Mules to a total of 14 yards rushing. Juniors Tony Coccogany and Tony Trivella came off the bench to score the two Trinity TDs in a six yard run and a 24 yard interception return respectively.

The varsity managed to stay on the winning track, squeezing by Middlebury 12-7 in one of the most exciting gridiron battles ever to take place on hands of Williams in a close 2-0 battle. Freshman Beth Bort right turned in an outstanding performance for the J.V.s with nine season tallies, four of them in the Baby Bantams 3-0 rout of Brown.

ICE HOCKEY

After posting a 9-8 record in its first varsity season, Trinity's ice hockey team begins its second campaign on an optimistic note as ten returning regulars will be joined by several promising freshmen.

The defense will be led by co-captains Jim Lenahan and Nick Brady, the only seniors on the squad. Ted Almy and Peter Lawson-Johnson are the leading freshmen candidates, and will be joined by junior Duffy Shea and sophomore Bill Dodge. The team is strong in the goal as juniors Tim Grisher and Ted Jodson will be pushed by freshman Ted Walkowicz for the starting job.

An experienced group of young forwards is back, headed by sophomore center Tom Lenahan who was last year's co-leader in scoring with 39 points, juniors Alan Plough and Sandy Weeden along with sophomores Sam Gray, Henry Finkenstaedt, Chip Lalone, and David Peters give the Bantams a solid nucleus up front. The offense will be bolstered by freshmen Clint Brown, Tom Kerman and George Brickley.

The Bantams, who look to be a young and hustling aggregation, will again be practicing and playing at the Glastonbury Skating Arena.

The varsity hockey team will play an exhibition game against the alumni on Saturday, February 21, 1976 at 8 p.m. at the Glastonbury Skating Arena. The varsity alumni sextet will be coached by President Lockwood.

SOCCER

It was the end of a frustrating season for the Trinity varsity soccer team as they battled to a 1-1 score in a 3-0 contest with Wesleyan to finish the season with only three victories in twelve outings.

The Bantams got off to a sluggish start as they dropped their first two games to Bowdoin 6-0, and Williams 2-0, tied M.I.T. 1-1, and lost to Babson 5-1. But they managed to rebound with an impressive 5-1 victory over Conn. College, followed by a 2-2 tie with Trinity only to be edged four days later in a tight 5-4 battle against a strong (10-1) Bantam squad.

The team got back on the winning track as sophomore forward Greg Madding tallied twice enroute to Trinity's 5-0 rout of crosstown rival U. Hartford. Success was shortlived, however, as the Bants' sustained a heartbreaking 3-2 loss at the hands of Union in a game which Trinity dominated in every statistical category except the score.

Two of the Bantams' final three games were decided in overtime periods.

- Trinity defeated the Castleton Coast Guard 2-1 but was unable to contain the Lord Jeffs of Amherst who tallied in the second overtime period for a 3-2 margin over the Bants.
- Against Cast Guard, Maus set a Trinity single-game record by kicking three field goals to lead the Bantams to a 1-0-3 decision over the Cadets at New London. George Rose continued his heroics of the Middlebury game as he completed 32 yard desperation pass to fullback Mike Brennan after being chased 20 yards toward his own end zone by two Cadet defensive linemen. The completion set by Trinity's only touchdown of the day as John Wholley plunged over from one yard out four plays later.

Trinity entered its sixth-first contest against Amherst seeking to extend its winning streak to four games. It was to be a frustrating day for the Bantams however as the Lord Jeffs scored a touchdown with 2:57 remaining in the fourth quarter enroute to a 20-17 upset. Although Trinity dominated most of the afternoon with the running of fullback Pat Hefnerman who turned in his best effort of the year, gaining 146 yards on the ground.

On Reunion-Homecoming weekend, Trinity fell to Wesleyan 14-11 despite the efforts of junior split end Tom Lines, who snared six passes for 109 yards, and the defensive secondary led by co-captain Steve Thoren. Mike Maus kicked his eighth field goal of the year to break the Trinity season record of seven which he set in 1974 and finished the year with a 42.8 yard punting average to better both the Trinity and New England records in that category.

WOMEN'S TENNIS

The women's tennis team turned in the most successful effort of any Trinity varsity this fall, dropping only one of its regular season matches with a strong Smith squad to finish the '75 campaign with eight victories and one loss.

In post-season competition, the Lady Bantams swept the Connecticut State Collegiate Women's Tennis Tournament. Freshman Muffy Rogers handled defeately defeated UConn's Margie Skrivan to win the singles final in straight sets. (6-1, 6-1). Sophomores Barb Fisher and Vivi Dunklee wrapped up a close doubles final, outlasting UConn's Christie Redmont and Adele O'connor (7-5, 7-6).

Trinity emerged from the New England Tennis Tournament ranked fifth. Top seeded Barb Fisher and Vivi Dunklee, shooting for the third consecutive New England doubles championship made it to the finals before they were upset by the second seeded pair from Yale (6-3, 6-3) which defeated the Bantam duo of Leslie Hyde and Sue Levin in the third round.

FIELD HOCKEY

The fortunes of the varsity field hockey team fluctuated with each game as the Bantams alternated between victory and defeat throughout the entire fall emerging with a final record of 4-6.

Led by high scoring co-captains Cindy Brown and Pat Porter, the Bantams posted victories over Conn. College (4-3), Wesleyan (2-0), Miss Porter's (3-1) and Briarcliffe (6-0) while succumbing to Brown (2-1), Wellesley (3-1), Smith (4-1), Williams (5-2), Mount Holyoke (3-4) and Yale (5-0).

The junior varsity finished the season with a solid 5-1-2 mark, their only defeat being sustained at the hands of Williams in a close 2-0 battle. Freshman Beth Bort right turned in an outstanding performance for the J.V.s with nine season tallies, four of them in the Baby Bantams 3-0 rout of Brown.
