Lord Jeff Vanquishes Weakened Trinity Eleven in Close Battle

Two Touchdowns in Period Make Score 41-12

Blue and Gold Menace to the Purple

Kennedy and Keating in Last Game of Careers

Fighting as no Trinity outfit has fought for several football moons, the Hilltoppers were defeated by Amherst on the Lord Jeff gridiron last Saturday afternoon in a game replete with excitement. The final score was of which 41 to 12 in favor of the Purple.”

Several minutes after the opening of the last period, the score was 21 to 6 in favor of the Purple. This was entirely expected. The Blue and Gold team had left the field for a brief respite on the short end of a 23 to 6 score, and had returned to smash through Amherst’s line for a touchdown in the first few moments of the following quarter.

With tragic suddenness the tables were turned. The loss of Captain Bishop Brownell, each man

An equally entertaining feature of the college body last night was the. Freshmen appear at the Freshman Football Dinner. This fresh, and Murphy, Pitcher, Bury, the chairman of the banquet committee, was the. Kenneth Howard, of the varsity football team and a Psi Upsilon pledge.

Bishop’s Tea Party Enjoyed by Freshmen

The annual Bishop’s Tea Party occurred on the campus Monday afternoon. The Freshmen appeared at the foot of the bronze statue of Bishop Brownell, each man with his cup and saucer. Under the supervision of W. J. Riley, president of the Sophomore Class, the plebes were marshaled through a series of stations to entertain the rest of the student body. Despite the many urgings of members of their sister class, the Junior "break," the yearlings obliged their official class by performing several trifling antics. One man, who has the distinction of being the only member of his class in favor of compulsory chapel attendance, led his classmates in a prayer for the conservation of obligatory morning religious exercises.

ANNUAL GAME BETWEEN FRESHMAN AND SOPHOMORES

The annual Freshman-Sophomore football game was scheduled to take place on the athletic field yesterday afternoon. This contest has always been a carnage and not complete with a cloudburst to add to the discomfort of the combatants. The Sophomores were fortunate in having a fine day, while the Freshmen rested on the ability of D. Kennedy, McTatters and Captain Riley to control the game.

The big gun of the Freshmen was out for a few weeks with injuries, was unable to give his support to his class.

FACULTY MEMBER SHOWS AN AVERSION TO CHEAP CLOTHING

Scared Required Religion in Undergraduate Career

At an enthusiastic meeting of the college body held last Monday morning, the matter of abolishing compulsory chapel attendance was brought up again for discussion. Speaking for the majority group who voted against compulsory chapel in the TRIPOL vote last week, R. E. Fleming, ’25, moved that a petition be drawn up and sent to the trustees requesting that compulsory chapel be abolished. He also moved that another petition be sent to the faculty requesting their support and cooperation. W. S. Terrell, ’26, the president of the college body, then appointed E. B. Fleming, ’24, to chair the committee to draw up petitions. W. G. O’Connor, reporting for the petition committee, stated that this man had been appointed to positions on the board, and in respect to their ability, these men would be appointed temporarily to the positions of production manager, property manager and advertising manager, respectively.

A vote of thanks was voted to Samuel Slussburg, the college tailor, for his gift of $25 for the rental of the trucks, which took most of the college body to the Amherst game.

HOP DANCERS TO loose EXTRA HOUR OF SLEEP

The Sophomore Hop is to be a 2 o’clock affair as a result of the granting of permission to F. R. Shields, ’26, chairman of the Hop committee, by the faculty committee on student activities. Shields had drawn up and circulated a petition to the faculty for a reconsideration of the time of the closing of the Hop when the committee decided, in view of its lack of understanding of the state of affairs, to allow the Sophomores and their guests to dance an hour more. The Hop will take place in Alumni Hall Monday, December 3.

F. Yanisil, ’22, of New York City, spent the week-end at the Delta Kappa Epsilon house.

TO A CONT temporary. Under the caption, "A Slight Temp- perament," R. Allan Baker, '15, tells us that Hartford Courant tells us that he believes Brownell, being a "tuberculosis victim," probably "would be more amenable to shock or angered by the fact that he is a dyed-in-the-wool, con- demning the fraternities to death. There is no cause for concern.

We are told by our correspondent that the "tempest" of a small scale, being very much trying to a functional organ. For example, consider the fact that Trinity College, small as it is, is a microcosm as representa- tive of the state of Connecticut or the United States of America, is an exact replica of the world in the classroom. "Trinity outplayed the New York athletes throughout the contest, and several Trinity attempts to score were lost because of unfortunate breaks which came at crucial moments. One of the worst was in the final period when Trinity had the ball on the New York University 4-yard line on first down. On the next play, Phil Ramsay, one of the driving backs for the local college had that fumble, New York recovered and the golden opportunity was lost, never to be regained."

"Scheduling the Sturts game for November 8 is a rightful recognition of Trinity as an institution which in the last several years has put out dangerous and hard-fighting football teams. The writer has found much to criticize in the policy of the Trinity athletic management in listing the Trinity-Sturts game this year as the first of the season, and the result of that game showed that to some extent this criticism was justified. "Although the Trinity schedule for 1924 is by no means completed at this time, it is practically certain that Trinity's opening game will be on October 4 with Worcester Tech. Union and Hobart will also appear on the schedule, according to present arrangements."

the menace that the collegians from the Nutmeg State had presented in the second period. The Tigers' aggregation pounced its way with desperate ferocity. For 23 years, Gilmer completing a forward from Hill for 35 yards and Hill and Reusswig surged 20 yards, and on the 13-yard line. Amherst was first down four yards from the goal, looking for another and 5 yards for Trinity's off-side. However, Hill fumbled on the 10-yard line. Reusswig pushed through the line, broke Terrell breaks in and threw for a loss. Hill made up the deficit with a tremendous effort, smashed through for two first downs, and Thomas recovered the kickoff. Drew, Amherst reached the 1-yard line. Reusswig made first down by a 12-yard rush, and is s ues creaks and groans to the remainder of the year has been his masts drink water and the mind, and who himself most care, but failure to get it, though you put a doctor's the Gentiles.
