BALL TEAM PUTS IN A WEEK OF INSIDE WORK
Snow Sends Squad Indoors
Infield Undergoes Shift With a little more than a week before the initial game of the season, Tuesday, April 17, with Lowell Textile Salad, all the outdoor practice was removed as a snowstorm Saturday afternoon put a hold on the participating teams. The infield shifted to third to replace Norwood, and the outfield will be used for the initial game of the season.

FAUCETY PROCLAIMS

The project of having a college Clean-up Day is being connected with the suggestion of President Ogilby. If the project is not started, the day will be set aside as a holiday; but if it is started, the students, the faculty and the president will be entitled to clean-up and beautifying the campus. It is the opinion of the President that the participation of the Student Body in this activity will instill in its members some pride in the physical aspect of the school which is being done for them. The following suggestions have been put forward:

1. The students will be split up into groups and each group will be in charge of the work of beautifying their part of the campus.

2. The groups will be assigned to certain parts of the campus and will be responsible for that area.

3. The groups will be required to report to the office of the President at the end of the day.

4. The President will issue a certificate to each group that has done a good job.

JESTERS GOWING FOR SUB-FRESHMAN COMEDY

Rehearsals for "Rollo's Wild Out" Begun Monday
Rehearsals for the Jesters' Sub-Freshman play are well under way, under the direction of Alexander W. Byrnes, manager of the thespians. The play is "Rollo's Wild Out," a three-act comedy by Clams, which served as a most successful vehicle, since it was produced last Tuesday night at the Punch and Judy Theatre, Massachusetts City, a few weeks ago. Mrs.
Harley Galbraith Reynolds, Jester, coach, who was largely instrumental in the founding of the A.B. T. which was presented. February during the Junior Week-end, is supervising the rehearsals of the new play.

The first rehearsal was held Monda y. The cast was divided into separate roles in the drama, with a number of students assuming lead parts. The play is based on the work of the Jesters’ manager.
The cast will be announced before the Easter recess, and the Jester will be presented on the Hartford Club Saturday evening, May 27, as a feature of Sub-Freshman Week-End. The staff in charge of arrangements is composed of M. E.
Dunn ’23, manager of the group;
P. T. Ballard, ’19, stage manager; and N. W. Mairs, ’18, assistant manager.
The assistant managers will be appointed next week.

WORK ON "IVY," JUNIOR YEAR-BOOK, PROGRESSES

Work on the Junior-year book, the "Ivy," is nearing completion, according to H. T. Stone, ’23, business manager.

All the individual photographs have taken place and been taken and made into the different groups of the picture. The book will go to press immediately after the Easter recess, provided all the necessary work has been done by that time. P.
O. Cisney, ’20, editor of the "Ivy," has completed all the reading matter and is based on the hands of the printer.

It is hoped that the assistant managers, F. W. Crooks, ’23, and D. M.
Hudlo, ’24, can put the dimensional shape for the coming year with the help of the manager of very poor condition, and will require some hard work before it is fit for use.

Lowell comes to Hartford with a reputation for physical force.
It had a successful ball season last year and its men have been practicing hard in the shape of the man who helped with his choices. This is the first time in several years that the men have been in the Big State, last year and year before the season has been watered down since the 1925 championship chapel during his stay in Hartford.
