GRIDIRON WARRIORS OUT FOR SPRING PRACTICE
Drew and Buell Putting Aspirants Through Drills

Spring football practice is in full swing at Trinity. Thursday afternoon was the first day on which the 1925 freshman gridiron eleven reported to Captain-elect Terrell and went through the usual procedure of assigning numbers. Coach "Spud" Drew and "Charli" Buell, instructor of French and captain of the Harvard eleven in 1922, were on the job.

Among the veterans who ran down the steps of the college today were three of its mainstays. The three stars of two years ago are back in a triple-threat man with his plunging ability, his forward passing and his punting. Noble and Anderson were both ineligible last fall and Fisher was not in college.

Among the other candidates for last year's team who were present today were: Lether, Pitcher, Pryor, Longhenry, Noble and Anderson. Two freshmen, one of the most formidable of the three, is "Bill" Fisher, who, in Buell's opinion, is likely to develop into a triple-threat man with his linemen's ability, his up-step passing and his punting. Noble and Anderson were both ineligible last fall, and Fisher was not in college.

The Rev. Floyd W. Tomkins, D.D., rector of the Church of the Holy Trinity, Philadelphia, Pa., spoke at the beginning of the meeting. He interpreted the passage in the Bible narrative which he had chosen and he characterized it as a masterpiece of maritime description. "Then," says he, "the passage, 'leaving lest we should have fallen upon the rocks, they cast four anchors out and went to sleep, and the second day about six o'clock, and wished for the morn'ing, may be seen in the movies of the modern type of American story." He pointed out that one of the main motives of the senior class in its campaign was to raise a banner bearing a certain sentiment which he had enunciated before the end of last year's campaign. The sentiment, "In the April issue of the Trinity College weeklies, he said, "was put forward by William M. Ogilby, president of the college Tuesday morning and the senior class was united in its support. We are all that the college stands for," is likely that an engagement will be made in the course of the next day's play on the local diamond. The cancellation of the game scheduled for May 10, the Saturday of sub-senior week, was not surprising. From the hilltop nine with another empty list of names, Manager Haddow is back on the wires trying to arrange games for both teams. The schedule as it stands at present is as follows: April 15—Lowell Textile at Hartford; May 3—Springfield College at Springfield, Mass.; May 5—Amherst at Amherst, Mass.; May 7—Union at Schenectady, N. Y.; May 10—Williamstown at Springfield, Mass.; May 10—Yale at New Haven. May 29—Holy Cross at Hartford, Mass.

A match with Wesleyan is pending. It is likely that an engagement will be made between the two teams. The city place in the downtown city during the second week in May, after the Bonnetua engagement.

Six matches, two at home and four out of town, constitute the spring tennis schedule as ratified by the Senior Class, Loyalty and Leavenworth, who were present and approved the rigorous schedule. It is stated that not only are they likely to develop into triple threats, but that the weather will be favorable to engage in the necessary amount of practice to prepare for the winter games.

The Senior Class, Loyalty and Leavenworth, who were present and approved the rigorous schedule. It is stated that not only are they likely to develop into triple threats, but that the weather will be favorable to engage in the necessary amount of practice to prepare for the winter games.
THE TRIPOD

TRINITY COLLEGE, Hartford, Conn.

Member, Eastern Intercollegiate Weekly Newspaper Association.

Published Weekly Throughout the College Year.

Subscribers are urged to report promptly any error in the publication of THE TRIPOD. All complaints and business communications should be addressed to the Editor. The columns of THE TRIPOD are not responsible for the opinions or errors of correspondents or for the failure of delivery of notices of change of address.

THE TRIPOD assumes no responsibility for matters published in the "Columns of the College" and "The College Column." The contents of THE TRIPOD are not responsible for the opinions or errors of correspondents or for the failure of delivery of notices of change of address.

EXECUTIVE BOARD

George Hallett, Editor in Chief
Harry B. Thomas, '25, Managing Editor
R. E. Talbot, '24, ... Business Manager

WILLIAM W. MILLER

N. B. Parks, '20
John Williams, '24

Entered as second-class matter Sept. 26, 1909, at the Post-Office at Hartford, Conn., under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Advertising Rates furnished on application.

WASHINGTON, D.C.

Washington College, from an engraving published in "Ballou's Pictorial" in 1855. The text accompanying the picture reads: "The three buildings of this flourishing institution appear above the beautiful shrubbery and commanding eminence, looking down on one side on the City of Hartford, in the suburbs of which they are located, and on the other, the Little River." Seabury, Jarvis and Brownell Halls appear in the engraving.

WASHINGTON, D.C.

Washington College, from an engraving published in "Ballou's Pictorial" in 1855. The text accompanying the picture reads: "The three buildings of this flourishing institution appear above the beautiful shrubbery and commanding eminence, looking down on one side on the City of Hartford, in the suburbs of which they are located, and on the other, the Little River." Seabury, Jarvis and Brownell Halls appear in the engraving.

WASHINGTON, D.C.

Washington College, from an engraving published in "Ballou's Pictorial" in 1855. The text accompanying the picture reads: "The three buildings of this flourishing institution appear above the beautiful shrubbery and commanding eminence, looking down on one side on the City of Hartford, in the suburbs of which they are located, and on the other, the Little River." Seabury, Jarvis and Brownell Halls appear in the engraving.

WASHINGTON, D.C.

Washington College, from an engraving published in "Ballou's Pictorial" in 1855. The text accompanying the picture reads: "The three buildings of this flourishing institution appear above the beautiful shrubbery and commanding eminence, looking down on one side on the City of Hartford, in the suburbs of which they are located, and on the other, the Little River." Seabury, Jarvis and Brownell Halls appear in the engraving.

WASHINGTON, D.C.

Washington College, from an engraving published in "Ballou's Pictorial" in 1855. The text accompanying the picture reads: "The three buildings of this flourishing institution appear above the beautiful shrubbery and commanding eminence, looking down on one side on the City of Hartford, in the suburbs of which they are located, and on the other, the Little River." Seabury, Jarvis and Brownell Halls appear in the engraving.

WASHINGTON, D.C.

Washington College, from an engraving published in "Ballou's Pictorial" in 1855. The text accompanying the picture reads: "The three buildings of this flourishing institution appear above the beautiful shrubbery and commanding eminence, looking down on one side on the City of Hartford, in the suburbs of which they are located, and on the other, the Little River." Seabury, Jarvis and Brownell Halls appear in the engraving.

WASHINGTON, D.C.

Washington College, from an engraving published in "Ballou's Pictorial" in 1855. The text accompanying the picture reads: "The three buildings of this flourishing institution appear above the beautiful shrubbery and commanding eminence, looking down on one side on the City of Hartford, in the suburbs of which they are located, and on the other, the Little River." Seabury, Jarvis and Brownell Halls appear in the engraving.

WASHINGTON, D.C.

Washington College, from an engraving published in "Ballou's Pictorial" in 1855. The text accompanying the picture reads: "The three buildings of this flourishing institution appear above the beautiful shrubbery and commanding eminence, looking down on one side on the City of Hartford, in the suburbs of which they are located, and on the other, the Little River." Seabury, Jarvis and Brownell Halls appear in the engraving.

WASHINGTON, D.C.

Washington College, from an engraving published in "Ballou's Pictorial" in 1855. The text accompanying the picture reads: "The three buildings of this flourishing institution appear above the beautiful shrubbery and commanding eminence, looking down on one side on the City of Hartford, in the suburbs of which they are located, and on the other, the Little River." Seabury, Jarvis and Brownell Halls appear in the engraving.

WASHINGTON, D.C.

Washington College, from an engraving published in "Ballou's Pictorial" in 1855. The text accompanying the picture reads: "The three buildings of this flourishing institution appear above the beautiful shrubbery and commanding eminence, looking down on one side on the City of Hartford, in the suburbs of which they are located, and on the other, the Little River." Seabury, Jarvis and Brownell Halls appear in the engraving.

WASHINGTON, D.C.

Washington College, from an engraving published in "Ballou's Pictorial" in 1855. The text accompanying the picture reads: "The three buildings of this flourishing institution appear above the beautiful shrubbery and commanding eminence, looking down on one side on the City of Hartford, in the suburbs of which they are located, and on the other, the Little River." Seabury, Jarvis and Brownell Halls appear in the engraving.

WASHINGTON, D.C.

Washington College, from an engraving published in "Ballou's Pictorial" in 1855. The text accompanying the picture reads: "The three buildings of this flourishing institution appear above the beautiful shrubbery and commanding eminence, looking down on one side on the City of Hartford, in the suburbs of which they are located, and on the other, the Little River." Seabury, Jarvis and Brownell Halls appear in the engraving.

WASHINGTON, D.C.

Washington College, from an engraving published in "Ballou's Pictorial" in 1855. The text accompanying the picture reads: "The three buildings of this flourishing institution appear above the beautiful shrubbery and commanding eminence, looking down on one side on the City of Hartford, in the suburbs of which they are located, and on the other, the Little River." Seabury, Jarvis and Brownell Halls appear in the engraving.

WASHINGTON, D.C.

Washington College, from an engraving published in "Ballou's Pictorial" in 1855. The text accompanying the picture reads: "The three buildings of this flourishing institution appear above the beautiful shrubbery and commanding eminence, looking down on one side on the City of Hartford, in the suburbs of which they are located, and on the other, the Little River." Seabury, Jarvis and Brownell Halls appear in the engraving.

WASHINGTON, D.C.

Washington College, from an engraving published in "Ballou's Pictorial" in 1855. The text accompanying the picture reads: "The three buildings of this flourishing institution appear above the beautiful shrubbery and commanding eminence, looking down on one side on the City of Hartford, in the suburbs of which they are located, and on the other, the Little River." Seabury, Jarvis and Brownell Halls appear in the engraving.

WASHINGTON, D.C.

Washington College, from an engraving published in "Ballou's Pictorial" in 1855. The text accompanying the picture reads: "The three buildings of this flourishing institution appear above the beautiful shrubbery and commanding eminence, looking down on one side on the City of Hartford, in the suburbs of which they are located, and on the other, the Little River." Seabury, Jarvis and Brownell Halls appear in the engraving.

WASHINGTON, D.C.

Washington College, from an engraving published in "Ballou's Pictorial" in 1855. The text accompanying the picture reads: "The three buildings of this flourishing institution appear above the beautiful shrubbery and commanding eminence, looking down on one side on the City of Hartford, in the suburbs of which they are located, and on the other, the Little River." Seabury, Jarvis and Brownell Halls appear in the engraving.
THE TRIPOD

UNITED STATES SECURITY TRUST COMPANY
777 MAIN ST., HARTFORD, CONN.
Large Enough.
We offer a bank large enough to inspire the confidence of its customers, but not large enough to give every customer the attention to the interest of every customer.
Safe Deposit Boxes for Rent.

A REAL BOOK SHOP
Edwin Valentine Mitchel
BOOKSELLER, PUBLISHER AND PRINT DEALER
27 Lawa Street, Hartford.

THE W. G. SIMMONS CORP.
Exclusive Agents for STETSON and "J. & M."
SHOES FOR MEN
48 to 56 Pratt St., Hartford.

J. FRED BITZER, Jr.
Agent for the Celebrated Hamilton and Chase Watches.
Diamonde, Jewelry, Clocks, Silverware
Fine Repairing
19 Pearl Street, Hartford, Conn.

CHAMBERLIN’S
MEN’S WEAR
62-67 Asylum Street, Hartford, Conn.

G. F. Warfield & Co.
Booksellers and Stationers
77-79 Asylum Street, Hartford, Conn.

INFORMATION FOR FRESHMEN:
It’s the Style to go to
MARCH’S BARBER SHOP
Room 1, Conn. Mutual Building.
Vibration Shaving.
Manicure by Lady Attendant.

CALHOUN SHOW PRINT
DIGNAM & WALSH, Proprietors
POSTERS; PHACARDS; BIG TYPE PRINTERS.
Also CALHOUN PRESS—Quality Job Printers
356 Asylum Street, Hartford.

THE HEUBLEIN HOTEL
BARBER SHOP
Manicurist
Mulberry Street, Hartford, Conn.

The Trinity Refectory
Dining Room Open 5 a.m. to 6 p.m.
Visit also the LUNCH ROOM at the UNION—Open till 11:30 p.m.

THE CASE, LOCKWOOD and BRAINARD Co.
PRINTERS, BOOKBINDERS AND PAPER RULEDERS
Corner Pearl and Trumbull Streets, Hartford, Conn.

OH BOYS!
Don’t forget to call on
The Professional Building Barber Shop.
59 High Street, Hartford, Conn.

Edward Valentine Mitchel
BOOKSELLER, PUBLISHER AND PRINT DEALER
27 Lawa Street, Hartford.

TRINITY STUDENTS, try “Sam”;
he has a good proposition for you.

THE COLLEGE TAILOR
1279 Broad Street,
Between Allen Pl. and Vernon St.

S. A. SCHNEIDER, Proprietor.

EDITORIALS.
(Continued from page 2.)

“Through our association with the Fellowship of Reconciliation we are united with similar groups in North and South America, as well as in most of the countries of Europe, Asia and Africa, and in the Islands of the Sea.”

All the delegates to the Indianapolis Convention were sent this statement and the following enrollment card:

“Recognizing that the method of war is self-defeating, involving greater evil than it can remove, and is contrary to my understanding of the spirit and principles of Jesus, I am impelled to turn from it and rely instead upon the creative power of love.

“It is my purpose to strive for the removal of all causes of war; to work for the establishment of social order based upon cooperation for the common good; and in all things to seek the unswerving practice of the principles of Jesus, not only in time of peace, but also in time of war.

“And since war inevitably involves violation of these principles, I find myself unable to take part in it.”

More than 500 students have already joined the Fellowship, continuing what a decided stand this calls for, the number is a good beginning.

“The World Tomorrow” calls this new Fellowship, “the first articulate expression of American youth in revolt against the traditional position of accepting war as a necessary evil. What proportion this result may assume, no one is in a position to determine. But a perusal may be found in the fact that at the Indianapolis Convention, students who agreed ‘not to sanction or participate directly in any future war’ were more than three times as many as those who agreed to the proposition that ‘preparation for the emergency of war is the best way to avoid war.’

“Jones to Receive $50,000 for Coaching at Trinity,” “Two Trinity’s on Rhode Island Slater,” “Merchants Combine with Trinity College in Dormitory Fund Drive”—may the headlines, and the curious Trinity man reads the accompanying article to find that it does not concern his Alumni Mater at all. There seems to be no thing distinctive in the time of our colleges, and the local papers never lose an opportunity to rub it in.

“You cannot make the university a substitute for the discipline of life; and in all our educational schemes it must forever be forgotten that you cannot not by the study of books obtain the equivalent of contact with men. But you can create an attitude that favors understanding and disseminate the knowledge of conditions that leads to an exact appreciation.”

—Secretary Charles E. Hughes.

ONE UNDERGRAD’S ADVICE.
A few weeks ago the President adressed the college body. He emphasized the fact that Trinity is in need of more men. Not only do the students realize this fact but the Faculty as well. They are now busy making plans to enlarge the student body.
The student body itself is the greatest asset of the college has for recruiting. Therefore, it is up to its members to get the men we need, the right kind of men. Many of the undergraduates are under the impression that in order to enlarge the student body we must first have win-ing teams. Such is not the case, and can be proven not the case. Get a larger student body and the winning teams will take care of themselves. In short, a large student body means more men out for the teams—consequently, competition —and, lastly, a better team.
How are we going at this? First —we must look at the matter of getting men from the side of the college as a whole and not from the selfish standpoint of fraternities first. We must get men for the col-ge that is not for whatever clique we may belong to.

Q. E. D., ’25.

Trinity Students, try "Sam";
he has a good proposition for you.

Ready Made Suits, Tuxedos.
Tuxedos to Hire.

THE COLLEGE TAILOR
1279 Broad Street,
Between Allen Pl. and Vernon St.

S. A. SCHNEIDER, Proprietor.

POLI’S CAPITOL

SUNDAY NIGHT, MONDAY, TUESDAY, WEDNESDAY:
MARSHALL NEILAN Presents
"THE RENDEZVOUS"
With Conrad Nagel, Lucille Ricksen, Elmo Lincoln, Sidney Chaplin
7 VAUDEVILLE ACTS.

THURSDAY, FRIDAY AND SATURDAY:
"THE DARING YEARS"
With Mary Carr, Mildred Harris and Tyrone Power
7 VAUDEVILLE ACTS.

Whatever your "Choice of a Career," college training has increased your economic value, and whatever business or profession you enter, adequate life insurance is a proper self-appraisal of your powers in that direction.

The traditions, practices, and financial strength of the JOHN HANCOCK Mutual Life Insurance Company are such that a college man can take especial pride in having a John Hancock policy on his life. It is also a distinct asset from the start. It will pay you to buy it; and later on, should you think of joining the field corps of this company, it will also pay you to sell John Hancock policies. Our representatives will tell you just how, and assist you in selecting both your career and your insurance.

Address Agency Department

John Hancock
LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY of BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS

"What a whale of a difference just a few cents make!"

—All the difference between just an ordinary cigarette and—FATIMA, the most skilful blend in cigarette history.
"Say It With Flowers"
AND LET A COLLEGE MAN GIVE YOUR ORDERS
HIS PERSONAL ATTENTION.
HE KNOWS.

Kenneth & Nacco
HOTEL BOND.
Telephone S-2055.

PLIMPTON'S Engravers, Printers, Stationers
GIFT SHOP
252 Pearl Street, at Ann.

Slessering Tailoring Parlor
The well-known Trinity Tailor. High Class and Fashionable Tailoring 65 Lincoln Street, Hartford, Conn.

SENATE MEETING
A meeting of the Trinity College Senate was held in the English Room, Seabury Hall, Monday evening, March 17. The following members, were present: W. B. Terrell, President; G. A. Almond, Secretary, E. L. Jones, G. O. W. O'Connor, T. B. Wright (successor to S. L. Kennedy of Pol I disillusion); P. O. Zwisher, H. L. Stone, A. L. Feiker, J. G. McEnally and F. S. Pryor of the Senate Finance Committee.

O'Connor reported for the committee on investigating the advisability of requiring all first year men to eat five meals a week together. O'Connor reported that there are no dining-room facilities for such an arrangement at present and that it was the sentiment of the committee that the project should be presented to the Student Body as a whole before any action was taken on it. The matter was tabled.

Stone moved that all men who had not paid their class assessments to the Senate Finance Committee before April 1 be excluded from the "ivy" at the discretion of the Committee. Jones seconded the motion. Passed.

O'Connor reported that all men of the two lower classes in physical incapabilities be recommended by the Senate to refrain from participating in the St. Patrick's Day Scrap. Jones seconded the motion. Passed.

Jones moved that the Senate annul no jurisdiction over the nonmatriculated students of the lower classes in regard to their entrance into the scrap. Pelker seconded the motion. Passed.

Jones moved that the Senate Finance Committee be excluded from all responsibility for any damage done downtown during the night by the lower classes. O'Connor seconded. Passed.

O'Connor moved that the Senate recommend to the Student Body that its members refrain from scattering refuse on the campus walks. Jones seconded. Passed.

Jones moved that the Senate grant the Mediaus authority to do whatever it would in the campaign for recruiting students from the preparatory schools in the state for membership in next year's Freshman Class. Jones seconded the motion. Passed.

Adjourned at 3:30 P. M. by R. G. ALMOND, Secretary of the Senate.

RADIO, THE PERFECT TOY.
It is a mystery to those with ears the least sensitive to understand how people in full possession of their senses can sit into the small HAIR TONIC sheets of the morning listening to the nauseus squeaks and squawks, the eerie screams and shrieks and half-born grumplings and groanings of a radio set. The scraping of finemetal on blackboards as erasers slip from hands, the droning of thumping dentists' tools on sensitive places, and all the other nerve-cracking noises that baffle the hair and chill the spine cannot compare with the unearthly sounds which one hears through the ear-laps of a radio set.

The answer is that radio is a perfectly designed instrument which every radio fan can meddle with it till perfection leaves nothing to be desired. Just as he is tiring of the Ny Orchestra or Ted Lewis's Jazz Band, the whine of static or the cold day arrives.

The worth of Luxenburg Clothes has been proved by the thousands of repeat orders that pour in day by day.

(The second of a series of talks with a man who dresses well.)

SOPHISTICATED
You'd be surprised at what boys can find out. They didn't learn it all in a week, either. For instance—his clothes are dramas and his grooming an art form.

Get the picture? Yes, just as we have at all drug stores and student bodies.

Every "Campus" today is more than a campus because of its absolute physical excellences.

ONLY those who have smoked Melachinno can judge the quality of the finest Turkish tobacco.

O R I G I N A L

MELACHRINO
"The One Cigarette Sold the World Over"

“Harvard School
LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA.

4th year opens September 18, 1923. Prepares for all colleges. Strong faculty, junior unit of the R. O. T. C. Large campus. All outdoor sports in a wonderful climate.

The Rt. Rev. Joseph H. Johnson, D.D., Bishop of Los Angeles, President of Board of Trustees.

Send for Illustrated Catalogue.