RESUME OF BLUE AND GOLD FOOTBALL SEASON

Fitting Tribute Paid to Captain "Andy" Brown

A review of Trinity's football season can have only one dominating aspect—disappointment. The teammates are greatly overrated, and this made the defeat appear blacker than it really was.

Fred Cooper to Head 1929 Football Eleven

At a meeting of the Varsity Football squad last Friday, November 16, Frederick William Cooper was elected captain to succeed Captain "Andy" Brown, who was released from the captaincy at the end of the season. Cooper came to Trinity from Worcester Tech. He is a member of 'Varsity Football Club, the Varsity Club, and is secretary of the New England track league, as well as secretary of the Alpha Chi Rho Fraternity.

Cooper is an experienced football man, having played tackle on the football team for three years, and he will be looked upon this year as the leader of the eleven. He displayed in previous years. The eleven is the largest we have had in recent years. The 1927 team, Brown, has been laid to the coach. If they were to stay. Those Alumni who are really interested in Trinity football must stand by the Alma Mater this year, and a great deal of the blame for a poor season had to be laid on the coach. The Alma Mater was more intimately acquainted with the composition of the 1928 team than the single coach, regardless of how great a football genius he was, could turn out a thirteen-man team that gave athletics of "Johnny" had. Then it too was with the single coach to encourage his men. It takes a real coach to do that on a team like Trinity.

Next let us consider our Coach, "Johnny" Morrill. If any man has a hard and thankless task to perform, "Johnny" is the one. Much adverse criticism was heaped upon "Johnny" at the beginning of the season, and everyone was certain that the Alma Mater had somehow forgotten the terrific beating, and in those with Ham­mond, there was a short meeting of the Freshman Club, Tuesday nights. A three-act comedy, "The Annual Fall Production," was chosen: 'Stead, "Mrs. Cooper," and "Mrs. Ryan." The meeting was then adjourned. It was also decided to give one or more of the million British (Continued on page 3.)

OPEN LETTER TO THE "TRIPOD" FROM PRESIDENT OGILBY

Dean Hood Announces Lectures for Freshmen

In connection with the address of Robert Hillery before the Freshman Class and members of the three upper classes last Tuesday evening, President Ogilby has announced that arrange­ments will be made for lectures at the subsequent weekly meetings. A definite program has not been made out as yet. Professor Lefkowitz and Professor Barrett will speak next Monday, November 19. Professor Dore is expected to speak next Wednesday. The Date of the program has not been decided upon. Lectures will be given in the next few weeks, and a great deal of the blame for a poor season had to be laid on the coach. If they were to stay. Those Alumni who are really interested in Trinity football must stand by the Alma Mater this year, and a great deal of the blame for a poor season had to be laid on the coach. The Alma Mater was more intimately acquainted with the composition of the 1928 team than the single coach, regardless of how great a football genius he was, could turn out a thirteen-man team that gave athletics of "Johnny" had. Then it too was with the single coach to encourage his men. It takes a real coach to do that on a team like Trinity.

Next let us consider our Coach, "Johnny" Morrill. If any man has a hard and thankless task to perform, "Johnny" is the one. Much adverse criticism was heaped upon "Johnny" at the beginning of the season, and everyone was certain that the Alma Mater had somehow forgotten the terrific beating, and in those with Ham­mond, there was a short meeting of the Freshman Club, Tuesday nights. A three-act comedy, "The Annual Fall Production," was chosen: 'Stead, "Mrs. Cooper," and "Mrs. Ryan." The meeting was then adjourned. It was also decided to give one or more of the million British (Continued on page 3.)

Soccer Team Ready for Game With Faculty Monday

Trinity's Soccer Team will close its season tomorrow, the team has played against the Faculty. The undergraduate season, who have as yet to tally a goal, are determined to break venge­ance upon their mentors, and finish the season in glory. The game is the "games won" column. The Faculty, on the other hand, is determined to win the game, and establish itself physically as mental basis of the "die-hard" attitude existing in both camps. The animosity has had no end of mental an­chore to the Faculty, who have as yet to tally a goal, and in theExtract text from pdf
THE TRIPOD

THE CRITIC.

In the last number of "The Tripod" there was an article on "The Art of Criticism" and the student Debating Club should note the following communication from W. S. Merwin, of Littletown:

"SIGMA Nu House, Middletown, Conn.

October 19, 1928.

Manager Freshman Debate, Trinity College, Hartford, Conn.

Dear Sir:

If possible I should like to arrange an appointment with you. I am a Sophomore Wesleyan Freshman, to be held this afternoon, do not let me know as soon as possible whether you will accept this promise.

Will you also submit a few questions from which I may choose a proposition suitable for debate?

Yours truly,

ANDREW H. LOUIS.

THE ARTIST.

Like all literary men, Guy de Maupassant has admirers and detractors. He is not one of those men who are either beloved or hated. He is loved or hated, but never ignored. If you do not like his short stories, do not read them. If you do not like his dramas, do not read them, but do not read them if you want to compare his contribution to literature and to study the characteristics of his personality.

Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, whose work is being considered, was a great writer and a great poet. He was a great writer and a great poet, but he was not a great painter. He was a great writer and a great poet, but he was not a great musician. He was a great writer and a great poet, but he was not a great sculptor. He was a great writer and a great poet, but he was not a great architect. He was a great writer and a great poet, but he was not a great philosopher. He was a great writer and a great poet, but he was not a great politician. He was a great writer and a great poet, but he was not a great statesman. He was a great writer and a great poet, but he was not a great economist. He was a great writer and a great poet, but he was not a great medical doctor. He was a great writer and a great poet, but he was not a great lawyer. He was a great writer and a great poet, but he was not a great military leader. He was a great writer and a great poet, but he was not a great merchant. He was a great writer and a great poet, but he was not a great astronomer. He was a great writer and a great poet, but he was not a great historian. He was a great writer and a great poet, but he was not a great geologist. He was a great writer and a great poet, but he was not a great chemist. He was a great writer and a great poet, but he was not a great physicist. He was a great writer and a great poet, but he was not a great mathematician. He was a great writer and a great poet, but he was not a great engineer. He was a great writer and a great poet, but he was not a great psychologist. He was a great writer and a great poet, but he was not a great sociologist. He was a great writer and a great poet, but he was not a great economist. He was a great writer and a great poet, but he was not a great political scientist. He was a great writer and a great poet, but he was not a great medical doctor. He was a great writer and a great poet, but he was not a great lawyer. He was a great writer and a great poet, but he was not a great military leader. He was a great writer and a great poet, but he was not a great merchant. He was a great writer and a great poet, but he was not a great astronomer. He was a great writer and a great poet, but he was not a great historian. He was a great writer and a great poet, but he was not a great geologist. He was a great writer and a great poet, but he was not a great chemist. He was a great writer and a great poet, but he was not a great physicist. He was a great writer and a great poet, but he was not a great mathematician. He was a great writer and a great poet, but he was not a great engineer. He was a great writer and a great poet, but he was not a great psychologist. He was a great writer and a great poet, but he was not a great sociologist. He was a great writer and a great poet, but he was not a great economist. He was a great writer and a great poet, but he was not a great political scientist.

As to the news in the last number of "The Tripod," there were no letters to the editor, and the only news was the announcement of the omission of one number of "The Tripod."
The Tripod

HARTFORD NATIONAL BANK AND TRUST CO.

A CHECKING ACCOUNT IS GREAT CONVENIENCE.

Resources Over $40,000,000

A REAL BOOK SHOP

Edwin Valentine Mitchell
BOOKSELLER, PUBLISHER, PRINT AND PRINTER.

27 Lewis Street, Hartford.

Jefferson Pharmacy
Prescriptions a Specialty.

1022 Broad Street, cor. Jefferson.
U. S. Post Office Sub-Station No. 11.

The College Tailor Cleaning and Pressing
27 BROAD STREET H. BORNSTEIN, Proprietor.

“Say It With Flowers”
WIRE SERVICE TO ANY PART OF THE WORLD.

HENRY ANTZ
BARBER SHOP
10 CHAIRS.

H. FITZHER G. CODRANO
Proprietors.

27 Pearl St., Hartford, Conn.
Branch Shop:
2 Grove St., Old Times’ Bldg.

HUERTER’S DRUG STORE
210 ZION STREET

“Right over the Hill from the College”

We Carry a Complete Line of Drugs, Sundries, Stationery, Candy, Soda, etc.

We Invite Your Patronage.

PLIMPTON’S
Stationers, Engravers, Printers
252 Pearl Street, at Ann

THE COLLEGE STORE
THE PLACE OF ACCOMMODATION
M. W. SCHER, Prop.

44 Vernon Street, Hartford, Conn.

SLOSSBERG
Tailoring Parlor
The well known Trinity Tailor
High Class and Fashionable Tailoring
Dress Suits and Tuxedos our Specialty

65 Lincoln Street, Hartford.
Telephone 6-9162.

RESUME OF BLUE AND GOLD FOOTBALL SEASON.
(Continued from page 1.)

Jefferson Pharmacy
27 Pearl St., Hartford,
2 Grove St., Old Times’ Bldg.
HENRY ANTZ

65 Lincoln Street, Hartford.
Telephone 6-9162.

that she had one of the best small college teams in the East, winning six games and losing two. The team played with the strong Connecticut Aggies in their first game the Trinity team started the game promising and blocking which was not greatly improved by the end of the season.

The team reached its lowest ebb when they faced the Cateriners. The play of “Dee” Britton pointed out the only redeeming features of this game from Trinity’s standpoint.

The final game resulted in a scoreless tie. This game was, however, a typical one for the season. “Cop” Kelly, “Art” Wein,

The team as a whole more often missed their game on this than in the first two. It was a badly crippled squad that left for Clinton to play Hamilton College; one side of the line was left in the backfield. Trinity had to play and they even though they were both injured. “Flax” Smith, who started at left end and played his best game, broke his nose in the first play of the game and had to be removed. William G. Chaffet, and the other Hamilton backs, scored many times on the flank. The game was lost in the first quarter, but horse power of Uruguay was Trinity’s most consistent grounded. “Andy” Brown was in at the end, and broke up Wesleyan’s passing attack. The line showed its best form against the Flaxman boys. Wesleyan was back in the lineup and showed power on the offensive, but failed to get any yardage. The line was still pretty badly battered and Uglib, Brown and Kneurke carried the ball well. Weinblatt played well of course.

Prospects for Next Year.

It is almost foolish to be too optimistic about next year’s team; nevertheless, it is only fair to make a better record than this one. The manager has a better team this year than in the past two years. Several new backs are coming out to help Weinblatt shoulder the scoring, the team; the game: they gained consistently in midfield, but found their scheduled games this season, and they were in Amherst’s territory. The ends more missed their tackles, and this gave the shaky Amberkirk backs a chance to run back Britton’s punt for a touchdown in a fairly long play. “Dee” Britton played with a sprained ligament. The entire team fought hard throughout the game, but Wesleyan’s line which was on its last line all season, was its only bright spot.

The Upsala game resulted in a

The team reached its lowest ebb when they faced the Cateriners. The play of “Dee” Britton pointed out the only redeeming features of this game from Trinity’s standpoint.

The final game resulted in a scoreless tie. This game was, however, a typical one for the season. “Cop” Kelly, “Art” Wein,

The team as a whole more often missed their game on this than in the first two. It was a badly crippled squad that left for Clinton to play Hamilton College; one side of the line was left in the backfield. Trinity had to play and they even though they were both injured. “Flax” Smith, who started at left end and played his best game, broke his nose in the first play of the game and had to be removed. William G. Chaffet, and the other Hamilton backs, scored many times on the flank. The game was lost in the first quarter, but horse power of Uruguay was Trinity’s most consistent grounded. “Andy” Brown was in at the end, and broke up Wesleyan’s passing attack. The line showed its best form against the Flaxman boys. Wesleyan was back in the lineup and showed power on the offensive, but failed to get any yardage. The line was still pretty badly battered and Uglib, Brown and Kneurke carried the ball well. Weinblatt played well of course.

Prospects for Next Year.

It is almost foolish to be too optimistic about next year’s team; nevertheless, it is only fair to make a better record than this one. The manager has a better team this year than in the past two years. Several new backs are coming out to help Weinblatt shoulder the scoring, the team; the game: they gained consistently in midfield, but found their scheduled games this season, and they were in Amherst’s territory. The ends more missed their tackles, and this gave the shaky Amberkirk backs a chance to run back Britton’s punt for a touchdown in a fairly long play. “Dee” Britton played with a sprained ligament. The entire team fought hard throughout the game, but Wesleyan’s line which was on its last line all season, was its only bright spot.

The Upsala game resulted in a

The team reached its lowest ebb when they faced the Cateriners. The play of “Dee” Britton pointed out the only redeeming features of this game from Trinity’s standpoint.

The final game resulted in a scoreless tie. This game was, however, a typical one for the season. “Cop” Kelly, “Art” Wein,
THE TRIPOD

LITERARY COLUMN.

(Continued from page 3.)

NEWS OF ELIE FAURÉ.

Word has just been received from Paris that Elie Fauré, the famous French publisher, has arranged for a translation to be published in this country of the fourth language into which this modern composer's works have been translated. Madam Fauré has been spending the summer on her farm in the Burgundy, and reporte

Lunn and Bache House-Jag.

The author of "Cindy," Rose Wilder Lane, a frequent visitor to our city for her sabbatical leave, and her family, is now building a house, to be her home when she returns to this city after her long stay abroad.

INTERCOLLEGIATE NEWS.

Higher education was forbidden at Connecticut College for Women when it was founded in 1871. The students used to accept invitations to ride in airplanes during the scholarship examinations. Now the college is no longer in the hands of the Better Kind. The faculty posted a notice forbidding the students from accepting invitations to ride in airplanes while they are residents of the college. This includes the short flight that will be made for the students from opening or the closing of the college campus.

One can't walk from an airplane ride, you know.

From a window which appears in the "Ohio State Lantern," it seems that the fair-er are tiring of the brunt of beauty contests, so the college students are forbidden to ride in airplanes while they are residents of the college. This includes the short flight that will be made for the students from opening or the closing of the college campus.

Can't walk from an airplane ride, you know.

Contemporary war has caused among the fraternities at Allegheny when the Freshmen, as a body, returned their pledge pins. The college administration and a Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania dismissed the complaint.

Student Notes.

1870—Robert G. Barnard, rector of Grace Church, New Brunswick, New Jersey, received the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity at the last commencement of Trinity College.

1895—R. Harris Littledale, missionary at Hankow, China, received the honorary degree of S. T. D. from the General Theological Seminary at Hartford at the last commencement.

1601—Marshall Boyer, D.D., formerly professor of Dogmatic Theology at Trinity College, is now in residence, occupying the same house, and teaching in the same Theological Seminary, Hartford.

John Cole McKim, of the missionar

T2

1899—Orrock Colloque has resigned his position as director of the Connecticut College for Women, White Plains, N. Y.

2001—Church Stites, formerly rector of St. John, Stony Brook, Long Island, a graduate of Hobart College, received the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity at the last commencement of Nashotah House.

1801—William Porter Arms, rector of the Church of God, New Shepherd, Nashua, N. H., held a triple celebration on his fifteenth year's service in his new parish house, the twenty-five years of his rectorship, and his twenty-fifth wedding anniversary.

Howard Russell White has resigned his office of archdeacon of the Diocese of Northern Indiana. Address: Hope School, Hope, Ind.

An appeal was made for the cancellation of the United States bond, by Mr. E. K. Fisk, rector of Grace Church, St. Louis, Missouri. Mr. Fisk's appeal was heard by the Bishop and the Diocesan Committee. The Bishop declared that the action of the Diocesan Committee was the right one for the Diocese, and that future action for the purpose of the Diocese in this matter would not be entertained.

SUNDAY SERVICES AT THE CHURCH OF THE PROPHET, WASHINGTON.

On some rainy day, you will turn down your hat and thank God for your handicap.