Subjects and outlines for essays for the new plan on the Alma mater for the Alumni prizes in English Composition should be approved by the English Department by March 27. May 6 is the last day for handing in the finished essays. For further details see page 93, noting the change in dates.

COWLES PREDICTS RISE OF NEW SPORT

Squash Racquets to Have Rapid Spread in East Says Harvard Coach

With the completion next summer of the Trowbridge Memorial, which will make six squash-racquet courts available at the College, the thought of students is turning to this comparatively new and rapidly spreading game. Discussing "The Fundamentals of Squash Racquets" in the current Massachusetts "Saturday Evening Post," the Harvard Athletic Coach of the Freshman and Sophomore teams, has the following to say:

"College athletics have expanded in every direction since the World War, but the most significant development, as I see it, is the unsatisfactory fact that squash can be played with or without turning to those branches of sport which they can continue to play in life.

"College racquets, competition, at the present time, is confined largely to the Atlantic seaboard, it is true, but the circle of its appeal is spreading, and it is inevitable, in my opinion, that squash will ultimately win over the two-thirds of the country that have cool, sunny places and the game if it is quickly learned and the equipment is so inexpensive that I feel certain it will become the game of the future. At the present time, it has no equal in providing exercise in a brief time, and perhaps the most important thing that will happen in our lives. There is the possibility of having a series of international or National singles and doubles competition, and it is for the purpose of preparing for this that the grant will be used.

"Professor Barret says, although he does not believe that the game is independent of the Kashimir manuscript, that he will now at least try to get enough material of knowledge of the advantages of the game does not now exist.

"College executives would be wise in looking into the possibilities of squash with an eye to the broadening of their intra-mural athletic programs. Competition is the life-blood of any sport; nevertheless, it has been my experience in squash that the greatest enjoyment observed is often after the love of combat dwindles. As a rule, freshmen who play the game are always wrapped up in winning matches; sophomores have a better knowledge of the technique of the game and are less likely to be exasperated or depressed; the junior and senior years small groups (freshmen) can often make the later years continue when college days are over.

"The charm of squash racquets lies in the fact that the game can be played with or without lessons sufficiently well to allow any but the ages of sixteen and seventeen, a "knock-up" after two or three sessions against a player of equal ability.

LEARNED SOCIETIES HONOR PROF. BARRETT

Professor Frank Cole Babbitt illustrated his lecture in the "Fundamentals of Restorations" with a series of slides illustrating the techniques of Greek building. First, he discussed the study of the Doric order; the slide showed temple in Crete, ruins at Athens and Corinth, the ruins of a temple at Delphi, and views of the Acropolis, the Parthenon, the Temple of the Winged Victory, and several restorations were shown.

FRESHMEN HEAR ADDRESS ON GREEK ARCHITECTURE

Professor Babbitt Lectures in Series of Restorations

Professor Frank Cole Babbitt addressed the Freshman class in the public speaking room Monday, March 29. In his lecture he was "Greek Architecture."
This Passion

It is a regrettable feature of our educational system for Facts that it lays undue emphasis on facts. The student’s mind is occupied with the accumulation of data, and it can seldom be said that what the student accumulates is knowledge. If all students were engaged in labarous tasks, and if all students studied a laborious task; and if the windows of the sections do not contain masses of data, it can seldom be said that what the student acquires his knowledge. What difference does it make cracks at groups and individuals and in turn might receive some construed by those affected thereby.

LITERARY COLUMN

Having spent considerable time in the West Indies, the editor, recently published a letter, in the Literary reception of the world, the new books have been more or less failures and for the ten best erected by those affected thereby.

The contest closes October 1, 1929,
and the ten best

THE SPIRIT

Weall, all I know is just what the spirit doesn’t know, and so, as the spirit’s knowledge is nothing, I derive no influence from it.

THE SPIRIT

Well, all I know is just what the
spirit doesn’t know, and so, as the spirit’s knowledge is nothing, I derive no influence from it.

THE SPIRIT

Well, all I know is just what the
spirit doesn’t know, and so, as the spirit’s knowledge is nothing, I
derive no influence from it.
ST. PATRICK’S DAY SCRAP WON BY FREEMEN.

(Coated men.) The Sophomores promptly proceeded to bombard the stronghold with their rotten eggs, to the great amusement of a group of bystanders (anniversary occasionally tempers the heart of a free man). The watchword and battle-cry of the evening might well have been “War!” It was not long before a number of the easterly barricades were in hand, and they were not long in seeing everything eggs are eggs. The final result of the intervention was that the Sophomores were driven off, and the Freshmen gave chase. One gentleman of the Sophomore faculty was captured and bound, and when the Freshmen came running back in pursuit of the local officers in an attempt to liberate him, he was just a matter of a few seconds away from being able to lose his name.

The meet was the first intercollegiate event held on the new track and the Ambrose team made new indoor records, taking first places in all the events. In the field events the Blue and Gold took second place. The Ambrose Junior and Senior teams tied for second place in the two-mile run accounted for Trinity’s only second place in the track events.

Filing up an overwhelming lead from the very start, a strong Ambrose team last Tuesday decisively defeated the Freshmen in the annual New Indoor track. According to Coach Oosting, the outcome of the Freshmen v. the Sophomores Trinity track teams cannot hope to compete in early season meets until better indoor facilities have been provided.

The team was the first intercollegiate event held on the new track and the Ambrose team made new indoor records, taking first places in all the events. In the field events the Blue and Gold took second place. The Ambrose Junior and Senior teams tied for second place in the two-mile run accounted for Trinity’s only second place in the track events.

Strong, Loving, Higgins and Carleton Do Well for Blue and Gold.

Handicapped Lack of Indoor Track Facilities Prevent Early Season Training.

The Freshmen rules for the Freshmen Rules within two rules after the Scrap, and this is more probable to happen next year. And so it is all over, this Scrap is over, but a few cuts and bruises; some of the lower classes would simply find it out in a week or so. The Scrap is ended, the malady lingers on.

The Freshmen were able to keep all of the Sophomores from climbing into the church and getting away. The trouble that Glassman was faced with was to keep up with his flag for the reputation of the class. At about five minutes the official timekeeper blew his whistles and the Scrap was on. A five-minute interval was observed before the Scrap was over, the Freshmen the victors this time, the first in five years. This is a true milestone for their class and the Sophomores followed with a considerable less importance for theirs. And that end of the underclassmen’s rivalry for this year for the Sophomores to remove the Freshman Rules within two rules after the Scrap, and this is more probable to happen next year. And so it is all over, this Scrap is over, but a few cuts and bruises; some of the lower classes would simply find it out in a week or so. The Scrap is ended, the malady lingers on.

LAVINGTON NATIONAL BANK AND TRUST CO.

A CHECKING ACCOUNT IS A GREAT CONVENIENCE.

Resources Over $4,000,000

A REAL BOOK SHOP

Edwin Valentine Mitchell
BOOKSELLER, PUBLISHER AND PRINT DEALER.

27 Lewis Street, Hartford.

Jefferson Pharmacy

Prescriptions a Specialty.

1822 Broad Street, cor. Jefferson.

U. S. Post Office Sub-Station No. 11.

The College Tailor

Cleaning and Pressing

1279 Broad Street.

H. BORNSTEIN, Proprietor.

"Say It With Flowers"

FIRE SERVICE TO ANY PART OF THE WORLD.

HOTEL BOND. Telephone 6-0761.
FLY WITH DESCOMB

Aviation Field, Hartford, Conn.

LYRIC

BARBER SHOP
878 BROAD STREET
NEAR PARK

SHOE MAKER SHOP
330 Woodland St.; Phone 2-0264.
Quality, Courtesy, Service.

CAMPUS

BARBER SHOP
Under New Management.
GEORGE FAPAL, Proprietor.
83 New Britain Avenue, Hartford.
Opposite Trinity College.

BOYS! if your SHOES need Repairing, stop in at the
SHOE MAKER SHOP,
1047 Broad St.; Tel. 6-2861.

COLLEGE STATIONARY
The Trinity Stationery Co.
253 Asylum Street, Hartford, Conn.
We carry a Full Line of College Supplies

OH BOYS! Don't forget to call on The Professional Building
Barber Shop.

99 High Street, Hartford, Conn.

THE CASE, LOCKWOOD
and BRAINARD CO.
PRINTERS AND BOOKBINDERS
83 Trumbull Street
Hartford, Conn.

THE VALET SHOP
Tailors, Cleaners and Dyers of the Better Kind.
"Spring and Summer Samples Are Ready for Your Examination.
Work For Sale and Delivered.
353 Washington, cor. Vernon St.
Telephone 6-1969.

"AMERICAN MERCURY" OFFERS PRIZES

"The American Mercury" offers two prizes, each of $500, for articles by college students of this year. The competition is open to college students in the United States, and the offers are to be made to the editor of the college newspaper in which the student is interested. The students are to submit their manuscripts to the editor of the college newspaper, who will forward them to the "American Mercury." The prizes will be awarded to the best articles submitted by college students in the United States, and the offers are to be made to the editor of the college newspaper in which the student is interested.

SIGMA NU TAKES LEAD IN BASEBALL LEAGUE

Pai Ulphon and Neitals Tie for Second Place in Final Games

With its 15 to 6 victory over St. Anthony, Sigma Nu last Tuesday definitely took first place in the Inter College Baseball Tournament with a record for the season of eight victories and only one defeat. Pai Ulphon tied with the Neitals for second place, defeating Alpha Tau Kappa twice. The game was very exciting, with the score tied at the end of the first inning. The first game on Tuesday was forfeited by Alpha Chi Rho to Delta Kappa Epsilon. The second game was won by Alpha Chi Phi, defeating Delta Kappa Epsilon and Alpha Delta Phi. The final game was played between Alpha Xi Delta and Delta Kappa Epsilon, with Delta Kappa Epsilon winning.

TRINITY INDUCTEE ACADEMY LEAGUE

Final Standings

Sigma Nu
Pai Ulphon
Delta Kappa Epsilon
Alpha Tau Kappa
Alpha Delta Phi

SLOGAN CONTEST ANNOUNCED BY N. E. A.

Seven prizes, totaling $600, will be awarded by the National Electrical Manufacturers Association and the National Electric Light Association for the best slogans to promote the use of electric heat in industry.

Each contestant may submit not more than three slogans and each slogan must be accompanied by an analysis not exceeding 100 words. Preference will be given to brevity in slogans. The awards will be made on the basis of the quality of the slogans and the effectiveness of the analysis. First prize will be $250; second prize, $100; third prize, $50; and four smaller prizes.

For the guidance of the contestants the joint committee of NEMA and the N. E. A. on Electric Furnace Development, sponsor of the slogan contest, states that the following advantages are to be gained by the use of electric heat in industry:

1. Ease and accuracy of temperature control.
2. Uniformity of temperature throughout furnace.
3. Ability to maintain predetermined temperature conditions and obtain uniform products day after day.
4. Economy through reduction of defective products and reduction of labor costs.
5. Cleanliness and improved working conditions.
6. Safety to people and property.
7. Wide adaptability wherever heat is needed.
8. Slogans should be broadly descriptive of the possibilities and advantages of electric heat in industry.

Contestants should submit each slogan and its accompanying analysis on a separate sheet. The contestant's name and address should appear only on the outside of the envelope. The contest will be open for three months. Those names of contestants and slogans which are selected will be closed on May 15, 1930, at which time the contest closes. Results of the competition will not be made public before June 30, 1930.

OVERHEARD IN A BOOK STORE

The following incident occurred during the Christmas season in a New York bookstore. A young girl was examining a copy of "Leonardo the Florentine," but with little interest. It was being highly praised by the little clerk, who had evidently just been imported for the season. "What is his specialty?" the curly headed girl asked. "You must know," the clerk answered. "He was a great mathematician, and a great artist, too." "Oh," said the customer. "Well I'll take it.

DEBATE ON PAPAL STATE HELD BY ATHEISM CLUB

(Continued from page 1.)

The debate on the Papal State, which was an excellent exhibition of wit and good advice. It is too long to be reprinted here.

In conclusion, the Papal State topic which was discussed at the meeting was introduced by Mr. Meisinger, on "Factions and the Frontier Oil Company." Inasmuch as the Papal State is not a topic of current discussion, the event is of interest to those who are interested in the fate of the 20th century. The Pope states that the future of the Papal State will be determined by the will of the people. The debate is a direct attack on the Papal State and its ideals, and the Pope states that the Pope is not willing to fulfill his obligations. The debate is a direct attack on the Papal State and its ideals, and the Pope states that the Pope is not willing to fulfill his obligations. The debate is a direct attack on the Papal State and its ideals, and the Pope states that the Pope is not willing to fulfill his obligations. The debate is a direct attack on the Papal State and its ideals, and the Pope states that the Pope is not willing to fulfill his obligations. The debate is a direct attack on the Papal State and its ideals, and the Pope states that the Pope is not willing to fulfill his obligations. The debate is a direct attack on the Papal State and its ideals, and the Pope states that the Pope is not willing to fulfill his obligations. The debate is a direct attack on the Papal State and its ideals, and the Pope states that the Pope is not willing to fulfill his obligations. The debate is a direct attack on the Papal State and its ideals, and the Pope states that the Pope is not willing to fulfill his obligations. The debate is a direct attack on the Papal State and its ideals, and the Pope states that the Pope is not willing to fulfill his obligations. The debate is a direct attack on the Papal State and its ideals, and the Pope states that the Pope is not willing to fulfill his obligations. The debate is a direct attack on the Papal State and its ideals, and the Pope states that the Pope is not willing to fulfill his obligations. The debate is a direct attack on the Papal State and its ideals, and the Pope states that the Pope is not willing to fulfill his obligations. The debate is a direct attack on the Papal State and its ideals, and the Pope states that the Pope is not willing to fulfill his obligations. The debate is a direct attack on the Papal State and its ideals, and the Pope states that the Pope is not willing to fulfill his obligations. The debate is a direct attack on the Papal State and its ideals, and the Pope states that the Pope is not willing to fulfill his obligations. The debate is a direct attack on the Papal State and its ideals, and the Pope states that the Pope is not willing to fulfill his obligations. The debate is a direct attack on the Papal State and its ideals, and the Pope states that the Pope is not willing to fulfill his obligations. The debate is a direct attack on the Papal State and its ideals, and the Pope states that the Pope is not willing to fulfill his obligations. The debate is a direct attack on the Papal State and its ideals, and the Pope states that the Pope is not willing to fulfill his obligations. The debate is a direct attack on the Papal State and its ideals, and the Pope states that the Pope is not willing to fulfill his obligations. The debate is a direct attack on the Papal State and its ideals, and the Pope states that the Pope is not willing to fulfill his obligations. The debate is a direct attack on the Papal State and its ideals, and the Pope states that the Pope is not willing to fulfill his obligations. The debate is a direct attack on the Papal State and its ideals, and the Pope states that the Pope is not willing to fulfill his obligations. The debate is a direct attack on the Papal State and its ideals, and the Pope states that the Pope is not willing to fulfill his obligations. The debate is a direct attack on the Papal State and its ideals, and the Pope states that the Pope is not willing to fulfill his obligations. The debate is a direct attack on the Papal State and its ideals, and the Pope states that the Pope is not willing to fulfill his obligations. The debate is a direct attack on the Papal State and its ideals, and the Pope states that the Pope is not willing to fulfill his obligations. The debate is a direct attack on the Papal State and its ideals, and the Pope states that the Pope is not willing to fulfill his obligations. The debate is a direct attack on the Papal State and its ideals, and the Pope states that the Pope is not willing to fulfill his obligations. The debate is a direct attack on the Papal State and its ideals, and the Pope states that the Pope is not willing to fulfill his obligations. The debate is a direct attack on the Papal State and its ideals, and the Pope states that the Pope is not willing to fulfill his obligations. The debate is a direct attack on the Papal State and its ideals, and the Pope states that the Pope is not willing to fulfill his obligations. The debate is a direct attack on the Papal State and its ideals, and the Pope states that the Pope is not willing to fulfill his obligations. The debate is a direct attack on the Papal State and its ideals, and the Pope states that the Pope is not willing to fulfill his obligations. The debate is a direct attack on the Papal State and its ideals, and the Pope states that the Pope is not willing to fulfill his obligations. The debate is a direct attack on the Papal State and its ideals, and the Pope states that the Pope is not willing to fulfill his obligations. The debate is a direct attack on the Papal State and its ideals, and the Pope states that the Pope is not willing to fulfill his obligations. The debate is a direct attack on the Papal State and its ideals, and the Pope states that the Pope is not willing to fulfill his obligations. The debate is a direct attack on the Papal State and its ideals, and the Pope states that the Pope is not willing to fulfill his obligations. The debate is a direct attack on the Papal State and its ideals, and the Pope states that the Pope is not willing to fulfill his obligations. The debate is a direct attack on the Papal State and its ideals, and the Pope states that the Pope is not willing to fulfill his obligations. The debate is a direct attack on the Papal State and its ideals, and the Pope states that the Pope is not willing to fulfill his obligations. The debate is a direct attack on the Papal State and its ideals, and the Pope states that the Pope is not willing to fulfill his obligations. The debate is a direct attack on the Papal State and its ideals, and the Pope states that the Pope is not willing to fulfill his obligations. The debate is a direct attack on the Papal State and its ideals, and the Pope states that the Pope is not willing to fulfill his obligations. The debate is a direct attack on the Papal State and its ideals, and the Pope states that the Pope is not willing to fulfill his obligations. The debate is a direct attack on the Papal State and its ideals, and the Pope states that the Pope is not willing to fulfill his obligations. The debate is a direct attack on the Papal State and its ideals, and the Pope states that the Pope is not willing to fulfill his obligations. The debate is a direct attack on the Papal State and its ideals, and the Pope states that the Pope is not willing to fulfill his obligations. The debate is a direct attack on the Papal State and its ideals, and the Pope states that the Pope is not willing to fulfill his obligations. The debate is a direct attack on the Papal State and its ideas,