Membership to Board to be Determined Solely on Work Done

At the same time announcing that admittance to the Board would be based on the basis of work done, "The Tripod" Board last week called a four weeks' competition open to Juniors, Sophomores, and freshmen, which will be divided into three branches, editorial, business, and circulation, and since a great many of the positions though a few finishing touches will to the Board at the end of the month. Be entirely finished on that date.

Under the new system of assign- ments, a division of labor has been so arranged that no candidate's work can get into any sort of conflict. Business candidates should apply to either R. L. Brainard, '20, or E. H. Mitchell, '21; editorial candidates to J. C. Motten, '20; and circulation candidates to R. H. McCook, '21, and circulation candidates will be held this evening at 7:30 in Healey Hall.

LARGE GROUP REPORTS FOR TRACK PRACTICE

According to his custom, Coach Ousting has begun fall training for the track squad. At present there has been about last year's band and fifty Freshmen getting to fall into the fall, and the largest group in the history of the sport at Trinity College.

Among the veterans are: Roots and Chisholm, Carl Pennington, and Carson, two milers; and Welwar who place a spot with the University of Denver, and at the University of Colorado conferred the degree of Master of Literature at Colorado College. Born in 1909, he went to Colorado high schools, and then in 1915. In 1915 he was appointed to a full professorship, and in 1916 for those who follow to add their work will be started.

THE TRIPOD

BOOK REVIEW

"Dark Hibbert" is not, as the title might suggest, another of those noir novels that have become a genre of literature. The title refers to a character in the story, Captain Hibbert, a rough, hard-drinking, pipe-smoking man of the sea. The novel is set at sea during the American Civil War, and the actions of the characters are shaped by the events of that conflict.

The setting is the deck of a ship at sea, with the backdrop of the open ocean and the distant horizon. The dialogues are filled with the language of the sea, and the actions of the characters are driven by the need to survive in the face of the elements.

In the opening scene, the captain, Hibbert, is seen smoking his pipe and drinking his tea, and the tension of the situation is palpable. The novel is written in a style that is both vivid and compelling, with a strong sense of atmosphere and tension.

Overall, "Dark Hibbert" is a well-written, engrossing novel that will appeal to readers who enjoy historical fiction with a strong sense of place and atmosphere. It is highly recommended for anyone interested in literature that is set in the American Civil War or that explores themes of survival in the face of adversity.

WILLIAMS DEFENDS TRINITY.

Cooper placed the ball back on the south goal. Langmaid kicked off to Phippen who made a pretty runback to the 20-yard line. A punt of 60-yards on the first two plays set the ball back to the 30-yard line. After two line plays which failed to produce any substantial gain, Phippen kicked to Williams who batted the ball on his own 45-yard line. With McAllister and Fowle doing all the ball-arranging play was sent to the 25-yard line where their attack was temporarily halted when Langmaid downed on the 20-yard line. When Fowle kicked in an attempted field goal, Trinity, taking the ball on the 20-yard line. On the next play, a wide end run, Wheeler broke loose for a 20-yard gain. He was tackled by Muller. Langmaid accounted for another first down off-tackle on the 7-yard line. From there Fowle cracked the line to score the first touchdown. Wheeler kicked the ball over the goal posts for the extra point.

Soon after came Trinity's only chance to score when Wheeler juggled Phippen's kick which was dropped by Nye. Who played a consistently aggressive game, recovered the ball for Trinity near the 40-yard line. After gaining 15 yards, he again passed to Nye who made an in-pregnateable pass, and Williams took the ball on the 45-yard line.

Wheeler broke loose on a wide end run to the 40-yard line where Phippen kicked to the 20-yard line.

Second Quarter.

In the second quarter a perfectly executed pass from Fowle to Good gave Williams the ball deep in Trinity territory. Barrup, Stevenson, Langmaid, and the kick carried but 25 yards to midfield where Slossberg pinned Wheeler in his tracks.

Phippen received the ensuing kickoff and ran it back to the 20-yard line where he was stopped by Muller. His shoulder was badly bruised and it hurt him for the rest of the game. Eberle took his place in the backfield.

A further attempt was made to circle the Williams wings and they were stopped as strongly as the run-line. Britton's punt was strong, and the kick carried but 25 yards to midfield where Slossberg pinned Wheeler in his tracks.

The next play resulted in a score when Wheeler found Kipp who scammed the remaining 10 yards for the first touchdown and the first successful interference. This play although very well planned and executed showed Trinity to be playing for Trinity's initial down and the second. Attempts to score another touchdown on the Trinity 8-yard line were thrown back.

The half ended with Williams about to score another touchdown on the Trinity 8-yard line.

Second Half.

The second half opened with Langmaid kicking to Britton who carried the ball back 20 yards before being downed. Two short passes, Britton to Knurke, were successful, but Britton was again downed on the next play, and so was forced to kick. Fowle on receiving the punt was thrown by Nye on Williams territory.

A long pass, Fowle to Langmaid, placed the ball on Trinity's 35-yard line. The play failed to net Williams more than 15 yards when Knurke dropped Phippen's pass over the middle.

The next play, an attempted end run from Wheeler was stopped when Nye fought off three interferers and roared Fowle for a three-yard gain, and when Wheeler kicked the Trinity line tightened up and held for downs on the 15-yard line.

Britton alfled off tackle to advance the ball five yards. He repeated the play on the next, but was stopped on the 21-yard line. Three more yards were gained on a lateral pass, Britton to Knurke. A long pass from Slossberg was incomplete and Britton passed to Wheeler. The Fowle to Langmaid combination completed a 20-yard pass, and the remaining distance to the goal line was covered in line play, and six more points were added to the Williams score. game.

Fourth Quarter.

The last period opened with Trinity attempting to score on her own 30-yard line. Britton bungled the inside-tackle for seven yards. A similar attempt at the same place was not successful resulting in a fourth down.

Geiger, who replaced Dico, attempted to skirt the left end but was thrown for a loss. Britton's punt was again thrown over the middle when Slossberg pulled down Fowle.

Good run 20 yards on a pass from Fowle to Good and was covered by Muller. Fowle kicked the ten-yard line. This same pass combination had resulted in a score on the first half. Fowle stepped briskly around left end for ten yards and when Slossberg kicked the goal, but the score was ruled out because of a Williams off-side.

Britton received Langmaid's kickoff and carried the ball to the 18-yard line. On the next play he was stopped while attempting to buck the Williams right wall. Muller received the same tackle on the left for second down. Referee Mann im- posed a five-yard penalty and Gold for illegal use of hands. placing the ball on the three-yard line. A faulty pass from Langmaid's punt which carried no more than ten yards. The next play, a guard play, re-sulted in Langmaid's being knocked off his feet, not to his removal from the game, Tuttle for the second time. Langmaid's place, covered 12 yards and cut-back play, Fowle once more crossed the goal line but failed to add the extra point.

Williams kicked to Trinity's 27-yard line. In a desperate attempt to hold the score Britton threw three successive passes again and again incomplete. Second Trinity kicked to midfield where Gold fumbled but recovered. Britton drove straight for the goal line with the Frosh to finish their four game schedule with .000 when the averages are computed.
