LINE SHOWS PROMISE

Aggies Forced to Kick from Behind Goal—Dunaway, Thompson, and Steadman as Brewer Makes First Touchdown

Outplaying their opponents in every department of the game, the Blue and Gold Freshmen turned back at the attack of the Connecticut Aggie Freshman team in the game here last Thursday, October 16, the final score being 13 to 0. At no time were the tiny "flash" hard pressed, the Aggies being forced to kick often and early.

Early in the first quarter Trinities drove the ball in line plunger and into the Aggies' two-yard line, only to lose it. Interception an Aggie pass in the second quarter, Brewer kicked into the Aggies' lines and then went over for a touchdown. He then succeeded in crashing through the right end of the line for the last four yards and scoring.

A runback of a punt by Bill in the final minute of the first half, and a pass, Ward threw it out of bounds, a visitor's fourteen-yard stripe and, on the next play, Ward ran wide around for a touchdown that put the Aggies ahead for good in the game.

The work of the Trinity backfield, which was good and Thompson, captain and star halfback, had a hand in almost every point scored by the Aggies.

The Aggies were forced to kick a field goal to start the game off, and a very good job was done against the regulars in the game at Philadelphia. This is due in part to the efforts of the Deceased who showed up conspicuously in last year's team.

In one of the most spectacular contests in the history of Trinity football, a fighting Blue and Gold eleven stood with the repeated line plays of the Connecticut Aggie football team at Gardner's Dew Field, Storrs, last Saturday, October 18. Trinity piled up flights to the Connecticut Aggies that were cut short one of the hardest battles was waged by John E. Hill on the gridiron. "Hank" Hill, who started the game with a stiff ankle, hurl in last Saturday's victory, added finishing touches to score in the third quarter. Boitgrad had no misfortune of dislocating his arm in the game, but that will not be the case, and Hill will be out for the remainder of the season.

Two DEBATES PLANNED BY ATHENAEUM SOCIETY

Dual Event with Connecticut College for Women Takes Place This Fall

As a result of the action taken at the first meeting of the Athenaeum Society held on Monday evening, October 6, the manager of debate, T. John McKeen, '28, will be allowed to select the final date of a dual debate with the Connecticut College for Women in the Athenaeum debaters. This is the first time in the history of Trinity that the college has been granted a position in an inter-collegiate debate with a women's college.

Although the challenge was accepted favorably by the Athenaeum, as yet nothing has been decided upon as yet, it is hoped by the ladies of this college that the event may take place soon after the Thanksgiving recess.

The agreement calls for two simultaneous debates, one to be held in Alumni Hall and the other in the meeting rooms of the college for Women in New London.

The topic for debate, which will be used in both contexts, has still to be chosen. It was also planned to stage a regular debate between the Connecticut Agricultural College in the spring, shortly after the minor examinations, in that the college would make a challenge to the debating team of Yale University.

The Athenaeum Society's challenge was not accepted by the Yale Debating Club, because the former's schedule was already filled.

SHALL WE JOIN THE FRATERNITIES?

Many men have pledged themselves to one or other of the fraternities. By this time they are aware of their group and have tasted of fraternity life. Let us hope that they have found an expression of the spirit which was intended.

You are filling the places of men who have found something vital in your House. Think no more of those days when you arrived and the conversation ran like this: "Smoke? Here, have one of mine. Let me take you to the movies tonight. What do you do for you? I'll help you get through that course." That was part of rushing. Do not dream of those days when your first appearance upon the campus involved the soft velvet carpet which used to cover the path from a great actor's room to the stage.

TOUCHDOWN BY FONTANA

Coach Galvin's Men Start Second Half on Off-Tackle Slant and Score in Third Period.

Weakened by the absence of Weinstein and Durand, who were kept out of the greater part of the game because of injuries, the Blue and Gold football team was thoroughly overpowered by the greater part of the game by the visiting Worcester Tech last Saturday in the first full game of the season. The Techmen rolled up three touchdowns to one for the Blue and Gold and took the 'arsity in a flash pass attempt.

Worcester Tech, led by the 'arsity in a flash pass attempt, was downed on Trinity's 10-yard line. Run Game are behind the goal line. Phippen, the Blue and Gold quarterback, was downed at the 15-yard line. At his headquarters in London early in the first quarter of the game, Worcester backs led by Putnam went on the offense. A lateral forward from Sandano to Kane to Asp netted a 45-yard gain within the 15-yard line, and then scored on a punt, and Armstrong when.

The final attempt of the Blue and Gold line, although Bockwinkel and Armstrong showed up as well as in the New York Aggie game, was thwarted by the 'arsity line, although Bockwinkel and Armstrong showed up as well as in the New York Aggie game, was thwarted by the 'arsity line.

Crying desperately for an extra minute, touchdown began shooting long forward passes in succession from the Trinity backfield, but even when Thompson kicked off to the opponents' 20-yard line, when the latter failed to get under it, it was kicked out of the air on his own 22-yard stripe and with five Trinity men at the line of scrimmage. The French was taken out by the Blue and Gold drop kick. It cleared across the line 20 feet ahead of the nearest Aggie player. Phippen failed in his attempt for the extra point.

It was a fighting team that was celebrated in that game. It was gamely battered by the opposing line, but the Blue and Gold forwards stood up to the test. It was an off-tackle slant Asp gained 20 yards, while Phippen carried the ball over for a touchdown on a delayed pitch out.

JUINY PERFORMANCE.

secretory pro tem, was anxious that Trinity should be represented in their dramatic contests the coming season. Last year, each organization competing in the contest of the Play-Along Association gives one play a year which is judged by fit representatives of the contest. The competition is under the auspices of Pan-American, and the winning company is permitted to stage their performance at Parsons later in the season when a suitable award will be made.

In view of the fact that The Jesters have been taken by the Harvard amateur theatricals, Mr. Adams, the chairman of the Play-Along Association, accepted by the quorum present, Gutenberg thought that it would be wise to begin the season, as well as an opportunity to interest the Harvard players in the work being done at Trinity. Those organizations which will represent Trinity in the Greater Harvard Players' Association include:

- Weaver High School, Hartford.
- Hartford Central Baptist Church, Hartford,
- The Hartford Players.
- North Methodist Church, Hartford.
- The Hartford Players.
- The Moore Marquettites, Windsor.
- The Chaffee School, Windsor.

SOCCER TEAM DEFEATS EAST HARTFORD HIGH

Speed of Forwards Reduced;

Play Throughout Rain

is Sugghish

Playing its first game of the season, the newly-organized soccer team defeated the East Hartford

High School eleven to 1 on the Trinity soccer field on Wednesday afternoon.

Liddell, 1954, playing at center, was high scorer, accounting for six of the seven points, while W. M. Bremer, 1954, made the remaining tally.

Due to the heavy rain, the field was slippery and the play was sugghish throughout the game, the speed of the Trinity forwards being cut down well below their usual performances. J. F. Isherwood, 1931, to­ gather with B. J. Eibach, 1935, did well on the defense, while D. S. Andrus, 1952, and W. C. Norvell, 1953, worked well with Liddell on the offense. The high school's only score came late in the first half on a long boot down the field.

Soccer was organized informally last year for the first time, but there was no regular schedule of games and the team represented the college only unofficially, as in the case this year. It is hoped that by next year the team may be recognized by the

A. A., and will be enabled to play regularly scheduled games with other college teams. Soccer as a fall sport is highly recommended for those understanding the game, the speed
