In a game played at Trinity field by the Blue and Gold football team, Washburne, the fullback, scored on a 6-yard run with less than nine minutes remaining in the second quarter. Thompson opened the line netted but six yards, so Washburne was stopped by Trinity linesmen. The line from tackle to tackle which he outraced the Suffield ends, played well with the work of Kingswood fullback. Skirting their flanks for Gold yearlings, being especially valuable, he got down under Sill's punts and Fritzon played a head-up game, after the first quarter, when the strong north wind which swept to the south. The game resolved into a kicking duel between Sill and Fritzon, each of whom was of the same high caliber. Miss ELOHN

BASKETBALL PROGRAM ALTERED BY OOSTING

Basketball Tournament Plans Discussed at Meeting of Committee on Fraternity Sports

At the first meeting of the interfraternity sports committee to discuss plans for the physical education office last Thursday evening, the committee decided that the winner of Pete Oosting's basketball cup would be brought up. As all the plans are flexible, the committee present, nothing was definitely decided as important policies were discussed.

Under the new plan, in which the basketball teams will be divided according to the level of the regulars, will play only four games at the most instead of ten, as was necessary last year. The newly divided eligible classes will have their own programs, in which every player only during the last half of the previous game, will be in at center forward, as shown in the preliminary plans, nothing definite is expected that the expected of the official game will be played on a dry field.

The Trinity running attack which has characteristic drop-kicking, proved effective against Wesleyan's aerial attack, created by Coach Oosting, the line coach, scouted both Wesleyan and Amherst in their game against the Blue and Gold, in which the Trinity eleven surprised the followers of New England high school football, by handing them a defeat.

JITNEY PLAYERS HERE AGAIN ON OCTO 30

"The Duenna," Romantic Comedy to Be Presented Thursday at 7:45, in Alumni Hall

JESTERS ACT AS HOSTS

Ellen Love Plays Head in Famous Sheridan Masterpiece—Group Remembered for Work Here Last Year.

The underlights of the Jitney, the Jitney Players of Madison, Connecticut, will present "The Duenna" by Richard Brinsley Sheridan, in Trinity's Alumni Hall, Thursday evening, October 30, at 7:45 p.m., in Alumni Hall. This marks the first appearance of the Jitney Players at Trinity, since they presented "The Murder in the Red Barn," last fall. Miss Ellen Love who took the part of Anne Martin, plays the leading role as Donna Luina.

The Jitney Players, an organization of students, graduates of professional training, need no introduction to their Trinity audience, as they have presented such popular plays as "The Rivals," by the famous Howard Behnstedt, immortalized in the role of the Bishop, and "The Duenna," by the brilliant and versatile. Mr. Sheridan.

In describing the conference, Mr. Hooper stated that the Jitney Players, one of the few guests who accompanied the Right Rev. R. L. Hayden, chairman, has announced the choice of members who will assist him on the committee. Although the committee has met once already to draw its preliminary plans, nothing definite can be stated as to the nature of the coming event. The probable date of the Prom will be January 31, shortly after mid-year examinations, and Alumni Hall will be used as usual.

The members of the committee, which includes representatives from every single game this season, will have to be smoothed out and the 'varsity reserves will be in at center forward, while Andrus, who only played during the last half of the previous game, will be in at center forward, as shown in the preliminary plans, nothing definite is expected of the expected of the official game will be played on a dry field.

In a great many exchanges that we had to wade through this week we found several editors on the relation­ship between freshmen and fras­ternities, and between fraternities and colleges. It was interesting to note how much alike these editorials were, and how very similar many of them were to the editorial which appeared in last week’s edition of THE TRI­POD. It was quite a task to single out the best of these, but we thought the following excerpt from the Bow­doin “Oriental” most interesting. It is, of course, addressed to the freshmen: “The first thing that an oriental man notices about the men of your college is that he is a foreigner” That is, of course, addressed to the freshmen: “The first thing that an oriental man notices about the men of your college is that he is a foreigner”

Famous Words:

You’ll pay next week. You’ll double your money in a year.

“Give him,” the Cherub cries, “Give him something if it shall be Thy will, for the great reward of heaven would prize the gift of keeping still!”

The Lord, God, shone His head

And smiled upon His school:

The boon that thou dost call your house to be a leading one. In a few short years, you will be the mainstays of your respective houses, and the respect and honor of the students who ride the fate of your chapter then. However, as we have said before, do not let the freshness go out of your heads. You are primarily in college, secondly, and at Bowdoin, and after these two, in some other, smaller group. Your first allegiance, therefore, is to college; your next is to Bow­doin and those things that she cher­ishes. After all, you are satisfied you are a member of your particular group, and should work for its bet­terment.

Trinity's regular position at tackle, while Captain Weimstein is fairly certain of starting at left tackle. Other tackle candidates who may start are Tom Burgess, John Monacella, Ed Sayers, and Bob Allen. McIer is another man who is very likely to start. He will be at one of the guard positions and his running mate will be either George Mackie, Thad Jones, or Fred Geiger. At center it is hard to choose between Bubba, Doolittle, Johnny Childs, and Walt Dunblane, Duksa fighting for the post.

The committee has not as yet appointed a manager to meet with the inter-fraternity sports committee, and is advised by the physical education department to do so as soon as possible. The committee consists of: Patrick A. W. Wierck, Delta Phi; Graham C. Newbery, Alpha Chi Rho; Ranny O. Phlippen, Jr., Alpha Delta Phi; John P. Coleman, Alpha Tau Kappa; William C. Flurner, Delta Kappa Epsilon; William C. Boeger, Jr., Psi Upsilon; Joseph C. Fleming, Sigma Nu; and Richard C. Maloy, St. Anthony.

Soccer Team Ready

There are five games to be played yet this year. Due to the fact that the East Hartford High team uses its football field for practice, the return game with that team will have to be postponed until it can be played on another field, or until the East Hartford field is not being used by the football team.

Sometime in November there will be two games with West Haven, and two more with the Wesleyan Javelin team. The latter can not play with us until they have finished playing their league games. Last year Trinity scored a 3 to 0 victory over the Wesleyan team. Arrangements are made for a game with the Connecticut Aggie "Varsity" team, and this game promises to be a difficult one, since it will be the first college game Trinity has ever played. No definite word has yet been received concerning the game with Loomis.
