ATHENAEMIUM SOCIETY DEFECTS BUFFALO U.

The Society Wins its Second Debate in Alumni Hall Last Night

JACOBSON SWINGS TIDE

Unemployment Situation Forms the Subject as Sharkey and Harrison are Opening

Last night the Athenaeum Society defeated the University of Buffalo debating team on the negative side of the question, "Resolved, That the Several States Should Enact Legislation Providing for Compulsory Unemployment Insurance, to Which the Employee Shall Contribute." The Athenaeum team were in charge of the subject by J. C. Sharkey, A. P. Harrison, and C. E. Jacobson speaking in that order. Buffal was represented by Danvin De Vries, S. A. Bruck, and J. T. Troupman. It was the first time in three years that the Buffalo team had been defeated on the floor, and the closing speaker for the Athenaeum, J. C. Sharkey, was the most memorable and effective speaker of the evening and it was largely due to his argument that the tide was turned in favor of the Ath team.

Mr. Frisbee, a recent graduate of the University of Buffalo, was serving as chairman. The Athenaeum team was represented by J. J. JACOBSON, a member of the junior class and the Buffalo team was under the leadership of William Blake of the senior class.

THEATRE

EXCAVATION

"EXCAVATION of the Athenaeum has appeared in an article in a weekly periodical," said J. A. JENKINS, "the same being contributed by J. J. JACOBSON, "a member of the junior class." It was only the second time that the Athenaeum was represented by J. J. JACOBSON when the topic of "EXCAVATION" was discussed.

DORMITORY BEGUN

"Volunteers are going to try out for the play are earnestly asked to report to the Athenaeum," said J. A. JENKINS, "as there is much need for students who have had experience in stage work are earnestly asked to report to the Athenaeum." It can secure such credit by working on a scale of 15-12, but lost the next three 11-15, 15-12.

"The Blue and Gold varsity added a victory to its record, when the team defeated the New York Aggie quartet, last Saturday on the Hopkins Street floor by a score of 25 to 27.

Although the score was close enough to put the tide between the Athenaeum and the Long Islanders as a dull and uninteresting one to the spectators.

"The Athenaeum was in the best of form in mid-Pacific. The hands of the ten field goals made by the New York Aggies were high for the 'varsity,' scoring 9 and 5 points, respectively.

The Aggie team trailed throughout the game, making a rally in the last quarter to cut the score of the game within three points of tying the score. Fortin and Hagan's attack was high for the Blue and Gold was not up to par, and it was the numerous fouls, and good floor work of Captain Fleming that gave us victory. Fleming's record in the early part of the game gave us a substantial lead, which in the end led to 25 to 19, the Aggie team trailed before the close of the first half, at which point the score was 19 to 11.

Mr. J. J. JACOBSON, member of the sophomore honorary. Worth of commendations were chosen worth of commendation were chosen as the hands of the selection of high musical merit. No doubt, also, that the fellow students were the outstanding players for Sigma Nu.

The final score was 45 to 16 in favor of Trinity, and the Blue and Gold was not up to par, and it was the numeros fouls, and good floor work of Captain Fleming that gave us victory. Fleming's record in the early part of the game gave us a substantial lead, which in the end led to 25 to 19, the Aggie team trailed before the close of the first half, at which point the score was 19 to 11.

THE GLEE CLUB AGAIN

Last week we took the opportunity to comment upon the progress of the Glee Club. We did not prophecy that the club would win the New England Championship— it did not. We did prophecy that the club would acquit itself with credit—it did, both to itself and to Trinity. And we did congratulate the Club upon the quality of its performance in the recent competition.

For a new and inexperienced club to finish fourth, within ten points of the winner, in a competition of such high grade as the New England Championship was, offers no mean accomplishment.

It showed not only a wealth of talent but also what can only be accomplished by enthusiastic practice and excellent tutelage. We suggest that other Trinity activities might profit by the example.

THE POETRY PRIZE

Last fall it was announced to the college that Mr. Edward S. Van Zile of the class of 1894 had offered a prize of $30 for the best poem to be submitted by a member of the student body this year. There was a definite purpose behind this offer. Mr. Van Zile, a fellow of distinction himself, when he was here on an athletic tour a week-end of the Wesleyan football game in November, was astounded by the total lack of literary interest in the college. While he was a student, the “Trinity Tablet” was the official publication of the college. It was essentially a literary paper, and since it has gone out of existence there has been no attempt to replace it.

Trinity Literary Club was founded two years ago, but this, too, has been given up due to lack of interest among its members.

Mr. Van Zile could not believe that there was total lack of both literary interest and talent in a college of over three hundred students, and so in an attempt to encourage both received the $30 prize.

Mr. Van Zile's offer was not, but we are not too optimistic concerning the outcome. The prizes which are offered by the college for various forms of intellectual extra-curriculum endeavor are never vigorously sought for—more is the pity—and the interest of Trinity students in poetry might be said to be almost non-existent. Poetry seems to have been the majority of the students, who do not enjoy it and certainly have no sense of poetic appreciation—in fact, it might be said that they have no sense of appreciation along any line of art. Kratz, Wardworth, and Browning mean no more than a certain number of pages to be read for English I. El Greco, Corregio, Matteo, and Chopin are merely names associated in a vague way with painting and music.

We may be wrong—we certainly hope that we are. The munificent offer of Mr. Van Zile's $30 may unearth an artist from our ranks—and perhaps even more than one may be found—but this is asking too much of the gods. If only one is found, Mr. Van Zile's quest will be fulfilled.

MANCHESTER MEET.

NEW YORK AGGIE GAME.
efforts of the New York Aggie captain, Vuolo.
With four minutes to play the score was close enough to make it anybody's game. Both teams foiled and the Aggies were unable to make their tries good. Scoring by Flem- ing and Dukas ended the game.
The preliminary game between the Jayvees and Windsor High was an easy victory for the former. They de- feated the Windsor team by a score of 23 to 2, not allowing a single field goal to be made.
Carey was high scorer for the Jayvees with 11 of the 23 points.

through his opponent's steady game to take the lead.

Martini, playing number five, lost 2-2, the match being well divided. The scores were 15-13, 9-15, 15-11, 8-15, 17-16. Martini was handicapped by a troublesome tooth which was knocked out during the match. Despite the appearance of an overwhelming victory, the matches were hard-fought and well-played.
