CONTRACTS AWARDED FOR "IVY" PRODUCTION
Two Massachusetts Printing and Engraving Concerns Chosen for Year Book

CHANGES ANNOUNCED
Individual Pictures Nearly All Taken—New Features to be Added

The 1934 edition of the "Ivy" will be distributed by the Peter Willard Harring, ed-tor of the publication. The soliciting of pictures for the Thirty-Fourth Class has included all the pictures of the members of the Class of 1894, for the most part. The proofs of the individual pictures submitted by the students for their approval and choice during this week. The group pictures and extracurricular activities will be taken next month. In past years a charge of twenty-five cents a man for each picture appeared in was included in this year to such claims will be made because it has become too expensive for the men who take pictures.

The printing of the "Ivy" will be handled by the Globe Printing and Blanking Company of Pittsfield, Mass., while the engraving will be done by the Harvard Engraving Company of

New London, Conn.

Several years ago the Class of 1934 had handled the "Ivy" with great success.

This year's "Ivy" board plans to make several changes and improvements over books of past years. It plans to make the yearbook as attractive as the Junior's picture in the publication. It has been a number of years since the book has been done. Plans are the laid to have several changes in design and content. A meeting will be held in order to complete these changes.

P. CALLANAN TO COACH

VARYSQUASH TEAM

Harry Cowles Discusses Plans with Squad—Match with Yale Scheduled

The Squash Racquets Team has started several changes and improvements. The team will be fortunate this year in having as coach, Paul Callanan, who has played and coached at Harvard for twenty years.

A meeting of the squad was held in the Treedwic Memorial Building at 7:45 p.m. on Monday, November 14, at which time Hayden Porter, Harvard, a member of the Callanan's present squash racquets team at Harvard, told the men and discussed new plans and plans for the season.

Several of last year's team graduated in the Spring, but a large squad of experienced players was present.

The game is new to many, and there is a large interest in new players.

The team will be attractive in 1935.

Four of Last Year's Letter Men Return for Practice Today

The Trinity basketball squad will hold its first regular practice today.

The basketball team made a weak start in the last game played away from home and was expected to lose the game, but in the last game of the season it was expected that this year's team would be better than last year's team left off.

There are four letter-man back this year: Captain Bob Pratt, J. R. Kelly, L. Riddler, and J. Martens. Other outstanding men who will be back this year are: Fritton, Dukes, and Sampers.

Three of last year's lettermen were lost: Capilano Gilme, high-scoring forward, Ray Blaklick and Al Moore, guards.

The schedule this year is unusually attractive, although there is one game at Harvard on the 8th of November. The twelve games scheduled will be played at home, among which will be a game with Harvard. The last game played, Trinity had not played a home game in twelve months. The opening game is set for 1:00 p.m. on the 28th of November at 28th and Huntington.

This year the schedule is to consist of five Eastern teams, nine Western teams, and two National teams.

The Sophomore and Junior teams will play in the Eastern Conference.

The schedule has been arranged for a pre-season practice game with Springfield College, before the opening game on December 17, in order to give the team a tryout in the first game of the season.

The "variety team schedule is:
Saturday, Dec. 17—Haverford, home.
Friday, Dec. 28—Pratt, away.
Saturday, Dec. 29—Amherst, home.
Wednesday, Jan. 2—Stephens, home.
Saturday, Jan. 28—Coast Guard, away.
Thursday, Feb. 1—Wesleyan, away.
Saturday, Feb. 23—Connecticut, home.
Saturday, Feb. 25—Harvard, home.
Thursday, Mar. 2—Wesleyan, home.
Saturday, Mar. 4—Clark, away.

The Junior "variety, consisting of no men on the regular "variety team together with freshmen and transfers, will play a regular schedule of (Continued on page 4.)

Dean Hood Will Sail Tonight for England

Plans to Continue Literary Work on Browing—Is Second

Dean Hood left for New York to-day, planning to sail at midnight to-night for England on the S. S. Levitus. He will be on the way to England for the last time, and he will be interested in the work that he has done for the last several years on a book on Browning.

The book will be published some time in the near future by the University of Chicago Press. After his stay in England the Dean plans to visit the Continent, and will return to Harvard late in January.

This is Dean Hood's second trip to England within the last three years to gather material for his book.

THERE IS STILL FREEDOM!

We write this editorial with some trepidation. It is our object to correct, from our point of view, the erroneous student opinion prevalent on the campus, that the Faculty of Trinity College is an intermediary body. Consequently, it is not entirely the president of the college body. Nevertheless, this group is not a representative group. The Medusa, Senior Honorary Society, would have.

Finally, if such a plan should become effective, the responsibility of the Senate, but it is not the last word on the subject.

The truth is probably somewhere in between.

YOU SHOULD BE BUSY MEN

It is your privilege as students on this campus to be busily engaged in many activities. You should be as busy studying, as classes to too many of you represent education in its entirety and with a capital E. You should be busy thinking about what you want to learn in college. Busy exercising your rights and privileges when you honor our college with your presence, and do not abuse your facilities. It is not in our power, as the officer, to convert valuable editorial space into an arena for personal dispute.

The press still continues for the Trinity Tripod. Editors cannot be removed for personal editorial opinion, but they can be given a "vacation," if they are personally discourteous.

There are two distinct questions:

1. How can student activity be increased?

2. What is the relation of man to God, some of which professors have presented in the recent addresses.

THE NEED FOR A STUDENT COUNCIL

Among the various colleges throughout the country, one of the foremost and important student organizations is the student council.

At Trinity, the student council is composed of the representatives of the students before the faculty and the administration, at the same time serve to the free the authorities from many petty details of discipline, and at the same time give the students a voice in their own government.

At Trinity, there are several groups whose duties border on those of a student council, yet none completely fulfill the purpose. The Senate, consisting of faculty, some of its members are, at the same time, the camera of the campus. This group is most aptly fitted to take over the work of a student council.

Thus, we review the situation, two possible courses seem plausible, one would be to have the powers of the Senate increased to include those of a student council. This would increase the influence of the Senate. But naturally some more intermediary group would be required to fill the gap between the Senate and the students.

The other possible course would be the election by all the students to a call. The advantage of this plan is that the Council would not have the power that a combined Senate and Council would have.

Finally, such a plan should become effective, the responsibility of the members would be very great.

To serve as an intermediary body is an extremely difficult task, especially in a small college. The success of the plan will depend upon complete cooperation between the authorities, the students, and the council.

J. J. S.
Debate on Manchukuo to be Held

The regular weekly meeting of the Athenaeum Society was held in the English room on the evening of November 15th. Proceeding in the transaction of business, the final tryouts for admission to the society this term were held, and the following members were elected to the organization: D. Dreswicz, C. C. Buech, J. J. Moros, K. Sargent, J. S. Harr, R. Smith, E. S. Sall, L. S. Sall, Jr., and L. J. Madeley.

The speeches given by the new men were all well delivered, making the task of the judges a pleasant one. The topic of Dreswicz's speech was "Defending the use of Diak and Misato," and his "Enemy," Drorow declared that discrimination in politics by the young people of a nation increased "The Public Enemy," Sall. In his speech, "Communication," pictured the life of a student who travels thirty miles each day in order to attend college. Moros's speech, "Youth and War," was a plea for greater participation in politics by the youth of the country. Chapman's speech, "Glorified Gangsters," Sargent's topic, had its Brilliance in the sentiment of the holiday spirit that pervades at home during the holiday season. The "Police Enemy," Sall. In Mr. S. Faivre's speech, "The Duty of the Student," there was an inculcation to the increased strength of the Socialist Party. Seller's speech, "What was the Boston Massacre," indicated the attitude of mind of a man attending a small college in his enthusiasm for the great college away from home. In incidents in a nation, including the way that Freshmen and transfers will affect the college, the speakers were all present.

Last year the team won three out of four times, losing to three rackets, and Walt Adams, holder of the College backstroke record, will be possible to compete in inter-collegiate competition. The last year was marked by the eight scheduled meets of the season. The records were not broken, however, last year, and 1932.

The next meeting of the Lantern Club will be held in the lounge of Cook Hall at 7.30 p.m. after the dinner. The Repertoire for the Impromptu will be "Youth in America," "The Menace," and "The Public Enemy." Sarcia Francis, editor of the Lantern, declared that the students have come to the college in the last days of the century and that the new millennium will bring a new era to the college. Droege declared that both are necessary, and that the students have come to the college in the last days of the century and that the new millennium will bring a new era to the college.

No raw tobaccos in Luckies
— that's why they're so mild

We buy the finest, the very finest tobaccos in all the world—but that does not explain why folks everywhere regard Lucky Strike as the mildest cigarette. The fact is, we never overlook the truth that "Nature in the Raw is Seldom Mild"— so these fine tobaccos, after proper aging and mellowing, are then given the benefit of that Lucky Strike purifying process, described by the words— "It's toasted". That's why folks in every city, town and hamlet say that Luckies are such mild cigarettes.

Dr. Ogilby Represents Trinity at Academic Gathering—Coolidge Attends

On Friday, November 11, Dr. Stanley King was inaugurated as president of Amherst College before a brilliant gathering of Amherst graduates and distinguished guests. The occasion was unusual in that there were present on the platform at the inauguration two ex-Presidents of Amherst, President Meiklejohn and President Pease; and one ex-President of the United States, Calvin Coolidge. Representatives of various colleges were in attendance, Trinity being represented by President Ogilby.

while receiving and Carson recovered for the Sophomores on the Freshman 40-yard line. Weber gained five yards on the next play through tackle, but the yartage was lost when the Sophomores were penalized for backfield in motion. Two rapid first downs followed and Marquet failed twice to round the Freshman end. At this point a "sleepy" pass was completed from Amport to Eigenbauer for a touchdown. The try for the extra point was unsuccessful and the score was 16 to 0 at the end of the third quarter.

The Freshmen received the kick-off that started the last quarter and were unable to do much with the ball, and after a few unsuccessful plays they punted. The kick was blocked and it was the Sophomores' ball on the Freshman 20-yard line. Another "sleepy" pass was completed but was not recognized, as the Sophomore line was off-side. The Sophomores tried to advance the ball but were unable to gain and lost on downs. The Freshmen fumbled and lost the ball on the first play; the fumble was recovered by Weber. The second year-most attempted desperately to score again but the game ended with a 16 to 0 victory for the Sophomores.

The most outstanding play for the Sophomores was done by Maher, Weber, Amport and Eigenbauer in the backfield, and Alexander in the line. The Freshman mainstays were Sinclair and Grant whose clever generalship made the Freshman defeat less ignominious than it might have been.

The lineup:

Sophomores

Freshmen

Pauli RE = Gifford
Kellam ET = Hall
Adams RG = Scott
Alexander C = Hymer
Carroll LG = Moore
Roberts LT = Christensen
Warren LE = Lashchell
Weber QB = Grant
Eigenbauer RHB = Sinclair
Amport LB = Lynch
Maher FB = Tellow

will help them out of the mires in which they have been struggling since the war. The flaws in his policies, Professor Skau feels, are that most of his plans are destructive instead of constructive, and also, if rumors can be credited, that Hitler intends to drop the gold standard, which would cause another inflation of the mark, something dreaded by all Germans.

Von Hindenburg, the president of Germany, is admired as a soldier and cities, towns and hamlets inspired by the infamous Captain Kidd's force raids on the gold-laden Spanish galleons (1696), which made him the scourge of the Spanish Main.
